BRIEF MENTION.

Mr. J. O. McDaniel and wife, of Allatoona, Ga., are visiting relatives in Anderson. The Carolina Collegiate Institute opens on Monday, 12th Instant. See advertisement. Married, December 13th, 1879, by J. L. Bryan, Esq., Mr. L. O. Burton and Miss M. J. Latham. See the advertisement of Mrs. C. R. Murray's school for young ladies, which appears in another column this week.

Married, December 24th, 1879, by J. L. Bryan, Esq., Mr. W. P. Carnes and Miss Mattie Hall. All of Anderson County.

A dozen of second crop apples, varying in size from a patridge egg to that of a tar-key egg, were gathered from a tree in the garden of Mrs. V. Burriss last week.

The Sunday School meeting in the Meth-odist Church on Sunday afternoon will be addressed by Revs. Drs. Frierson and Jones, and probably others. The Sunday Schools of the town and public generally are invited

The citizens of Broadaway township are requested to meet at the new school house near Erskine's Crossing on Saturday, 10th instant, to confer with the school trustees in regard to the manner of conducting the free schools the ensuing year.

Mr. Jesse Ashley had his leg broken on Christmas day at Honee Path by his horse falling backwards with him. His injuries were very serious, but we are glad to learn that he is doing as well as could be expected, and that it is hoped he will recover without the loss of his leg.

The regular quarterly conference of the Methodist Church will be held on next Salarday. Rev. 8. B. Jones, D. D., Presid-ing Elder, will be present, and will preach on Sanday morning and evening. The Lord's Supper will be administered after the morning service.

On last Friday a son of Mr. P. A. Masters received a painful wound in his bead, face and neck by the accidental discharge of a shot gun in the bands of a son of Mr. J. H. Masters. They were standing about twenty steps apart, and it is surprising that the wound was not more denserous. steps apart, and it is surprising wound was not more dangerous.

We would call attention to the advertise-ment of Rev. L. M. Ayer's school for young ladies, which opens on the 5th inst. Gen-ayer is a gentleman of scholarly attain-ments, and is every way qualified to make an accomplished teacher. We regret that our limited space this weak prevents a more extended notice of this school, the particu-extended notice of this beck prevents at more concerning which will be found in the

An interesting meeting of the stock-bolders of the Anderson Educational Association was held in the Court House on Monday last. The following officers were elected to serve the ensuing year, viz: Fresident, W. W. Humphreys; Directors, J. E. Breazesie, R. F. Divver, D. S. Max-well, N. K. Sullivan, S. Bleckley, G. F. Tolly, John B. Watson, A. B. Towers, J. W. Norris, T. M. White, B. F. Whitner, W. H. Nardin.

Our citizens will have the opportunity of witnessing a beautiful sight this (Thursday) evening by the ascension of a meteoric bal-loon, which will take place on the public square at 8 o'clock. Six pieces of fireworks will be attached, which will be discharged citizenst times the first display occurring with the to the public generally and the indice especially to be present and witness the sight. It will be forty feet in height. The Palmetto Band will discourse music, and if the weather is favorable the occasion will be one of unusual interest. will be one of unusual interest. We are pleased to announce to our citi-sens that the course of lectures which has been inaugurated by the Ladies' Sewing Society of the Baptist Church will be re-sumed with the opening year, and continue through the winter and spring months. Col. E. M. Rucker will lecture on next Tuesday night at the new Temperance Hall, at 7.30 o'clock. Subject.—'The Uses and Abuses of Discussion. Admission, 10 cents. We are glad to hear that our citizens gen-erally commend the Ladies' Society for their movement in giving our people such favorable opportunities of culture from the platform. Let every one try to attend and thus establish the lecture-system on a good basis in old Anderson. basis in old Anderson. One-of the most pleasant occasions the people of Anderson have enjoyed during the holidays that have just closed was the pound party in Temperance Hall on Mon-day evening under the auspices of the Tem-perance Division. It was a success in every particular, and was participated in by a large number of both young and old. The little children of five and the grand parents of sixty years, and those of intermediate ages, were present, and every one seemed to ensixty years, and those of intermediate ages, were present, and every one seemed to en-ter into the pleasures of the occasion with a lively interest, and nothing occurred during the evening to mar the pleasure of any one. The table was spread about 9 o'clock, and was laden with an abundance of delicacies of every description. The election for the prettiest and most popular young ladies present resulted in favor of Miss Stark Bel-otte for poonlarity and Miss Marzie Evens present resulted in favor of Miss Stark Bel-lotte for popularity and Miss Magrie Evans for beauty. The Evans Cornet Band was present and added much to the pleasures of the evening. The party broke up about 103 o'clock, everybody being highly pleased with the evening's entertainment. The death of Mrs. W.F. Baker, formerly Miss Cora Wilhite, and daughter of Dr. P. A. Wilhite, of Anderson, which oc-curred on last Friday at the residence of her husband in the city of Atlanta, Ga. her husband in the city of Atlanta, Ga. from heart disease, after an illness of seve-ral weeks, caused very sincere and deep re-gret in our community, where the deceased left many companions and friends by whom she was greatly beloved and admired for the beautiful and noble qualities of mind and heart, which had characterized her from childhood to the day of her death. Young, accomplished and gifted, she was an orna-ment to society; pure and devoted as a Christian, she was an example to be emula-ted by those around her; a devoted wife and a fond mother, she was the comfort and joy and delight of the happy domestic cirand a fond mother, she was the comfort and joy and delight of the happy domestic cir-cle. Desth, however, with inexorable power, has claimed her for another world, and in the morning of life, ere her young life had reached its meridian, her relatives and friends have been called to follow her hier to the tomb. Her denth was as calm and resigned as her life had been pure and constentious. The funeral services were performed in the Wesleyan Chapel in At-lanta, and on Monday the remains were brought to Anderson and interred in the Baptist cemetery on Tuesday afternoon, after very solemn and appropriate services at the grave by Revs. W. H. Strickland and J. S. Murray, in the presence of a large number of ladies and gentlemen who had assembled to pay this last tributa to their departed friend.

