The river flowed with the light on its breast, And the waves were eddying by; And the round, red sun went down in the West, When my love's loving lips to my lips were prest, Under the evening sky,

Now weeping alone by the river I stray, For my love has left me this many a day; Left me to droop and die.

As the river flowed then, the river flows still, In ripple, and foam, and spray, On by the church, and round by the hill, And under the sluice by the old burnt mill,

And out to the fading day; But I love it no more, for delight grows cold When the song is sung and the tale is told, And heart is given away.

Oh! river, run far! Oh! river, run fast! Oh! weeds float on to the sea! For the sun has gone down on my beautiful past, And the hope, that like bread on the waters I cast,

Have drifted away like thee! So the dream it is fied and the day it is done, And my lips will murmur the name of one Who will never come back to me.

Scraps, Jacis and Jancies.

- The man who lost his balance is said to be studying dentistry—putting teeth in the mouth of the Mississippi. - Physicians advise us to drink less at our meals. Better advice-arink less between meals. - The two neighbors who "fell out," have got in again. Both were somewhat injured. - A vessel made entirely of cork is at Mobile. We suppose it is propelled by a

- If you wish to satisfy yourself as to a man's resources in an emergency, set a dog on him.

- In a battle the fire flashes and is gone, the smoke rises into the air and vanishesthe ashes repose beneath. - What is it we all frequently say we will do, and no one has yet ever done?-"I think I now see a new fee-ture in

- Women are the friezes and carvings around the temple of humanity-the sauce which gives all its sweetness to the dumpling of life.

When a rich man leaves his fortune to charitable institutions he makes "each particular heir to stand on end like quills upon the fretful porcupine."

- "Did the minister put a stamp on you when you were married, Mary?" "A stamp, Charles! What for, pray?" "Why, matches ain't legal without a stamp, you | dor and vendee, would the loss fall. - I have herd a grate deal ced about

"broken hartes," and thare may be a fu ov them, but my experiense is that next tu the gizzard, the harte is the tuffest thing in the whole critter. - "I wonder where those clouds are to have them so short that looping is un-necessary. The effect, however, is not brows, the lion of the crowded salons, to have them so short that looping is unthat of short dresses, for the petticoats are worn long and are ornamented to correspond with the dress.

The latest fashion in dress skirts is adversity and defeat.

er; "you won't feel the pain to-morrow." "Then," answered the little boy, "I won't ery to-morrow."

A fellow out West on being asked whether the liquor he was drinking was a good article, said: "Wall, I don't know, I guess so, there is only one queer thing about it, whenever I wipe my mouth I burn a hole in my coat sleeve."

- To an indigent person, who was perpetually boasting of his ancestry, an in-dustrious, successful tradesman of humble origin observed: "You, my friend, are proud of your descent; I am proud of my

—An artist invited a gentleman to criticise a portrait of a Mr. Smith, who was somewhat addicted to drink. Putting remarkably neat in her person? She will his hand towards it, the artist exclaimed, certainly be an old maid. Is she particu-"Don't touch it, it is not dry." "Then," larly reserved toward the other sex? She said he, "it cannot be like my friend has all the squeamishness of an old maid.

Smith."

an individual who was addicted to it of for an old maid. And if she is kindly huhis friend. "No," was the reply, "provided you whistle the right tune." "What can save her from the appellation of an is that!" was the query. "Over the Hills old maid. In short, I have always found and far away," was the response, with that neatness, modesty, economy and hu-

— A gentleman crossing a narrow tics of that bridge, said to a countryman whom he met: old maid." "I think this narrow causeway must be very dangerous, my honest friend; pray, are not people lost here sometimes?"

eye to the concrete, and who absolutely ever, recommended the application of a ignores the abstract, was awoke by his wife one fine spring morning with the remark, "My dear the day is breaking!" and the effect was very beneficial. Soon when he turned over and replied. "Well, inflamation began to subside, and by keepwell, let it break-let it break; it owes me ing on the bruised beet, and changing it as the Council by ordinance or ordinances hereafnothing."

woman to accompany him in every department of life. The world may be dark and cheerless without-enemies may said an Arkansas lawyer, "that the genwoman, he forgets his cares and troubles, with old Romulus, socked with old Socand is a comparatively happy man. He rates, ripped with old Euripides, and canis but half prepared for the journey of life tered with old Cantharides! but what, who takes not with him that friend who will forsake him in no emergency—who the laws of old Arkansaw? will divide his sorrows-increase his joys sunshine amid the darkest scenes.

