Judge Mackey says that no liquor has been sold in Marlboro in thirty-five years, and that the County is a perfect Paradise. Prosperity prevails, and the criminal record is exceedingly small. At the Judge's last sitting in the General Sessions the calendar was cleared in ten minutes, while in an adjoining County where liquor is sold the criminal business occupied the Court fifteen days.

Charlotte News and Courier: The Rev. J. I. Bonner, D.D., the editor of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian, and president of the West Female College, is at the Charlotte Hotel. He was married on Thursday morning last to Miss A. Lilla Morse, of Lanesburg, New York, for several years a teacher in the college of which he is the presiding officer, and is attended by his bride on his visit to the city.

A dispatch from Hampton C. H. to the Atlanta Constitution, dated February 5, says: "Rev. Sam Jones arrived yesterday and preached last night to a large congregation at the M. E. church. People flocked in from the country to hear him—some coming a distance of six or seven miles. He will remain several days and seems hopeful of a season of refreshing." Dr. Jones is one of the ablest ministers in the South, when he ever he goes is much admired for his eloquence and power.

There were a great many people in town on Monday, and from 12 m. to 5 p. m. things were particularly lively. The day was favored by a fresh breeze, and the amount of drunkards was distressing to behold. Taking everything into consideration, however, the order of the day was very good, the only thing occurring to create any excitement of consequence being the effort of two young men to resist arrest by the police. Out of the two or three thousand people in town only seven or eight were caloused.

A Mr. Kidd, of Oglethorpe county, Ga., sold out his possessions in this county recently and moved to Texas, but he was disappointed in the country that he at once came back to his old home in Georgia, when he expected to remain contentedly the remainder of his life. Those who are thinking of emigrating from Anderson county to Texas, or any other section of the Union, are admonished to profit by this man's experience by remaining where they are. There is no better section of country on the continent than Anderson county, when everything is taken into consideration.

We are indebted to the Hon. Walter M. Gilson, of Lahina, Sandwich Islands, for a number of copies of the Commercial Advertiser, the official organ of the Hawaiian government, published at Honolulu, from which we learn that His Majesty King Kalakaua has departed his kingdom on a pleasure voyage around the world, leaving the reins of government during his absence in the hands of his sister, Her Royal Highness the Princess Liliuokalani, heiress to the Crown. The United States is on the programme of King Kalakaua's voyage.

The total amount of property returned for taxation in the town is $631,309, of which $414,725 is real and $216,584 personal. Two hundred and forty-eight farmers have returned for street duty, and for that year. The amount of taxes that will be raised this year on the levy of 1 1/2 mills will be between $1,200 and $1,300, besides the street tax of about $500. The amount returned last year was $701,045, of which $357,580 was real and $343,465 personal, showing an increase in the value of real estate for the past year of $37,145 and in personal property of $13,110.

One of our merchants the other evening detected a negro man with a piece of meat he had stolen from his store, and gave him his choice between going to jail and taking a whipping. The thief preferred the whipping, and the merchant accordingly administered it in the best manner he knew how, and to the entire satisfaction of all concerned, the thief not excepted. This is the third or fourth case of the kind that has occurred in this place within the past twelve months. It now seems that the petty thieves themselves would be accommodated by the re-enactment of the old ante-bellum whipping post law.

During the past week there has been an almost deadlock at Columbia in the shipment of freights to the up-country from Charleston, by the C. & G. R. R., and considerable complaint from merchants has been made in consequence. The block has been caused by the failure of the wood supply of the Greenville Road, extremely bad weather of the last two or three weeks and the delay in the receipt of a cargo of coal which have generally been converted into coal burners. At one time there were seventy loaded cars at Columbia awaiting transportation, but a break has been made, and the authorities are sending forward the freight with all possible dispatch.

The stock law goes into effect in that portion of Oconee county lying south of the Air Line Railroad on the 1st inst. and as might have been expected there is a good deal of dissatisfaction in that section in consequence, and some of the disgruntled citizens have employed counsel to resist its enforcement by legal process. The Wall-halla Courier of last week contains an excellent article on the subject, directed mainly to the opposition party, advising them to submit to the change, as there is little hope of success for their efforts. The Courier's advice is good, and in less than twelve months those who are making so much fuss about the change will be its strongest friends—or we will be surprised.

