

Cotton—Good middling, 82 cents. Trade is dull with the merchants. The measles are abating in the city.

Sheriff Bolt, at present, has nine bonds. All the schools in the city are well attended. The demand for farms is fully up to the average.

No great amount of news to write about this week. Read Messrs. Brownlee & Brown's advertisement. The weather for the past ten days has been "freely scorching."

After Saturday the books of the County Treasurer will be closed. Anderson and Orangeburg will soon be united by the marriage tie.

The bold wave signal was hoisted on Monday, and the wave came, too. The quarterly statement of the Anderson National Bank is published this week.

The trains on the Savannah Valley rarely ever fail to come in on schedule time. The insurance agents in the city have been distributing some very pretty calendars.

There were not as many changes of residences in Anderson this New Year as usual. We are indebted to friend D. A. Zeigler, of Denver, Col., for late Colorado papers.

Marriage notices and religious notices are published without any charge. Send them in. On account of the severe weather, work on the new Methodist Church has been suspended.

There will be the usual number of eclipses—two of the sun and two of the moon—this year. Pedestrians preferred the sunny side of the street on Monday. The icy pavements were not safe.

Preaching may be expected at the Baptist Church next Sunday morning at 11:30, by Rev. L. M. Ayer. Fears are entertained that the small grain crop has been badly damaged by the extreme cold weather.

Mr. W. E. Gonzales, one of the efficient representatives of the News and Courier, was in the city on Monday. Cotton buying at Pelzer has been suspended for the season, the company having completed its purchases.

We will soon be forced to part with a few of our subscribers, unless they pay up. We can't live on promises. Rev. A. T. Dunlap will preach at Ebenezer on next Sunday at 11 o'clock a. m., and at Smith's Chapel at 3 p. m.

A local weather prophet says we are going to have a long, cold winter, and that this year's crops will be abundant. Chief Buzzhead, of the Cherokee Indians, has been spending a few days in the city, and called to see us last Tuesday.

If you want to have a year of comparative happiness eat less, drink less, smoke less and think less about getting rich. Our Devil says he is getting tired of yelling "shut the door!" Bear this in mind the next time you visit our office.

The residents of the city should not neglect to thank their Returns to the City Clerk. The time expires on the 30th inst. Several gentlemen from the lower section of the State have recently been in Anderson prospecting with a view of settling here.

Married, in Williamson, on 23rd December, by Rev. D. W. Hiett, Mr. James W. Welborn and Miss T. E. Elrod, all of Anderson County. The members of Anderson Division, Sons of Temperance, are urged to be present at the meeting to be held this (Thursday) evening.

Mr. C. F. Jones, who has been confined to his room from sickness for several weeks past, is, we are glad to say, able to attend business again. We understand that measles of the most violent type are raging in the Eastern section of the County. Several deaths have occurred from them.

We venture the assertion that "Uncle Sam" has no more efficient or accommodating officer in his service than Postmaster Webb, of Anderson. It is a bad idea to make one enemy in order to secure two friends, for long after the friends have forgotten you the enemy holds you in active recollection.

Married, on Dec. 10th, 1887, by Dr. W. K. Sharp, Notary Public, at Townsville, S. C., Mr. M. H. Moore and Miss R. A. Hatcher. All of Anderson County. Messrs. Whitte & Wilhite recently received an order from a wholesale drug firm for twelve gross of the various preparations which they are manufacturing.

We return our thanks to Mr. James L. Taylor, General Passenger Agent of the Richmond and Danville system, for a complimentary pass over the C. & G. division. If there is anything in the old Dutch sign about the first twelve days after Christmas, June, July and the greater part of August of this year will be wet months.

"The Two Dams" will be in Anderson on or about the 23rd inst. This Company visited Anderson last winter, and gave one of the best comedy performances ever seen here. "These are hard times," said a young collector of bills. "Every place I went to-day I was requested to call again but one, and that was when I dropped in to see my girl."

