METHODIST DISTRICT MEETING.

At our request, the Secretary of this body has obligingly furnished the readers of this paper with a synopsis of the proceedings. We attended the meeting on several occasions, and can testify to the earnestness and interest manifested by the delegates and visitors. The church was crowded nightly with serious and attentive congregations, and many souls have been led to enquire the way of salvation. Nine persons have connected themselves with the church, and the services are continued at night, with preaching from such minis ters as were enabled to remain over to aid the

THE CENSUS .-- A CORRECTION.

The Commissioner of Agriculture, Mr. HENRY SARNICE, in a communication to the Phanix, makes a correction of an article in our last issue relative to the enumeration of the inhabitants of this State. and in justice to him and his officials, we give place to his correction. Since Mr. SPABNICK's card was put in type, we have received a communication on the subject, signed by the Census Taker of this County, but which it is unnecessary to publish, as the correction is more fully made by the head of the Agricultural Bureau. We had no intention of doing injustice to any one, and the article in our last issue was based upon what we deemed reliable information, not having examined the blanks specially for that purpose.

THE REPUDIATION MOVEMENT.

It seems that the action of the meeting held in Union last saleday does not meet with much favor among the newspaper fraternity. Many of the presses are entirely silept on the subject; others content themselves with re-printing the opinions set forth by the Union Times and Charleston News espousing the movement; still others make bold to decry the whole thing, and pronounce agains what would be a suicidal policy, to say the least. Among the latter, we observe that the Abbeville Press ranks foremost in its opposition to the scheme, having argued the points involved at greater length and with its usual ability. The Fairfield H rald pronounces the move ill timed, and agrees with us that it comes with bad grace from Union. The Yorkville Enquirer dissents from the project as ruinous and impracticable, and perhaps others have argued to the same general purpose. Hence, it is now concluded that the whole affair must fall to the ground, and this is admitted by the Charleston News, which admonishes the people that they must rely for protection "upon the success of their efforts to effect the speedy overthrow of Radicalism at the polls." This is a wise and reasonable conclusion, and for the sake o the Democratic party in this State, we trust that such chamerical projects will henceforth be ignored.

DISTRESSING CASUALTY.

We have received a letter from our esteemed friend, Maj. GEORGE SEABORN, giving the particulars of a distressing and fatal accident which occurred at the Pendleton Factory on Saturday last, resulting in the death of Mrs. McDow, an estimable widow lady of that neighborhood. The fo.lowing embraces the particulars;

"Mrs. McDow came to the Factory to have some wool carded, and from curiosity or other motive, went in front of the machinery, and putting her hand and arm too near the wool cylinder, the sleeve of her dress was caught, pulling her into the machine, and resulting in her arm being broken and mangled in a most distressing manner. The body was thrown over on the left of the ma chine from her position when caught. The accident happened about two o'clock p. m. The proprietor, Mr. WM PERRY, had just left the Factory. and on being sent for, hastened to her assistance. removed her to his residence, and sent to Pendleton for physicians. Drs. PICKENS and SLOAN re sponded promptly, and found Mrs. McDow very much exhausted, so much so that they declined to amputate the limb until reaction should take place. They applied restoratives without effect-professional skill and the most devoted attention availed not, and after four hours of great suffering, death closed the scene. Her son reached her bedside a few minutes before she died."

The card of Capt. A. B. MULLIGAN, of Charleston, is published in our columns to-day. The Capt. is a gallant ex-Confederate, and is perhops well known to many of our readers. He has been engaged in business for a number of years, and with experience, energy and industry, deserves well at the hands of the public. His card shows that he is engaged in the Cotton Factorage and General Commission Business, embracing the sale of all kinds of staple produce; and he will also give particular attention to the purchase and forwarding of merchandize, mashinery, agricultural implements, seeds, manures, &c.

We have received from Messrs. Smith & Hover, of Pendleton, a superior "long-handled" Broom, of their own manufactuer. These gentlemen have recently established a Broom Factory, and we are assured by merchants that the prices and quality of these brooms are equal in every respect to those purchased at the North. We hail with gratification this evidence of enterprise, and trust the propriefors will be abundantly rewarded. occurred before on American soil,

THE AIR LINE RAILROAD.

