BRIEF MENTION.

Agricultural Liens for sale at this office Remember that the stores will be closed on next Wednesday. Let every Democrat come and hear Gov Hampton speak next Wednesday.

We are indebted to J. L. Tribble, Esq., for valuable editorial assistance this week. Rev. J. C. Hudson will supply the pulpit of the Anderson Baptist Church next Sunday morning. Every lady, gentleman and child in the County who can be at Anderson on next Wednesday will be here.

Come out and see the review next Wednesday, and hear Gov. Hampton speak. You will regret it if you stay away.

We are glad to welcome John E. Peoples and his bride back to Anderson after a happy bridal tour. John looks like a real happy man.

In order to give a full report of the military review, Gov. Hampton's speech, &c., on next Wednesday, we will not issue our paper until Thursday evening.

Old people say that when peach trees bloom in the light of the moon that they will not be killed by frost. We hope this year will not prove an exception to the rule. The new Baptist Church at Townville will Save your money, and get the best Pianos and Organs made from your own Southern music house-Mrs. McSmith, Greenville. Dev. H. N. Hays will deliver a temperance address on Saturday, the 30th instant, at 2 o'clock p. m., at Flat Rock Church, and preach at the same place on the Sunday following at 11 o'clock a. m. We learn that several military companies from surrounding Counties will visit Anderson on next Wednesday for the purpose of participating in the review and paying their respects to the G vernor. The citizens of Centreville township are requested to meet at Hunter's Spring on Friday, 22d instant, at 61 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of organizing a military company. A full meeting of the citizens is de-

Capt. Allen's Company, the Palmetto Riflemen, will have a dress parade upon the public square on next Friday afternoon at 5 o'clock. The Company is handsomely uniformed and well drilled. It will present a very fine appearance.

Rev. W. H. Strickland has been announced to preach at Flat Rock Church next Sunday afternoon, but he wishes the meeting postponed, as he will be at Town-ville on that day to dedicate the new Baptist Church at that place.

Miss Della Keys has removed her store to the Centennial House, and gives notice that she is receiving her Spring stock of millinery goods. Miss Keys is a lady of taste, and those wishing anything in her line would do well to give her a call.

We will sell you an Organ at $5 per month. We will sell Pianos and Organs cheaper for cash than any other house. We will sell Pianos for $15 per month till paid for. Come to the McSmith music house, or address Mrs. S. A. McSmith, Greenville, S. C.

The street leading to the depot and the public square will be handsomely illuminated on next Tuesday night at the arrival of the train in honor of the visit of Governor Hampton. There should be a full turn out of all the people of the town of Anderson that the law had been duly ratified, and invite Messrs. E. B. Murray, J. B. Moore and its vicinity to welcome the Governor.

The public square would be a good point at which to meet.

The First Lieutenant of the Palmetto Riflemen went into the talor's room to try on his uniform on last Monday, and about the time he got it on several of his companions seized him and carried him to the public square, where they deposited him carefully and called for a speech. His eloquence had fled, however, and he tried to beat a hasty retreat.

Gen. W. W. Humphreys has received from the Adjutant and Inspector General's office an order authorizing the formation of viding pasturage for their stock as for his two Cavalry Regiments in Anderson County, and he will issue next week the necessary orders for their organizations, by the election of Field Officers. The election, we learn, will be held at the time indicated in

On last Wednesday morning Mr. W. P. Cook, who was so unfortunate as to kill a colored woman in the Dark Corner, as was stated a few weeks ago in our columns, came forward and delivered himself to Sheriff McConnell. Soon after, he left in company with counsel and the Sheriff to appear before Judge T. J. Mackey at Pickens Court House for the purpose of getting

Among the amusing features of the coming review on next Wednesday will be the participation in the parade of the Pendleton Juvenile Artillery Company. This Company will have a small brass signal gun, mounted and drawn by six donkeys, each one of which will be rode by a little boy. Pendleton is the greatest town in the State for donkeys-they are all quadrupeds, however.

Col. Thomas Dodamead has consented to run an extra train from Belton to Anderson on next Wednesday, to arrive at 10:20 a. m. and leave at 4:45 p. m., in order to accommodate persons wishing to attend the review on that day from Belton, Williamston or Greenville. An extra train will also be run from Abbeville, if it can be arranged. This will be a very great accommodation to large numbers of our citizens, who will be very thankful to Col. Dodamead for his consid-

The entertainment on next Wednesday evening bids fair to be an enjoyable occusion. In addition to the presentation of "The Last Loaf," a favorite drama, there will be rendered some very fine music, instrumental and vocal, by persons of acknowledged musical talent. The entertainment is given for the benefit of the Palmetto Band, and we hope the young ladies and gentlemen who have shown so much public spirit in getting it up will be liberally paconized by our citizens. The admission ee will be moderate.

Shortly after the arrival of the Greenville train yesterday, says the Columbia Register of the 17th instant, a policeman arrested one Frank Gaillard, colored, from Anderson County, who had in his possession a dianond ring which he had offered to sell to Mr. C. C. Radcliffe, the jeweler, for a mere trifle. The prisoner claims that the ring belongs to his wife. He will, however, be cared for by the police, until information can be received from Anderson as to who he is and what right he has to be wearing diamonds and the "duds" of a tramp.