Some one has beautifully said that "sincerity is speaking as we think, believing as we pretend, acting as we profess, performing as we promise, and being as we appear." Gen. M. L. Bonham, Jr., has retired from the Abbeville Messenger, leaving that excellent paper in the hands of Mr. Jas. S. Perrin, who will keep it up to its former standard.

The Southern Christian Advocate, under its new publishers, has been considerably improved. It is a most excellent paper, and no Methodist family in the State can afford to be without it. A special train arrived in the city on Tuesday afternoon, over the S. V. R. R., from Augusta in charge of a committee of fourteen gentlemen, who came up to act as an escort to those of our citizens who had been invited to attend the reception which August 1st arranged for the business men along the line of her new railroad. The train left Wednesday morning with about fifty ladies and gentlemen on board. The Young America Cornet Band accompanied the party. A banquet was held last night, and a ball will be given to-night. Augusta knows how to entertain, and our citizens will do doubt have a gala time.

The attention of our readers is directed to the card of Messrs. Clinkscales & Pickens, who have formed a partnership for the practice of law. They are young men of fine ability, and deserve success. Says a writer on etiquette, "Smacking the lips should be avoided." People who are experienced in such matters, however, say that it makes little difference in the world whose lips siss in the smacking.

Seneca Free Press: "Mr. T. E. Dickson and family have moved into Mr. W. O. Hamilton's home. Mr. Dickson is one of Anderson's live farmers. We welcome them to our community and hope they will locate here permanently." There are some people who say they can't see any good in displaying the weather signals—that it is a useless expense. There are some people, we are sorry to say, who can't see any good in anything, not even in the Bible.

The Spring session of the Williamson Female College will open on Monday, February 7th. The rates are reasonable and parents will find no better institution in which to educate their daughters. See advertisement in another column. With a view of changing their business, Messrs. Taylor & Van Wyck are offering their stock of dry goods, notions, hardware, etc., at remarkably low prices, and for the next few weeks will give rare bargains to everybody. Read their new advertisement.

There are few people in this world who will pay any heed whatever to advice, let it be good or bad, but the man who gives a little extra attention to his vegetable garden this year will realize before the summer is over that the advice to raise his own vegetables was good and timely. C. F. Jones & Co. have started out in the New Year with an immense stock of goods, especially groceries, which they are offering at popular prices. If our readers will only visit these gentlemen, they will conclude at once that there is no use in "trying" round. See what they have to say in another column.

The Greenville News will hereafter be conducted under the ownership of Mr. A. B. Williams, who has been its sole owner for some years, and Mr. W. J. McKerrall, of the Marion Star and the Orange Field. The last name paper will hereafter be published at Greenville. Messrs. Williams and McKerrall are energetic and progressive journalists, and are bound to succeed. Every enterprising business man and firm should be provided with printed letters and billheads and envelopes. They are a convenience which invariably pays, and which speak for the habits of a house. A common foolscap letter or bill paper shows that the merchant is not up to the age nor spirit of progress of the times. He is not prepared to do all kind of job printing in the neatest manner and at the lowest possible prices.

Two or three weeks ago Mr. J. D. Gray, who resides about ten miles west of the City, visited Anderson, and during his stay here imbibed too freely of whiskey. On his way home he got down, and being too drunk to navigate, lay out in the cold nearly all night, and as a consequence his feet and hands were badly frozen. On Wednesday we learned that Mr. Gray was in a dangerous condition. The flesh has begun to tough off of his hands and feet, and his sufferings are almost unbearable. Pickens Standard: "The tournament at Liberty on the 25th ult., was quite a success. The first prize was won by Mr. John Nichols, the second was won by Mr. D. J. Tucker, of Anderson, the third by Mr. W. C. Glenn, of Liberty, and fourth by Mr. W. C. Smith, of Slaton. Mr. Nichols crowned Miss Rosa Forger queen of love and beauty, and Miss Emma Allgood, Carrie Grace and Essie Russell received the distinction of Misses of the year, which concluded the fun very much enjoyed."

