

LOCAL MATTERS.

1800 TO ADVERTISERS. 1800

The Anderson INTELLIGENCER has the largest circulation of any country paper published in the State, and has more than three times the circulation of any other paper in Anderson County. We print and circulate regularly 1800 papers. Our list in the County has increased instead of diminished, and we hope to receive a still greater increase during the coming fall. We are willing at any time to verify the above by an inspection of our subscription book, or our paper bills; or when desired, we will furnish advertisers with an affidavit of the correctness of our statement as to the circulation of the INTELLIGENCER.

BRIEF MENTION.

Corros—Middlings, 94 to 10 cents.

The ladies of the Anderson Baptist Church have presented Rev. W. H. Strickland, the pastor, with a very handsome overcoat.

Now is the time to subscribe for the INTELLIGENCER. The meeting of Congress and the session of our Legislature will afford interesting reading for the winter.

Read the delinquent land list in another column. If you have land advertised call and settle with the Treasurer before the day of sale, and save your property.

There will be no preaching in the Baptist Church next Sunday, the pastor being in attendance on the meeting of the Baptist State Convention at Greenville.

Maj. Thos. H. McCann, of Greenville, visited Anderson on Tuesday. He has many friends in this native County, and we are always glad to greet him in our midst.

Mr. O. H. F. Fant, would call attention to the fact that he now has hand sixty caddies of tobacco, containing ten pounds each, which he will sell at prices very near cost. The quality is excellent and the price low.

Messrs. P. A. Masters and J. R. Moorhead have each brought some of the finest turkeys to our office during the past week that we have seen this season. Either one of them showed larger turkeys than were exhibited at the State Fair.

We would ask attention to the advertisement of Mr. J. B. Clark, which appears elsewhere in this issue. Mr. Clark is well known in this community, and has established a high reputation in his business books and literary interests. We bespeak for him a liberal patronage.

We had a pleasant call on Tuesday, from E. J. Dreher, Esq., travelling agent of the Columbia Register, who is in our town for the purpose of receiving subscribers to the Register. Mr. Dreher is a well-known and pleasant gentleman, and we hope he has been eminently successful in his mission to Anderson.

A drove of hogs arrived in Anderson on Wednesday morning from Tennessee. This is the first drove of the season, and up to the hour of going to press we have heard of no sales. The price asked is 64 cents per pound gross, and it is generally thought that this sum is too much for the rate at which bacon and lard are now selling.

Capt. J. A. Wren has been doing a very fine business in photography, at Mr. J. D. Maxwell's Art Gallery on Brick Range. His exhibition of photographs took the premium at the Anderson Fair, and he has a handsome medal in testimony of it. Persons desiring good pictures of themselves or friends can obtain them in any style by calling on him.

We are informed that Hon. B. F. Crayton, President of the State Fair Association, sold his entire crop of bread corn to Gen. W. G. LeDuc, United States Commissioner of Agriculture. This corn will be distributed throughout the United States for seed corn. LeDuc said it was a fine quality of this important cereal as he had ever seen, and thereby paid a high compliment to Mr. Crayton as an agriculturist, and also to Anderson County as a grain growing country.

After this, our people should raise their own corn, and not import it from the West. We can raise seed for other States, and if we can raise seed to make enough to do us at home. A smaller amount of cotton and a larger amount of grain would make this a most prosperous county.

PAPER WAREHOUSE. Mr. John E. Peoples, of this place, has added to his other business that of a paper warehouse for all sizes of news and wrapping paper, which he keeps in stock sufficient to furnish all orders which may be sent him. The newspapers kept by him is of excellent quality, and papers in the upper portion of South Carolina and Georgia will do well to correspond with him at this place, and obtain his terms, &c. He is a reliable gentleman, with the best of business energy and talent, which enables him to offer inducements well worth having to our brethren of the press. We bespeak for him a liberal patronage.

RAILROAD MEETINGS. We are authorized to announce that meetings in the interest of the Anderson and Savannah Valley Railroad will be held as follows: Greenville, at Hunter's Spring, November 22d, at 11 o'clock. Committee of Arrangements—K. Brazecale, J. Y. Fretwell, J. B. Watson, T. B. Lee, R. M. B. Jones, Savannah, at B. A. Davis' Mill, November 23d, at 11 o'clock. Committee of Arrangements—E. J. Earle, B. A. Davis, Keokuk, S. F. McConnell.

