

Anderson Intelligence LOCAL NEWS. O. C. LANGSTON, LOCAL EDITOR. Cotton—Good middling, 84 cents. Cotton seems to be at a stand still just now. Christmas promises to be lively in Anderson. The greater part of the cotton crop has been sold. Never try to build yourself up by pulling others down. Mr. H. F. Bremer, of Charleston, was in the city last week. The children are now counting the days till Santa Claus will come. Mr. M. Kennedy is erecting a neat cottage on East Boundary street. Next Monday is Salesday. The Master has a lot of fine property for sale. We have had some genuine March weather during the past few days. The annual report of the County Commissioners is published this week. The through freight trains on the C. & G. R. R. do not carry passengers now. An old citizen says the times are harder now than they were just after the war. A local weather prophet says we will have snow between now and Christmas. Moss & Brown have put down a substantial plank pavement in front of their store. Oats and other small grain that were sown before the rains are coming up nicely. The health of the city is remarkably good at present; in fact, it was never better. Some of the drummers say if business does not pick up, they will have to quit the road. So far as we know, the Knights of Labor have not put in any official work in this County as yet. Maj. A. R. Boyles, of Seneca, was in the city on Monday, looking as hale and hearty as ever. Means & McGee's new advertisement on the fourth page will amuse and interest you. Our clever friend, A. B. Carpenter, of Pelzer, was in the city last Tuesday, and paid us a visit. The Greenwood Tribune says Col. D. Wyatt Allen is much better than for some time past. During the past year Anderson County has contributed six inmates to the State Lunatic Asylum. Last Sunday was one of the most delightful days of the year. The Churches were well attended. An Anderson girl who is a great talker, says it is better to be engaged in conversation than not at all. We are always glad to have an item of news from any section of the County. Send it to us, friends. If you would rise in the world, you must not stop to kick at every cur who barks as you pass along. The season for coughs, colds and pneumonia has set in. Take care of yourself in order to avoid either. Nearly every paper we pick up records a gin accident. People who work about gins should be very careful. Men never starve to death in this country, but there are many who live on the generosity of the merchants. Call on McCully, Oathead & Co. and try their Manila Cigarettes. If you want a good smoke; five for ten cents. Anderson ought to have a flour mill and an oilon factory. Both would pay, and would help to build up our city. Capt. J. M. Kidd, of Hartwell, Ga., and Mrs. Sallie Daniel, of Danville, Ga., were married on Thursday, 18th ult. We are glad to hear from our Stony Point correspondent. Hope he will continue to favor us with his contributions. Mr. C. F. Jones will conduct the prayer meeting of the W. C. T. U. in Temperance Hall next Sunday afternoon. The tax books will be open only a few more days. Pay up and avoid the penalty. There will be no extension of time. There will be a Dime Reading at Mr. J. J. Baker's residence this (Thursday) evening, for the benefit of the Baptist Church. We had the pleasure of meeting Mr. Geo. Briggs, of Greenville, in the city on Tuesday. The times seem to be treating him well. The Savannah Valley Big Nine Minstrel Troupe will play in the Masonic Hall this (Thursday) evening. Admission, 50 cents. The ladies of the Methodist Church at Lowndesville propose giving an entertainment on the 9th inst., for the benefit of their parsonage. It is estimated that the damage to chimneys alone in Charleston by the recent earthquake will amount to a quarter of a million dollars. Married, on Thursday, 25th ult., at the residence of the bride's father, by Rev. E. Hays, Mr. J. B. McDaniel and Miss Sallie Smith. All of Anderson County. Rev. C. P. Scott, of Newberry, occupied the pulpit of the Baptist Church in this city last Sunday morning and evening, preaching two excellent sermons. Married, at the residence of the bride, on the 24th of November, by Rev. J. T. W. Vernon, Mr. William Campbell and Miss Lizzie M. McClure, of Anderson County, S. C. The November report of the Washington Department of Agriculture, makes it appear that 400 per cent. more hay has been harvested in South Carolina than ever before. Misses Gertrude Brownlee and Minnie Olindeale, two of Anderson County's most popular young ladies, spent several days in the city last week with friends and relatives. We are informed that our good friend, D. Sloan White, of the Rock, has sold his fine plantation, and contemplates moving to Texas at an early day. We will regret to see him leave Anderson County. Have you laid in your winter's supply of wood? If not, don't put it off any longer. Bad weather will soon set in, and the roads then will be almost impassable, which will make it difficult to get wood. Married, on Sunday morning, November 28th, 1886, at the residence of the bride's father, by Rev. S. A. Gary, Mr. E. H. Poor, of Belton, S. C., and Miss Eva Wyatt, eldest daughter of Mr. J. N. Wyatt, of Pickens County, S. C. The Carolina Spartan says oats sown in December often do as well as those sown earlier. Those who have failed to get a stand might try a small quantity now. If they stand the winter, they will come in earlier and be much heavier. Our young friend A. T. Dunlap was licensed to preach by the Quarterly Conference of the Methodist Church of this city on Monday night. Mr. Dunlap is a most excellent young man, and will do good work in the Master's cause.

