BREAD, RICE, COTTON.

THE undersigned offers for sale a Tract of Land, in Oconee county, containing 500 acres, located on both sides of Seneca creek, one mile west of Fort Hill bridge across the Seneca river, (Mr. Ravenel's), 1 1/2 miles from Hunicutt's Crossing on B. R. R., and including 100 acres of prime bottom land by measure. Come and see for yourselves, and in so doing you will not be disappointed.

Let me give one fact that I have had from the oldest citizens of this county, that there has never been a scarcity of bread known in it. In 1845, when the whole State was destroyed by drought, and Greenville and Spartanburg had to move off their inhabitants, the crops were full in Oconee. Come to Perryville, and I will show you land with corn on it as good as you ever saw.
