

SEMINOLE SAM.

An Incident of the Snake River Mass.

BY WYOMING KIT.

"Won't you come in an' see Sem stranger?" This question was addressed to me, as I slowly strolled through the Snake River...

"Why Seminoles Sam—him as air curled up in bed in a bunk, agin death, with all the keers a ruckin' agin him strong, too?"

I had rode into the camp but an hour before, and had learned nothing of the man referred to. In answer to a question regarding him the man said:

"Sam cum over yar on the Seminole range about a year ago, an' squatted down in this yar house. He's a gambler, pard, but he does his work in a honest, Christian like manner, an' ye ha'r me a single a' whiter man none whered up in the diggins! Sam never took advantage o' a greeny, or slung a crooked keer in his life, an' a galoot never yet went broke on his game a squallin' foul!"

"Has he been long in the man, feelin' a strange interst in it? I asked. "No, pard; 'tain't no nat'ral allin'."

"Ye see Sam sat down in a game with a poker sharp from over the railroad, a few days ago, an' during the play a late misundersandin' air arisen 'em about threesacks that had mysteriously evacuated from the pack an' which Sam discovered a locatin' 'emselves in the stranger's cleve."

"The minister was a venerable looking man with a kind, sincere face which was now overcast with an expression of genuine sympathy."

"I hope you won't put it up as cheeky, pard, but I believe you to this trouble, but I believe you to this trouble, but I believe you to this trouble..."

"The minister had been for years an humble laborer in this rough portion of the Lord's vineyard, and was so thoroughly familiar with all the ways of the country..."

"No, Sam, I am sure it would not..." This blessed book which I hold in my hand teaches us that truly repentant sinners can be saved even at the eleventh hour...

"The minister was an earnest and willing to heed his answer prayer, Sam, but before He gives His blessings, He says we must ask for them, and must ask in faith, believing that He hears us and will answer us..."

A Lawyer's Strange Dream.

On the night of the 2d of February, 1884, I was in a state of nervous excitement, called by physicians "watching," and in a half dream and half sensible state...

"That is," said he, "783 months, or 3,072 weeks, or 18,432 days. To test how deep your anxiety may have been, and how intense your labors, I will ask you how many of those 768 months you have employed in carefully examining the evidence of the truth of Revelation?"
