

Intelligencer.

Fancy Farming.

In a back number of the Scientific

Farmer we find a very sensible article on

BY E. B. MURRAY & CO.

The

ANDERSON, S. C., THURSDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 30, 1880.

for breath.

VOLUME XVI.---NO. 12.

Whitewashing a Corrupt Candidate.

*

The personal detraction incident to a heated Presidential canvass is no new thing in American politics; but never before in our history has a great party put forward a candidate for President smirched with personal and official corruption in anything like the same degree as Mr. Garfield. Is, it suprising that honest and respectable Republicans all over the Union are every day abandoning such a nominee to cast their votes and influence for the peerless Han-cock, whose reputation is without a stain? uents, for his perjured denial there Who ever heard before of a candidate for | before a committee of his peers in Conthe Presidency of this great country whose gress, for fraud upon his constituents in record required an elaborate vindication from some of his party friends at home that he was an honest man? Here is the certificate of character which the Stalwart when in fact material portions thereof bosses of his district have just given to were omitted and garbled." bosses of his district have just given to Mr. Garfield through the press : "Cleveland, Ohio, September 9.-The of the counties composing the Nineteenth Ohio District have issued a column and a half address to the Republicans of the United States, for the purpose of removof this District.""

The impression intended to be conveytogether the work of his political opponents. To correct this industriously mentary evidence at our disposal. First, lowing resolution was adopted: "We futher arraign and charge him (Garfield) with corrupt bribery in selling his official influence as Chairman of the Committee on Appropriations, for $5,000,

Columbia; selling his influence to aid I was a boy the voice of my father, callsuch Ring in imposing upon the people ing me mornings, struck terror to the of said district a pavement which is almost worthless, at a price three times its in that hazy time of day when you can costs, as sworn to by one of the contrac-tors; selling his influence to aid said Ring in procuring a contract, to procure which it corruptly paid $97,000 'for in-fluence;' selling his influence in a matter that involved no question of law, upon the shallow pretext that he was acting as a lawyer; selling his influence in a matter so palpable and clear as to be so found and declared by an impartial and competent court upon an issue solemnly tried." So it would seem that "the determined efforts to misrepresent and falsify" re-ceived a vigorous lift in a Convention of ents. Two cash dividend, which, together with the price of the stock and interest, left a balance of $329. This sum was paid over to Mr. Garfield by a check on the sergeant at-arms, and Mr. Garfield then understood this sum was the balance of dividends after paying for the stock." "From the resolutions passed by a Republican Convention in the Nineteenth Ohio District, September 7, 1876 : "Resolved, That we arraign and denounce Jas. A. Garfield for his corrupt connection with the Credit Mobilier, for circulating among them a pamphlet purporting to set forth the finding of said committee and the evidence against him,

"Yes, sir."

Hence it would appear that "the deter-mined efforts" from which the Republi-Republican County Central Committee | can candidate is now suffering, originated either in testimony submitted to courts and investigating committees, or in charges made over and over again in Republican papers. While the De Goling impressions which may have been yer and Credit Mobilier business was still produced as it says by determined efforts fresh in the public mind we believe that to 'misrepresent and falsify the history of every respectable Republican paper in Garfield's relations to the Republicans the land, without a single exception denounced Garfield with more or less severity. He was litterally lashed from one ed is that the "determined effort to mis- end of the country to the other with whips represent and falsify" emanate from the wielded by his own political associates. Democracy ; and it is noteworthy that Democrats then did little except look on all the Republican organs and orators and applaud the merited punishment. adopt the same line of argument, and en- They do nothing now but repeat what deavor to convince the people that the Republicans once said about Garfield. assault upon Garfield's reputation are al- They find in the files of Republican journals more ammunition that they can conveniently use ; and they use what they propagated error, we present a very small want of it on the justifiable assumption portion of the immense amount of docu-that what was true of Garfield when he was not a candidate for the Presidency, cannot be false now that he is. The par as to "Garfield's relations to the Repub-licans of this (his) district." At a Re-publican Convention, held at Warren, in it had thus pilloried must pay the that district, September 7, 1876, the fol- penalty of its own forgetfulness or folly .- News and Courier.

The Agony of Getting Up.

"The greatest trial in the life of a to the De Golyer Pavement Ring, to aid them in securing a contract from the board of public work of the District of Columbia colling the influence of the District of the mer mornings," remarked a gentleman as he sat with a party of friends. "When core of my heart. Just about daylight, gap into listless bliss and stretch into paradise, the old gentleman would step to the foot of the stairs and call :--"John, oh John." "Ye-e-s, sir." "Get up. Broad daylight. Get up and feed the horses while your mother's gettin' a bite to eat. Hurry up. We must finish that corn before it rains.

Are you coming ?" No answer. John." "Ye-es, sir !" "Are you coming ?" "Who could get up at such a time?

