FISHER & LOWRANCE.

We call the attention of our citizens generally, and the farming interest especially, to the advertisement of these gentlemen in another column. This old and established firm needs no recommendation to the confidence of our people, and if our farmers will let their wants be known, they will take pleasure in recommending only such machines as are known to be perfectly reliable and successful. When labor is so scarce and unreliable, we think it important that the farmers should avail themselves of such machines as are being used with so much success in different portions, and especially in the Western part of our country.

THE ELECTION.

The total vote throughout this State, says the Charleston Courier of Saturday, with still incomplete returns from six Districts, was reported vesterday as 98,824, of which 68,891 were "for constitution," and 24,933 "against constitution," giving a majority for the constitution of 43,648. The total registration of voters up to the 31st of March, which does not include the last revision, was 127,550, of which there were 47,171 whites and 80,379 blacks.

Official returns from twenty Districts are published, showing a majority of 40,000 in favor of the constitution.

DEMOCRATIC CLUBS.

We are gratified to learn that several Democratic clubs have been recently organized in different sections of the District, and that much enthusiasm prevails in regard to their formation. The pro ceedings at Belton are published to-day, and also the second meeting of the Greenwood club, at which several more negroes united. Pendleton treatment of convicts, preferred against Thomas the second meeting of the Greenwood club, at and other localities are moving, and we presume will report their action whenever properly organ-

The influence of organization has already improved the condition of affairs throughout the State, and must vet accomplish a great work in redeeming the people from the incubus of inactivity, and dissipating the evil effects of Radicalism among the unfortunate and deluded negroes. Prompt and energetic measures will bring about thorough reaction, even among the oath-bound Leaguers. Let us "carry the war into Africa," and make these graceless scamps, who are seeking to ride into power on the shoulders of the ignorant negro, hide themselves from the indignation of all law-abiding vigilant, active and persevering.

BLUE RIDGE RAILROAD.

We publish elsewhere the report of a spirited meeting at Franklin, Macon county, N. C. We learn that the feeling there and in adjoining counties is enthusiastic in favor of the Road, and that large and liberal subscriptions of land will be promptly made. At this meeting a large amount was immediately subscribed, and committees appointed to canvass the county thoroughly.

To the people of Rabun, Franklin, Cherokee and Jackson counties, we would say that much depends upon their prompt and efficient action. THE MEETING TO NOMINATE CANDIDATES

According to previous announcement, a mass meeting of the conservative citizens of Anderson District was held in the Court House on Monday jast, for the purpose of selecting candidates for the several District offices. The meeting was largely attended, every beat company in the District being represented. The committee appointed to select candidates from the various nominees consisted of thirty-four gentlemen, representing every section of the District, and embracing persons of intelligence and influence in their respective communities, supposed to be conversant with the wishes of the people generally. The choice of this committee was unanimously confirmed by the meeting, and the candidates go before the people with the unqualified approbation of the persons there assembled. The influence of those present will undoubtedly be accorded to the nominees, and will have much weight in preventing any division among the conservative voters. It would be extremely unfortunate and disastrous to the party, if dissensions should arise, and we would earnestly implore the co-operation of every man having the welfare of the District at heart to sacrifice private ambition or personal prejudice, if any such exists, for the sake of unity and harmony .-As the presiding officer of the meeting, Dr. BROYLES, remarked in his opening address, "We must win, because we cannot afford to lose."

We would respectfully suggest that meetings be held in every neighborhood, for the purpose of ratifying the nominations made, that we may present a bold and united front. We will take pleasure in publishing the proceedings of any such meetings whenever forwarded.

As a matter of interest to the people, we would state that the office of Tax Collector is not provided for in the constitution, and it is presumed that the Legislature must make some provision respecting that office before an election will be held .-Hence it was not deemed advisable that any nomination should be made at present. The subject was fully discussed, as we understand, by the nominating committee, and afterwards in the meeting, and the conclusion reached as above indicated.

THE RIGHT OF SUFFRAGE UNDER THE NEW

We publish to-day an article from the Greenville Enterprise on this subject, assuming the position that the new Constitution of this State does not disfranchise any one, except for crime. The various sections of the constitution and the proposed amendment to the constitution of the United States are quoted to sustain this position, and we think our excellent cotemporary fully demonstrates the correctness of the proposition, that no one is prohibited the right of suffrage by reason of having participated in the late war. Under the Reconstruction Acts, it will be remembered, disfranchisement extends to all persons who, prior to the war, held office requiring an oath to support the Constitution of the United States and afterwards "engaged in the rebellion." Both acts were requisite to deprive any one of the elective franchise .-Either one was not sufficient, but under the laws of the several Southern States, almost every officer was required to subscribe the oath aforesaid, and hence the extensive disfranchisement. It may be remarked, in this connection, that the practice in the Northern States was different, and only the most important officers were required to swear allegiance to the constitution of the United States. At least, such information is based upon high authority, and that the majority in Congress never contemplated the disfranchisement of every man holding an insignificant office before the war. Be this as it may, the result has prevented many intelligent citizens from voting in the recent elections, and has virtually given the power in some localities This question has been propounded in every to ignorant and vicious men. If this state of things is not perpetuated under the new constitutian, and citizens have felt unauthorized to engage in polities while under the ban of political proscription. Their hands may now be unfettered, and with their will tene aingles soul splen reade and less experienced brethren, they can enter upon the M. E. Mitchell and G. B. Telford, Esq. work of redeeming even South Carolina from the thraldom of ignorance and misrule.

