The Seventh Semi-Annual Session of the Anderson County Singing Convention will be held in the Townville Baptist church on Saturday, the 22nd, and Sunday, the 23rd, of this month. All persons interested in music are invited to attend. These meetings have become very interesting and popular, so that a large congregation is expected on both days of the coming session.

The question as to who shall be our next our citizens, and several competent gentlemen have been suggested by their friends for the place. For more reasons than one the responsibilities of the office will be far greater hereafter, and too great care cannot be exercised in the selection of the man for the place.

There will be no excuse for any one suffering this year for want of a refreshing beverage, for there are now three handsome soda fountains in operation in the city, to be found at Wilhite & Wilhite's, Orr & Sloan's and A. P. Hubbard's. We have the beverage given out by each of the fountains, which we found to be delightfully invigorating.

A new paper, The Eagle, will make its appearance in Columbia about the last of this month. For the present it will be issued semi-weekly, but eventually it will be merged into a daily. The politics of the paper will be Democratic, and a complete roll of the South Carolina Volunteers in Confederate service, now being gotten up in the office of the Adjutant General, will be published in its columns, containing the rank and age of the soldier, his county, where wounded, died, killed, captured, discharged or surrendered, promotions, trans-fers, &c., &c., and whether now living or dead. It will require several months to complete the publication. Subscriptions will be taken at $1 for four months, or 35 cents for one month.

We clip the following from the last issue of the Pickens Sentinel : "Three years ago Mr. E. R. Horton came to Liberty. There was no store there, the depot was closed up and the place apparently dead. Property was held at a nominal price. The wonderful change in the place is an illustration of what energy, indomitable pluck and uniform fair dealing may accomplish. Messrs. Horton & Brown now do a business amounting to $40,000 a year. Property has advanced in some instances 300 per cent. The depot is paying well. They ship 1500 bales of cotton a year, have a nice church under way, a flourishing livery stable, and dwelling houses are in demand." Mr. Horton has many friends in this county, of which he is a native, who will be glad to hear of his prosperity.

Mrs. Maria Elizabeth Smith, wife of Mr. W. G. Smith, of Pendleton township, died on Sunday in the 68th year of her age, after a protracted illness of about three years. She was the daughter of Jesse Lewis, who was among the early settlers of the Sandy Springs neighborhood. She connected herself with the Baptist church at Old Lebanon ting ready for a festival on to-morrow, that in early life, and was a consistent member will begin at 1 o'clock and continue till 9 or to the day of her death. Mrs. Smith was 10 at night, and those who patronize them | well known in many portions of the county, and wherever known was universally respected and admired for her many noble traits of character and womanly graces. She was a good wife and a devoted and affectionate mother. She had been a great sufferer, but at the close her life went out calmly and peacefully. She leaves a husband and three children-two sons and a daughter-to mourn their loss. The remains were laid away to rest in the family burying ground on Monday morning, and as a token of the high esteem and respect in which the deceased was held, the entire community was present to witness the burial services and to bear testimony of the high appreciation of the worth of the amented dead.

> The South Carolina Presbytery. The Presbytery of South Carolina met at Ninety Six on Wednesday evening, April 5th, at half-past seven o'clock, and was opened by Rev. R. C. Ligon, the Moderator of the last meeting of the body. There Mayor is already receiving attention from was a full attendance, nearly all of the Churches being represented.

The first business of importance was to hear a report of a Committee appointed at the meeting last Fall at Anderson in regard to the case of Rev. A. E. Norris. Their report was that they had conferred with Mr. Norris, and that he proposed to ome before the body and make a statement, which he then did, confessing that he was guilty of the charges made at Anderson, and also guilty of denying them when they were true. He was then formally deposed from the ministry and sushad the pleasure of testing the quality of of the Presbyterian Church by a vote almost unanimous, only one member voting against deposition, and only two or three voting against indefinite suspen pension from communion. The cause of Home and Foreign Missions was freely discussed, but no change of imstations on the C. & G. R. R. at reduced portance was made in carrying on the work. We can Exhibit this Scason a Line of New and Fashionable

SPRING GOODS,
THAT cannot possibly be found anywhere else, as we are THE ONLY HOUSE who went to New York from this City, at an expense of time and money, to procure all the LATEST NOVELTIES for our hundreds of customers. WE HAVE NEW GOODS, not merely advertise so. We have large assortments not merely advertise so. We have Low Prices, not merely advertise so, and we mean what we advertise.

DEPARTMENT I.

DRESS GOODS, SILKS, SATINS, TRIMMINGS.

Our stock of these essentials is pronounced by all the Ladies who thronged our Store the past week to be perfectly magnificent, abounding in Domestic and Foreign Fabrics of the newest shades and colorings. Black Goods a specialty, such as all wool Bunting, Nun's Veilirg, Tamise Cloth, French Momie, Cashmeres, Silk Grenadines, Figured Lace Effects, Silk Mohair, Crepe Cloths, Watered Silks and Satins in black and colors, all of which we bought very cheap and shall offer accordingly.

DEPARTMENT II. WHITE GOODS.