The Next Vice-President. Why an Englishman Came South. Mr. Thomas Hughes, the well known I have spent the morning with William English author of "Tom Brown, at Rug-by," and other favorite works, has estab-H. English, the Democratic candidate for Vice President, and he is no more like the William H. English of popular ished a colony of young Englishmen in imagination than a cow is like an oyster. Tennessee. He was entertained at Chat-His picture gives him a prim, New Engtanooga a few days since and made quite landish, pedagogue look, with carefully trimmed beard, exact fitting clothes, and a lengthy speech, during which he said : "I can promise that you will find us a sun soon reappears, and up to 9 a. m. the general air of complacent sweetness, but law-abiding and loyal folk-proud of the atmosphere is like that of a furnace.

his pictures are like the "Pinafore" ad- State of our adoption, proud of her re- Then a refreshing trade wind sets in from miral, "they mean well, but they don't know." Indiana is hot, very hot; hot-ter, in fact, than half a dozen New Yorks in us lies that record and that honor rolled into one. Red-faced politicians shall remain untarnished. We hope, my rush frantically from place to place ; red-friends, to be on the very best terms with hot Democrats plot and red-handed Re- all our neighbors. We are conscious would be insupportable. There are days publicans bluster. It requires no vast how much we have to learn from you, intellect to discover that the politics of how almost entirely we must rely for sticky. A dead land breeze covers the which was a part of an old worn-out the State are raging like the fierce flames years on your teaching and your sym- earth. Sands and marshes throw out a field. I planted in it corn for a few of a prairie fire, with indications of a pathy. greater intensity in the near future. The "An "And now, Mr. Chairman, let me turn surface suggests a great Republican vic- for a moment to our settlement at Rugby. tory in October, but, as the State Auditor, It was a matter of sincere pleasure to me Mr. Fleming, quaintly puts it, "the Re- | that after our inquiry in England, lasting publicans always carry Indiana down to over two years, we were able at last to come to the conclusion that your beauti-

the day of election, and then the Democrats out vote them." ful Cumberland mountains offered the Having seen and heard much of Wil- very best site for our enterprise in all liam H. English, his loans, foreclosures, these broad and magnificent States of and general cussedness, in compliance your great country. I had felt for years the coast with deadly effect. With clay soil. It was then harrowed with a with Herald orders I sought and found that it was the first duty of every man him this morning. He is Chairman of who speaks our English language to do the State Democratic Committee, acting all in his power to heal up the breaches as Gen. Arthur does for the Republicans which still, to some extent, are at any in New York. The headquarters are in rate believed to divide the great sections the Bates House, not nice-dilapidated, of your republic. The great city, your the storm a day before it breaks upon out. On September 7 I had the lot ploughed with a turning plough harhang samples of Boys in Blue uniforms, ready referred, has set us a noble extorches and banners; on the floors are ample. The splendid line over which we nothing ; on the tables are bundles of have travelled to your city has been built political documents, and on the chairs by Cincinnati, and will do more than any the orators of the nation, waiting for ap-pointments and the necessary funds for gether in solid and lasting friendship. bower of Mr. English in this matter. Battiotism ! We, in our humble way, and the flowers heavy with bees and lucerne grewlup with some weeds. After from a business standpoint, must be He stands and stoops about six feet high, s an off-haud enthusiast of the Gen. Barnum type—"not too enthusiastic, but that it was madness to go South for our cardinal twitters in the acacias. A cool-ing breeze plays through the leaves of nut-grass is visible only scatteringly, so prevalent a feeling of jealousy towards prevalent a feeling of jealousy towards confident that he and his party are "all right up to the present time." Having introduced the Herald to the magnetic magnates, Mr. Fleming kindly took me to the private office of Mr. English and bars alter my arrival here among you my eft me alone with the Indianian. The own convictions were somewhat shaken. roar of the surf is heard, and the gentle great expectant was occupied for a moment, and thus afforded me an opportunity for observation. He stands in lowcut, unbuttoned gaiters above five feet nine inches. His head would be bald and drew a dark picture of the immedibut for an ingenious, though not an en-

He has a shelving forehead, a clear gray eye, full dyed beard and red socks. He termination of your great struggle fifteen the green leaves. A low moan comes only six times. wears black broadcloth, coat and trousers -- the latter perhaps two inches too short; a brownish vest, no watch and a silk cravat, with the knot nearer his ear than his windpipe. The far-famed iron-lined mansion is an ordinary two-story double brick house, with a kind of square tower running to at this day as any Northern Republican, with a kind of square tower running to at this day as any Northern Republican, with a kind of square tower running to at this day as any Northern Republican, with a kind of square tower running to at this day as any Northern Republican, and down and down and great drops of rain are hurled to the ground. Within fifteen the top. We entered and looked. The and since my arrival here, sir, that con-doors are like a thousand in New York, fidence has been turned into absolute into absolute to the burricane is felt. Great engles The lucerne remains green all the year; and have no iron lining or protection in-side or out. One window in the second with which I have heard the free discus-ion of the events of your great struggle

* A Florida Typhoon. Lucerne in Fairfield. By permission of Major Hammond and Florida summers are passably cool. The thermometer rests between 80° and Col. Rion we give our readers and ac-90°, with occasional spurts to 100°. At count of the success with which lucerne what is now quite generally termed "Fannight the heat is frequently intense. can be raised in Fairfield. Col. Rion Without a close sand-fly bar there is no refers to Mr. W. B. McCreight and Mr. rest, and with one no air. Grateful dews Thomas Jordan for proof that the 4,000 tling in a rural neighborhood and devotcool the air before daylight, but a coppery pounds mentioned is much below the ing his energies to a culture of the soil. correct figures.

