Another lot of sewing machines just received by C. A. Reed, Agent, with new attachments and improvements. He is prepared to offer great inducements on his popular machines.

Judge Aldrich, of Barnwell, who is at resent holding the June term of the Circuit Court for Anderson County, is the only one of the old Judges of South Carolina who has been honored by a re-election to the judiciary by the Democratic party under the new Constitution. He has, by his course upon the Bench, fitly linked the old to the new, and in the discharge of his duties, both before and since reconstruc-tion, has elicited the approval and applause of the people of South Carolina. His man-ly and dignified protest against the military usurpation which swept away the old judi-ciary was his last act under the former syscuit Court for Anderson County, is the only ciary was his last act under the former syselves. Let us not dwell on the humiliation the mortification of these eight years of misery, fraud and plunder; but draw from that period of degradation this lesson: If in those eight years of misrule and frightful tem, and has gone into history as an inde pendent and eloquent speech, illustrative of the Carolina judiciary. Upon his second in those eight years of misrule and frightun exaction, we were able to bear up and pre-serve our manhood and our property, what may we not do under a benign and just government? Think of this, gentlemen, and I am sure you will agree with me that there is a future for South Carolina to rival if not surpass her past. On this occasion I deem it necessary to call attention to the oath you have taken. cession to the Bench, one of his first judicial actions was the trial of the great Bond case, in which he and Judge Thomson had the independence to oppose the payment of the fraudulent bonds which were sought to be imposed as an additional burden upon our people, and the ability to sustain their position by a clear and able exposition of the law applicable thereto. This is Judge Aldrich's first visit to Ander-the provisions of the oath have not been observed in some sections of the State, so den upon our people, and the ability to far as it relates to secrecy. It has happened that it gets out how the Jury stood and what was said and done in the Grand Jury room, which defeats the object of the law. It often occurs that some influential man in son, and by his dignity, courtesy and ability he has made a very favorable impression, both upon the bar and upon our people. We have made inquiry during the past week or ten days of farmers from nearly every section of the County as to the probable yield of the wheat crop, which is now ripe and is being harvested and threshed, and we are gratified to state that it is the universal opinion that there has not been a finer crop of this most important cereal grown in this County for several years past, and unless some mishap should occur within a few days it will all be saved. The cotton crops throughout the County are wheat crop is one of the most valuable, not only to the farmer, but to our whole people, and it is to be hoped that the fine yield this year will render it unnecessary for us to draw on the surplus of the Northwest for our supplies of flour next winter and spring.

It is a great blessing to be able to feed ourselves. The oat crop is reported to be tolerably good. Owing to the hard winter on the fall crop and the dry spring on the spring crop, it will not yield as bountifully as the wheat. However, an average crot will be made, and that is saying a good dea the past few years have been paying more ttention to this crop than formerly. Although in many fields it stands thinly on the ground, and the stalk is low, the heads are large and well filled. We learn from a private letter that a colored man about 23 years of age, who claims to have come from this County, and who says his name is Henry Thomas, was arrest ted at Reed Creek in Hart County, Georgia on Monday last on suspicion of having committed robbery, as he had in his posses sion several new pistols and a quantity of clothing that had never been worn. He resisted the constabled when arrested, and quite a difficulty ensued, in which the prisoner received several painful wounds at the hands of a little boy who was called to the assistance of the constable. Thomas boasted that he could live without working and had raised several rows in the commu persons desiring further particulars can obtain them by communicating with Mr. S. C.

Fisher, Reed Creek, Hart County, Ga. There are a number of colored men about Anderson who are too trifling and lazy to earn their living by honest labor, and as a consequence resort to all manner of tricks to keep themselves in bread, among which is gambling. It has been known for some time that this practice was followed by some of them, and on last Saturday evening Mr. Joseph R. Fant, our efficient Chief of Police, succeeded in catching up with five fellows who had secluded themselves in a vacant house near the jail, where they were carrying on their mischievous work. They were arrested and on Tuesday evening brought before the Council, who sent the case up to the Circuit Court, where it is hoped they will have full justice meted out to them.

you, gentlemen, when I look back and think of those dark days, I am lost in won-der and astonishment. The question con-stantly recurs, How did we live? Thank Ged! the neble means the live? Thank bered. The future will, perhaps, develop the part which Hymen is to play as another result of this gathering. TTRO.

OBITUARY.

