BRIEF MENTION.

Mr. J. O. McDaniel and wife, of Allatoona, Ga., are visiting relatives in Anderson.

The Carolina Collegiate Institute opens on Monday, 12th instant. See advertise-

See the advertisement of Mrs. C. R. Mur-ray's school for young ladies, which appears in another column this week.

Married, December 24th, 1879, by J. L. Bryan, Esq., Mr. W. P. Carnes and Miss Mattie Hall. All of Anderson County.

A dozen of second crop apples, varying in size from a patridge egg to that of a tur-key egg, were gathered from a tree in the garden of Mrs. V. Burriss last week.

Mr. S. A. Arnstein, of Camden, formerly of Anderson, has been in our midst several days. He is the senior of the firm of Messra. Arnstein & Rose, a man of fine business qualifications and still likes Anderson.

The Sons of Temperance and Knights of Honor have moved into their new hall over the store of Messrs A. B. Towers & Co. It is a nest, comfortable hall, and will accomdate seventy-five or a hundred persons. The Sunday School meeting in the Meth-odist Church on Sunday afternoon will be addressed by Revs. Drs. Frierson and Jones, and probably others. The Sunday Schools of the town and public generally are invited to attend

3.1. The citizens of Broadsway township are requested to meet at the new school house near Erskine's Grossing on Saturday, 10th instant. to confer with the school trustees in regard to the manner of conducting the free schools the ensuing year.

Mr. Jesse Ashley had his leg broken on Christmas day at Hones Path by his horse falling backwards with him. His injuries ware very serious, but we are glad to learn that he is doing as well as could be expected, and that it is hoped he will recover without he loss of his leg.

The regular quarterly conference of the Methodist Church will be held on nert Saturday. Rev. S. B. Jones, D. D., Presid-ing Elder, will be present, and will preach on Sanday morning and evening. The Lord's Supper will be administered after the morning service.

On last Friday a son of Mr. P. A. Masters rectived a painful wound in his head, face and neek by the accidental discharge of a shot gun in the hands of a son of Mr. J. H. Masters. They were standing about twenty steps apart, and it is surprising that the wound was not more dangerous. d was not more dangerous.

Wound was not more cangardos. We would call attention to the advertise-ment of Rev. L. M. Ayer's school for young ladies, which opens on the 5th inst. Gen. Ayer is a gentleman of scholarly attain ments, and is every way qualified to make an accomplished beacher. We regret that our limited space this week prevents a more extended notice of this school, the particu-lars concerning which will be found in the advertisement.

An interesting meeting of the stock-holders of the Anderson Educational Association was held in the Court House on Monday last. The following officers were elected to serve the ensuing year, viz: President, W. W. Humphreys; Directors, J. E. Breazeale, R. F. Divver, D.S. Max-weff, N. E. Sullivan, S. Bleckley, G. F. Tolly, John B. Watson, A. B. Towers, J. W. Norris, T. M. White, B. F. Whitner, W. H. Nardin.

Our citizens will have the opportunity of winnessing a heatilful sight this (Thursday) graning by the ascension of a meteoric bal-loon, which will take place on the public square at 8 o'clock. Six pieces of fireworks will be statched, which will be discharged at different times, the first display occurring at the height of three or four hundred fect. The balkon will be made and sent up by W- H O. Bits who extends a cordial in.

Very many thanks to the ladies of the Presbyterian congregation for the variety of useful and valuable articles sent on Christmas eve. It is a kindness the more appreciated because, though bestowed on many previous Christmas eves, it is still unspent. Mrs. Frierson desires to return epecial thanks to the ladies for a purse sent to ber to procupe a cooking stave a stift for especial thanks to the matter for a purse set to her to procure a cooking stove, a gift for which she wishes to express her kindest good wishes.

D. E. FRIERSON.

THE controversy between Gen. Gary and Senator Hampton over the contest of 1976 is as ill-timed as it is unfortunate. The people know that we carried the State in that memorable canvass, and are satisfied that it was done legitimately and properly. It is past, and we do not care to hear any more about it. In our opinion the subject ought not to have een re-opened, and now, as it has been revived, the next best thing for all of the parties concerned in it to do is to hush it up as soon as possible. THE fence law was amended so as to apply to the whole of Spartanburg County, beginning on the first of January, save its life.

1881, and to so much of Oconee County as lies south of the Air Line Railroad, beginning in January, 1881, provided a majority of the citizens living within that territory vote in favor of the change after territory vote in favor of the change after thirty days' notice of the election, which is to be held as soon as seventy-five real estate owners petition for it. The fence in Oconee County is to be placed on the north of the Air Line Railroad, if that Road will pay fifty dollars per mile for the fencing, and in that case the right of the fencing, and in that case the right of the fencing, and in that case the right of way of the Railroad is to be a lawful fence, otherwise the fence is to be placed the Reute of the Railroad The Lawful for the Reute of the Reute on the South of the Railroad. The law was also extended to all of Greenville County south of the Air Line Railroad, to take effect on the first of March, provided this Road will pay fifty dollars per mile for the fencing, in return for which its right of way is to be made a lawful fence. The law was likewise extended to all of Pickens County lying south of the Air Line Railroad, to take effect on the first of March next, provided the Air Line pays fifty dollars per mile for the fence, and the County of Anderson is to pay one-half of the balance, which will probably be four hundred dollars for the part of this County. The County of Pickens is to keep the fence up in future. This arrangement was consented to by the entire Anderson delegation, because our upper line fence will be to re-build next year if the law is not extended, and it was thought better to pay about four hundred dollars now and have the fence forever provided for, than to pay one thousand to fifteen hundred again next year and have to keep the fence up in future. Thus it will be seen the law is gradually extending, and will, before many years, embrace the whole of the best agricultural counties in the State.

