The new Methodist church at Belton was than fully realized. The Chapel of the Female College had been kindly tendered by Dr. Lander, which, with its large capacity, did not furnish seats sufficient for the large audience that assem-bled at $\sidelify clock to witness the exercises which began at that hour. It was remarked by many that a larger audience in William-ston is seldom seen. All the pupils of the Female College, the citizens generally and a large number from the surrounding coun-try were in attendance. Due of the interesting features of the evening was the delightful music of Prof. Munson's Orchestra, of Greenville, which interspersed the proceedings with some of the first part of the programme consisted of extracts, original speeches, essays and a debate by the young men of the school. Those who delivered extracts were Messrs. W. M. Lander, J. T. Poore and L. Carpen-ter, of Williamston, Original speeches, were delivered by the Sultatorian. W. R. Harris, of Waterloo, S. C., D. W. Kellar, of Wen Sadler, of Moffattsville. These young men 7, acquitted themselves handsomely. It The Chapel of the Female College had dedicated on last Sunday morning, Rev. W. W. Duncan, D. The house, which is a neat and substantial structure of 60 by 40 feet in dimensions, was literally packed with a refined and appreciative congregation, and the services in every respect were very intere pressive. The building has been crected at a cost of about $1,600, we understand, and was dedicated free of debt. The congregation deserve great credit for the good work

War is being made on the dogs in this county, and during the past week we have heard of the 'iilling of not less than forty. It is a good work, and we sincerely hope that it may continue until there is a thin-ning out of the tribe in every community. The occasion of the onslaught is the dovel-opment of several cases of hydrophobia. About three weeks ago, Mr. C. D.
