No. 242, held on Saturday, August 8, 1874, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Inasmuch as it has pleased an All-Wise Providence to remove from our midst our beloved Brother and Worthy Chaplain, Rev. Dr. C. L. GAILLARD, we trust to a happier and more exalted state of existence; therefore, we deem it a high privilege and a duty to submit the following resolutions:

Resolved, That we have learned with profound sorrow of the death of our beloved Chaplain, whose Christian virtues, generous qualities of mind and heart endeared him to us; and while we deplore his demise, we honor and cherish his memory.

Resolved, That we bow in humble submission to the decree of an unerring hand in this dispensation of His providence.

Resolved, That in his death the Church has lost a wise counsellor and a zealous Christian; the Patrons of Husbandry, an active and efficients.

Mr. W. S. Sharpe-Sin; In answer to your inquiry in regard to my opinion of the Brown Cotton Gin, I can say that I would not take it down to put up any other Gin that I am acquainted with. It runs very light; is no trouble to keep in order. To prove the last assertion, I ginned three hundred and twenty bales on mine and never removed the caps from the inks; in fact, I don't think I lost twenty minutes in all the time from anything wrong with utes in all the time from anything wrong with the Gin. It makes a very good staple, and sells in our market at the highest prices.