Farmers' Tax.

Commissioner of Internal Re-nue at Washington:

First. Farmers will not be required to make return of produce consumed in their give satisfaction, but found it impossible to do so without money or assistance.—

from the gross receipts for animals sold, the purchase money for the same. If animals have been lost during the year by death or robbery, the purchase money paid for such animals may be deducted from the gross income of the farm.

Third. No deduction can be made by the farmer for the value of services ren-actually pays for such services or not.— spent life; and surrounded by his chil-If his adult children work for him and redren's children, she rocks him softly away ceive compensation for their labor, they consumed in the family of the producer, may be deducted.

Fifth. No deduction can be allowed in any case for the cost of unproductive labor. If house servants are employed a portion of the time in productive labor, such as the making of butter and cheese for sale, a proportionate amount of the wages paid them may be deducted.

Sixth. Expenses for ditching and eleaning new land are plainly expenses for permanent improvement, and not deducted. Seventh. The whole amount expended for fertilizers applied during the year to farmer's land may be deducted, but no de-duction is allowed for fertilizers produced on the farm. The cost of seed purchased for sowing and planting may be deducted.

Eightb. If a person sells timber standing, the profits are to be ascertained by estimating the value of the land after the removal of the timber, and from the sum thus obtained deducting the estimated value of the land on the first day of January, 1862, or on day of purchase, if purchased since that date.

Ninth. Where no repairs have been made by the tax-payers upon any building owned by him during the preceding five years, nothing can be deducted for this ease," as the lawyer said when his client informed him that he had plenty of his income is estimated.

Tenth. A farmer should make return of all his produce sold within the year, but a mere executory contract for a sale is not a sale; delivery, either actual or constructive, is essential. The criterion by which to judge whether a sale is complete or not is to determine whether the vendor still retains in that character a right over the property; if the property were lost or destroyed, upon which of the parties, in the absence of any other relation between them than that of the ven-

LEE AND GRANT .- The two men who are, in a certain sense, the representative men of the times, and the embodiment of the types of the two sections-South and North-arc without a doubt Generals Lee and Grant. They are the Sphynx of the age, standing out upon the plain of human going?" sighed Flora, as she pointed with her delicate finger to the heavy masses observation, and towering above their felthat floated in the sky. "I think they are going to thunder!" said her brother. lows. But how differently these great men are regarded in their several sections. - "What makes you look so grum, and how different their sphere of action, Tom?" "Oh, I have to endure a sad trial to my feelings." "What on earth was it?" "Why, I had to tie on a pretty girl's crowned with collegiate honors, reposes in the Valley, and under the shadow of laws for the peace and good commanding applause and plaudits wherever he appears, his name emblazoning every gazette. But of the two, who com-— A little boy running along stubbed mands the greatest amount of love and his toe and fell on the pavement. "Neverneration, and whose military fame will er mind, my little fellow," said a bystand-live the longest after both are dead and dust together?

Reverse their positions, and the situation is the test of merit. Had Grant surrendered to Lee, instead of Lee to Grant, the name of Grant would be of no more significance than that of Smith, and he as unknown to fame, while of Lee to-day is Sounding adown the corridors of time, Linked with sweet music and a grander rhyme. [Lynchburg Virginian.

OLD MAIDS .- A sprightly writer expresses his opinion of old maids in the following manner: "I am inclined to think that many of the satirical aspersions cast upon old maids tell more to their credit than is generally imagined. Is a woman - "Does whistling annoy you?" asked her domestic concerns? She is cut out manity are the never failing characteristics of that terribly abused creature—an WORTH KNOWING .- A young lady while in the country some years ago, stepped "Lost! no, sir, I never knew anybody on a rusty nail which ran through her lost here in my life; there were several shoe and foot. The inflamation and pain drowned, but they were all found again." were of course very great, and lockjaw - A Manchester man with a devoted apprehended. A friend of the family, howfor a fresh one, as its virtue seemed to become impaired, a speedy cure was effected. Simple but effectual remedies like this should be known to every one.

"The court will please to observe."

as the counter by outmander of windmands are reduced and exacted may direct.

