What Shall We Do? More than seven years have elapsed since the close of the war—seven years of toil and poverty with many, and yet the farmers of the South seem not as a class, definitely to have decided what they will do.

DEATH OF AN AGED COLORED MINISTER.—The Western Recorder, Louisville, Ky., of the 16th inst., comes to us with its page in mourning for the death of Rev. Henry Adams, an able colored minister, who had been pastor of a colored church in Louisville for 33 years...

An ingenious drug store clerk of Cleveland, who is a chemist in disguise, has discovered a new suicide article that not only makes him famous, but it will save funeral expenses and entirely dispenses with coroners and their juries...

"An Asp in the Bosom of the Victor."

Such was the expression of the veteran Thomas Ritchie when, in 1846, General Harrison carried all the twenty-six States of the Union except Alabama, Arkansas, Illinois, Missouri, New Hampshire and Virginia, which adhered to Van Buren...

Man spurns the worm, but trembles ere he wake The slumbering venom of the folded snake. Strength and courage ever command respect and forbearance from power, when only exerted in defense or resistance to wrong...

Let the decree be entered accordingly. GEO. S. BRYAN, United States Judge of South Carolina. November 14, 1872.

—A piscatorial party is what they call it now. When we were a boy they call it "goin' a fishing." —A warning is given by some of the Northern papers in regard to the care of horses that have been suffering from the common malady recently so prevalent in that section...

—The great consumption of iron at home and abroad has stimulated our iron industry, and in sections as far apart as Missouri, Alabama and Pennsylvania new iron furnaces are building, while those in operation are taxed to their fullest capacity.

The Greenville and Columbia Railroad.

The following is the decree of Judge Bryan, in the case of Charles Madsen and others, petitioners for the involuntary bankruptcy of the Greenville and Columbia Railroad Company...