A postoffice has been established at Cooke's, to be known as Ivy, on the S. V. R. R., with Mr. W. P. Cook as postmaster. An office will soon be established at Dean's, with Mr. W. T. Dean as postmaster. Rev. Dr. Grier was greeted by a large audience in the Court House last Friday evening. He discussed the temperance question in an able, practical manner, and interested every one present. As a logical reasoner, he has few equals in the State. Home Path Plunderer: "Messrs. Jas. O. and John W. Bigley took for Texas last week. They were deservedly popular young men, and left many warm friends here who regretted their departure. We wish for them much success in their new homes." The Eureka Sunday School, of Broadway Township, will meet with the Sunday School at Xmas's Creek Church, by invitation, on next Sunday morning, at 10 o'clock. Col. John G. Clinkscale has accepted an invitation to address the Schools. Luther Blackman, colored, stole a cow from Ike Walker, colored, in Yarenes Township last Saturday and brought it to the city, where he sold it for eight dollars. He was arrested on Sunday by a policeman, and on Monday, after a preliminary hearing before Justice Featherston, was committed to jail to await his trial at the next term of Court. Thanksgiving Day was rather a disagreeable day in Anderson, but notwithstanding this the union services in the Presbyterian Church were well attended, and Rev. J. S. Murray preached an excellent sermon. The merchants did not close their stores, though they might as well have done so, for very little business was transacted. On Monday we had a call from Mr. Richard Graham, of the United States Signal Service, who was visiting Anderson for the purpose of conferring with Gen. Kemper, who has charge of the signal station in this city. They have marked with all the necessary instruments for taking observations. Mr. Graham is a very pleasant gentleman. Mr. Murray Martin died at the home of his father, Mr. Marion Martin, in Hopewell Township, last Sunday morning, after an illness of several weeks from fever. Mr. Martin was just 21 years of age, and was a promising young man. He was a member of Hopewell Baptist Church, and his remains were interred at that Church on Monday, Rev. B. Hays conducting the funeral services. Before purchasing your Christmas goods, be sure to read the new advertisement of Wilhite & Wilhite, who have just opened up the prettiest line of goods available for presents we have ever seen published in this city. They have marked the goods down at hard-time prices, and we are confident if you will inspect the stock you will see something that will astonish you. Give them a call. List of letters remaining in the Postoffice for the week ending December 1. Persons calling for these letters will please say that they are advertised: Julian Anderson, J. O. Allen, A. Bowen, John H. Ducker, Mrs. Mollie J. Barton, Mrs. M. A. Brown, Thomas Burton, Mrs. Anna Butler, James Gasaway (2), W. W. Griffin, Mrs. G. F. Helton, Just Johnson, W. M. Mitchell, B. F. Miller, W. A. Owen, Saml. H. Prossy, Miss Emma Reese, A. Y. Shirley, Isaac Seylors, Robt. Stewart, W. M. Stevenson, J. S. Townsend, Anna Richardson, Helen Williams. Mrs. Mosely, wife of Dr. J. B. Mosely, of Lowndesville, died at the residence of her brother-in-law, Capt. J. T. Barnes, in this city, last Monday morning at 4 o'clock, aged about 32 years. Mrs. Mosely had been in bad health for some time past, and came to this city two or three weeks ago on a visit to her sister, thinking that the change would prove beneficial. She gradually grew worse, however, until death called her away. Her remains were carried to Lowndesville Monday afternoon for interment. She leaves a husband and four children to mourn her death. She was a faithful member of the Methodist Church, and a most excellent lady in every respect. Mr. E. W. Harper, of Lowndesville, has been appointed post clerk on the Savannah Valley Railroad, and entered upon his duties on his duties yesterday. Mr. P. P. Miller, of the Railway Mail Service, Atlanta, Ga., arrived in the city on Tuesday, and will run with Mr. Harper over the Road until he becomes familiar with the duties of the position. Hereafter the mail will leave Anderson at 5:30 a. m. instead of 11 a. m., as heretofore, making connection at McCormick with the train from Augusta. This train will return with the mail as heretofore, arriving here at 2:15 p. m. and returns at night will carry no mail. In order to catch this mail, our people will have to drop their mail matter in the postoffice on the preceding night. The appointment of a post clerk on this Road will be a great convenience to the public. A bold robbery was perpetrated on Market street last Tuesday morning. Mrs. J. E. Smith drove up to her phone in front of Mr. John Lewis's residence, and, after hitching her