

LOCAL MATTERS.

BRIEF MENTION. A. P. Johnston, Dentist. Office in Central Building, Anderson, S. C. 23-4.

Remember our new terms are $1.50 a year for the INTELLIGENCER if paid in advance, or $2.00 if paid at the end of the year.

Now is the time of year that good resolutions are being made for another year. Be sure to carry them out, and next year will be the most successful, happy and prosperous one you have ever experienced.

Senator Butler has our thanks for a copy of the Congressional Directory. It is refreshing to have a Senator from this State who circulates the public documents of the nation among a class of citizens who can read them.

We are requested to announce that Rev. Thomas H. Cunningham, of Charleston, will preach at Roberts' Church on next Sabbath morning. Mr. Cunningham is a genial gentleman, a pleasant speaker and an able minister.

We are indebted to Hon. B. F. Crayton for a copy of the anniversary poem, delivered at the twenty-first exposition of the Waukegan County Agricultural Society of Illinois by Benj. F. Taylor. There is much poetical genius displayed in its composition.

The Southern Home School closed its fall session on last Friday, and the pupils with their friends celebrated the evening by a very pleasant party.

We would call attention to the advertisement of the Washington Star, the oldest and most widely circulated of the dailies at the National Capitol. It is more than a quarter of a century old, and contains a full account of all the great events transpiring in the Capital City.

Thinking our readers would like to read as much during the Christmas holidays as at any other time, we forego the usual custom of issuing a half-sheet, and come to you with our usual supply of reading, wishing every one a Merry Christmas and happy New Year.

Christmas day passed off in a very quiet manner in our town, with the exception of a few fireworks on the square, who indulged in the merriment they could get out of the usual yelling, &c. The day was damp and disagreeable, so that most persons kept pretty closely in doors.

We are indebted to Gen. Johnson Hagood, Comptroller General, for a copy of his annual report to the Legislature. It is a systematic and exhaustive document, which does credit to Gen. Hagood, and will be of service to the General Assembly in unraveling the financial condition of the State.

There will be an installation of the officers of Bowlen Green Grange at the Grange Hall on to-morrow morning, and also a public installation of the officers of Union Grove Division of Sons of Temperance at the same time and place. The ladies and gentlemen of the surrounding county are invited to attend.

The Comptroller General has announced that he will not postpone the time for the sale of lands for the collection of delinquent taxes beyond the 31st inst. Very great leniency has already been extended, and the action of General Hagood has been indulgent as possible. It is either pay up now or be sold out.

We are under obligations to Mr. D. J. Sheridan, the champion cabbage-raiser of Anderson County, for a fine treat in that line. Our Dark Corner friend brings up a wagon load every Fall, and disposes of them at fair prices. He understands the cultivation of this vegetable, and usually gets the premium at our County Fair.

Hon. W. C. Brown, Representative from this County, has introduced the Bill chartering the Savannah Valley Railroad, and also presented the petition of sundry citizens of this County asking for amendments to the Fence Law. Dr. Brown is a faithful representative, and is at all times energetic and vigilant in the protection of the interests of his constituents.

At a regular meeting of Wynne Council, No. 4, R. and S. M., held on Monday night, 17th inst., the following officers were elected to serve the ensuing year: W. W. Humphrey, Th. H. M. P. A. Whitte, D. M. G. P. Tolly, P. C. W.; W. J. Ligon, Treas.; J. P. Reed, Recorder; R. D. Todd, G. G.; J. E. Brazeeale, C. C.; H. I. Epting, Steward; E. F. Murrab, Sentinel.

We had the pleasure of a call on last Thursday from Miss Anna Maria Barnes, editor of The Aconitina, a youth's paper, published monthly in Atlanta, Ga., at seventy-five cents a year. Miss Barnes was originally from this State, and is a lady of very fine literary attainments. The Aconitina is a bright, spicy and elevated journal, which deserves success, and we hope it will have many readers in this county.