Ask Yourself these Questions. Are you a dependent sufferer from Sick Headache, Habitual Constipation, Palpitation of the Heart? Have you Dizziness of the Head? Is your Nervous System depressed? Does your Blood circulate badly? Have you a Cough? Low Spirits? Coming up of the food after eating? &c. &c. All of these and much more are the direct results of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint and Indigestion. Green's's Great Peppermint Cure is acknowledged by all Druggists to be a positive cure. 2,400,000 bottles were given away in the U. S. through Druggists to the people as a trial. Two doses will satisfy any person of its wonderful quality in curing all forms of Indigestion. Sample bottles 10 cents. Regular size 75 cents. Sold positive by all first-class Druggists in every town.

HYMENEAL. MARRIED by Rev. M. McGee, on Sunday evening, 18th inst., at the residence of W. G. Watson, Mr. AZEL KELL to Miss MARY MCCONNELL, all of Anderson County.

SANDY SPRINGS. There was a slight hail at the Factory on the evening of the 17th inst., but not enough to do any mischief. The community was very much pained on Saturday evening, the 17th, on receiving a telegram that Mrs. D. Smith, of Wallula, was a corpse. Mr. W. G. Smith and lady went to Wallula the same evening, to pay the last tribute of respect to the one they esteemed so highly. Mr. D. A. Smith and family have the warmest sympathies of the entire community in this case. The funeral was held on Sunday, the 20th inst., at the residence of Mr. W. M. Cowan Armstrong, and Miss ESSIE ROBINSON, all of Abbeville County.

The personal property of Capt. S. M. Tribble, deceased, was sold at his late residence on Friday last, at very fair prices. Messrs. McCurry, Erwin and McCullough, our delegation to the State Fair, returned in due season. Rev. Mr. Kell is slowly recovering from his severe illness, and is now able to walk about. OUR BOOK TABLE. One of the cheapest book-stores in the United States is that of T. B. Pappas & Brothers, 305 Chestnut St., Philadelphia, Pa. They publish the writings of Mrs. E. D. E. Southworth, Mrs. Ann S. Stephens, Miss Dupuy, Mrs. Warfield, Mrs. Dorsey, Caroline Schlegel, Mrs. E. Hamilton, Charles Lever, Wilkie Collins, Alex. Dumas, and many other popular writers, and they would call the attention of all Book Buyers to the works of the most popular English and American authors, and are presented in an attractive style, including a series of 25 cent, and 75 cent Novels in new style covers. They also sell new and cheap editions of the works of the most popular English and American authors, and are presented in an attractive style, printed from legible type, on good paper, especially adapted for Gen'l. Sales, and are furnished at such a low price that they will meet with a ready sale wherever properly introduced. In fact, all of the best books by best authors can be obtained of Messrs. T. B. Pappas & Brothers, and retail and wholesale orders will be filled at lowest rates, as all their books are sold at bottom prices. Send for their Catalogue.

APLETON'S JOURNAL.—The article in Appleton's Journal for December which will be considered the freshest, and most distinctly a departure from customary magazine examples, is one entitled "An Artist on Art," the result of a colloquy with Daniel Huntington, the venerable President of the National Academy of Design, in which we have an explanation of Mr. Huntington's method of work, criticisms on contemporary art, and reminiscences of some of the old artists. The illustration of the number, "The Head-Waters of the Rhine," describing and pictorially delineating a portion of that famous river far less known than lower stretches of the same. An important article, based on McCann's "Egypt as It Is," describes and explains the marvelous progressive changes that in recent years have occurred within that ancient country. A paper, with the title of "Observation and Imagination," by Junius Henri Browne, illustrated by numerous examples from the great works in literature and art, that even the masters do not so much invent as observe—or rather, that observation "suppliments, stimulates, and strengthens" the imagination to a degree almost incredible. The article is rendered interesting by examples and incidents of great suggestiveness. There is a short story by Rebecca Harding Davis, the scene of which is in Norway, and two other stories, by Mrs. Amelia Barr and Mrs. Church; several other sketches go to make up the number, giving it much variety, one being of the heroism of a case of the Crimea, and a third of the Rocky Mountains. Among the poetical contributors are R. H. Stoddard and Sidney Lanier. The serial, "By Gads' Arm," is certainly one of the best novels of the year.