WINNSBORO', S. C., Sept. 6, 1880. Major Henry Hammond U. S. Supervisor DEAR MAJOR-I am in receipt of your letter of the 4th inst., and proceed as requested, to give you an account of about the same time in September. my experience with

Without it, life on the eastern coast LUCERNE IN FAIRFIELD, S. C.

in which the air becomes mucky and I have a lot containing one-half acre, expensive novelties from the seed stores. and spend, perhaps without hope, cer-tainly without prospect, of adequate retremulous heat, blinding to the eye; the years, when nut-grass became a great leaves of the oleanders and fig trees surink under the burning rays of the surink under the burning rays of the it ploughed five times, quite shallow. during July and August. In September, provement in their vicinity. They serve dome, and gardens and groves fairly pant 1873, it was well manured and then ploughed with a two horse turning On the approach of autumn the Flori-dians quake with apprehension. It is subsoil is a stiff red clay. This red clay from the well is brought to the house the dread season of hurricanes. Tearing lies near the surface and was turned up instead of being fetched in a pail from through the West Indies, they often strike so that the lot looked like purely red the distant well or spring; the wood pile is placed under a shed or into a compact scarcely a note of warning, houses are revolving harrow. I then, on 15th Seppile instead of being heaped in the dooroverthrown, sailboats blown from the tember, planted clover. It came up well water, and orange groves swept bare of and gave me two good cuttings in 1874. | yard ; the surroundings to the buildings leaves and fruit. Some of the old set- In 1875 I got one poor cutting, the are "slicked up ;" flowers appear perhaps tlers say that they can detect signs of nutgrass having nearly choked the clover in the door yard; the cattle are better fed, the fences better repaired, new crops and new markets are sought, and expenditures are increased as the income grows "You feel it in the air long before it rowed, and planted with ten pounds of larger and is derived from more varied comes," says one. This is, however, an lucerne seed broadcast. It came up sources. All this comes from the inindefinite sign. The devastation lining thick, and so did the weeds; so that in its track certainly proves that "you feel it March, 1876, nothing was visible except fluence of the examples of the finely but expensively maintained farm, in the air after it comes." One of these the weeds. I had the lot cut close to the typhoons visits the coast every year. ground, and six barrels of gas-lime whereon neither expense nor income is (shell) spread upon the surface. The much considered, and which, judged have hoped and hope to follow in her humming birds. Shimmering mosquito the next cutting the weeds disap- considered a failured; judged from insteps. I was told in my own country hawks quiver in the air, and the scarlet peared and have never been able to con- fluences on others, is to be looked upon that it was madness to go South for our cardinal twitters in the acacias. A cool- tend with the lucerne since; and the as a public benefaction. There is too my hay bill from March to October, suit. This man can experiment, when I had to visit your famous fashionable swell of the ocean is rippled with golden both inclusive of 1875, with the same the poorer cannot afford to depart from a expense for a life period of 1877, and I the beaten rut until better results from a historical names, who shook their heads away. Cries of terns and water birds fall only "East River" hay which is costly. departure become demonstrated. This class encourages inventors and dealers upon the ear with pianful distinctness. In 1878 I had ten cuttings, averaging by furnishing opportunities for the trial ate future. In the event of the success The mud hens of the marshes pipe an over two and a half feet each, the lu of new things which promise well, and tirely ingenious, combing of his side bair, and is well shaped for business. the coming Presidential contest, they drew a dark picture of the probable re- horizon is milky white. Fitful gusts weigh over 4,000 pounds. In 1876 we secure the perfected article. This class versal of all that has been done since the begin to ripple the water and handle had a drought, and the lucerne was cut import foreign cattle and test their adaptation to our needs. They introduce new years ago. I was disconcerted but not from the ocean. Smoky clouds roll into convinced, and a few days' residence in your mountains greatly restored my con-wind whitens the ruffled water. Every only four cuttings. I first cut about the throughout the neighborhood. They fidence. I found the mountain folks as minute it increses in fury. An ominous middle of March and stop early in Octo- extend a knowledge of the arts of culture, and tend to distribute a practical knowlstaunch friends of the Union and Con- vellow light tinges the atmosphere. The ber. I give the whole a heavy top dresscontribute largely, through taxation, to the public necessities, and relieve in this way the burdens on others.

Marvels Performed by a General News Summary. - Frost has appeared in Arkansas.

- Georgia has 616 licensed distileries - Southern Texas has no cotton worms cy Farming," which consists of some - English sparrows have been intro-rich man, not a farmer by practice set- duced at West Pointed, Miss.

- Boston celebrated her two hundred and fiftieth anniversary last week. - The President has accepted an in The writer holds to the idea that such farmers are of great advantage. They vitation to visit Washington Territory.

