THESE TIES AND BANDS are made of the best wrought iron, and have been fairly tested and approved by the cotton pressers in all the principal sea ports, and by planters in all the cotton growing States. The advantage of baling cotton with iron is now generally acknowledged, and it is recommended by boat and ship-owners and insurance companies. It costs less, makes a more compact bale, and gives greater security than rope. For sale by KEESE & McCULLY, Anderson C. H., S. C. Sept 16, 1868 13