An advertisement of the South Carolina Railroad Company, offering business tickets to travel on their road at twenty-five dollars for one thousand miles, has been published for some weeks past in and well-disposed citizens. The reign of such all the city papers, but it is feared that the libermen can last only for a brief season, if we are but ality and advantage of the offer have not been fully appreciated. Twenty-five dollars for one thousand miles is only two and-a-half cents a mile, instead of six cents the usual charge for way passengers. By the use of this ticket, a merchant living one hundred miles from Charleston, and who is in the habit of going to Charleston, five times a year, at moved indefinite postponement. Sumner said, an expense for railroad fare of sixty dollars, could come twelve times for the same money. The importance of this saving need scarcely be explained to business men familiar with the advantage of a proceed at 12 o'clock of the day after the argufrequent renewal of their stock.

WASHINGTON, April 25. It is Gen. J. M. Schofield, Commanding the First Military District, whom the President has nominated as Secretary of War.

Gen Schofield's nomination causes various spec ulations. First-as an olive branch held out to conservative Senators ; second-a compromise between Johnson and Grant : but the affair is still : State secret. Johnson appears not to have consulted even his cabinet about the nomination.

Objection being made, the matter goes over to Monday .-Several Senators made points, that these new issues would come into the Senate, where interminable debate is allowable, postponing the result indefinitely. FRANKLIN, N. C., April 22, 1868. Our quiet little village was taken by surprise on Monday last, by the announcement that there would be an address at the Court House next day, (Tuesday.) by the President of the Blue Ridge Railroad, who would suggest a practicable plan for resuming work on the same at an early day At the appointed time and place, a large audience assembled, when, on motion of W. L. Love, Esq., Col. A. T. Davidson was called to the Chair, and J. D. Franks requested to act as Secretary. The Chairman, in a few appropriate remarks, explained the object of the meeting, and introduced General Harrison to the assemblage, who gave us in brief the history of the Road, its present condition, a statement of its finances, and his plans and prospects for an early resumption of work, showing clearly that, by co-operation, the Road can be built at an early day, and concluding with an earnest and well-spoken appeal to the people of Macon county to embark in the enterprise. The President of the Road was followed in advocacy of his plan or propositions, by Gen. R. M. Henry, W. L. Love, Esq., and others. Much interest was evinsed by the audience in behalf of the Road, and the following resolutions being offered, were, or motion, unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we have heard with great pleasure that the prospects for resuming the work on the Blue Ridge Railroad are brightening, and that this important enterprise, so vital to the interests of the citizens of the County, has not been abandoned, but will be pushed forward to completion.

Resolved, That we, as citizens of Macon County, do heartily approve of the plan for increasing the capital stock of said Company by donations and ubscriptions of land, and earnestly recommend all landholders along the line to promptly and lib-erally respond to the call of the President and Di-

Resolved, That a Committee of two from each recinct be appointed by the Chairman to solicit subscriptions from the landholders along the line. On motion, the thanks of the meeting were tendered Gen. Harrison for his lucid and forcible address, and the interest he manifested in behalf of ur Railroad.

On motion of W. H. Higslan, Esq., it was ordered that the proceedings of this meeting be forwarded to the Anderson Intelligencer and Keowee Courier for publication, with a request that all other papers friendly to the Blue Ridge Railroad be requested to copy.

REOVER MR. EDITOR: It is well known to you and to many of your readers, no doubt, that the culture of clover in this country has heretofore been considered unprofitable-it having been unsuccessfully attempted by many of our best farmers-and who have settled down upon the opinion that, as the seil here is not naturally adapted to its growth, that it would be a waste of time and money to make repeated efforts. But to such as doubt, and to those who would be delighted to see it growing here in all the luxuriance and beauty which attends its growth in Virginia, Kentucky and Tennessee. I would refer them to the farm of our most estimable fellow-citizen, Maj. T. H. It would be of interest, no doubt, to many of our farmers to know how this success has been attained. But as knowledge is most highly prized when it costs us something, it would probably be best to refer those who desire to learn to those who are better able to teach. The process however is simple, and the profits by far exceed the cost.