List of letters remaining in the Post-office for the week ending January 12, persons calling for these letters will please call at the office of C. W. Axtell, P. O. Box 12, Blockwood, Henry Carson, Mrs. Nancy Edwards, Mrs. Emma Gurley, Miss Rosa Greer, Robt. Gordon, Mrs. Hannah Harris, Dr. W. H. Hammond, Mary E. Holmes (2), J. L. McClintock, J. H. Reeves, Mrs. M. Salom, Sam Sitton, Joe Simpson, S. R. Tims, John A. Wilson, Mrs. M. J. Williams, Julius Young, Thaddeus Young, Mrs. A. B. Young.

The question has been raised as to whether the host or guest should make the first move for going to bed, and thus break up an evening's gathering, and a writer in an exchange takes it upon himself to decide that the host or hostess, as the case may be, should take the initiative. Therefore guests will hereafter refrain from gaping while their host is telling his favorite story, and be especially particular not to go to sleep just as he has reached the most thrilling part of it. Such conduct is not in accordance with the rules of etiquette.

It is an experience of publishers that too many people are apt to think that it matters but little whether the newspaper will be printed or not. It is a very small amount, and of little consequence. This is not because subscribers are unwilling to pay, but because they are negligent. Each one imagines that because the amount is small the publisher can not be much in want of it, never for a moment thinking that the income of a newspaper is made up of just such small amounts, and that the aggregate of all subscribers by no means an inconsiderable sum of money.

The Innes Path Plasterer, of the 6th inst., says: "Some fien in human shape attempted to 'work fine' in human shape by taking this place on last Saturday night by placing an iron bar across the rails. It was struck by the engine of a special freight going west about 9 o'clock, but fortunately no injury was done, as the bar was knocked clear of the track by the pilot of the engine. Such deeds in this community are becoming too frequent, and all efforts should be made to ferret out the guilty parties, and when caught they should be made to suffer the extreme penalty of the law."

We are called upon to record the sad death of two of Mr. Austin Hewin's children, who died very suddenly of croup. Little Thomas, the youngest child, aged two years, one month and nineteen days, died on Tuesday, 4th inst., about 7 o'clock p. m.; little Idell, aged three years, four months and twenty-one days, died on Thursday, 6th inst., about 9 o'clock a. m., there being only about thirty-eight hours between their deaths. Both were interred in the cemetery at Cross Roads Church, after appropriate funeral services conducted by Rev. H. M. Allen. The bereaved parents have the sympathies of a great many friends and relatives.

A special train arrived in the city on Tuesday afternoon, over the S. V. R. R., from Augusta in charge of a committee of fourteen gentlemen, who came up to act as an escort to those of our citizens who had been invited to attend the reception which August 1st arranged for the business men along the line of her new railroad. The train left Wednesday morning with about fifty ladies and gentlemen on board. The Young America Cornet Band accompanied the party. A banquet was held last night, and a ball will be given to-night. Augusta knows how to entertain, and our citizens will do doubt have a gala time.

Rev. W. S. Wightman, the new pastor of the Methodist Church, arrived in the city last Thursday evening. He was met at the depot by several of the leading members of the Church, and driven to the parsonage. Preparation for a reception had been made by the ladies of the Church, and Mr. Wightman and his family were given a cordial reception. Nearly every member of the Church either brought or sent some offering for the parsonage. Mr. Wightman occupied his pulpit for the first time on Sunday, and made a strong impression upon his congregation. We extend him a hearty welcome to Anderson.

Mr. Elijah Farmer, father of our townsman, Mr. J. L. Farmer, died suddenly of heart disease at the residence of his son-in-law, Mr. M. L. Thompson, in Oconee County, on Thursday morning, 6th inst., aged 84 years. Mr. Farmer was born in Lenoir County, N. C., and at the age of 14 years moved with his parents to Greenville County, S. C., where he resided until 1880. Since that time he has been living with his children in Anderson and Oconee Counties. In his early manhood he joined the Baptist Church, and ever since has been a faithful and consistent member. Mr. Farmer was an excellent citizen in every respect, and his many friends will regret to hear of his death. His wife and seven children survive him.

