SUICIDE.—On Sunday afternoon last, a man, named John W. Settemeyer, committed suicide, at his boarding-house, on Laurel street, by shooting himself with a pistol. He was a steady, industrious workman—a carpenter—and has been in the employ of the Charlotte and South Carolina Railroad Company for about ten years. He has, to use the language of a fellow-workman, "been acting strangely for several months." He imagined that persons were trying to defraud him of his money; it is supposed "that his disappointment in a love affair affected him." Mr. Settemeyer arose from the dinner-table, after partaking of a slight repast, proceeded to his room, fastened the door, and shortly afterwards two reports of a pistol were heard. The occupants of the house immediately proceeded to the room, where they found Mr. S. stretched upon the floor, dead, with a bullet wound in the upper part of his chest, near the neck. The first shot evidently missed, as a bullet-hole was discovered in the partition. Mr. S. bled but little, his death must have been instantaneous. A paper, in the form of a will, was found on the bed, bequeathing his property to a young lady in North Carolina, to whom, it is believed, he was sincerely attached. An inquest was held by Coroner Coleman, at which the above facts were elicited. Mr. S. was, we believe, a native of North Carolina, and about thirty years of age.—Columbia Phoenix.

A Tribute to the Memory of Mrs. Tabitha McCall.
There's gloom within that ancient home,
For hearts are broken, sad and lone,
Their lovely one has plumed her wings,
And now angelic songs she sings.

Oh, how impatient to be free,
Her Master's face she longed to see,
Her youthful feet well knew the way
That led to an eternal day.
Her spotless character shall shed
A lasting fragrance where they tread,
And in their loneliness and gloom,
Shall light their pathway to the tomb.
The lovely wreath which friendship gave,
Shall wreath o'er'er the sunlit grave,
But staminate buds entwined
Around her in that fadeless clime.
Oh, stricken ones, who sadly weep,
Near her you, too, shall sweetly sleep,
And soon her loving arms embrace,
Those loved ones all now saved by grace.
And then, oh, then, in yonder clime,
Mid wondrous ecstasies sublime,
What joys of rapture shall be given
To him who tuned their happy strain.

Tribute of Respect.
At a meeting of the Williamson Baptist Sunday School, held July 13th, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, in the Providence of God it has pleased Him to remove from our School, Miss SALLIE H. MARTIN, one of our most devoted teachers; and whereas, in that dispensation we recognize that the young as well as the old must die; and whereas, we feel that a void has been created in our breasts that cannot be filled, and her place as a teacher irreplaceable. Therefore, be it

Resolved, 1. That while we mourn the loss of a devoted teacher and affectionate companion, we desire to submit with patience to the will of God.

2. That we tender to the parents, brothers and sisters of the deceased, our heartfelt sympathies for their sad affliction, admiring them at the same time that their loss is her eternal gain.

3. That these proceedings be published in the Working Christian and Anderson Intelligencer, and a copy sent to the bereaved family.

C. E. HORTON, Sup't.
E. J. PICKLE, Clerk.

Dr. January and Cancer!
THE celebrity of the JANUARY INFIRMARY, established in Murphreesboro, Tenn., in 1848, associated the above name with the treatment of Cancer until they became synonymous, both passed away with the war. But great discoveries, like truths, live forever. Dr. J. O. JANUARY, inheriting his father's talents, and improving on his experience, has achieved a success in advance of his former history, owing to his increased patronage he has permanently located in St. Louis; the numerous letters he is receiving, and large arrival of patients, justify his move to this central point. We would advise all afflicted with Cancer, Scrofula, Fistula, Piles, &c., to apply to him, as he possesses perfect control of those diseases, without pain or the knife. Address,

WILLIAMSTON, June 15, 1873.

Messrs. Sharpe & Towers:
Sirs:—In answer to your inquiry in regard to my opinion of the BROWN COTTON GIN, I can say that I would not take it down to put up any other Gin that I am acquainted with. It runs very light; is no trouble to keep in order. To prove the last assertion, I ginned three hundred and twenty bales on mine and never removed the caps from the inks; in fact, I don't think I lost 20 minutes in all the time from anything wrong with the Gin. It makes a very good staple, and sells in our market at the highest prices.
Yours respectfully,
C. E. HORTON.
HALL TOWNSHIP, June 21, 1873.

Messrs. Sharpe & Towers:
We bought from you a Fifty-Saw BROWN COTTON GIN, on which we ginned 150 bales of cotton. We think it is the best Gin made. The Gin runs light, picks fast and clean, and makes a fine staple.

SINGER!

43 Names added to the List within the last 60 Days!
BELOW we give a long list of those who have purchased the SINGER SEWING MACHINE from the Anderson Agency, and so far as we know, they are all well pleased. We prefer this method of advertising, as the names of parties well known to the community are a better guarantee of merit than ought could be said in a regular advertisement, which always expresses the favorable opinions of interested parties. This list has been added to from time to time, and we call attention to the fact that forty-three names of purchasers have been appended within the last sixty days:
