We are informed that Gov. Hampton has so far recovered from his threatened attack trip to the mountains, and that he will be present at the meeting in Fendleton on Friday next. That will be a very great attraction for the meeting.

We regret to announce the death of Mrs. Elizabeth Moors, wife of Mr. Bruce Moore, of Hopewell Township, which occurred on last Sunday, after an illness of several weeks from fever. Her remains were interred at Hopewell on Monday, in the presence of many friends and relatives who nourn the departed one.

The "army worm" has made its appear ance in this community, and is destroying the crops of young turnips, clover, etc. The worms stracked the washing of a gentleman in fown the other day and ruined the clother. At present the ravages are confined to small spots, and we hope that the pest may not become general.

The people of Pendleton are making immense preparations to render the meeting next Friday a grand success in every respect In the ceting line a number of beeves, with forty sheep, &c., have been subscribed, and nents have been perfected on the same large scale. The delegation from Anderson to the partanburg meeting last week returned me on Saturday, and report everything as having passed off very pleasantly. The sessions of the State Grange and Fair Asscciation were well attended and were interest ing and harmonious throughout, being par-ticipated in by prominent gentlemen from all sections of the State. The citizens of Spartanburg alld everything in their power to make the stay of her visitors as pleasant as possible, who were favorably impressed with the place and its people.

Mr. John M. Moorhead brought us or Tuesday a limb from one of his peach trees, which is indeed a curiosity, and presents an unaccountable freak of nature. It has hes which ripen about the first of August, and then others which are continually getting ripe all along until the frosts of the fall. The tree came from a seed, and its mode of bearing is very queer. All of the blooms appear at the same time, but the fruit ripers from August to October, so that a large ripe peach may be pulled in August from the side of a little one which will not

The members of the Presbyterian Church at Central have arranged an excursion from that town on the Air Line Railroad to Atlanta and return, the proceeds from which are to go to the benefit of the Church. The fare for the round trip will be only two dollars, and arrangements have been made with hotels in Atlanta to furnish board at from one dollar a day up to the regular rates. All persons wishing to avail themselves of this excur-

The temperance nices, the Chairman for the day, introduced Messrs. G. F. Tolly and H. I. Epting. who delivered eloquent addresses, after which Mr. L. P. Smith spoke with force and interest to the Sunday School workers, and his speech was much enjoyed by those present. A recess was then taken and a pic nic dinner disposed of in a manner to pay it a very high compliment as to quality and abundance. In the afternoon, Mr. M. E. Mitchell delivered a practical address to the crowd repaired to the residence of Maj.

followed by Mr. G. F. Tolly, who was pressed into service to make a political speech, which he did in an able and impressive manner, calling out frequent and hearty applause. The meeting then adjourned, after having contemplated most agreeably four very important themes.

The occasion of the tempers are and political picnic at the Carswell Institute on Wednesday, 14th instant, called out the attendance of a large number of ladies and gentlemen from that neighborhood and the surrounding country. The morning was devoted to the interests of the temperance cause, and excellent and impressive ad- No. 2, introducing the speakers. In the dresses were delivered in its behalf by Messrs. C. V. Barnes and A. J. Watt, after which the bountifu! supply of good things for the inner man were duly taken care of. In the afternoon the Democratic Club met and listened to able political speeches from Cols. E. M. Rucker and W. E. Walters, after which a resolution, postponing the nomination of candidates, was adopted, and the meeting adjourned. The new Town Council were sworn in on last Monday, and have gone to work in the proper spirit. On Tuesday they met and re-elected Messrs. Joseph R. Fant and L. C. Braddy Town Marshals and Mr. T. C. Ligon Town Clerk. These selections are good ones and as the officers named have served with entire satisfaction to our people for the past year, their re-election will be generally grat-ifying. The Council passed a resolution fixing the price of granting licenses for selling spirituous liquors by retail at three hun-dred dollars, in accordance with the resolution of the Town Democratic Club, which nominated and elected the present Council. Messrs. G. F. Tolly, E. F. Murrah and J. C. Whitefield were appointed a committee to inquire into the propriety of purchasing a fown clock. Other business was postponed, and the Council will meet regularly until full and proper disposition of it is made.

The Grange picnic in the Corner on last Saturday brought out a large and intelligent ongregation of ladies and gentlemen from hat and surrounding townships. The neeting was called to order by the Chairman, Mr. R. P. Clinkscales, who made an excellent address by way of opening, and introduced as the first speaker Hon. J. N. Lipscomb, Master of the State Grange, who delivered an able, eloquent and exhaustive ddress upon the Grange and kindred subects. At the conclusion of this speech dinner was announced, and as is usual at such atherings in the Corner, the most ample provisions had been made to entertain all who were present, and the dinner was greatly enjoyed. After dinner Mr. W. W. Russell, Master of Pomona Grange, delivered a fine address upon the same subject which concluded the regular order for the day. Mesars, J. W. Norris and B. F. Crayton were called for by the crowd, and responded in clear, forcible and interesting olltical speeches, which were well received and roundly applauded. The meeting then adjourned.

The Grange and Democratic Club pic nic in Brushy Creek on last Wednesday was a most successful and pleasant meeting. The exercises of the day were presided over by Mr. S. J. King, and in the morning they consisted of prayer by Rev. Mr. Griffin, and able and practical speeches from Cols. R. W. Simpson and W. S. Pickens upon the Grange, its origin, development and future. These addresses were instructive to the andience and very encouraging to the Patrons of Husbandry. At the conclusion of these speeches an elegant basket pic nic dinner vas spread, and every one present partook of the bountiful repast, after which the meeting re-assembled to listen to timely, earnest and pointed political speeches from Messrs. R. W. Simpson, E. B. Murray, W. S. Pickens and T. H. Russell. In politics the people of Brushy Creek are thoroughly alive and are well organized. Their mee ing was enthusiastic, and all the indications promise better results than were achieved in 1876. At this meeting eight colored men joined the club, and a great many more are expected to join soon.

The citizens of Rock Mills township and of the surrounding country were greatly shocked on last Tuesday to learn that Henry, a little son of Mr. Joseph A. McLeskey, about twelve years of age, had been accidentally drowned in Seneca River. Henry and a younger brother were engaged in pull-ing fodder in a field near the river, and about ten o'clock he went in bathing by about ten o'clock he went in batting himself. He remained so long that his ing.

A. E. Scuppay, Secretary. arriving at the river bank found his clothes but could see nothing of Henry, whereupon the alarm was given, and upon the assemblage of a number of the neighbors the river was searched, and the body found some fifty yards below the bathing place. When found he had been drowned for more than three hours, so-that resuscitation was impossible. This occurrence is an exceedingly sad one, and is greatly lamented by the whole community. Henry McLeskey was a bright and energetic lad, who was much beloved by his friends. His parents have the warmest sympathies of the entire community in this sudden and sad bereavement : O 1991 ! C. C. Once more the reaper has been in our midst and removed from life a most excellent and pious young lady. Miss Hattle, daughter of Mr. E. F. Murrah, died on last Sunday morning after a long and tedious illness, during which she received every care and attention which it was possible for medical skill or devoted parents to render. It was, however, impossible to arrest the course of the destroyer, and after suffering for months she passed from a world of angulsh and sorrow with a peace and resignation which render even death beautiful, and point to a happy state beyond. Miss Murrah was an intelligent, christian lady, and had for several years been a consistent and active member of the Methodist Church at this place. She was affable towards those she met, and was greatly beloved by her friends. Her early death is lamented by many friends and acquaintances, who sympathise most sincerely with her bereaved parents in their sorrow. Her emains were placed to rest in the Presbyterian Church-yard on last Monday, afte very solemn, beautiful and appropriate funeral services, which were conducted by Revs. H. F. Chrietzberg and D. E. Frierson. The Grange and political picnic at Evergreen on last Friday was a pleasant affair. The morning was devoted to Grange exercises principally, and was presided over by Maj. E. J. Earle, Master of Hampton Grange. The essays expected for the occasion were not presented, and their places were filled by speeches. John E. Breazeale, Esq., was first introduced as the orator of The Temperance, Sunday School, Grange the day, and responded in an able address upon the Grange, its work-and its prospects. He was followed in excellent speeches by Messrs. B. F. Crayton, J. W. Norris and question was first taken up, and Capt. John B. Moore, after which ar intermission was taken for dinner, which was provided for all present in a sumptuous manner. In the afternoon the meeting was organized as a political meeting, and Mr. B. A. Davis was elected chairman. Maj. E. B. Murray was introduced as the first speaker, and before he had concluded his remarks the clouds, which had been lowering all day, began raining, so that the meeting was

> The military and political pic nic near Mr. G. W. Farmer's residence, in the Fork, on last Saturday, was largely attended by ladies and gentlemen. The companies of Capts. Kidd and Mason were present, and for an hour or two practiced company drilling, in which they showed considerable proficiency, and thereby afforded entertain ment to those present. At the conclusion of the drill the speaking began, Maj. G. W. Maret, President of Fork Democratic Club. morning Messrs. J. A. Hoyt, E. M. Rucker and E. B. Murray spoke. Dinner was then announced, and one of the most abundant and delicious pic nie dinners we have ever seen was done ample justice to by those who were present. After this the crowd reassembled and speeches were made by Messrs. W. C. Brown, R. W. Simpson, H. R. Vandiver, F. E. Harrison and G. W. Maret. Throughout the entire day the audience was attentive and the speaking was pointed, forcible and entertaining. order of the day was excellent, and nothing occurred to mar the pleasure of the occasion. The citizens of the Fork are behind none in the interest in politics and their club organizations.

The drill of the upper Battalion of the Friday was a great success. Col. L. E. Campbell commanded the drill, while Cols. M. P. Tribble, J. T. C. Jones and Maj. J. N. Vandiver were present as reviewing officers. Col. Campbell displayed an unexpected proficiency as a drill master, and handled his battalion with skill. Captains Cox, Guyton, Dacus, Snipes and their respective companie evinced therough acquaintance with their duties, and the entire manœuvers of the drill were carried out with soldier-like precision. Captains Horton, Martin and Neal were also at their posts in handsome uniforms, and everything presented a thoroughly military appearance. After the drill an hour was taken for dinner, and the visitors present were most bountifully and hospitably provided for by the citizens of Williamston. Dinner over, the crowd reassembled at the stand, and Col. Campbell introduced Maj. E. B. Murray, who delivered a military and political address, at the conclusion of which Dr. John Wilson, President of the Williamston Democratic Club, ntroduced Dr. W. C. Brown and Col. J. L. WHY NOT ABATE THE NUISANCE!

EDITOR INTELLIGENCER: Now that a new Fown Council has been inducted into office it will be expected to project reforms of some kind, on the principle-that a "new broom sweeps clean." While it is commendable to seek the convenience of the people in putting a town clock upon the steeple of ty as a suitable person to fill the office of the Court House, it is equally incumbent | County Treasurer-subject to the decision to prevent the inconvenience of any portion of the primary election. His qualifications of the community. A nuisance of long standing is the market bell, which is caused to ring at a most unseasonable hour in the norning, and which does not avail the supposed purpose of its ringing. It is an annoyance to several families, who are entitled to consideration, and does not meet the object desired in giving publicity to the fact that beef is in the market, except to the very few who are in close and uncomfortable proximity to the market-house. If the bell could be heard over the town, an excuse might be framed for a continuance of the costom. Will the city fathers look into the matter? Rusticus.

Hay ing taught one week at each of the following places: Fairview, St. Paul, Bethesda and Mt. Pisgah. These Churches were near enough for the different schools to visit. Consequently the attendance was large. Great interest was manifested on the part of each school in studying and cultivating local music, and notwithstanding the heat of the weather has been oppressive most of the time, we were favored with a large attendance and the best of order. We proposed to the different schools the propriety of organizing a singing club or asso ciation, to be called the singing association of Brushy Creek township, All the schools, with many others concurring, were invited to participate in selecting officers, which resulted as follows: J. W. Pickens, President; J. B. Griffin, Vice President; J. B. Singleton, Secretary. The Association resolved to hold its first session with Bethesda Church on Saturday before the second Sunday in September.

MR. EDITOR: Will you allow me a small place in your paper to explain the financial report of the Williamston Baptist Church, which was read at the last Association? I think this is due to the Church, for as the report reads it would lead people to think that we did not pay our pastor.

I make up my report from August to August. In 1877 our pastor left for the seminary the first of September. We paid him up to that time, and did not have any pastor the remainder of the year, and have paid only a small portion on pastor's salary for this year. We give, or will at the close of this year, $120 to our pastor.