X. If the said Marshal, from sickness or any other cause, be unable to perform the duties herein required of him, he shall be required to furnish a proper substitute for the time being, upon pain of the forfeiture of a sum equal to double the amount of his salary while he may be off his du-Domestic Life.—He cannot be a happy and who has not the love and smile of this should be known to every one.

- "The court will please to observe,"

- We know a girl says Punch, so into do she knits her brows.

A GOOD PEOPLE.—The sheriff of Calhoun County, Ala., has resigned because whole country, based upon decisions and the sheriff—the first for giving him which have recently been given to the nothing to do, and he for declining to do it. He says in his letter of resignation:

When I went into the office, I determined to try to make a good sheriff, and Second. The farmer's profits from sales | And now I ask, what else could I do unof live stock are to be found by deducting der these circumstances, but quit sheriffing, go to work, try to make something to pay my debts, and prepare to marry before it is too late?

THE Two LIVES .- Beautiful is old age, beautiful is the slow, drooping, mellow autumn of a rich and glorious summer. In the old man, nature has fulfilled her work; dered by his minor children, whether he she loads him with the fruits of a wellspent life; and surrounded by his chilto a grave to which he is followed with are to be regarded as other hired laborers in determining his income.

Fourth. Money paid for labor, except such as is used or employed in domestic service, or in the production of articles is the symbol; a battle which no peace follows this side of the grave, which the grave gapes to finish before the victory is won; and, strange that it should be so, this is the brightest life of man. Look along the great names of history; there are none whose life has been other than > pleasant to others is to show them attention. The whole world is like the Miller at Mansfield, who cared for nobody-no, not he, because nobody cared for him.— And the whole world would serve you so if you gave them the same cause. Let every one, therefore, see that you do care for them, by showing them the small courtesies, in which there is no parade, whose voice is still to please, and which manifest themselves by tender and affectionate looks and little acts of attention, giving the preference in every little enjoyment at the table, in the field, walking, sitting or standing.

AN ORDINANCE

To PROVIDE FOR THE APPOINTMENT OF A TOWN MARSHAL—THE BEGULATION OF HIS DUTIES—THE CONSTITUTION OF AN ORDINARY POLICE FORCE, AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES.

AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES.

I. Be it ordained by the Town Council of Anderson, That a Marshal be elected by the Council of Anderson, who shall receive a stated salary for his services, which shall not be increased or diminished during his term of office, together with such fees and perquisites as are hereinafter provided, and who shall be required to perform all of the duties, and subject to all the liabilities prescribed by this Ordinance.

II. That the said Marshal shall appoint at least two Assistant Marshals, to be approved by Council, for whose conduct he shall be responsible, and whose wages he shall pay out of his salary here-inafter provided for, and he and his assistants shall constitute a night watch, and the ordinary police for the Town; and it shall be the duty of the said Marshal and his assistants, on every night during their term of service, from sunset to sun-Town, and to see that the several Ordinances now of force, or hereafter to be ordained, for the preservation of the peace, good order and welfare of the Town are properly enforced, by arresting and so disposing of all persons who may be engaged in any disturbance of the peace and good order of the Town, or in the violation of the criminal laws of the State, so as to cause their appearance before Council within the space of twenty-four hours next ensuing, that they may be dealt with accor-

III. That it shall be the duty of the said Marin the Valley, and under the shadow of adversity and defeat.

Grant, the bays of victory about his brows, the lion of the crowded salons, streets, side-walks, shade-trees and fences, and to prevent damage to the public buildings, grounds, streets, side-walks, shade-trees and fences, and to summon before the Council to be dealt with according to law, all persons who shall be guilty of violating any of the Ordinances of the said Town now of force or hereafter to be ordained.

IV. It shall be the duty of the Marshal and his assistants, in anticipation of difficulties for which he or they deem the ordinary police force inadequate to quell, to present the matter to the Chief of the Extraordinary Police force, who, if he deem the exigencies to require it, shall call out his whole force, or so much thereof as in his judgment shall force, or so much thereof as in his judgment shall be necessary to prevent threatened disturbances, or quell existing outbreaks. When this force is thus called out, both the ordinary and the Extraordinary Police shall be under the command of the Chief of Police.