- The sale of cattle this year buy a suberban or more romote farm, bring to it of their wealth, romodel the old Texas, it is estimated, will reach 7,000,-000 head. house or build anew, tear down or improve

- Memphis is the only city in the the old barns, and build from designs of a city architect who understands more of United States that has a less population harmonies than uses, stock with improved | than 1860.

- The late election gives the Ver-mont Legislature 137 Republicans and breeds of cattle, the latest style of implements in endless variety, and the most 14 Democrats.

- President Hayes has been made Vice-President of the American Bible society.

- The gallant Confederate General, Bushrod Johnson, died at his home in Missouri, last week. to change the habits of the life of the far-

- The Florida orange crop is reported mer and his family. The old inconvenruined by the recent great storm; loss ient methods of housekeeping give place to a more convenient system. The waters | said to be $1,500,000.

- The railroad commissioners of Kentucky will recommend the reduction of fares to three cents a mile. — Victoria's stronghold in Mexico has been discovered, and the reward for his scalp has been increased to $3,000.

- A Boston pastor, who did not take a vacation, married twenty couples in the two months others were absent.

- John Keene, of Rockland, Me., has horse which likes tobacco so well that he begs a chew whenever his master takes one.

- The Texas and Pacific Railroad Company have inaugurated a scheme to induce ten thousand Germans to immigrate to Texas.

- Skowhegan, Me., boasts two apple trees, one planted about 1762 and the other 48 years later, which are still bearing their yearly burden of russets.

- Fourteen thousand seven hundred persons are now employed on the Pennsylvania railroad, and the New York Central railroad has 12,000 employees. - A silk mill is being erected at Hawley, Pa., which will have a ground floor of over an acre, be several stories in height, and give employment to 1,000 hands.

-The members of the Chinese Embassy have been so grossly insulted by the rabble in New York city that they have determined to go home as soon as possible.

- Clayton Hillsman, the eleven-year old colored boy who brutally killed an infant son of C. G. Hillsman, at Culloden, Ga., has been sentenced to be hanged on 29th of October. — The population of West Virginia is announced by the census supervisors of the State at 618,914. The population ten years ago was 442,014; so there has been an increase of forty per cent.

- The expenses of the late Triennial Conclave of Kngihts Templar, at Chica-zo, were $93,000, and the receipts $87,-000. The deficiency will be made good The deficiency will be made good by the three local commanderies.

- Henry Mockahee, a guard over convicts at work on the Big Sandy rail years lefore, however-July 30, 1874-the New York Independent, a Republican religious newspaper, printed the following: The testimony taken in the investigation of the District of Columbia frauds show that Mr. Garfield received $5,000 for his aid in getting through a paving contract accepted by the District Government. A Mr. Parsons, a notorious jobber, made an argument for the paving company, and then got Mr. Garfield to make a further argument and to use his personal influence in its favor. Of course Mr. Garfield's argument was successful. How could it be otherwise? He was father grabs me. chairman of the committee on appropriations. Every cent of money voted to the District had to come through him. eyes are so heavy that I can't see. I feel Shepherd could not refuse anything he asked, and Mr. Garfield knew it when he asked and recived for his services a fee which would have been grossly ex-travagant but for his official position."

As an appropriate closing up of the DeGolyer part of the case, we give an extract from a letter written (May 30, 1872,) to the pavement firm by their Washington agent. George R. Chittenden:

been secured by yesterday, last night, and to-day's labors. He holds the purse-strings of the United States; is chairman of the committee on appropriations, and the strongest man in Congress. I can hardly realize that we have Gen. Garfield with us. It is rare success and very gratifying, as all the appropriations of the District must come through him." As to the Credit Mobilier matter, the whistle as I cut oats for the horses. I following is from an editorial in the New York Tribune of February 19, 1873:

shares; never paid a dollar; received $329, which, after the investigation began, he was anxious to have considered as a loan from Mr. Oakes Ames to himself. "Well, the wickedness of all of it is that these men betrayed the trust of the transaction to be disgraceful."

1873: "The men who received it (the Credit investment-was for an object and with would come and light upon her, twittera purpose. The testimony need not be ing with glee. On taking them in her recapitulated to convince the reader on hands and stroking them, the birds inthat head. It is fresh in the memory of the people, and that impression of it is distinct and clear. If Ames was guilty so were all the rest."

From the New York Times of February 19, 1873 :

Messrs. Kelly and Garfield present a most distressing figure. Their participa-tion in the Credit Mobilier affair is complicated by the most unfortunate, contradictions of testimony."

From the same paper of February 20, 1873:

"The character of the Credit Mobilier gressmen boughtit. Though Oakes Ames may have succeeded in concealing his own motive, which was to bribe Congress-But death did not come, and during last not on that account innocent. The dishonor of the act, as a participation is an obvious fraud, still remains.

