

BRIEF MENTION.

Court is holding in Abbeville this week. The stores now keep open until after midnight.

A rattlesnake with 18 rattles was killed near Bartley's Bridge last week.

The handsomest man on the grounds on Thursday belonged to the Eastern Regiment.

Nearly all our merchants are in Northern markets laying in their fall and winter goods.

Dr. Frierson will preach a sermon especially for the children on next Sunday afternoon.

The Anderson Palmetto Band will discourse music on the public square to-morrow evening at 8 o'clock.

Mr. R. N. White, of Augusta, Ga., who has been spending some time in our midst, returned home on Monday.

Saturday passed off quietly, and aside from the sale of a few tracts of land by the Sheriff nothing worthy of note occurred.

Work on the new Presbyterian Church is progressing slowly at present. Mr. Kaufman is now putting up the dome.

A couple of dancing and bewitching jasses will give a visit on Tuesday, and put the hearts of our boys in a quiver.

A new invoice Hats just received by C. A. Reed, Agent. His Hat trade still increases, and he is determined to keep the prices down.

The brick work of the new stores on McCully's Corner is progressing finely, and a favorable weather will be finished next week.

The minutes of the Saluda Baptist Association have been printed and are now ready for delivery. The Churches will please send for their quotas.

The cats are being thinned out about Anderson by a malignant disease. It is a pity that something of the kind could not be rid of a few of the canine tribe.

Don't lose sight of the County Fair, whatever else you may do. Prepare something for exhibition, and help to make the occasion an interesting and attractive one.

Rev. W. H. Strickland preached to a large congregation in the ball room of the hotel at White Sulphur Springs, Greenbrier, W. Va., on last Sunday morning week.

Rev. M. McGee has just closed an interesting and successful meeting in his Church at Grove Station. During the meeting the Church received fifteen new members.

The County Treasurer makes an announcement in another column in which nearly every citizen of the County is interested. Read his notice and govern yourself accordingly.

Mr. J. G. Cunningham arrived in Anderson with his accomplished bride on Saturday, and has since been receiving the congratulations and well-wishes of his many friends.

Appointments of the Y. M. C. A. for next Sunday: To conduct the afternoon meeting, A. P. Hubbard; for the evening meeting, W. W. Keys, L. P. Smith; Jail Committee, W. C. Andrews, C. F. Jones.

A primary school for girls will be opened in Anderson on the 9th inst. by Miss Emma L. Tew, an accomplished teacher, and a grade school for the finest female schools in the South. See advertisement.

Mr. J. A. Daniels returned home on Monday after a short and successful trip to Atlanta in the interest of his fire-arm advertisement. The Atlanta papers pronounce him the best thing that ever happened.

Mr. F. B. Henderson, the proprietor of the Alken Brewery, has purchased the printing materials and subscription list of the Alken Brewery, and has consolidated the two papers in one under the title of the Alken and Review.

The Hartwell Sun says that the grading on the Hartwell Railroad is about finished, and that the work of putting down cross-ties and iron would probably be commenced the latter part of last or the first of this week. Capt. Craft is pushing the work with energy.

The camp meeting at Providence was largely attended this year, as usual. A large number of families camped on the grounds, and the stay on Sunday was unusually large. Every eye was pleased with having the meeting earlier than on former years.

Mrs. S. H. Prevost presented us on Saturday last with a cluster of tomatoes, five in number, that weighed two pounds and one ounce. They were of the Troby variety and were as pleasant to the taste as they were attractive to the eye. He will please accept our thanks.

It is rumored here that the schedule of the Greenville and Columbia Railroad will shortly be changed so as to make connection with the Air Line trains at Seneca City. Such a change would be a great accommodation to the traveling public, and would increase the income of the Road.

Mr. D. M. Stephens had the misfortune to lose a little 15-year-old daughter on Thursday night last, after an illness of about three weeks with bilious fever. Her remains were interred in the Baptist graveyard on Friday afternoon. Our sympathies are with the bereaved family.

On last Thursday afternoon a young man named Robert Hanks shot and slightly wounded a colored man named George Coleman. The shot took effect in his left thigh, and laid him up for a few days. The difficulty grew out of intoxication, and the parties have, we understand, settled the matter amicably between themselves.

Mr. W. W. Smith, of Pendleton township, brought us specimens of his turnip roots, which are of a fine white color, and fine for the season. They are of the white Dutch and purple top varieties and measure 104 and 84 inches respectively in circumference. They were sown on the 27th July, and have received thorough and careful cultivation.

We invite the attention of our readers to the change in the advertisement of the New York Cash Store. Messrs. Arnstein & Rose are entertaining a large number of guests, and deserve a generous and liberal patronage at the hands of our people. Their stock of goods is large, complete and varied, and no effort will be spared to please, both in style and on price, every one who may choose to call on them.

Rev. D. X. Laffar, of Charleston, accompanied by his family, is visiting friends in Anderson. He was pastor of the Presbyterian Church at this place during a portion of the war, and is now in the Patent Office at Washington, and was highly respected by all who knew her. A husband and one child, together with many other relatives, and a large circle of friends, mourn her death.

The first bale of new cotton was brought to town on Friday last, 29th ult., by Mr. W. F. Miller, who lives on the line of Anderson and Abbeville Counties, being a citizen of the latter county. It weighed 422 pounds, graded middling, and was bought by Messrs. Barr & Co. at 11 cents per lb. Mr. Miller is an enterprising farmer, and has many other of his Abbeville brethren, prefers to do his trading with the Anderson merchants.

The sets of clothes worn by Gen. George Washington when he surrendered to the American Congress his commission as commander-in-chief of the American Army at the close of the Revolutionary War, and which can now be seen in the Patent Office at Washington, was made in Charleston, S. C., by a Mr. John McCall, an English tailor, and the grandfather of our townsmen, Dr. J. T. McCall. This bit of history is authentic.

The entertainment in the Masonic Hall on Friday evening by the Presbyterian ladies was a success in every respect. It was attended by a large number of guests, and by the young people especially, who always find these occasions very pleasant, inasmuch as it affords an opportunity for social intercourse. Everything in the way of refreshments was disposed of, the net proceeds amounting to about $40. The excellent music and pleasure added very much to the interest and enjoyment of the evening.

Anderson Market Reports.

The prices current for the following articles in this market are: Cotton—middling, 10 to 10 1/2—quiet. Corn—90 to 100. Peas—$1.00. Flour—$5.50 to $7.50. Meal—$5 to $100. Sugar—12 to 10 1/2. Coffee—12 to 10 1/2. Bagging—11 to 12 1/2. Ties—$1.75 to $2.50.

The Upper Battalion of the Western Regiment will meet for Battalion Drill at Gilman Shearer's on Saturday, 13th September. All commissioned and non-commissioned officers will meet on the day before at 10 a. m. Lieut.-Col. Commanding Battalion.

SOMETHING NEW UNDER THE SUN.—A woman is dawning upon the life of a new era. Hitherto she has been content to suffer the ills of mankind and her own besides. The frequent and distressing irregularities peculiar to her sex have long been to her the "direful spring of woes unnumbered."