Bushyhead, Chief of the Cherokee Indians in North Carolina, was in town last week soliciting contributions to purchase clothes and food for his tribe. He represents their a destitute of both. The tribe consists of about four hundred men and eleven or twelve hundred squaws and children. They cultivate a little corn and wheat, but have never sufficiently caught the inspiration of civilization to be successful in agriculture. This tribe received a pension from the United States until the war, since which time they have been cut off from the pension rolls for going into the Confederate cause. It is a pitiful spite for a civilized government to punish half-civilized Indians for going with the people by whom they were surrounded, especially when it is known that they would have been exterminated had they gone otherwise. Mr. Bushyhead received a number of donations while here.

An old well was discovered on the vacant lot located near Mrs. Langston on the Hampton street in the village of Aiken, the top of the ground the size of the well's mouth. The lot has been in cultivation two or three years, and the well reportedly ploughed and worked over, and which has supported the two or three feet of earth that has concealed it from view is a mystery. It is ten or fifteen feet from the bed of the old General's road, and is square about 25 feet deep. Mr. J. F. Wilson, who has no personal knowledge of the settlement as a town with any other citizen in the county, says the only knowledge he has of the well was gained fifty or sixty years ago while 'possum hunting with a party of young men, when one of them fell into it. Many years ago there were signs of a habitation in the neighborhood of the old well, and the probability is that it furnished water for a family of people who lived before the day of the oldest inhabitant.

The Picken's Fence. The Board of County Commissioners of this County on last Tuesday approved the report of the Commissioners of Picken's County for building the line fence between the two counties under the provisions of the fence law for Picken's County at $1,462.80, to be paid out of the taxes to be levied next year. This postponement of payment is necessitated from the fact that instead of having a surplus there is now a small deficiency, and the tax levy for County purposes for the present year has been reduced to two and a half mills, which will not more than pay the current expenses of the County. We think the action of our Commission is just, and that it will be acceptable to all parties concerned.

Immigrant Labor. There can be no question as to the wisdom of inducing white immigrants to this State from either the North or Europe. Those who have come from the North and settled permanently in our midst have always been the ablest acquisitions to our population and society, and it matters not whether they came as day laborers or as men of means. The European immigrants have likewise proven their worth and efficiency, and are slowly but surely working their way into the good graces of our people, and will soon take that position in the South that their thrift and industry entitle them to. It is true many of those who came into the State six or seven years ago, when the subject of immigration was first agitated, were worthless from having remained in Northern cities long enough to acquire bad habits, but with the exercise of proper care in selecting laborers good and reliable men can be obtained.

In this County, and probably throughout the whole up-country, Senator Crayton has doubtless tested more thoroughly than any one else the efficiency of European labor for farming purposes, and has satisfactorily demonstrated the practicability of employing a vast number of them in our section. He recently gave a reporter of the News and Courier the benefit of his experiences with immigrants, which we reproduce on account of the general information furnished on this important subject. He said:

I think it was about five years ago that I got out the first immigrant to work on my farm in this county. I first got one from Germany, and next season I brought out from Germany my children and eight other immigrants. The first two were from Prussia, and the rest from Germany. They are now located on my place and the places of my neighbors in Anderson county. The frequent and distressing irregularities peculiar to her sex have long been her the 'direful spring of woes unnumbered.' In the mansion of the rich and the hall of poverty's wretched abode, the constant yet patient victim of a thousand ills unknown to man—and without a remedy—'Oh, how long!' in the agony of her soul, hath she cried. To Anderson has been fixed at $2.00. I pay them for their work on an average of $12 a month for males and $8 a month for females, and out of this they have to find themselves.

The wages are about the same as are paid for negro laborers, and the quality of the work is better. They are as fine ploughmen as I have ever seen. The women hoe cotton very well indeed. They work a little slowly but do the work well, and make expert cotton pickers. My experience with them is very well indeed. They work a little slowly but do the work well, and make expert cotton pickers. My experience with them is very well indeed.
