- The condition of the Jews in Mo-rocco is deplorable. At Morocco itself only six weeks ago the Cadi ordered the crucifixion of a Jew accused of hav-ing lent money at a usurious rate of interest. A short time before this a band of dervishes, who exercise great influence over the native inhabitants, seized a Jew at Aptifa, and, after flaying alive, killed him and ate him. This crime was left unpunished.

As he lifted the figure off its feet and gave it a shake it feel apart, and his and gave it a snake it leef apart, and its mouth, nose and eyes were filled with smarting powder. Great tears rolled down his long nose, he sneezed and snorted and caughed, and he was just as chagrined at the general laugh on him as a man would have been. He headed away from the remnants opened backed away from the remnants, opened his mouth to cool it, and hung his head in shame. He did not cease weeping for half a day, but when he got so that he could look the public square in the face he was a changed horse. Any-
