

Mother, be Advised.
Always keep a bottle of Dr. Tut's celebrated Expectorant in the house. It is a certain and pleasant cure for Croup, Coughs, Colds, etc. It is agreeable to the taste, and Children take it readily. Go to your druggist and get it at once, it may save the life of your little one.

MOBILE, ALA., May 27, 1869.
Dr. W. H. Tut—Dear Sir: I should be pleased to advertise your medicines, and will cheerfully give you a good notice of your Expectorant, as I have personally used it with great satisfaction. Very respectfully,
W. D. MANN,
Proprietor of the Mobile Register.

Terrible Excitement.
A BLACK FUR HAT STOLEN FROM THE LITTLE MAN'S STORE, And the Negro Arrested!

THAT LITTLE MAN, having a large assortment of GENTS' HATS, frequently, after showing them to a customer, leaves a good many on the counter when business is brisk, and on the occasion that caused the above excitement a search was at once made for the missing Hat, and after about one hour's search, it was found upon the head of "HUBBARD'S OWN NIGGER," and the Little Man, under the excitement of the moment, had the Nigger put on the counter for exhibition.

So you will all remember if you want a Hat, and try to get it in the same way, you'll be put on the Counter for Exhibition. But if you want to buy one, it will be wrapped up nicely in a paper for you at

The Only Remedy.
Those who suffer from foul breath are open to the charge of carelessness. It is an offence that can be speedily abated; as a single bottle of the fragrant SODIUM will unmistakably accomplish the work. No toilet table should be without it. It will preserve and keep the teeth white, and the breath pure and sweet.

Spalding's Glue, who would be without it?

DON'T WALK ANY MORE.
I HAVE just bought out the Livery and Stable of Messrs. Thompson & Steele, where I expect to carry on the LIVERY and SALE STABLE BUSINESS, with the same unabated attention to the public demand that has characterized this well known Stable for the past year or two.

I have been training and dealing in Horses and Mules all my life, and have been supplying this market with stock for the past twenty years. I shall always keep on hand a good lot of Horses and Mules from North Carolina, Kentucky and Tennessee, just suited to the farmers and stock-men in this country.

If you want to buy a Horse or Mule, come as soon as you can. If you want to sell a Horse or Mule, I will sell for you. If you want a Horse or Mule trained, I will train for you.

Having permanently located in Anderson with my family, where I expect to spend my money, I can justly claim a continuance of that patronage which has induced me to come and help build up this part of upper Carolina.

Respectfully,
D. C. CUNNINGHAM.

To the American People.
If a Merchant buys Corn, Bacon, a Horse, or anything else from a Farmer, or from "any other man," he has no rest till he pays for them, and which is strictly just and right. If a Farmer, or "any other man," buys Provisions, or anything else, from a Merchant, it is equally right that they should be paid also. To all who owe us a Red Cent, we WANT, NEED and MUST HAVE THE MONEY. So come on and pay us.

We also want those who owe for Wando Fertilizer to come forward and pay up, or they may soon be sued. We are still the Agents for this Celebrated Fertilizer.