"Some of them have indulged in testimony with reference to the matter, which has been contradicted. The Committee distinctly rejects the testimony of several of its numbers. This can only be done visit with punishment all who took Credit was about to befall them .- Forest and Mobilier stock from Oakes Ames." From the report of the Poland (Republican) Investigating Committee, February

18, 1873:

tory was then pointed out. Who could break a spell born of "There," said Mr. English, heaven ? Another stretch. The refreshing air comes through the window. How delightful. A winking struggle between consciousness and a delightful oblivion. gentle doze. I dream that I am up. go out to the stable and begin putting the gear upon my horse. In tying the ham-string I lift the horse from the ground. He goes up in the air, and catching hold of the ham-string I float with the animal out of the door and around the lot." "Git out of this bed, sir," and my lefend myself and protect the property "I-I thought I was up. I'll get up. of the bank, and that's the whole egg "Get right up here," and he hands me my pants. I take hold of them. My from which Halstead's tremendous lies are batched."

I was greatly interested in what Mr. strange. I seem to be coming from the spring with a bucket of water. "Put on them breeches, I tell you. Well, if he hasn't gone to sleep trying to used the other as a pointer. He apput on his clothes !" peared to be entirely earnest and honest, "Finally, I put on the pants and reach for the jacket. "Hurry up,' says the old gentleman, turning from the door to see and spoke of himself and his affairs with commendation, as though it was a perhow well the work is progressing. I sit on the side of the hed and begin putting on my socks. The old gentleman has "The influence of Mr. Garfield has gone down. I pull on one sock and lean my head against the bed-post. I lose all presence of mind. Again I doze." "Whack, whack, whack." "I'm up. Oh, dog-gon it, I'm up. won't do it any more. Oh, oo-ugh.' "Come on, this minute, sir." "Everything is clear. I am wide awake. I hear the steaming tea kettle as I pass the kitchen door, and even suppose that nearly every Southern boy whose parents were not wealthy has gone "James A. Garfield, of Ohio, had ten through a similar experience.-Little Rock (Ark.) Gazette. A Child Fascinating Birds in Ohio.

We learn from a correspondent that there resides in the vicinity of Harrisburg, people, deceived their constituents, and by evasions and falseboods confessed the County, about three miles west of Mount County, about three miles west of Mount story T Blanchard, a very remarkable child, only ter-sup From the same paper of February 28, five years old, who seems to have the day, jus power to charm birds at will. Her mother first noticed the strange Mobilier stock) were not fools or blind. fascination that the child possesses about They knew the tenor of the transactions; could not help knowing that this gift— in the dooryard among a bevy of snowfor it hardly had the thin disguise of an birds, and when she spoke to them they > distance and immediately return to the child again. She took several of them into the house to show her mother, who thinking she might hurt them, put them out of doors, but no sooner was the door opened than the birds flew into the room again, and lit upon the girl's head and began to chirp. The birds remained about the premises all winter, flying to the little girl when-ever the door was opened. The parents finger tips he held so gently in his hand. "That baby's dead," said the conductor. was no secret. The source of its profits of the child became alarmed, believing "It died this morning at the bay. He couldn't bear to put it in a coffin, because was very well known at the time Con- that this strange power was an ill omen, and that the much-dreaded visitor, then it would have to go without him in men, their acceptance of the stock was summer the child has had numerous pets among the birds. The child haudles the birds so gently that a humming bird, once in her hands, does not fail to return. This winter a bevy of birds have kept her company, and she plays with them for hours at a time. Every morning the birds fly to never again clasp his, looking down upon the white lids that had closed over the her window, and leave only when the sun on the ground that it is untrue. But un-true testimony given under oath is mor-girl are poor, superstitious people, and bright eyes as the petals of a sensitive flower close at night-time over its delicate girl are poor, superstitious people, and have been reticent about the matter until ally, if not legally, perjury." "It is the clear duty of Congress to lately, fearing that some great calamity

Stream.

"The facts in regard to Mr. Garfield, eyes with all the cosmetics of France, or as found by the committee, are that he beautifiers of the world, while in poor of New England.

-N. O. Times.

ion of the events of your between men like General Wilder, who "you can see the barricaded window of which so took so active and prominent a part many lies are told. When I was Presiselves who owned frankly to having been | trees. dent of the Bank, Col. New's room was "rebels," who met him in fair fight on entered by a burglar and shots were fired. these renowned battle-fields, and who would to-morrow join with him in draw-lows and oleanders snap like cow whips. He and I exchanged opinions about it, and agreed that we ought to be more careful of our persons, lest enterprising burglars should seize and bind us and, ing sword and freely risking life and fortune again for the maintenance and integrity of the Nation as it exists to-day. "I visited the National Cemetery, force of the wind keeps the trees down country have attempted to raise lucerne; carrying us back to the bank, compel us to open the safes. I then had that lattice work, which slides in and out, put where nearly 13,000 Union soldiers, up, so that if burglars attempted to get number equal to the present population n I would be aroused and prepared to of your city, lie. In their neighborhood The leaves of the scraggy scrub on the leaves of the scraggy scrub on the beach are whipped into little brushes. diers, not in a noble National Cemetery, The tough saw palmetto is blown as but buried for the most part where they flat as a northern wheat field, and the fell. "Pause, for they tread on the Na- dead grass of the savannas lashed into tion' dust." That splendid passage came fine dust. Boards in the surf are struck English said and the way he put it. He into my mind, but it very imperfectly touches the deep pathos or the impor-along with one hand in a pocket and touches the deep pathos or the impor-tance to mankind of the issue which was decided here, of which the memory for all time will hang round this place of sepulture, and these ridges and valleys-I say it deliberately, that the battles fectly accomplished fact that English and round Chattanooga were of as much, if the world were friends. He is building not more, moment to the world than aboat houses. At Lake Worth the Crui- Presently, after looking to see that no again. He was familiar with forest trees, an opera house, a fine structure. to hold