V. It shall be the duty of the Marchel

V. It shall be the duty of the Marshal, or any one of his assistants, in case any disturbances should occur, either in the day or night, in which he shall need assistance, to call upon the leader of the squad of the Extraordinary Police force near-est the point of disturbance, who shall forthwith summon his whole squad to the assistance of the Marshal or his assistants under his direction. If this force be insufficient for the emergency, the said Marshal, or his assistant, shall call upon the leader of other squad or squads, who shall promptly summon his or their squad or squads to the assistance of the ordinary police; but whenever the Extraordinary Police force, or any part thereof, shall be called out, and the Chief of the Police may be present, he shall take command of both the ordinary and Extraordinary Police forces.

VI. The said Marshal, or any one of his assistants, shall have power, if it be necessary to the preservation of the public peace, or the arrest of offenders, to call to their assistance any citizen or citizens of the said Town; any person who shall refuse to go to the aid of the said Marshal, or his assistants, upon demand, may be fined in any sum in discretion of Council, not exceeding twenty dollars for each offence.

VII. It shall be the duty of the said Marshal and his assistants, from nine o'clock at night until and his assistants, from hine o clock at hight until daylight, while on duty, to cry the half hours and hours of the night in an audible and loud voice in whatever part of Town he may chance to be. VIII. It shall be the duty of the said Marshal and of his assistants on duty, to act as leader of the Patrol for the time being, if a Patrol shall be in commission, and to report to Council, upon oath, at the end of the time for which said Patrol may have been appointed to serve, any fault or delinquency that may have occurred on the part of the body, or any member thereof, that they may be dealt with according to law.

IX. That it shall be the duty of the said Marshal and his assistants, to superintend the working of the streets of the Town, under such regulations amount of his salary while he may be off his duty; provided that said Marshal may resign by gather in his path, but when he returns tleman from the East has given them a to the fireside and feels the tender love of very learned speech. He has roamed big duties and those of his assistants he shall be his duties, and those of his assistants, he shall be required to enter into bond, with approved securities, to the Town Council in double the amount of his salary, and for any wilful neglect or failure by the said Marshal, or any one of his assistants, to perform the duties herein prescribed, by being found asleep on duty, or otherwise, he shall be will divide his sorrows—increase his joys—We know a girl says Punch, so in-hift the veil from his heart, and throw dustrious that when she has nothing else each offence for either himself or any one of his

XI. That the salary of the said Marshal shall be at the rate of one thousand dollars ($1,000) per In "Peterson's Philadelphia Counterfeit Detective and Bank Note List," for October, we find the following important information to farmers throughout the whole country, based upon decisions which have recently been given by the people are too lenient to sue each other, and was about to starve to death on the proceeds of the office, which he says are just about nothing at all. We admire the good sense of both the people are too lenient to sue each other, and was about to starve to death on the proceeds of the office, which he says are just about nothing at all. We admire the good sense of both the people are too lenient to sue each other, and was about to starve to death on the proceeds of the office, which he says are just about nothing at all. We admire the good sense of both the people and in addition to said salary, he shall be entitled to receive one half of all fines collected from persons who may be convicted for retailing ardent spirits without a license within the corporation may be entitled, and one half all fines collected under any admire the good sense of both the people are too lenient to sue each other, and was about to starve to death on the proceeds of the office, which he says are just about nothing at all. We admire the good sense of both the people are too lenient to sue each other, and was about to starve to death on the proceeds of the office, which he says are just about nothing at all. We admire the good sense of both the people are too lenient to sue each other, and was about to starve to death on the proceeds of the office, which he says are just about nothing at all. We admire the good sense of both the people are too lenient to sue each other, and was about to starve to death other. ordinance of Council for the suppression of drunkordinance of Council for the suppression of drunkenness, and the unlawful sale or use of ardent' spirits; provided the prosecution of the offender from whom any such fine may be collected shall have been commenced upon information of said Marshal or some one of his assistants; and, also, to one half of all the fines collected under the ordinances for the protection of shade and ornamental trees, and for preventing disturbances and nuisances to the side walks of the several public nuisances to the side walks of the several public streets of the Town; and for serving every sum-mons in writing, and making arrests by virtue of process in writing, which may be directed to the Marshal or his assistants, to such fees as are allowed by law to constables for similar services, when the same may be collected from the delin-linquents or from the State, and not otherwise.

XII. That the said Marshal, for any wilful neglect of duty, mal-practice in office, or other missing the said of t conduct for which he may be subject to be fined by Council, shall, as an additional penalty for any such neglect, mal-practice or misconduct, be liable to have his office declared vacant by the Council in its discretion.

