The Abbeville Press and Banner, in speaking of the proposition to form new counties in this State with Williamson in this county and Rock Hill in York county as the county seats, makes the following sensible remarks, which we commend to the careful consideration of our friends about Williamson who take to the new county title: "This evil we hope will not be long in coming. We have enough already to live on the taxes of the people. The farmers of the country may be very friendly to the respective title lands, but we hardly think it their interest to build a Court House at every cross roads."
