

Our readers will notice this week that the Anderson Intelligence has been enlarged. We have lengthened the columns and added one column to each page, which will give us considerable more room.

Next Monday is Saturday. Watermelons are getting scarce. Read our advertising columns carefully. The merchants are receiving their new goods.

Two or three cruises are on their way South. The hum of the cotton gin is heard in the land. Oh, how we are longing to get hold of a few dollars.

Thirteen drummers were in Anderson one day last week. The merchants have laid in a big supply of bagging and ties. The Anderson Female Seminary opens its Fall session next Monday.

Nearly all of our mercantile firms are represented in the Northern markets. Mr. J. R. Smith, Jr., of Greenville, spent a few days in the city last week.

Mr. Pat McIntyre left Anderson last Friday to visit his old home in Ireland. It is said that the matrimonial season will open in Anderson about 1st of October.

Prepare for a big oat crop. It is not often that we have two bad crop years together. Our young friend Noel Sharpe has returned to the Bingham (N. C.) Military School.

The Intelligencer force is indebted to Mr. P. B. Mitchell for a basket of fine grapes. The Pioneer Fire Company will parade in uniform to-morrow (Friday) afternoon, at 4 o'clock.

The exercises arranged to take place in the Townville School to-morrow have been indefinitely postponed on account of a series of religious meetings, which are in progress there.

The highest price for cotton and the lowest price for goods is the motto of Anderson, and the farmers of the surrounding Counties can satisfy themselves of this fact by testing the market.

The annual meeting of the Anderson County Singing Convention will be held at Lebanon Church on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, 4th, 5th and 6th inst. Prof. A. J. Showalter will be present.

Mr. W. A. Chapman has changed his place of residence. He is now occupying the old stand of the N. Y. Cash Store, on Granite Row. His friends and customers should remember this when they are out shopping.

The storeroom that has been occupied by Messrs. Hill, Adams & Co. is being repaired and otherwise improved. It will be occupied by Mr. E. B. Benson, who will open out a new stock of goods in it in a few days.

The Premium List of the South Carolina Agricultural and Mechanical Society Fair for 1885 has been received. It is full and liberal. The Fair will begin Tuesday morning, November 10th, and continue four days.

Miss Hattie A. F. Elrod, daughter of Mr. F. A. Elrod, died at her home near Pelzer last week, in the 20th year of her age. Her remains were interred at Shiloh Church. Three sisters and one brother mourn her death.

Cotton may sell at a very low price this winter, but the money received for it at that low price will be much in proportion as if the price were high. A high price for cotton means that everything else will be high, too.

Normal Music School Concert. It was our good fortune to be present at the concert given by the Normal Music School at Salem Church, about five miles Northwest of the city, last Friday night.

Mr. Enton: For some reason the impression prevails in some parts of our County that the W. C. T. U. of Anderson has discontinued its work, and as you have kindly given us space, we wish to say a few words in regard to our Union.

At a very interesting meeting, held on Tuesday afternoon, August 25, the following officers were elected for the coming year: President—Mrs. C. R. Murray. Vice-President from Baptist Church—Mrs. L. P. Smith.

Mr. Enton: The morning of Thursday, the twenty-seventh of August, did not conform to what most persons would regard as an "ideal" day for an open air picnic.

The exercises were opened in the college chapel at 11 o'clock a. m. when addresses were delivered by the Rev. W. D. Kirkland, Presiding Elder of the Cokesbury District, and Col. John G. Chinkles, School Commissioner.

Next following the delivery of the addresses, came the serving of the basket dinner, which took place in the Spring Park. The viands were spread in generous profusion on little tables, interspersed with light and airy excursions.

Read the new advertisement of Mr. C. A. Reed, Agt. If you are thinking of buying a sewing machine, we would advise you to call at his establishment.

The following would indicate that there is one place in the United States where marriageable girls are at more than a premium: "We want girls in Garfield County—blondes, brunettes, tall, short, fat, lean, jolly girls—girls who can ride in carriages, play the piano, make crazy quilts, sew, wash, iron and cook for us."

Women's Christian Temperance Union. Mr. Enton: For some reason the impression prevails in some parts of our County that the W. C. T. U. of Anderson has discontinued its work, and as you have kindly given us space, we wish to say a few words in regard to our Union.