We are gratified to know that at least some in erest has been awakened in this enterprise, and that it has assumed a tangible form. A number of gentlemen have signed a call for a public meeting of the citizens of Anderson county, to be held in the Court House on Tuesday next, 28th chusetts. instant, and we sincerely hope that the meeting will be largely attended by the farmers and capitalists of this county. If we want the Air Line Railroad, the necessity is imperative to put our shoulders to the wheel, and convince the Compaweek and discharge their indebtedness. The ny that we are in earnest. It will not do for the people of Anderson to console themselves with the reflection that this is the most direct route ed patiently, in view of the necessity for them to and the Road will be built through here without use their money for other purposes, and we trust material aid from its citizens. The people of Oconce and Pickens are moving, and it is highly ty will subscribe $200,000 to the Road, with the are notified that the demands against them must simple condition that the track shall be laid with in two miles of the commercial centres of those counties. Is not Anderson abundantly able to offset this action by a similar subscription? The Oconee county by Mr. JAMES ZACHARY, has been amended charter of the Road authorizes counties and towns interested in its construction to subscribe to the capital stock, and under this provision of the charter a liberal subscription ought to Mr. S FRANK McConnell has sent to this be made, in order that the Company might be office a bottle of choice syrup, made from Sorghum induced to adhere to the original route through Anderson, and from thence direct to Charlotte. The County Commissioners are likewise authorized to act in the premises, and we presume that will be to request that the Board will order an election on the question, whether or not they shall subscribe a certain amount of stock by giving the bonds of the county, with a proviso that the Road be located and built within a convienient distance of the Court House. In our judg ment, it would be wise policy for the county to take whatever stock will be necessary to grade the Road from Savannah River to this point, and that private subscriptions of land and money should be made to that extent as will insure its completion to the farthest point of our territory. But first let us secure the location here, and we toward its eastern terminus. As a matter of interest in this connection, we will state that the grading for the first twenty miles of the Air Line Road is nearly ready for the rails. The locomotive, cars and iron have of the 14th inst. probably reached Atlanta by this time, and the work of laying the rails will be commenced at once and continued until the whole twenty miles is completed The contract for grading the road to Gainesville will be let out in a few days, and from that point the location of the Road will be determined by the action of the people on this end of the line. It is absolutely necessary, therefore, that there be no delay, if we would have a voice in settling this question.

LUTERATURE IN THE SOUTE.

All Southern men and women with the proper feelings of self-respect, should be deeply interested in the efforts which are now being made throughout the South to develop her native literary talent, and to build up literature, through which her past history shall be vindicated from all the obloquy which is now being heaped upon it, and whereby Southern thought and Southern civilization shall be adequately represented in the arena of the modern world. But strange as it may ap pear, there prevail a remarkable apathy and indifference on the part of the great mass of the population to all literary projects, which can scarcely be accounted for on grounds creditable to Southern character. The editors of the South, as a body, have perhaps done what they could to dis- SYNOPSIS OF THE PROCEEDINGS OF THE pel this indifference, and to arouse the people to liberty to their children.

The New Eclectic Magazine, which has now been in existence for three years, and with which has recently been incorporated The Land We Love, stands at the head of the list of Southern publications. At this period of the year, when persons are in the habit of choosing their periodicals for the winter, it is especially requested of the Public that they bestow a part at least of their patronage upon a periodical published in their interest, and which, the Southern and Northern press both being judges, is the peer of any magazine published in America, - both in its literary standard and the quality and attractiveness of its typography.

SOUTH CAROLINA UNIVERSITY.

We learn from the Columbia Phoeniz that Dr. A. G. MACKEY has been elected Professor of Natural and Mechanical Philosophy and Astronomy; JOSEPH A. JONES, of Georgia, Professor of Chemistry; T. E. HEART, Esq., of Darlington, Profesor of Mathematics; and Dr. John Lynch, of Columbia, Demonstrator of Anatomy. Our cotem-porary makes the following comments: Dr. Mackey is well known in this State. His correspondence with Bowen, to say nothing of his previous elegant efforts, shows a command of language that may be well in a professor; but, be ore this, we were not aware that he aspired to natural and mechanical philosophy and astrono my. We suppose the idea of the Board was that his election would, at best, make the University 'see stars' from the telling blow it gets in his election to a chair in that seat of learning. METHODIST DISTRICT MEETING.