The petition of J. D. Maxwell, P. K. McCully, J. T. Farmer and J. S. Fowler against G. P. Tolly, Mayor, asking for a mandamus to compel the Mayor to hear and judicially determine the issues of law and fact in the late prohibition election in the city of Anderson, was argued before the Supreme Court in Columbia last Monday. Mr. G. E. Prince represented the petitioners, who seek to set the election aside, and Messrs. E. B. Murray and G. S. Sunday represented the Mayor in opposition to the granting of the mandamus. Mr. Prince replied, and at the conclusion of the argument the Court took the papers and reserved its opinion. Each side, of course, expect to win the case, and the announcement of the decision of the Court is necessary to settle the question as to who is right.

The Farmers' Convention last Monday was not largely attended, owing, no doubt, to the bitter cold weather. The meeting was held in the Court House, and was called to order at 12 o'clock by Capt. D. K. Norris, there being about twenty-five farmers present. Mr. S. N. Brown was requested to act as Secretary. Capt. Norris, in a few well-chosen words, stated the object of the meeting to be for the purpose of taking into consideration the work of the late Legislature. He said the State Convention of farmers, which met in Columbia last August, had made a number of important recommendations to the Legislature, very few of which had been acted upon, and he felt that it was the duty of the farmers to meet and discuss these matters. At the conclusion of Capt. Norris's remarks, Maj. T. H. Russell said that, in order to get some light on what had been done by the Legislature, he would suggest that the Senator and Representatives of the County be invited to attend the meeting. Capt. John W. Daniels was the only member of the Representatives present, and he, in a brief manner, gave an account of his stewardship. When Capt. Daniels took his seat, Mr. W. Russell took the floor, and during his speech Representative Earle came into the meeting. When Mr. Russell had finished, Mr. Earle was called upon, and he also gave an account of his stewardship. Rev. B. E. Clayton followed Mr. Earle, his remarks being directed mainly in reply to something Mr. Russell had said in his speech in reference to the phosphate interests of the State. After a few more remarks from Capt. Norris, the Convention adjourned.

"What should be done with members who habitually refuse to partake of the Lord's Supper. Speakers, Rev. B. M. Allen, J. E. Bresselle and Rev. H. M. Allen. 2d. "How can we best promote the educational interest of our denomination." Speakers, Rev. L. M. Ayer, E. B. Murray and Rev. W. H. King.

Williamston Items. On Christmas Day Dr. Dunkin Moore had a violent attack of asthma, and suffered intensely until Sunday night, when he breathed his last, leaving a family of sons to mourn his death. The school room at Big Creek is completed, and is being well used by the citizens of that community.

The members of the Greek Church and the Methodist Church pounded their pastors during Christmas. The articles were accompanied with much brotherly love and kind wishes. The Christmas guns and deep rolling noise of the skaters were continually kept up during the holidays.

Many of our young people attended the entertainment at Belton during the holidays, and were delighted with their trip. Mr. Willie Pinson has suffered intensely from a wile on the finger. His arm became inflamed and very much swollen, and was lanced above the wrist. Dr. W. Wilson treated Mr. Pinson, and he is improving rapidly.

Mrs. Newton Williams and daughter, Miss Minnie, will soon return home from the old North State. Rumor says that Minnie will go to make another home happy. The small children of a portion of our town are very much elated over their "Real" Club, which has just been formed, and look forward to their meetings with perfect delight. A. P. N.

A Great Discovery. Mr. Wm. Thomas, of Newton, Ia., says: "My wife has been seriously affected with a cough for twenty-five years, and this spring more severely than ever before. The first bottle relieved her very much, and the second bottle had absolutely cured her. She has not had so good health for thirty years." Trial bottles free at Hill Bros. Drug Store.