horse to the fence, entered the house. One of Mr. Lewis's little daughters was on the piazza, and Mrs. Smith asked her to notice the horse. The little girl entered the street, and in a few minutes a negro boy came down the sidewalk. The boy, after seeing the little girl whose horse it was, un hitched the rein and handed it to her. The boy then went to the phone, and, picking up Mr. Smith's hand-satchel, which she had left on the seat, took therefrom a purse containing $3.50 and ran down the street. The little girl knew that the boy was at the phone, but she did not see him with the satchel. When Mrs. Smith returned to the house she discovered that her purse was gone. The little girl told her that the boy having been there, and as soon as possible the robbery was reported to the police. From the little girl's description of the boy and other circumstances, Police-man McGee soon had Nat Young, a 12-year old darkey, under arrest and in prison. Last spring and summer Anderson County was thoroughly canvassed by representatives of the St. Louis Wrought-Iron Range Company. The men were sleek-ranged, and did a fine business, selling a range for $65 that could be bought in this city for $30. Many of our best farmers invested in the ranges, giving them no-a payable therefor in the fall. There is a law in this State requiring s-w-h peddlers to procure a County license, a 4-month time since the attention of the County Commissioners was called to it. The range men, however, had gone, and the County Commissioners could take no action against them. A few weeks ago one of the representatives returned to the County for the purpose of collecting the notes, and last Thursday the Commissioners instructed Sheriff Bolt to get a warrant for him. The Sheriff did so, and placing it in the hands of a Deputy, ordered him to find the collector. The Deputy started out, and soon came upon the collector near Belton. The Deputy put him under arrest and started for the city. They had not traveled far, however, when the collector, who was driving a fine horse to a light buggy, leaped from his buggy and took to the woods, leaving his Deputy, who brought him to the city. Since then nothing has been heard from the collector, and the Sheriff still has the team in his possession.

Rev. E. R. Carwell, formerly of this County, has been called to the pastorate of the Ellerton, Ga., Baptist Church, and has accepted the call. His numerous friends in this County will be glad to know that he has given up the idea of going to Texas. Stony Point Items. Mr. Entor: Perhaps a few items from this section of the County may be of interest to many of the readers of your excellent paper. The farmers in this section are about through with the gathering and housing of their crops. The returns for the labor bestowed on crops of all kinds have been meager, and will compel our people to observe the strictest economy between this and another harvest. A great many farmers will be compelled to reduce the number of acres usually cultivated, and likewise their expenses to enable them to bridge over the hard times. Labor will be cheaper and more available than it has been, and perhaps the change will be of lasting benefit to the farming class. The whistle of the trains upon the S. V. R. R. is heard both day and night in these parts, and the great object for which our people labored so hard has at last been realized. The employees of this road are all polite and accommodating, and all who travel over their road will receive every possible attention. Mr. E. C. Pruitt, the agent of this Road at Dean's, is attentive to the duties of his office, and seems at home in his new position. Rev. H. M. Allen, who has served the Church at Cross Roads as pastor for the past year, has been called to supply the same another year. He has labored earnestly, and well deserves the compliment. The Methodists, assisted by their friends of other denominations, have erected a neat and commodious house of worship at Pleasant Grove in this vicinity. By next Spring they hope to have it completed when a long-felt want will have been supplied. The members and friends of this church at their last meeting changed the name, and in future it will be known as Hebrew. Rev. J. Fletcher Anderson has done service to the community in this part of the new church building, and the membership largely increased under his ministry. The much needed rains have come at last, and the good housewives can dust and clean up their homes and open their doors. The sowing of small grain will be in order now—very little having been put in as yet. Mr. William Ranson and Mr. J. T. Stucky have the finest turkeys we have seen this season. Their turkeys remained green and seemed to grow luxuriantly during the recent dry spell; all owing to a thorough preparation of the soil and early