whom 148 are Democrats, and of these 148 Democrats 98 are from the South, or very nearly the two-thirds proportion there is in the Senate. The Forty-fourth Congress was the first since the war that was Demo-cratic, and in that body the South had a majority of the controlling party. Now, search through the legislation of the inter-vening period, and show me, if you can, where in any single particular a just share of legislation was awarded the South. 83,200,000 are voted away annually to pen-sion Northern soldiers, and not as many hundreds for Southern men, who fought the battles of the country in Mexicon or Florida or the Indian wars. $27,000,000 are appropriated annually for an army in which there is not a Southern officer. $20,-000,000 annually for a navy similarly com-On Christmas day a colored man named Newt. Latimer got drunk and undertook to "cut up" and run rough shod over men and things generally. He got badly foiled, however, and closed his day's work with-out getting to hurt any one, but on the con-trary being very generally used up himself. He received a pistol wound at the hands of a colored youth, and by his insolence and threats brought upon himself a very severe beating over the head by a merchant of this place.....A most heart-rending and unprobeating over the head by a merchant of this place.....A most heart-rending and unpro-voked murder was committed last Friday night, the 26th ult., near Fair Play. That night two young men, Turner Osborne and David Bradberry, who had been to Knox's bridge for whiskey, on their return passed Mr. Richard Compton's house and fired at his dog, whereupon Mr. Compton spoke civilly to them, telling them to stop such conduct, but they threatened to shoot him, too, and one of them fired, striking Mrs. Compton, who was just coming to the door. From $7,000,000 to $9,000,000 go annually for the improvement of rivers and harbors, three fourths of which, if not more, are expended for the improvement of Northern rivers and harbors. And so the enumeration might be continued, ad infinitum, illustrating how a Southern con-rolling influence is exercised continually infinitum, illustrating how a Southern con-trolling influence is exercised continually in a Democratic Corgress to foster and build up the already prosperous North at the expense in part of the impoverished South. And why is this done? Simply that we may pin our faith to the fragmen-tary remains of a party that has forfeited our allegiance because it has long since for-saken the paths its founders trod. In years gone by the very cynosure of the Democratic party was Free Trade. To-day the chief leaders of the Northeastern Demo-cracy are Protective Tariff men. THE controversy between Gen. Gary and Senator Hampton over the contest of 1976 is as ill-timed as it is unfortunate. The people know that we carried the State in that memorable canvass, and are satisfied that it was done legitimately and properly. It is past, and we do not care to hear any more about it. In our opinion the subject ought not to have been re-opened, and now, as it has been evived, the next best thing for all of the parties concerned in it to do is to hush it up as soon as possible. THE fence law was amended so as to

to make.
To just editorial or public criticism I am not averse. But when I read over that column of editorial opinion, which you have paraded in your issue of the 22d, methinks I see a veritable lago in the party, with whom the wish is father to the thought he expresses.
I take no umbrage at your thus ventilating the "Aiken Idea," and will encourage you by every means in my power, if you will only write a few more editorials like that in the same issue, headed: "The Grant Movement. Shall the South Capitur Hate or Fight?"
You stand in that editorial upon my platform. Speaking of the Democratic party, you say, "they must choose a man whom the North can trust," and that "the only way to win is by choosing a candidate in whom the North can trust," and that "the only way to win is by choosing a candidate in whom the North can trust," and that "the same secure enough Northern people. Neither Tilden, Hendricks, Hancock nor Bayardi can secure enough Northern electoral votes in my judgment, to ensure him, when backed by an entire Southern vote, an ut disputed claim to the Executive Chair. Is is treasonable or even impolitic for me to say so? If so, then I am not called upon to nominate a I am noto called upon to nominate a I am n I am not called upon to nominate a

I am not called upon to nominate a Presidential ticket, but I believe there are men in the North of sufficient purity of character and weight of brain to become the people's candidate, be they nominated by even the Democratic Convention, and who would govern this country for the benefit of the whole country, and not simply for the aggrandizement of their par-ty. While I do not think either of the aforementioned men conld effect this end, I would be sanguine of success if such men-tion. I desire to publish just here some Con-gressional facts, with which you may be-but I fear your readers are not, familiar.