And so the entimeration might be continued, ad infinitum, illustrating how a Southern con-trolling influence is exercised continually in a Democratic Corgress to foster and build up the already prosperous North at the expense in part of the impoverished South. And why is this done?. Simply that we may pin our faith to the fragmen-tary remains of a party that has forfeited our allegiance because it has long since for-saken the paths its founders trod. Insist in old Anderson.
One of the most pleasant occasions the people of Anderson have enjoyed during the holidays that have just closed was the pound party in Temperance Hall on Monday evening under the anspices of the Temperance Division. It was a success in every particular, and was participated in by a large number of both young and old. The little children of five and the grand parents of sixty years, and those of intermediate ages, were present, and every one seemed to enter into the pleasures of the occasion with a lively interest, and nothing occurred during the evening to mar the pleasure of any one. The table was spread about 9 o'clock, and was alden with an abundance of delicacies of every description. The election for the prettiest and most popular young ladies present resulted in favor of Miss Stark Belotte for popularity and Miss Maggie Evans for beauty. The Evans Cornet Band was present and added much to the pleasures of the evening. WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 24, 1879. To the Editor of the News and Courier : I seek no newspaper controversy, nor do I wish to obtrude myself upon the public; but I desire to be heard once more, and hope you will not deny me the generosity of your columns. of your columns. To anonymous braying I have no reply to make. To just editorial or public criticism I am not averse. But when I read over that column of editorial opinion, which you have paraded in your issue of the 22d, methinks I see a veritable Iago in the party, with whom the wish is father to the thought he expresses.

which which the wish is lather to the thought be expresses. I take no umbrage at your thus ventila-ting the "Aiken Idea," and will encourage you by every means in my power, if you will only write a few more editorials like that in the same issue, headed: "The Grant Movement. Shall the South Capitu-late or Fight?" You stand in that editorial upon my platform. Speaking of the Democratic platform. Speaking of the Democratic party, you say, "they must choose a man whom the North can trust," and that "the party, you say, "they must choose a man whom the North can trust," and that "the only way to win is by choosing a candidate in whom the North has confidence." I have asserted that no partisan under the banner of Democracy can command the confidence of the Northern people. Neither Tilden, Hendricks, Hancock nor Bayard can secure enough Northern electoral votes in my judgment, to ensure him, when backed by an entire Southern vote, an un-disputed claim to the Executive Chair. Is it treasonable or even impolitic for me to say so? If so, then I am both impolitic and traitorous. I am not called upon to nominate a Presidential ticket, but I believe there are men in the North of sufficient purity of character and weight of brain to become the people's candidate, be they nominated by even the Democratic Convention, and who would govern this country for the benefit of the whole country, and not simply for the aggrandizement of their par-ty. While I do not think either of the aforementioned men conld effect this end, I would be aspentine of success if such men.

ty. While I do not think either of the aforementioned men could effect this end, I would be sanguine of success if such men as Horatio Seymour, of New York, or David Davis, of Illinois, were placed in nomination. I desire to publish just here some Con-gressional facts, with which you may be, but I fear your readers are not, familiar. The Senate of the United States is com-

Dosed of 76 senators, 42 of whom are Demo-crats, and 30 of these 42 are from the South, not including Delaware. So that in this Democratic Senate two-thirds of the sena-tors are from the South. In the House there are 203 members, of Jan 1, 1880

THE INFALL SUTIOUL. THE undersigned, having returned to their old home at Anderson C. H., S. C., propose to open a private School for the Education of Girls. As our house con-tains eleven rooms, we can appropriate two very suitable apartments to the present use and purposes of the School, and accommo-date also a few boarders. Having, each of us, some experience in teaching our several departments, we are not without good hope of being able to give satisfaction, especially when the matter and method of educating the pupil is left entirely to our judgment. The first Session will begin at 9 o'clock a. m. on MONDAY, the 5th day of JAN-UARY, 1880, and continue twenty weeks. Tuition for the Scssion, in Literary De-partment, $10 to $20, varying between these extremes, according to the studies pursued. Instrumental and Vocal Music, each $20. Use of instrument, $2. Board, excluding monthly in advance. Scholars will be re-ceived at any time during the Session, and charged ratably from the day of entering to the close of Session. No deduction for lost illness. The tuition fees must be paid one-half at the time the pupil begins, and the ouvers after beginning. Bould assistant teachers become neces-sary, the most competent will be promptly engaged.
