

SOMETHING FOR MOTHERS.—One of the most novel and instructive volumes for the use of children that has been published for a long time is "Wisdom Teeth for Little People," by Mrs. F. G. de Fontaine, a unique but expressive title of a careful compilation of a large number of facts with which every child should become acquainted as soon as he can talk. Every mother and primary school teacher will find their labors lessened, and pride in the progress of their pupils gratified by this little educational biou. The price is sixty cents, and it may be ordered through the bookstores from the publishers, E. J. Hale & Co., 17 Murray street, New York.

How We Used to be Physicked.
Who does not remember the time when spring purgation was considered indispensable to summer health? No matter for why faces, the inevitable salts and senna, rhubarb, or calomel and jalap, must be administered. These "spring medicines," the youngest were told, were to keep them hale and hearty during the summer. We all know now that this was a fallacy; that new vigor, not depletion, is what is required at the commencement of the summer solstice. As a preparation for the enervating effects of oppressive summer weather, a course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is highly expedient. This famous vegetable preparation has three prominent properties: It renovates, purifies, and regulates all the functions of the body. It is composed exclusively of pure vegetable productions, viz: the essential principle of Monogelina Rye, and the most efficacious tonic and alterative roots, barks, and gums known to medical botanists. Hence, it is an absolutely safe medicine, and no tincture of the Pharmacopoeia can compare with it either in purity, or in the variety of its objects, and its comprehensive results. Happily for mankind, the theory that it was necessary to prostrate a patient in order to cure him, is forever exploded, and the true philosophical doctrine, that vigor is one great antagonist of disease, has taken its place. Hostetter's Bitters is an invigorant, and hence it is the proper medicine for the feeble at this most trying season of the year. Be sure that you obtain the genuine article, as there are innumerable vile imitations in the market. Look to the ornamental stamp, the engraved label, and the name blown into the glass.—Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is sold in bottles only.

"The Life of the Flesh is the Blood."
This being the fact, it is very obvious that when the blood becomes corrupted the whole system becomes corrupt also. To relieve this, the true policy undoubtedly is to direct the remedy to the source of the disease. It is in this manner that Dr. Tut's Sarsaparilla and Queen's Delight acts. Its specific effect is on the blood; it purifies it, vitalizes it, and expels all dregs from the system. Being free from violent minerals, it is adapted to general use. The old and young may use it; the most delicate female, at any time, may take it; the weak and enfeebled will be strengthened by it; the tender infant, who may have inherited disease, will be cured by it. For Syphilis, and all its trains of evils, it is a sure antidote.
Dr. Tut's Liver Pills are a mild and gentle purgative, possessing the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving congestive or torpid liver. They have no equal.

Dr. Tut's Hair Dye Imparts a Glossy Color.
DR. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY.—$500 reward for an incurable case. Sold by Druggists at 50 cents.

Lasting Loveliness.—Twenty years ago, when paint, pearl powder and enamel, were ruining the complexion and destroying the health of women of fashion, Hagan's Magnolia Health was brought out as a pure botanical cosmetic, guaranteed to restore bloom and beauty to the skin. From that time to the present it has been continually rising in public estimation as the safest and most reliable preparation of its class. Instead of producing an artificial, metallic surface, like the deadly enamels, or wilting the cuticle like the poisonous fluids sold under various names as "beautifiers," it keeps the skin as soft as velvet, renders it as smooth and glossy as satin, and imparts to it that delicate, rosy tinge, which is the best sign of complexional loveliness. This exquisite chromatic effect is not transient. By applying the Balm daily it may be prolonged from youth to age. A lady who purchased the first bottle of the article nineteen years ago, writes to say she is more brilliant than forty is "purer, rarer and more brilliant than it has ever been," and she attributes its beauty solely to the daily use of Hagan's Magnolia Balm.

WHOSE HANDSOME HOUSE IS THAT?—Such was the inquiry of a traveler as he passed an unusually well finished country residence, not a thousand miles from here. The style of the gables, the brightness of the glass, the beauty of the doors, the classic patterns of the mouldings, the neatness of the balusters, and the stateliness of the pillars around the piazza, all struck the traveller with astonishment and admiration. And no wonder, for they were all furnished by Mr. P. P. Toale, No. 20 Hayne street, Charleston, S. C.