It often occurs that some influential man in a community violates the law, and yet from his power and position no one is willing to incur his enmity by prosecuting him. It then becomes the duty of the Grand Jury to present the case, but if it is liable to be told who presents the case, no one may be found who is willing to report the violation of the law for fear that such action would produce a breach between them. It is Departed this life, in the full communion of the Presbyterian Church, JANIE M., the beloved wife of Walker W. Russell, of Pendleton, S. C., and the tender, loving mother of six little children who can never know what they have lost. Of very supe-rior mental endowments, she had also the bicket size of charactor-gentleness allied Rnow what they have lost. Of very supe-rior mental endowments, she had also the highest gifts of character-gentleness allied to firmness; patience, joined with energy and force, unselfishness, constancy, and unswerving truth. Clear in her perceptions, ready in the acquisition of knowledge and having a sound judgment, yet was her or-nament that meek and quiet spirit which in the sight of God is of great price, and which, for a husband and a family, makes a real and true home. Her last liness was of the most intense and protracted sufferings, borne with un-complaining cheerfulness and fortitude. She obtained her release Monday, April 28, 1879, at the age of thirty-three, and after a married life of thirteen years. She is not dead, because Christ has abol-ished death for all His people, but she sleeps in Jesus. Her emancipated spirit we cannot doubt is with her Lord. Her body, still united to Christ rests in her grave in the old Stone Church yard until the resur-rection morning, when it shall be quickened through the Spirit who dwells in us. When in answer to her question the phy-sician told her she was dying, all her re-maining strength was summoned to be spent in an hour of counsels, exhortations, and prayers for the dear ones surrounding her bed. It was a melting and yet a tri-umphant scene. Not a minute dd she sur-vive her last words : "It is hard to die, but sweet to die in Jesus." And so she depart-ed to be with Christ, which is far better. J. B. A. produce a breach between them. It is therefore of the greatest importance that the whole of the proceedings in your room shall be kept entirely secret from all persons shall be kept entirely secret from all persons who are not on your panel, not only during the term of the Court, but ever afterwards. Great injustice has heretofore been done in the Courts of this State in consequence of incompetent juries, which have been large-ly made up of improper persons. The law of this State provides that our juries shall be composed of men of good character, in-telligence and free from legal exceptions. Instead of this I have seen the most inno-

be composed of men of good character, in-telligence and free from legal exceptions. Instead of this, I have seen the most igno-rant and incompetent juries trying the most important cases. In one instance I remember to have seen a case involving the hand-writing of a will in an estate worth a large sum, and on that jury sateleven igno-rant colored men, who could neither read nor write, and one white man. Under the law there should be none but the best men summoned on our juries, and the board of jury commissioners should not put any man's name on the list unless they know him to be a man of good character, intelligent ours.

him to be a man of good character, intelligent and free from legal exceptions. I am high-ly gratified to see a marked improvement in this respect all over the State. It is always a pleasure to me to see colored men who are suitable and capable of rendering jury service, and wherever there are those of this service, and wherever there are those of this race who possess these qualifications they should be placed on the jury lists as an en-couragement and reward for their attain-ments and character. You have all of the County officers under your supervision, and can send for them and inspect their books and the manner in which their duties are performed. You should look over these officers, from the highest to the lowest. See that your roads, bridges and public buildings are in good condition. The wheat threshers have gone to work in earnest, and are pushing their business with about as much energy as any set of men we ever saw. Nearly all of the threshers in the County are propelled by steam, and one-tenth is the toll collected.

The special meetings in the Baptist Church continue with increasing interest. Rev. C. H. Strickland, pastor of the Curtis Baptist Church in Augusta, Ga., and a brother of Rev. W. H. Strickland, has been assisting in the meeting since Thursday morning last.

The Union Meeting of the 2nd District, Saluda Association, will convene with the Baptist Church at Belton on the second Friday in June. Introductory sermon will be preached by Rev. W. H. King, Doctrinal sermon by Rev. M. McGee and the Missionary sermon by R. W. Burts.

Several patches of wheat in Anderson have been threshed during the past week, some of which made very fine yields, among them are the following : Dr. S. M. Holland's, 12 acres, 55 bushels ; Mr. E. W. Byrum's, 12 acres, 602 bushels; Mrs. V. Burress', 12 acres, 34 bushels; Mr. P. Spellman's, 13 acres, 631 bushels.

Joe Arnold, the colored man that had been confined in jail at this place for several months past, charged with having been connected with the murder of the Franklins, near Ninety-Six, some time ago, was tried in Abbeville last week and acquitted. He was defended by H. G. Scudday, Esq., of Anderson.

We were favored with a call on Tuesday last from Col. Earlie L. Jennings, who is spending several days in Anderson in the interest of the Augusto. Chronicle and Constituttonalist, one of the best dailies in the South. To those wishing a good daily or

The commencement exercises of Furman University begins on Sunday evening next, 15th inst., and will continue through the four days following, closing with a recep-tion by the alumni and students on Thurs-day arguing. The programme is a good intelligent young lady and a valued member of society. Her remains were interred in the graveyard at Lebanon Church on Tuesday in the presence of a large and sorrowing congregation of relatives and friends.

store the old State to her ancient character and dignity. And yet, there is a feeling of sadness softening and subduing these exultant an-ticipations. The hearty, the cordial grasp of your beloved Whitner, so eminantly worthy of your highest respect and esteem, is not here to greet me as in the good old days when South Carolina was the synonym of patriotic virtue, generous hospitality and high honor. How rapidly are these types of the old gentility passing away! I see all around me, every where I go, how these lessons have been inculcated. Fortu-nately for us, the children of these men were old enough to be proud of the performance of their fathers and strong enough to main-tain the family reputation. These sons are the working men of to-day and, in emula-ting the example of their ancestors, will plant in the hearts of their children the seeds of vittue and honor, to preserve through all time the ancient reputation of their State. The programme is a good one, and those of our readers who contem-plate attending the exercises can count on a good time. As will be seen by reference to the proc-lamation of Governor Simpson in another column, a reward of $150 is offered by the State for the apprehension and delivery in any jail of this State of W. A. Ferguson, the murderer of Matt Hatten. Our readers will remember that the crime was commit-ted about a month or six weeks ago in the Corner township of this County, and up to this time very little effort has been made to secure his arrest. We are pained to record the death of Miss Mary Antoinette Welborn, which occurred at the residence of her father, Mr. L. H. Welborn, of Garvin township, on Sunday afte noon, Sth inst., after a painful illness of fifteen weeks, in the nineteenth year of her age.