XIII. That in addition to the penalties which may be imposed on the Marshal for the delinquen-cies of his assistants, the said assistants shall be personally liable for any neglect of duty, mal-practice in office, or other misconduct, to be fined or removed from office in the discretion of Council. XIV. That the said Marshal shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, take and subscribe the following oath: "I, A. B., as Marshal of the Town of Anderson, do swear that I will faithfully and diligently, without fear, favo or partiality, to the best of my knowledge and ability, perform all the duties required of me by 'An Ordinance to provide for the appointment of a Town Marshal, the regulation of his duties, the constitution of an ordinary police force, and for the constitution of an ordinary police force, and for SMALL COURTESIES.—I want to tell you other purposes,' and enforce, as far as practicable, all Ordinances of the Town Council of Anderson, secret. The way to make yourself so long as I may continue in office, so help me And each and every Assistant Marshal, before entering upon his duties, shall take and sub-scribe the following oath: "I, C. D., do swear that I will faithfully, to the best of my knowledge and ability, as Assistant Marshal of the Town of Anderson, perform all the duties that may be lawfully required of me by the Marshal, and enforce, to the best of my ability, the provisions of the Ordinances for the 'Appointment of a Town Marshal, &c.,' and all the Ordinances for the preservation of the peace, good order and well-being of the said Town, so long as I may continue in office, so help me God."

XV. That all Ordinances, or parts of Ordinances heretofore enacted repugnant to the provisions of this Ordinance, be and the same are hereby re-Ratified in Council and the seal of the Town affixed thereto, the 18th day of September, A. D., J. SCOTT MURRAY, Intendant.

S. BLECKLEY, Sec. and Treas.

NICKERSON'S HOTEL.

PASSENGERS arriving in Columbia on the different Railroads will find OMNIBUSSES, CAR-RIAGES and BAGGAGE WAG-ONS in readiness to convey them to and from his Hotel, FREE OF CHARGE.

Responsible persons in attendance to receive Checks and Baggage.

T. S. NICKERSON, Proprietor. August 23, 1866

Greenville & Columbia Rail Roa!. GENERAL SUPERINTENDENT'S OFFICE, Columbia, Sept. 12, 1866.

On and after Monday, 17th inst., the Passenger Trains will be run daily, (Sunday's excepted) un-til further notice, as follows:

Leave	Columbia	at	-	-	7	15	a. m.
	Allston.				9	05	16
	Newberry				10	35	8. HL.
	at Abbevi				3	13	p. m.
11	" Ande				5	10	***
44	" Green				5	40	44
Leave	Greenville				6	00	a. m.
	Anderson,		-	-	6	30	44
44	Abbeville,			-	8	35	a. m.
	Newberry				1	20	p. m.
	at Alston		-		2	45	* **
44		nbia,			4	40	44
The b	ridge at Al		eing 1	now	con	nple	ted, pas sengers and freights will be transported without delay. The expense of freights, by the discontin-uance of the wagons and boats, will be largely J. B. LASALLE, Gen'l Supt.

Sept 20, 1866

Schedule over S. C. Railroad. GENERAL SUP'TS OFFICE,

CHARLESTON, S. C., Sept. 19, 1866. ON and after Sunday, September 23, the Passenger Trains of this road will run the following schedule:

AUGUSTA TRAIN. Leave Charleston, 8 p. m. 4.30 a. m. Arrive at Augusta, Leave Augusta, Arrive at Charleston, 1 p. m. COLUMBIA TRAIN.

Leave Charleston, 5.00 a. m. 1.50 p. m. 10.40 a. m. Arrive at Columbia, Leave Columbia, 7.20 p. m. Arrive at Charleston, H. T. PEAKE, Gen'l Sup't. Sept 27, 1866

Schedule over the Blue Ridge Railroad. ON and after Monday the 17th inst., the Trains on the Blue Ridge Railroad will leave Anderson for Pendleton and Walhalla, on Wednesdays and Saturdays, after the arrival of the Greenville &

Columbia Railroad Trains.
Will leave Walhalla on Mondays at 3½ o'clock, a. m., connecting with the down Train of Green-ville & Columbia Railroad. Will leave Walhalla on Wednesdays at 10 o'clock,

W. H. D. GAILLARD, Superintendent B. R. R. R.

Drugs! Drugs!! Drugs!!! THE subscriber would announce to the people of this District that he has on hand a very good assortment of DRUGS AND MEDICINES, which he offers for sale low for cash, at Dr. Webb's corner, Brick Range. Persons wishing any article in my line would do well to call and examine before purchasing elsewhere, as I know that I can make it to their advantage to purchase from me. ISHAM W. TAYLOR.