be opened later in the month by Mr. Barrett in one of Shakespeare's plays. By the inside of the inland rivers. Whence the fleets of war have fled, Barrett in one of Shakespeare's plays. Mr. English showed me through it and Where the whisp'ring grove grass quivers, Asleep are the ranks of the dead. Under the sod and the dew, pointed out with commendable satisfac-tion the name of English worked in the Waiting the judgment day, parti-colored tiles upon the roof. His son, who is theatrically inclined, is to Under the one the blue.

Under the other the gray. have the management of the theatre, No more shall the war cry sever, which stands next door to his dwelling, Or the inland rivers run red-We have buried anger forever and, like it, is to be a part of a systematic frontage along the entire block owned by Mr. English.—Indianapolis Letter to New York Herald.

In the tombs of the sacred dead. Under the sun and dew, Waiting the judgment day, Love and tears for the blue, Ter rs and love for the gray.

There is nothing in the world so sad my eyes now as I think of the pitiful sible."

Love that Glorifles the Humblest Man.

fom told me as he smoked his af-oper pipe last night. The other	King's Mountain Centennial Celebric tion.
ist before I came home Tom had	tion.

occasion to go back over the lake. On his way back, and when the train stopped at the bay, he noticed a man getting into the car in front of him with a little baby in his arms. The baby seemed young, and the man hushed it in his arms with 6th, 7th and 8th of October, 1880 : gentle, rocking motion, bending over now and then to kiss its white

As the train got under way conductor came to Tom and said: "Come with me; I want to show you the saddest, Frand Stand, at 11.30 o'clock a. m. Reunion of the States. strai.gest sight you ever saw in your Prayer, by Rev. Ellison Capers. life," and he led the way into the next car. "Do you see that man over there?" said he, and there sat the and Tennessee, in the order named. man whom Tom noticed with the BATTLE DAY-OCTOBER 6TH. baby. His precious little bundle lay quiet on the seat in front of him, and, Illustration of the plan of the battle-these other two men watched, he leaned beginning at 12 o'clock m. The troops over, looked long and earnestly in the participating will repair to the points little flower face, and then kissed the frail designated, at 11.30 a.m.

CENTENNIAL DAY-OCTOBER 7TH. National salute, at sunrise.

Review of all troops, at 10 a.m. Procession to Grand Stand, at 11.30 the baggage car, and so he is just carrying it home to New Orleans in his arms." Prayer, by Rev. William Martin. And the car rattled on ; the boy called his stale slices of sponge cake and cigars occasion by Mrs. Clara Dargan McLean, through the car; the passengers laughed f Yorkville, S. C. Reading of the Ode. Written for the and smoked, and fought mosquitoes; and occasion by Paul H. Hayne, of Augusta, he stricken to the heart's core, sat there quiet and unheeding, watching over his dead baby, kissing the fingers that would Ga. Oration, by Hon. John W. Daniel, of Lynchburg, Va. Procession to Monument.

Unveiling Monument, with approoriate ceremonies. heart-and the world was nothing to him Dress parade, at 5 p. m. Pyrotechnic display, at 8 p. m.

MILITARY DAY-OCTOBER Sth. Prize drill, beginning at 10 o'clock

a. m. Award of Centennial Medal to success ful Company.

nd other small birds are lashed to death | There are plants in a garden he by leafless twigs, and the torn bodies of the old lady to whom the garden belongs on the Northern side, and many of your- the branches of the live oak and cypress fifty years. I never allow any animal to Conn., one James Goodsell, who from his

Lofty palmettoes bend their heads to eleven citizens of this town to plant luthe ground, their great fans turned inside cerne lots, all successfully. As lucerne force of the wind keeps the trees down country have attempted to raise lucerne; until every green fan pops like a pistolshot. Orange groves are ripped into shoe strings. beach are whipped into little brushes.

of the sea is blown beneath the houses on the main land, and comes up between the main land, and comes up between the cracks of the floor like steam. Woe to the owners of sail boats and Marathon, or Tours or Waterloo. I feel ser, a heavy round-bottomed sail boat, schooner running between New Smyrna it was wearied out, and dropped off to from the ship channel. The coast surcordage, and dead eyes id peak-blocks drop from leafless orange trees. Gardens death by a grasshopper. Salvos of artillery, and assembly at the tormented Floridian has three months' work and no pay to repair damages.

Vessels are driven ashore had some time many lives lost. The Landona, a of Aug. 23, 1871. All on board perished. Since then many vessels have been ZISKA. wrecked.