We have a bewildering array of Victoria Lawns, Jaconets, Piques, Mull Muslin, Linen Lawns, Swiss in plain and dotted, Tarlatans, small and handsome large Plaid Nainsooks, an endless variety of Figured Muslins in entirely new designs, Lace Curtains in Embroidered Swiss, Nottingham Lace or Cretonnes, beautiful and large Marsailles Quilts, half bleached, Deached; Turkey Red and Colored Border Table Dannask, with Napkins and Doylies to match; Linen Batistes, Dress Linens, (extremely cheap.) Blay Linens and lots of Towels, (please call for our "Dime" Towel.) with plain and knotted fringes.

DEPARTMENT III.

Neckwear, Hosiery, Gloves.

Perhaps nothing in our entire Store has met with so much favor, to judge by the sales, as our line of Ladies' Neckwear. It is simply grand. Do prepare for yourself the pleasure and come and look at them. We will gladly show the many different and elegant styles of "Mother Hubbard" Collars and other Novelties.

In Hosiery we have, as usually, all that is wanted or desirable, from the cheapest Stocking and smallest Baby Sock to the finest imported and English-length Hose in white, half-bleached, colored, black or embroidered.

The leading styles in Gloves, of which we have a large assortment, are the "J. r. ey Frame," Mosquetaire and Forster's Hook, in medium colors, Opera shades or I lack. These goods being bought from the importer we are able to sell them below regular r. ices.

DEPARTMENT IV.

LACES, EMBROIDERIES. RIBBONS.

Our Laces are always admired, and we take special care to have a nice, choice selection in Valenciennes, Trochon, Russian Point, Languedoc, Vermicelli and Spanish Laces.

The extent of our Embroidery stock can be imagined when we have an assortment ranging in price from 3c. a yard up to $1.00.

Every shade, width and quality of Ribbon can be found in our show-cases at popular prices. DEPARTMENT V.

HANDKERCHIEFS, CORSETS, RUCHINGS.

From 5c. to $1.50 in plain, colored border, mourning, hemmed-stitched, embroidered, lace-edged, silk or satin, is our assortment of Handkerchiefs.

Besides a full stock of leading Corsets, we carry a line of Dr. Strong's Nursing and Health-supporting Corsets, which have proven immensely popular.

An entirely new selection of Ruchings, white and black, in Footing, Swiss, Lace or Crepe Lisle.

DEPARTMENT VI. Parasols, Fans, Ladies' Hats.

The growing demand for fine and elegant Parasols has made it imperative upon us to show a complete assortment, and we have it—the right kind and the right prices. Children's Parasols a specialty.

To keep off flies, to cool the heated brow, to gently stir a zepbyr-breath, to hide behind to love express, are the manifold purposes of a Fan. Simple as it seems, yet the extent and variety of patterns, kinds, colors are marvellous, but all tastes can be suited by looking at our choice selection.

As usually, we have a large stock of Children's and Ladies' Hats, trimmed and untrimmed—the latest novelties of a New York market, which cannot fail to please the beholder.

DEPARTMENT VII.

This Department contains more articles than any other, and enumeration is therefore out of the question. Let it suffice that our stock is complete, especially such as Buttons, Everlasting Trimming, Feather Edge Braid, Fine Scaps and Perlume, Pocket Books, Hat and Hair Ornaments, Dress Shields, Picture Frames, Combs, Bracelets and myriads of chertifiches.

DEPARTMENT VIII EDONEES TECS.

A handsome line of Dress and Shirting Prints, Sea Island, Bleaching, Sheeting, Brown Shirting, Athens Checks, Tickings, Ginghams, Cheviots, Grass Cloth, Cottonades, Jeans, etc., form the chief feature of this department, which is filled to overflowing with the above staple and desirable goods.

DEPARTMENT IX SLadies' HGents' OMisses Echildren S

Everything, from the finest to the cheapest, in all leather, foxed or cloth, lace, but-ton or elastic, can be found in our stock. We have an exceedingly handsome line of Slippers for toilet or street wear. Please examine.

DEPARTMENT X. CLOTHING, HATS, FURNISHING GOODS.

A Bigger Stock of these Goods than ever! and that is saying a good deal, for we always were Headquarters for a cheap and good Suit, for a stylish Hat, for the "King" Shirt, for the best Linen Collars, for splendid Underwear and fancy Socks. White V_sts and Alpaca Coats are a specialty with us, as we only keep "Hammerslough's" best goods, which always give satisfaction. We are agents for the WATERTOWN, TOZER, and WOOD, TABER & MORSE ENGINES. CARDWELL THRESHERS, and in fact about everything in this line, which we will sell on best terms possible.

DEPARTMENT XI.

OARPETS, MATTINGS, OILCLOTHS, WINDOW SHADES, TRUNKS, SATCHELS. We have nothing but new goods in this department, and they are worthy of your inspection, as the prices are very reasonable, and the selection better than in former seasons.

With thanks for your past liberal patronage, which has been the stimulus of our endeavor to keep a Store in consonance with the demand and progress of our young City, we give the assurance that nothing on our part shall be left undone that might in the least be construed as deviating from our former course and motto, "Large Stocks, Low Prices, Polite Attention."

Very truly.