Notice to Consignees. HEREAFTER goods will not be delivered at this Depot until freight is paid. Parties expecting goods to be delivered per order must deposit money in advance. By order of the Treasurer.

O. H. P. FANT, Agent.

CHARLESTON ADVERTISEMENTS.

SOUTHERN

KING & CASSIDEY. WHOLESALE

DRUGGISTS 151 MEETING SRREET,

(Opposite Charleston Hotel,)

Charleston, S. C. E. D. KING, M. D., North Carolina, J. J. CASSIDEY, " "

ESTABLISHED 1854.

LENGNICK & SELL.

Importers and Wholesale Dealers In MILLINERY, STRAW,

FANCY GOODS, Northeast Corner Meeting and Market Sts.

CHARLESTON, S. C., INVITE the Trade to examine their full and va-

BONNETS & HATS, trimmed and untrimmed, RIBBONS, of all descriptions, FLOWERS, FEATHERS, DRESS CAPS, NETS, VEILS, of newest designs, RUCHES, LACES, CRAPES, SILKS, CORSETS, SKIRTS, &c., &c.

MILLS HOUSE,

Corner Queen and Meeting Sts. Charleston, S. C.

THIS popular and well-known House is now fully open for the reception of visitors, having been re-furnished with new and elegant furniture through-out; and offers to the traveller accommodations and conveniences as a First Class Hotel, not to be equalled by any North or South. The patronage of the travelling public is respectfully solicited. Rates of board, per day, $4.00.

Rates of board per month as may be agreed on JOSEPH PURCELL,

HILBERS HOUSE,

(LATE MRS. DIBBLES'.)

284 KING STREET. Between Wentworth and Hazel Streets-East Side.

Charleston, S. C.

Transient Board-$2.50 per day. Permanent Board--$10 to $15 per week. Special attention paid to the accommoda ion of families and single gentlemen. August 16, 1866

H. L. JEFFERS & CO., FACTORS AND COMMISSION MERCHANTS, 118 EAST BAY, CHARLESTON, S. C.

WILL give prompt attention to the sale of Cotton and other Produce, and to the purchase of Merchandize generally. Will also act as Agents for the sale of Lands situated in any part of the State. The personal attention of the undersigned will be given to the business.
HENRY L. JEFFERS,

WILLIAM H. JEFFERS. THOS. . JEFFERS. Feb 22, 1866

CHARLESTON HOTEL, CHARLESTON, S. C.

THIS popular and well known HOTEL, has been newly furnished throughout by the present pro-prietor, who has been sixteen years connected prietor, who has been with the establishment.

W. WHITE, Proprietor.

GEORGE G. MIXER, Superintendent. CHARLES A. MILLER, Cashier. May 3, 1866 46

PAVILION HOTEL, Corner Meeting and Hasel Streets, CHARLESTON, S. C.

Rates of Board per day, Three Dollars. H. L. BUTTERFIELD, Proprietor. March 22, 1866

W. C. DUKES & CO.,

FACTORS AND COMMISSION MERCHANTS

No. 5 Exchange St., Charleston. T. C. H. DUKES. J. M. DUKES. WM. C. DUKES,

May 17, 1866 J. H. BAGGETT & CO., FACTORS,

10 Accommodation Wharf,

Charleston, S. C.,

GIVE their attention exclusively to the sale of LONG AND SHORT STAPLE COTTON.

Liberal advances made on consignments. Sept 6, 1866

J. S. COLES,

Factor and Forwarding Merchant, 114 Reynolds Street,

Near South Carolina Depot,

Augusta, Georgia. WILL sell COTTON and PRODUCE generally, or receive the same on Storage. Will furnish or purchase planters' supplies. August 2, 1866

BUSINESS CARDS.

MONEY WANTED!

ALL persons indebted to me for work done since June, 1865, are earnestly requested to call and settle. If you cannot pay all, give me at least a portion of your indebtedness, in order that I may do likewise. Those I worked for when there was no money in circulation, will surely pay now. "A word to the wise is sufficient."