Jerusalem.

Jerusalem, according to British consular reports, is a growing town. The foreign Hebrew population has increased consid-erably of late years. That community desire to avoid compulsory military ser-Singing of the Lyric. Written for the countries, and the right of holding real countries, and the right of holding real subjects by the protocol of 1878, proba-bly accounts for the increased emigration. The German colony at Jerusalem now numbers nearly 400 persons ; that at Jaffa about 300. There is a third German settlement at Caiffa of about equal number with the last mentioned. The settlers ase mechanics, artificers, carriers and agriculturists, and are fairly prospeous. The chief industries remain what they were-the manufacture of oil, soap, and articles in olive wood and mother-ofpearl ; the production of the latter articles, has greatly increased, as the sale is no longer confined to visitors and pilgrims, large quantities being exported to Europe and America.

snowy herons and wild turkeys lodge in has known as individual plants for over graze upon my lucerne. The half-acro All living things disappear. Tall pines affords green food sufficient for three

> My success has induced some ten or dexterity, and felled trees; he was an accomplished grain thresher, and would frequently go alone a distance of miles to thresh for the farmers, climing, the mows to throw the grain ; he could hoe corn or garden stuffs as well as anybody, having no trouble to distinguish the weeds; he would set 100 bean poles with more accu-Very respectfully,

JAMES H. RION. A Grasshopper.

On the top of the Royal Exchange in excellent memory, and was an authority by the winds, and sent spinning hundreds of feet into the air. The sand dunes are not like any other in England, or peron fact and dates. He could generally tell the time of day or night within a few minutes. One instance is given when he slept one day and awoke at evening, caught up bodily and sifted through the haps in the world. It is a huge grass thinking it was morning. For once he ate supper for breakfast, but when in-

ago a woman, with a little baby in her formed of his mistake, slept another arms, was trudging along a country lane. twelve hours in order to get straight and knew just where to go for any timber one was watching her, she climbed over an opera house, a fine structure, to hold 2,000 people, with a beautiful broad, daep stage, absurd little boxes and an catrance direct from the street. It is to be opened later in the month by Mr. By the inside of the inland rivers, a gate into the field, and, wrapping the desired. He could direct men where to the water. A boat owned by Dr. Wallace of Castle Windy was torn from her moor-lane, upon her journey. compute accurately and rapidly. In olden days he was quite musically inclined, ings, lifted from the water, and dropped into a salt-water mash fringing Mosquito Lagoon, 800 yards from the castle. In the full of 197 the black state in the salt was dure musically included and it cried for a long, long time. And at last, tired and hungry, and hot with the full of 197 the black state in the salt st the fall of 1876 the Ida Smith, a large the suu, for it was a fine summer's day, To crown all, he possesses one of the happiest dispositions, and was ever genial and Jacksonville, was torn from her an-chors and stranded on a marsh 500 yards voice of the lad."

By and by down the lane came a THE OLD FOLKS .- Do young people vey steamer, in a good harbor, sheltered school boy. He was whistling away, as by sand banks, threw out three anchors, and kept her wheels working against out of school, and he was going home. the wind under a full head of steam. He lived at the farm-house a little way Yes, your great orator's famous words She draggedher anchor several hnudred further up the lane. Now he gathered are surely fulfilled—"Union and free-yards, and barely escaped destruction. a few primroses, now he had a shy at a She draggedher anchor several hnudred further up the lane. Now he gathered ivi-livi-livi-to a great height, carrying away wharves and boahouses, and flooding the country to a great height, carrying away wharves to a great height, carrying away wharves and boahouses, and flooding the country to a great height, carrying away wharves to a great height, carrying away wharves to a great height, carrying away wharves and boahouses, and flooding the country to the tribulation the woman had climbed, he heard a grasshopper chirping away so loudly that he sprang over the gate to catch him—and there was the baby fast and boahouses, and flooding the country to the tribulation the woman had climbed, he heard a grasshopper chirping away so loudly that he sprang over the gate to catch him—and there was the baby fast to the tribulation tribulation the tribulation the tribulation the tribul for miles. The ocean leaps the sandy asleep! Far more pleased than if he barriers of the coast and floods the In-had caught a hundred grasshoppers, the adopted by the King's Mountain Centen-nial Association for the celebration of the one hundredth anniversary of the battle of King's Mountain, on the 5th, little orphan who had been saved from

Years passed away, and the baby behe rose to be the most noted man in the Addresses—by the representatives of South Carolin, North Carolina, Virginia New York steamship, went ashore twelve miles north of Canaveral in the great gale Thomas Gresham-for the little deserted boy had become a knight-to consult him on the great affairs of State.

