

Special Notices.

A CARD.

The undersigned begs leave to return his sincerest thanks to the citizens generally for their prompt and efficient aid rendered on the morning of the 8th inst., in subduing the fire at his residence, and preventing the loss of his dwelling-house, which was in imminent danger, and only saved by the exertions of those present.

Respectfully, W. S. KEESE. July 15, 1868

To the Democratic Clubs of Anderson District.

In compliance with the suggestions of a resolution of the "Flat Rock Club," and from various quarters, I hereby invite the Clubs of the District to meet this Club in consultation on Saturday, July 18th, at 3 p. m.

A full attendance is earnestly requested, as the object of the meeting is the formation of a District Central Club.

O. R. BROYLES, President Anderson Club. Anderson C. H., June 29, 1868.