JOHN L. ARNOLD.

BUGGIES

HARNESS & SADDLE WORK Of all kinds, executed in the best manner, and upon the same terms.

The patronage of the public is respectfully so-JOHN L. ARNOLD.

FURNISHING STORE.

NEW SPRING AND SUMMER GCODS!

CLOTHS and Cassimeres, of every quality; Linens, of all grades; Shirts: Collars, paper and linen; Cravats, Scarfs and Neck Ties, in great variety; Silk, Linen, Cambric and Cotton Handkerchiefs; Hosiery; Gloves—white and colored Kids, Dogskins, Silk and Lisle. Black Felt Hats, of the latest style and best quality. A full assortment of Suits put up according to the latest fashons, and at fair prices. Cutting promptly atten-

Z. SHARPE, BOOT & SHOE MAKER,

No. 5 Granite Row, Up Stairs.

BEING prepared to execute all work in the BOOT and SHOE LINE with neatness and dispatch, the undersigned respectfully solicits a share of public patronage. With experienced workmen, well-se-lected stock, and close attention to business, he hopes to merit the continuace of favors from former customers and the public generally.

Repairing done at the shortest notice, and in the neatest workmanlike manner.

Z. SHARPE,

July 12, 1866

W. K. Harris,

WATCHMAKER.

REPAIRED and Warranted for Twelve Months, at prices to suit the hard times and scarcity of money.

Work-Shop on Public Square, west end
MASONIC BUILDING, Anderson, C. H., S. C.

Leavell & White

derson, and are able to put up all varieties of Tomb Stones at fair prices. Terms Cash. Pro-duce of all kinds taken at the market price. Call and see me at the store of Clark & White. LEAVELL & WHITE.

DAVIS, DEAL & CO.,

LAW NOTICE.

THE undersigned informs his old friends and cliship with Gen. S. McGowan, of Abbeville, in all JOHN B. MOORE.
Anderson C. H , April 5, 1866 42 1y

Wholesale and Retail Dealers In

HARDWARE, &c.

Scottsville, Virginia,

Anderson C. H., S: C. ALL business intrusted to his care will receive

BIBLES AND TESTAMENTS.

A LARGE supply of Bibles and Testaments for sale and distribution. Never need be without the Word of God. Call at No. 4 Granite Row.

A. B. TOWERS, Secretary of Anderson Dist. Bible Society.

Neatly Painted and Trimmed At moderate prices for CASH OR PRODUCE:

Shop near the old Livery Stable of H. B. & J. L. Arnold.

Clark & White's

Tailors Trimmings, of the best material.

Call and examine our Stock at No. 6 Granite tow.

CLARK & WHITE,
Fashionable Furnishing Store. April 19, 1866

No. 5 Granite Row, Up Stairs.

Watches and Clocks

MARBLE YARD.

HAVE again opened the Marble business at An-

Nov 9, 1865

BRICK RANGE, NEX DOOR ABOVE THE POST OFFICE, anderson C. H., S. C., HAVE constantly on hand a well selected Stock of Drugs, Patent Medicines, Paints, Oils, Glass, Dye Stuffs, Trusses, Toilet Articles, &c. Physicians' Prescriptions accurately pre-

August 23, 1866 J. D. M. DOBBINS,

ANDERSON, S. C. THE copartnership heretofore existing under the name and style of Dobbins & McGee is this day dissolved by mutual consent. The business will be continued by J. D. M. Dobbins at the old stand, No. 1 Brick Range. All business entrusted to his ents that he has returned to the practice of his profession, and that he has formed a copartner-State and litigated civil cases, and hopes by promptness and unremitting industry to deserve that support which was so liberally given him at the commencement of his professional career.

ANDERSON, C. H., S. C.

Fire and Inland Insurances made on libe-All losses paid promptly.
A. B. TOWERS, Agent,

J. SCOTT MURRAY,

prompt attention. Office in the rooms formerly occupied as the Enrolling Office.

Jan 11, 1866
30

Oct 4, 1866 16

Auction and Commission erclart, care will receive prompt attention, and the patronage of the public is respectfully solicited.

June 7, 1866 51

BEWLEY, KEESE & CO., Dry Goods, Groceries,

JEFFERSON INSURANCE COMPANY,

No. 4 Granite Row, Anderson C. H., S. C.

Attorney at Law and Solicitor in Equity,