At a meeting of Broadway Division of Sons of Temperance on last Saturday night five new members were initiated, and it was decided to have a pound party on next Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Mr. J. Willet Prevost, a member of the Division, will deliver an address on that occasion. Every member of the Order is invited to attend and bring a pound contribution to the table for the evening.

The following is the list of officers elected to serve Anderson Lodge, No. 290, Knights of Honor, the ensuing term of six months: E. W. Brown, Dictator; J. L. Tribble, Vice Dictator; J. W. Daniels, Asst. Dictator; J. A. Daniels, Chaplain; J. R. Reese, Guide; J. D. Maxwell, Reporter; J. R. Williams, Financial Reporter; Dr. W. H. Nardin, Treasurer; W. S. Ligon, Guardian; R. L. Keys, Sentinel; Dr. P. A. Whitte, W. J. Ligon and G. W. Fant, Trustees.

On Wednesday, the 19th inst., a party of Revenue Detectives, traveling in a wagon as peddlers of whiskey, overhauled two of the men who escaped from Deputy Marshal E. A. Daniels in the Fork about two weeks ago. They were captured about twelve miles below here and securely bound and carried to Greenville with their wagon, team and whiskey. Thus they will in all probability find out that their previous escape was quite unfortunate for them, as it will no doubt add greatly to their punishment.

Mr. John A. Stevenson, of Rock Mills Township, had a trunk containing $35 and valuable papers, stolen from his house while the family were at supper in an adjoining room, on last Thursday night. Search was made in the woods and fields, but without success. But a day or two after the trunk was brought back and left near Mr. Stevenson's residence, with papers and books untouched, but money gone. No clue as to the parties committing this bold robbery has been obtained. Our people should be on their guard to prevent such outrages, and every effort should be made to ferret out and punish the guilty parties in this crime.

Deaver Dam and Union Grove Divisions of Sons of Temperance, have joined in a league to prevent the travelling of whiskey wagons through their neighborhoods, and have promised to assist in capturing and convicting any person who comes into their midst with such a wagon. Other Divisions are discussing the propriety of similar action, and it is to be hoped a public sentiment will be formed against these pests which will be strong enough to prevent them from entering our County. Not only the Temperance Divisions but our substantial and orderly citizens should lend their efforts to suppress this evil.

We were pleased to meet on Monday last two old friends from Mississippi, Messrs. Christie O. Clinkscales and Thomas E. Martin. These gentlemen removed to Mississippi about twenty-five years ago, and settled in Tishomingo County. They are on a visit to friends and relatives, and will remain only a short time. They report good crops in their section, but money scarce—in some cases commanding as high rates as twenty-five per cent. They also report a great many of their neighbors removing to Texas, and the agricultural interests of the State as greatly depressed. We wish them a pleasant visit and a safe return.

OUR BOO! TABLE. "That Wife of Mine" is the name of the sequel to "That Husband of Mine," and is written by the same author. It presents the other side of the domestic picture vividly, and in the most amusing style. The plot is better, longer and more interesting than its predecessor, so that it is more worthy of popularity. Its style is simple and its tone healthy. Messrs. Lee & Shepard, of Boston, are its publishers, and it may be obtained from them or any book store for fifty cents in paper or one dollar in cloth.

"His Own Master," is the latest book from the gifted pen of the celebrated J. T. Trobridge, and fully sustains his reputation as a successful novelist. It presents in a vivid picture the snares, impositions and ludicrous positions to which a poor orphan boy is exposed, and gives to his readers a splendid illustration of the results of a conscientious discharge of duty. Every boy should read it. It is calculated to strengthen and benefit the moral courage of every one who reads it, and is written in the chaste and elegant style for which its author is noted. It may be had of Messrs. Lee & Shepard, Boston, Mass., in cloth for $1, or paper 50 cents. It can also be found at the book stores.

