

Penland & Neer's GRAND PANORAMA

Will Exhibit at Masonic Hall, Tuesday Night, December 3, 1872. It is pronounced by competent judges to be the finest collection of Views now traveling. The entertainment will comprise Astro-nomical Revolving Diagrams, attended by suitable lectures; the Solar System, showing the revolution of the Earth, showing the rising and setting of the Sun, illustrating the cause of day and night; the tides and phases of the Moon; the Earth's annual motion around the Sun, producing the Seasons; the various Eclipses of the Sun and the Revolution of the Moon around the Earth. Two copies of the beautiful Sun and Moon of other noted battles; Naval Scenes; Comic Scenes; the Bottle—eight finely colored Paintings, which represent the life paths of intemperance, and many other beautiful and instructive Scenes. All the scenes appear like the natural and nearly as large as life, upon a screen nine feet square. While they will be witnessed with wonder and delight by the youth of both sexes; the minds of the more mature in years may find food for profitable contemplation. Come and see it. Admission, 50 cents. Children, 25. Nov 28, 1872. 21

PACIFIC GUANO COMPANY'S SOLUBLE PACIFIC GUANO

THIS GUANO is now so well known in all the Southern States for its remarkable effects as an agency for increasing the products of labor, as not to require special recommendation from us. Its use for seven years past has established its character for reliable results. The large fixed capital invested by the Company in this trade, affords the surest guarantee of the continued excellence of its Guano. The supplies put into market this season are, as heretofore, prepared under the personal superintendence of Dr. St. Julien Ravenel, Chemist of the Company, at Charleston, S. C., hence planters may rest assured that its quality and composition is precisely the same as that heretofore sold. J. N. ROBSON, Selling Agent, Charleston, S. C. General Agents, Baltimore. TERMS—$42 cash; $53, times, without interest. To accommodate planters they can order now and have until first of April to decide as to whether they will take at time or cash price. When delivered from factory by the car load, no drayage will be charged. Nov 28, 1872. 21

Eave-Dropper's Report!

Mrs. JENKINS.—Well, old man, if you are going to get me a new dress when you sell the Cotton, you go right straight to Boly Hubbard's Store and tell him to cut off 12 yards of that slate-colored Delaine I was looking at last week. He said I could have it at 30 cents per yard, and he'd throw in a spool of thread and hooks and eyes. Mr. JENKINS.—I think, my dear, I'll sell one bale this week, for I need a Saddle badly, and I saw several at HUBBARD's the other day, which he offered at extremely low prices, I think; so I had just as well take up a bale tomorrow and get your Dress and a Saddle. Do you know if Daughter needs anything? DAUGHTER.—Oh, Pa, I saw Miss Kittie Jones the other day with the most beautiful pair of brown Gaiters on you ever saw; and then she had such a pretty Hat, a black velvet, trimmed with purple flowers and pink ribbon, and a little bird on top, and the loveliest Shawl! I think, ever brought to Anderson, and a changeable Poplin Dress, cut with Polonaise, (you know, Pa, that fashion is just another dress behind, and it only takes 7 yards more for them,) and all trimmed off with black velvet; and to cap the climax, she had on an elegant Merino Scarf. I do think she looked exquisite. All these nice things come from Mr. HUBBARD's, and he is selling so low, I think now would be a good time to get me some clothes, for I may need them soon. You know Joe come to see me last night!!! Nov 14, 1872. 19
