

Cotton—Good middling, 9 cents. Next Monday is Saturday. Court is in session at Abbeville.

January furnished us all sorts of weather. Valentine's Day is crowding the youth full of love.

Mr. O. Geisberg has gone on a visit to Birmingham, Ala. Anderson has twenty lawyers, and eight of them are bachelors.

The Savannah Valley Railroad's business is steadily increasing. Mrs. W. L. Bol, of Ackworth, Ga., is visiting relatives in the city.

Miss Jannah Allen, of Greenville, is in the city visiting relatives. Sound sweet potatoes meet with ready sale in the city at a fair price.

Corn is advancing in price. Farmers, prepare to put in a large crop. "I always patronize those merchants who advertise," said a farmer the other day.

Corn, bacon and fertilizers form a large part of the business of the railroads just now. The prayer meetings in the Methodist Church on Tuesday nights are largely attended.

Rev. J. J. Taylor, of Lexington, Ky., will preach in the Baptist Church next Sunday. Rev. A. T. Dunlap will preach at Trinity Church on next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

School Commissioner Clinckscale is off in the country this week visiting the public schools. Mr. D. J. Sherrard offers some valuable land within the city's limits for sale. See advertisement.

The bell for the new Methodist Church has been placed in position. It has a very sweet tone. Mr. W. W. Keys, of the Baptist Church, Greenville, S. C., has been spending a few days in the city.

Mr. W. W. Sadler, of this County, left on Tuesday for Don West, where he goes to enter Rockline College. Our young friend, Wm. H. Wilson, has secured a position as fireman on the Savannah Valley Railroad.

Mr. Wm. Miller, who has been sojourning in Camden, S. C., for several months, has returned to Anderson. Mr. W. J. Gaines, the energetic representative of the Augusta Chronicle, spent a day in the city last week.

"Two Daps Combination" was forced to pass by. They will probably visit us later in the season. Mr. E. P. Bruce, of Townsville, has been spending a few days in the city. The Intelligencer has a warm friend in him.

The contractors have completed the repairs on Earle's Bridge, and they will at once begin work on the new bridge at Sloan's Ferry. Providence permitting, the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be celebrated at Roberts Church on next Sunday, and at Townville on Sunday following.

Jimmie, an eight-year-old son of Mr. Thos. Gentry, died at his home in Piedmont Township on last Tuesday afternoon, after a painful illness of several weeks. Mr. John A. Wilcox, who is drumming for the Anderson house, was in the city yesterday. John is an Anderson boy, and it pleases us to know that he is meeting with success.

Married, at the residence of the bride's father, on the 23rd inst., by Rev. Mike McFee, Mr. J. W. Tucker, of Level Land, S. C., and Miss Adelia F. Weeks, of Piedmont, S. C. Mr. J. R. Norris, editor of the McCormick Advance, spent last Sunday in the city. Mr. Norris is a most pleasant gentleman, and we hope to see him in Anderson frequently.

Read B. F. Croyton & Sons' new advertisement, and if you want anything good to eat, pay them a visit. They keep everything in the grocery line, and sell them at bottom prices. If you have been borrowing your neighbor's razor, you are due for the past year, quit it and come up to this office, like a man with the subscription price, and get a paper of your own.

Some people at Church, no matter how interesting and eloquent the sermon, will pull out their watches when the town clock begins to strike. They want to see if the clock is right, you know. Married, by the Rev. M. McGee, on Tuesday, 25th ult., at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Joe Major and Miss Jannah Harris, daughter of Mr. Ezekiel Harris, all of Anderson County.

The New York Cash Store is offering a splendid chance to the ladies of buying first-class goods at a low price and at same time obtain a fine picture. Look in the special notice column for particulars. J. J. Baker & Co.'s new advertisement shows the value of the fertilizer and soil, which are recognized as among the best on the market. Give them a call.

Mr. W. L. Padgett, an accomplished architect and builder of Pelzer, will leave in a few days for Birmingham, Ala., where he will make his future home. We wish him every success in his undertakings. Mr. Foster Fant has sold his interest in the book-store of G. W. Fant & Son to his brother, Mr. Rufus Fant, and the business will be continued under the same firm name as heretofore. See advertisement.