The Eclectic Magazine.—With the January number the Eclectic enters upon a new volume and its 34th year. The magazine is very strong in 1878, and the January number is rich in valuable articles, including "Science and Man," Tyndall's famous Birmingham lecture; Archibald Forbes' article on "Russians, Turks, and Bulgarians at the Theatre of War," (the best contribution yet made to the literature of the Russo-Turkish war); "The Murder of Thomas Becket," by J. A. Froude; "The Science of Electricity as Applied in Peace and War;" a "Study of Thoreau," by Tom Hughes; and a sketch of the Rev. Joseph Cook, with a steel engraved portrait. It is one of the most valuable and ably conducted of the monthly magazines of this age, and may be subscribed for to the publisher, E. R. Pelton, No. 25 Bond street, New York. This is a favorable time for subscribing.

TOWNVILLE. Uncle Billy Palmer is the oldest citizen in Fork township, having nearly reached his 90th year. Divine worship will be conducted in the Presbyterian Church on next Sunday, the 30th, by the pastor, Rev. Dr. Adger. The Baptist Church promises to be a really beautiful structure in every appointment. This fact, as well as the acceleration of the work, is largely due to Dr. W. K. Sharp, of the building committee. S. R. Johnson lately removed with his family from Lowndesville to this place, where he will operate a blacksmith shop. Mr. Johnson is a young man of commendable parts, and being a skilled mechanic deserves a liberal patronage.

HOPEWELL. The following officers were elected at the last communication of Barnett Lodge, No. 106, and installed on the 24th inst.: J. C. Boggs, W. M.; A. C. Stott, S. W.; J. P. Traynum, J. W.; J. Jamison, Treas.; D. Weston Hiatt, Sec.; J. M. Hamlin, S. D.; J. S. Owen, J. D.; David Ingram, T. The following are the officers elect of Hopewell Division, No. 95: W. Barr Erskine, W. P.; M. E. Deal, W. A.; J. R. Guyton, R. S.; T. J. Martin, A. R. S.; J. M. Hamlin, F. S.; W. Martin, T.; J. W. White, G.; E. A. Moseley, Con.; Miss Alice E. Jolly, A. S.; T. M. King, I. S.; W. K. Stringer, O. S.; Dr. R. G. Sloan, P. W. P. The above officers will be installed January 12th, proximo, 2 p. m., by Grand Worthy Patriarch E. B. Murray and Grand Scribe L. P. Smith. Speeches will be expected from the installing officers. Let there be a full attendance.

A Gentle Hint. In our style of climate, with its sudden changes of temperature—rain, wind and sunshine often intermingling in a single day—it is no wonder that our children, friends and relatives are so frequently taken from us by neglected colds, but the deaths resulting directly from this cause. A bottle of Beecher's German Syrup kept about your home for a large use will prevent serious sickness, a medicine doctor's bill, and perhaps death, by the use of three or four doses. For curing Consumption, Hemorrhages, Pneumonia, Severe Croup or any disease of the Throat or Lungs, its success is simply wonderful, as your druggist will give you a full and complete list of its every town and village on this continent. Sample bottles for trial, 10c., regular size, 75c.

A Very Good Reason. The reason why only one sample bottle of MERRILL'S PILLS for the Liver will be sold to the same person, for ten cents, by our Druggists, Simpson, Reid & Co., is because of the enormous expense of importing the Hepatins into this country; but as there are fifty doses in the large size bottles, it seems two cents per dose is cheap enough after all for a medicine the use of which is so simple and so effective. All who have not had a sample bottle are entitled to one for ten cents, at Simpson, Reid & Co.'s Drug Store. Three doses relieve any case of liver peevishness, constipation, indigestion or other complaint, in the world. Regular size bottles, fifty doses, $1.00.

Griffin, deceased, are hereby notified to present them to the undersigned, properly proven, within the time prescribed by law, and all indebted to the Estate to make payment immediately.