sowing. Okeza. BALTIMORE, MD., Nov. 29. Max Marcus, Manager Baltimore Clothing House: Sell your Men's Suits Nov. 29, 1886, 1988, 2011, 1701, 2039, 1884, 1882, at 10 per cent. below manufacturing prices, in order to close out this lot of clothing. S. BRAFMAN, Proprietor. A STARTLING REVELATION. SWEEPING REDUCTIONS IN PRICES For the next Thirty Days. LESSER & CO. Are offering Unprecedented, Unapproachable, Unheard of, Matchless, SOLID BARGAINS. IN ORDER to make a clean sweep of all Goods that change in style from one season to another, we will sell our DRESS GOODS that are fresh and stylish, in all the leading shades, for 12 1/2c, heretofore sold for 15c and 20c per yard by others. Our better grades, that we sold strictly for 20c, and sold by others for 25c, we now offer for 15c. Our 30c Dress Goods, that were sold by other houses for 35c and 40c, we are now offering for 25c. These goods must be sold between now and Christmas, and we will positively save you money on them. We carry the "Boss Line," and at such low figures as to enable us to suit the closest buyers. VELVETEENS and SILK VELVETS. You need not waste your time in looking for lower figures on these goods than we can give you, for we have bought them since the decline, and are willing to sell them with a small profit. A Rousing Bargain in Black Silks and Satins. No Lady will slight us when examining our Black Silks, as we certainly have beyond a doubt the best imported Black Silk for the least money in this market. Black and Colored Satins almost given away. JUST RECEIVED, A handsome line in Newmarkets, Circulars and Short Wraps of the very latest styles and cuts, bought direct from the manufacturer at very low figures, and we are prepared to give you lower prices than heretofore obtained in this market—in fact, you will see at a glance that we mean business. Here is another of our Pet Bargains that will knock the bottom out of all competition. A fine all wool, silk finished, coat back Jersey—which sold all along this season very readily for $2.00—we are now offering for $1.45. Another big bargain in a silk wool Jersey, worth $2.50 of our competitors, in these cases a brown, navy cardinal and garnet, a very heavy quality, and handsomely made, that sold everywhere for $3.50, we are now closing out for $2.25. And still another bargain in a very handsome and beautiful tailor made Astrachan Jersey—nothing like it in Anderson. These are also in the most desirable shades now this season, and are fully worth double the money we ask. The regular price of these goods everywhere is $4.00—we will close them out for $2.75. BELOW COST. In order to finally dispose of a small lot of Clothing still on hand, we will offer you a $10.00 Suit for $8.50, a $15.00 Suit for $12.50, a $25.00 Suit for $15.00. Right here we wish to say to our patrons, and the trading public generally, that this is no idle assertion to catch or deceive you. We do not intend carrying any Clothing after this season, and as we have only a very small lot left, we are willing to close them out below cost. Remember, that we are the Leaders of Low Prices, and our friends and customers are willing to patronize us as long as we adhere to our motto— LIVE AND LET LIVE. And bear constantly in mind that the day for long winded profits is a thing of the past, and that fortunes are not easily made. We would also like to say that for the want of space we omitted quoting other goods we carry; and, as a great many already know, we are constantly getting lower than any other house here or elsewhere, it would be useless to enumerate. Suffice, however, to say, (and we are justified in saying so, for our competitors) in these hard times it behooves all to study their interest and stretch the dollar as far as stretching will bear, because it is easier spent than made. Hence we will only ask you to give us a call before spending your money elsewhere, and go home satisfied that GENUINE BARGAINS can only be secured at the Great Bargain House of LESSER & CO. NOTICE—Remember, we have moved from our old stand, and we are now on Brick Range, next door to John E. Peoples & Co. Nov 11, 1886 18

THE DAY of MIRACLES has NOT PASSED, As an eager public will see by calling on MISS LIZZIE WILLIAMS, AT HER NEW ESTABLISHMENT, AND examining her ELEGANT and IMMENSE STOCK of GOODS. She has just arrived from the Northern markets with— Handsomest Outlay of Ladies' Goods Ever brought to this city, which she desires to sell for the gratification of her numerous customers. But if you desire real conscience-easing and pocket-comforting Bargains, call at her Old Stand, where she will sell out her Old Stock AT and BELOW COST. The above facts constitute no fair tale, but a positive reality, and those who wish to purchase will find it greatly to their financial interest to pay an early visit to the Ladies' Store.