A Very Good Reason. The reason why only one sample bottle of MERRILL'S HEPATINE for the Liver will be sold to the same person, for ten cents, by our Druggists, Simpson, Reid & Co., is because of the enormous expense of importing the Hepatine into this country; but as there are fifty doses in the large size bottles, it costs two cents per dose is cheap enough after all for a medicine that cures dyspepsia and liver complaint. All who have not had a sample bottle are entitled to one for ten cents, at Simpson, Reid & Co.'s drug store. Three doses relieve any case of dyspepsia, constipation, indigestion or liver complaint, in the world. Regular size bottles, fifty doses, $1.00.

Ask Yourself these Questions. Are you a dependent sufferer from Sick Headache, Habitual Constipation, Palpitation of the Heart? Have you Dizziness of the Head? Is your Nervous System depressed? Does your Blood circulate badly? Have you a Cough? Low Spirits? Coming up of the food after eating? &c. &c. The community was very much pained on Saturday evening, the 17th, on receiving a telegram that Mrs. D. Smith, of Wallula, was a corpse. Mr. W. G. Smith and lady went to Wallula the same evening, to pay the last tribute of respect to the one they esteemed so highly. Mr. D. A. Smith and family have the warmest sympathies of the entire community in this case. The funeral was held on Sunday, the 20th inst., at the residence of Mr. W. M. Cowan Armstrong, and Miss ESSIE ROBINSON, all of Abbeville County.

APLETON'S JOURNAL.—The article in Appleton's Journal for December which will be considered the freshest, and most distinctly a departure from customary magazine examples, is one entitled "An Artist on Art," the result of a colloquy with Daniel Huntington, the venerable President of the National Academy of Design, in which we have an explanation of Mr. Huntington's method of work, criticisms on contemporary art, and reminiscences of some of the old artists. The illustration of the number, "The Head-Waters of the Rhine," describing and pictorially delineating a portion of that famous river far less known than lower stretches of the same. An important article, based on McCann's "Egypt as It Is," describes and explains the marvelous progressive changes that in recent years have occurred within that ancient country. A paper, with the title of "Observation and Imagination," by Junius Henri Browne, illustrated by numerous examples from the great works in literature and art, that even the masters do not so much invent as observe—or rather, that observation "suppliments, stimulates, and strengthens" the imagination to a degree almost incredible. The article is rendered interesting by examples and incidents of great suggestiveness. There is a short story by Rebecca Harding Davis, the scene of which is in Norway, and two other stories, by Mrs. Amelia Barr and Mrs. Church; several other sketches go to make up the number, giving it much variety, one being of the heroism of a case of the Crimea, and a third of the Rocky Mountains. Among the poetical contributors are R. H. Stoddard and Sidney Lanier. The serial, "By Gads' Arm," is certainly one of the best novels of the year.

A Very Good Reason. The reason why only one sample bottle of MERRILL'S HEPATINE for the Liver will be sold to the same person, for ten cents, by our Druggists, Simpson, Reid & Co., is because of the enormous expense of importing the Hepatine into this country; but as there are fifty doses in the large size bottles, it costs two cents per dose is cheap enough after all for a medicine that cures dyspepsia and liver complaint. All who have not had a sample bottle are entitled to one for ten cents, at Simpson, Reid & Co.'s drug store. Three doses relieve any case of dyspepsia, constipation, indigestion or liver complaint, in the world. Regular size bottles, fifty doses, $1.00.

Ask Yourself these Questions. Are you a dependent sufferer from Sick Headache, Habitual Constipation, Palpitation of the Heart? Have you Dizziness of the Head? Is your Nervous System depressed? Does your Blood circulate badly? Have you a Cough? Low Spirits? Coming up of the food after eating? &c. &c. All of these and much more are the direct results of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint and Indigestion. Green's's Great Peppermint Cure is acknowledged by all Druggists to be a positive cure. 2,