About three hundred years ago Sir Thomas Gresham founded the Exchange. The Queen came to dine with him, and laid the first stone. And there upon the that will surely come; aye, and you will topmost pinnacle Sir Thomas placed a remember, too. grasshopper; and there it is to-day; to tell the busy, toiling city that Almighty God can hear the infant's cry, and can save a valuable life by even such a little thing as a grasshopper.

in West Brookfield, Mass.

six millions. In the fifteen years since - If your horse is troubled with scratches mix up a little saltpetre and the war we have increased the crop lard and put upon the sore part, and reis rising from the ashes of desolation. new daily until cured. Keep clean by and is making such rapid strides to using castile soap.

power and opulence. Prior to the war, - The Chicago health has had its the crop never reached four million chemist analyze 18 samples of tea. bales except during the year 1860, when 'Foreign leaves," leaves, that is, other it ran up to 4,66.,770 bales. than tea leaves, were found in all but two - Do not allow worms to cheat your age amount of nitrogen which should be found in tea, and on which its strength Indian Vermifuge will destroy these miserable pests, and give the little fellows depends, and more than one-half showed that a part of the tea leaves had been used before. No deleterious substances

There recently died at Burlington, road, near Mount Sterling, Ky., was attacked with axes by two convicts and literally cut to pieces. The convicts birth, during a life of nearly ninety years. made their escape. has been totally blind. In spite of his - Five men were killed last Friday. misfortune, he would swing an axe with at the factory of the Union Metalic Cartride Company, at Bridgeport, Conn., by the explosion of six pounds fulminate, used for making the large caps for exploding dynamite.

- Twenty thousand first-class passengers were carried from America to Europe this summer up to July 14-an in crease of 4,000 over last year. Assum racy than most people who can see; would load hay; and was so good a methat each of them expended $500, a low estimate, they left abroad $10,000,000. chanic that he manufactured yokes and - Mrs. Oliver Jolly and her three other articles with success. He had an children, aged one, six and ten years, respectively, were drowned recently by the upsetting of a small boat on the St. Lawrence. Two men and a woman saved themselves by clinging to the boat.

- Asheville (N. C.) Citizen says: "The tobacco crop throughout this section, which is now being cut in many places, will prove generally a splendid one. The area of land planted in tobacco is probably double that of any former season.

- Robert E. Culbrish, editor of the San Francisco Weekly Argus, was pummelled on the streets by J. C. Flood, Jr., for publishing an article in his paper relative to the rupture of the engagement between Miss Jessie Flood and U. S. Grant. Jr.

- The Jewish population of the world at the present time is a matter of much discussion and great uncertainty. The Jewish calender of Grand Rabbi Servi for the present year puts the number at 6,210,000. Others estimate it as low as

4,000,000. ever think that they will be old; that they will soon feel that the grasshopper - A duel between a Ute Indian and a Navajo, took place last Thursday, near is a burden and fear is in the way? Only Santa Fe, N. M. A few friends a few years ago that aged man and feeble Indians were present. The Ute was killed and the Navajo seriously injured. woman were young, strong and full of way, but rather lift them with tender The following programme has been adopted by the King's Mountain Centen-nial Association for the celebration of the one hundredth anniversary of the care over the rough declining road. You last week. Henry Kinghorn, a black-reminded of it by the love you have for - A prominent Baptist divine in your little ones. Will they hand you the Magoffin Co. Ky., discourses against supsame bitter cup to drink that you put out porting missionaries, because, as he says, came a strong boy; the boy grew to be a man; he went to London and became a "with the measure ye mete, it shall be the gospel is preached unto all people measured to you again." Think of the the end will have reached, and God the anxious days and nights your mother forbid that he should contribute one has watched by your sick bed; remember her loving care; her patience with your fretfulness, and then let the blush of — At the annual reunion of the old shame dye your brow, that you should be settlers of Texas at Denton, the procesimpatient or unkind to her now that she is old. Old folks are such a trial! Yes they know and fecl it! and so will be has lived in the State under the such a trial to your children in the days that will surely come; aye, and you will tatorship of Santa Anna, republic of Texas, United States, Confederate States and again the United States.

- A ruralist came into Tallahassee - The increase in the growth of cotton has been remarkable. In 1867, we marketed two million bales; in 1870, Fla., and finding a news-stand ordered a lot of papers, which he took from the three millions; in 1874, four millions; clerk with profuse thanks. He was asin 1879, five millions. The crop marketed tonished, though, when the clerk asked payment, as he "never heard of charging for newspapers before." He had been the crop now being picked will exceed reading his neighbors' papers for nothing, and never knew they cost money. -- The following changes in the Mississippi Code go into effect in November, 1881: "Every woman now married, or hereafter to be married, shall have the same capacity to acquire, hold, manage, control, use, enjoy and dispose of all property, real and personal, in possession or expectance, and to make any contract in reference to it, and to bind herself personally, and to sue, and be sued, with all the rights and liabilities incident thereto, as if she was not married .-

new armors for the battle of life. Husband and wife may sue each other. - In general cultivation an arce can A married woman may dispose of her were found, however, and the analysis be made to yied three hundred bushels of estate, real and personal, by last will and otatoes Less that two hundred bushels testament, in the same manner as if she is now estimated at 15,000, including native Jews, against 10,000 in 1872. The countries, and the right of holding real — The mother of ex-Governor D. H. for the year ending August 31, 1880, is property in Turkey, conceded to foreign Chamberlain died last week at her home 5,760,161 bales, and it is considered that