The Greenville District Meeting of the South prise, if they wish to preserve inviolate the sacred | Carolina Conference has just held its annual seshonor of their dead, and to bequeath a heritage of sion at Anderson Village. Its deliberations were presided over by Bishop Wm. M. Wightman, in the Methodist Church, and the large crowds that attended the discussions upon various subjects in connection with the church, evinced a lively and continued interest in the same.

The meeting was preceded by a sermon from Rev. J. M. Carlisle, on the evening of the 15th. There was preaching every night by various ministers, and the pulpits of the Baptist and Presbyterian churches having been kindly tendered by those denominations, were used on the Sabbath. The Bishop preached twice during the meeting, and made several addresses from the chair upon topics connected with the interests of the church. Upwards of 50 delegates were in attendance, representing 69 churches, within the countres of Greenville, Anderson, Pickens, and a part of Spartanburg, the membership of the same being

Rev. Samuel Leard, agent for Sunday Schools ; Rev. Wm. Martin, agent for the Washington Street Church, Columbia; Rev. S. B. Jones, President of Spartanburg Female College; Professor Lester, from Wolford College, were present as visiting brethren. Father Derrick, one of the oldest and most venerable ministers of our Conference, cheered the hearts of his younger brethren by his allusions to the past, and the words of hope for the future. He conducted the love feast on tures of the meeting. The utmost harmony prevailed throughout, and the meeting closed on Sabbath with a delightful revival of religion still in continuance. The last resolution passed by the District Meeting was their expression of pleasure at the kind hospitality extended to them by the citizens of Anderson and vicinity.

The next District Meeting will be held at Williamston, S. C.

PATAL AND TERRIBLE ACCIDENT ON THE BUTH CARULINA. RAILHOAD

The Columbia Phanix of last Sunday gives the following particulars of a frightful accident on the South Carolina Railroad :

We are pained to record a most terrible accident, which occurred to the night express train over the South Carolina Railroad, yesterday morning. A large tree had fallen across the track and broken down a portion of the long trestle which crosses Congaree swamp, a short distance below Kingville; and as it was not observed by the engineer, owing three-story brick building on the north side of the to the darkness and mist, the locomotive ran into the gap, and together with a number of treight cars, was precipitated to the ground. In a few minutes, it was found that fire had been communicated to but his charred remains being recovered; the fireman, Mr. J. Gilbert, was instantly killed; another - The details of the great calamity in Pennsyl- fireman, Mr. Charles II. Burns, was badly burnt; but was taken to his home in Charleston. come general. Through the presence of mind of Conductor W. H. Evans, (of whom the passengers speak in the highest terms.) aided by Messrs. W. D. Peck, J. W. Perkins and others, the conductor's and the passenger's coaches were uncoupled and run back-thus preventing a fearful loss of life. An attempt was made to save the baggage, by smashing in the car with coupling-pins-the only implements obtainable-which was partially successful, and a number of trunks were rescued; but a majority of the passengers lost their bag-gage. The mails were saved. The express messenger, Mr. Thomas H. Symmes, worked energetically, and succeeded in saving all his money packages, with the exception of $120; but his freight was all lost. Messrs. James Maguire and Wm. Lyles (train hands) are entitled to great credit for their earnest and energetic efforts during the whole of the trying scene. The loss of the rail-road company will exceed $100,000. The train had been behind time, but when the accident occurred, was running very slowly. The locomotive —the W. C. Dukes—was a perfect wreck.