The epicures of Anderson enjoyed the elegant supper furnished by the ladies on last Tuesday evening. The sweet smiles of the young ladies, the delicious cakes, fruits, et ceteras, made some of the bachelor portion of our population open their eyes and stare as if they had waked up suddenly in some fairy land. And then how those fellows opened their mouths was really alarming. The entertainment was a splendid success, and the ladies merit much praise in their efforts to assist the Palmetto Band in furnishing our town with good music. We raise our hat, and in behalf of the young men who compose the Band return thanks for the supper; in behalf of the epicures we say thanks, and for the bachelors, who never see and admire beauty only at a distance, we say thanks for the happiness it afforded them to be permitted to stand off and admire-only this and nothing more.

Some music dealers North will say and put more on paper and send it all over the country than they dare tell you to your face. Do not be humbugged, but come to Mrs. McSmith's music house, Greenville, S. C., and we will surprise you by our low prices for the very best Pianos and Organs. †

MR. EDITOR: Your remarks on the Fence Law in last paper exhibits, in its spirit, a little impatience at the worry and confusion existing and resulting necessarily from so sudden a change in the habits of a people in the last century or more. Permit me to suggest that there is no disposition among even the opponents of the law to avoid or evade its provisions, or throw any unnecesary obstructions in the practical operations of the law. All the confusion resulting has been produced, not from the practical operations of the law," but from the unfavorable conditions under which it was inaugurated. The first mistake was on the invitations had been extended to the mili-Mr. S. A. Branyon, the Orderly Sergeant part of the Legislature in framing the originary organizations of Oconee, Greenville, inal bill, in omitting a provision that if a Pickens and Abbeville Counties to be presplied to the whole County. A second cause for the confusion resulting in the public mind was the delay on the part of the County Commissioners in surveying and letting out the contracts for building the County fence. Until this survey was made the people could not be satisfied as to the exact condition of things in regard to the law. As soon as it was certainly known was to be immediately enforced, the people generally, with a commendable zeal, set about adapting themselves, in their stock interests, to the great change proposed. Even in those sections where the opposition to the law was most decided, the people are not behind any others in accommodating themselves to the law. One of the strong est opponents of the measure in Brushy Creek township said to me the other day as he was about finishing his pasture fences: 'I had nothing to do with the making of > own. This is the proper spirit, and will, we trust, be imitated by all. Gradually as the practical operation of the law begins to develop itself, the benefits to be derived are becoming more and more apparent. It will take more time, however, than the law allows for all the people to prepare themselves for it, and until a reasonable time has been towards each other. Indeed, where there is no malicious or evil intent apparent, we think all the difficulties likely to arise between neighbors may be satisfactorily adjusted without litigation. Barring the delay in the matter, unavoidable no doubt, the County Commissioners, in the discharge of the new and responsible duties imposed by the new law, have exhibited rare good sense and a very accommodating spirit, to which the most ceremonious can find no objection. Of course the details of the great change proposed is so new and radical that no one can certainly say in advance what will be the ultimate result, yet the principle embodied and upon which the law has been

MR. EDITOR: If coming events cast their shadows before, the prospects of independent candidates is under a dark shadow. The unity of action exhibited by the late County Convention must have struck every casual observer. So far, so good. The Democracy of Anderson gained strength in its last Conversion. The several Democratic Clubs in the County acted wisely in their selection of delegates. While the people are willing to devote their time, talents and energies in maintaining their self-respect and guarding their liberties, the country is safe. But "eternal vigilance is the price of liberty."

If there be any who hoped to hoist themselves into office by playing the demagogue such unanimity as marked the last Conven tion on the part of the Democracy throughout the coming campaign will put a quietus on all the ambitious hopes of independent No independent candidate need think that the Anderson Democracy will sell its birthright for a mess of Radical pettage. The people have learned a lesson. Ten years of successful stealing ought not to happen more than once in the same generation. To suffer the government to get into the hands of independents is to put it into the hands of the Radical party (which is only a synonym for thievery) two years hence. Beware of wolves in sheep's clothing. PERSEUS.

At a meeting of the Williamston Guards, held in their hall on the 16th instant, it was unanimously resolved that we nominate Capt. Milt. Tribble, of Belton, for Colonel of the Eastern Cavalry Division of Anderson County. Captain Tribble is the faithful and energetic commander of the first campaign rifle company organized in this County in '76. He is a popular citizen, was a good soldier, and we therefore (and for other reasons) respectfully submit his name to the suffrage of the several Companies composing this Division.

THE ANDRESON DEMOCRACY. Anderson Club.

A special meeting of the Anderson Democratic Club was held in the Court House Monday evening last to make necessary arrangements for the political meeting on Wednesday, 27th instant, and was called to order by Vice President J. L. Tribble. Maj. E. B. Murray stated that he had been authorized by the County Executive Comnittee to work in conjunction with a committee from this Club in perfecting arrangements necessary for the occasion; that the grove near the residence of Gen. Humphreys had been selected as the place for the meeting; that it was expected to have the largest crowd in Anderson on that day that ever assembled here, and that the citizens of the town should endeavor to do their whole duty in contributing to its success. Gen. Humphreys moved to appoint a ommittee of five, of which the acting Presdent of this meeting should be chairman, the remaining four to be appointed at his leisure, to co-operate with Maj. Murray in making whatever arrangements they might deem necessary. Motion prevailed. The Executive Committee was instructed to order as many flags as necessary for the coming campaign for the use of the Demoratic party. On motion, Maj. Murray was requested to prepare and circulate a paper among the ousiness men and citizens of the town, soliciting their signatures to the same, asking the Town Council to illuminate the public buildings on the night of the 26th instant in honor of Governor Hampton, pledging themselves to illuminate their private places