The scene, as described by eye witnesses, was horrible in the extreme, and strong men shed tears at the sight, and at their inability to assist the unfortunate engineer, who was caught in the machinery of the broken engine, and was burnt to death before the eyes of the assembled passengers. Mr Hargroves was perfectly cool and collected; and although occasionally his painful situation forced from him a shriek, he was yet thoughtful of others, and warned several parties, who attempted to release him, of the danger they incurred, and at the same time informing them of the impossibility of rendering him any aid. He called to a friend, (although at the time the fire had burnt his hair off completely, and the lever which lay across his body had forced out his entrails,) and gave him a message to his wife; he then folded his arms across his breast, and there they remained until the left arm was completely burnt off. The fire man, Mr. Gilbert, was instantly killed-being crushed under the immense mass.

IMPORTANT CIRCULAR FROM THE NEW-BERRY IMMIGRATION SOCIETY.

The Immigration Society of Newberry South Carolina, is prepared to furnish the country with field laborers and mechanics; requiring their travelling expenses, &c., to be paid in advance, and desiring recommendations from such persons as are unknown to the society. Single female servants cannot be obtained. The society can promise with certainty to fill, between the 15th of November, 1869, and the 15th of March, 1870, only the first 500 orders, therefore it behooves those who really desire to obtain laborers to send their orders as soon as possible.

The money, to be advanced, which must, without fail, accompany the order, is twenty-five dol-lars for a single laborer, and sixty dollars for a

The actual expenses of traveling from New York to any point on the South Carolina and Greenville and Columbia Railroads—sixteen dollars for a grown person, and eight dollars for children between three and twelve years old, (nothing for children under three years)-will be paid from the wages of the immigrant.

The society will charge, for contingent expenses, four dollars for a single laborer, and six dol lars for a family. Besides this, the society will set aside from the money advanced five dollars from each order-whether for a single laborer of family-to establish a fund to secure from loss, resulting from failure of the immigrant to embark, after his passage has been paid, &c. This fund is also for the purpose of reimbursing any employer who can satisfactorily show that a laborer has left him before he could refund the money prepaid for his traveling expenses. The contribution for contingent expenses is not included in this fund. Any amount of the fund remaining at the end of the year 1870, will be returned to employers in proportion to what they have paid. The contingent extenses and the contribution for the fund against losses, which the society might sustain, must be paid by the employer and not be deducted from the wages of the employee.

If the society fails to fill an order, it will return he money advanced, deducting only the postage. The society has appointed a rents only at Char eston, Columbia and Newberry; if however, the order desires immigrants to be forwarded to other points, he must appoint some one at such place to take charge of them, and the name of such person must be communicated to the subscriber. The society pays the traveling expenses only to the South Carolina and Greenville and Columbia Railroads, and will not be responsible for expenses incurred on other railroads.

Upon the arrival of the immigrant, the society will make out a bill of all expenses the person ordering for settlement.

The wages of the immigrants will be fixed as follows, unless the laborer consents to a reduction : FIELD LABORERS.

1st. Single laborer-$10 monthly, with board, lodging and washing. (Not required to do his own cooking)

2d Families—For a man $10 monthly; for working woman $5, with provisions. The employer can either have the cooking done, or he can give them rations and allow the wife time to cook. The following rations have been proven by last year's experience to be sufficient for a man : Six quarts corn meal, three and a half pounds wheat our, three and a half pounds meat, half pound coffee, one and a half quarts molasses a week, and some milk daily. For a woman: Four quarts corn meal, two pounds meat, half pound coffee, one meat, two pounds meat, nair pound coirce, one quart malasses a week and some milk daily.

Should the employer prefer giving the family money with which to procure provisions, the amount fixed upon is about six dollars and fifty cents a month for a man, and four dollars for woman, with a small garden, which must be work ed only in spare time.

Children, capable of work, must be paid accor ding to their services; and the wages must be ar MECHANICS.

All persons desiring mechanics must define what wages and conditions they are willing to enter in-to with employees.

Unless differently expressed in the order, all immigrants will consider themselves engaged until Christmas, 1870 The immigrant, in cases of disagreement with his employer, shall always be allowed to make his appeal to the society, which, it the complaint is vell founded and cannot be adjusted, will proceed to obtain him another place.

Employers would do well not to excite expecta

It is advisable, the society thinks, to place the laborer at the very commencement of his service upon the very work he is to do, and to see that he does it properly. This would do much towards securing a good and faithful laborer,