Never pay out money without taking a receipt therefor. It will save many a man's standing, probably, by always requiring one. If the circumstances are such that a receipt cannot be given, defer the payment. Governor Richardson has appointed Prof. W. J. Ligon and J. M. Lander on the Board of School Examiners for Anderson County. School Commissioner Clinckscale is a member ex officio of the Board.

Rev. J. W. Wolling will visit Anderson this week, and will preach in the Methodist Church next Sunday morning and evening. This will probably be his last visit to Anderson prior to his departure for Brazil. Mr. George P. Pettigrew died suddenly of heart disease at his home in Corner Township on Wednesday, 25th ult., aged about 70 years. He was buried at Stevens Church on the day following his death. Mr. Pettigrew was an upright, honorable man, and by his death the County loses a worthy citizen. He leaves a wife and a large family to mourn his death.

The Williamson Dramatic Club will render the play, "Ten Nights in a Bar Room," in Williamson on night, the 3rd of February. Admission 25 cents. Reserved seats ten cents extra. A pleasant evening awaits those who attend. Mrs. Elizabeth McLean, relict of the late John McLean, died at her home in Piedmont Township on last Tuesday aged about 50 years. She was an excellent lady, and her death is deeply regretted by many friends and relatives.

Our worthy young friend, John M. Geer, one of Bolton's most prosperous and energetic merchants, was in the city last Friday. John is a clever, handsome young bachelor, and some fair damsel should take him under her protecting care. We would call attention to the advertisement of Messrs. Nantz & Neuner. Persons wishing to secure first-class flowers from a first-class house, at the cheapest rates, should send for their catalogue and order of them. They are thoroughly reliable.

While in Augusta the Young America Club Band had its photograph taken and it is a good picture, too. Our young friend, Ben Daniels, who blows the big horn, has a few copies for sale. Call on him at White's Drug Store and see the picture. The Board of Directors of the Savannah Valley Railroad had a meeting last week, and, after passing resolutions on the death of Mr. W. S. Ligon, the late Treasurer of the Company, elected Mr. John E. Brazeeale to fill Mr. Ligon's unexpired term.

On last Saturday Dr. J. O. White, of this city, was called to Leesburg, Fla., to attend his father, Dr. P. A. White, who was quite sick. Later information was given to state, reports Dr. White as greatly improved, and we hope he will soon be quite well again. Messrs. Sullivan & Bro., Anderson's energetic hardware and machinery merchants, have recently sold an automatic locomotive engine to the Dine West Presbyterian, and one to the Lutheran Visitor at Newberry. This is the same kind of an engine that the Intelligencer uses.

The farmers—more especially the land-owners of Savannah and Rock Mills Township are earnestly requested to meet at Willford's Store on to-morrow (Friday) morning, at 10 o'clock to consult as to the propriety of organizing an Agricultural Club, and to consider such other matters as may be to their interest. Senator Butler begs the News and Courier to say to persons seeking pensions as survivors of the Mexican war, that they need only to forward their applications directly to the Hon. John C. Black, Commissioner of Pensions, Washington, D. C., who will furnish all necessary blanks and information. Senator Butler expresses his perfect readiness to aid, as far as he can, in cases presenting any difficulty.

List of letters remaining in the Post-office for the week ending February 2. Persons calling for these letters will please say they are addressed to G. Bryson, Miss Jennie Cox, Ben Edwards, Bernard Fagan, W. F. Garrison, John Henry, Elijah Hunter (2), Anna M. Johnson, J. A. Miles, Alfred Moore, Miss Mary J. Reese, John Ricks, Jas. Richey, Miss Rosamond Russell (2), Mrs. Mary Shibley, Mrs. Nancy Williams.

The young ladies and gentlemen of Grace Church, with the assistance of a few friends, propose giving an entertainment at Masonic Hall on to-morrow (Friday) evening. It will consist of "Cups and Saucers" (a musical satire on the China trade), "Pantomime of Blue Beard," and the highly amusing comedietta, "The Seven Old Ladies of Levenside Town." Admission, 50 cents; reserved seats with-out extra charge. Tickets for sale at Hill Bros.

Mr. John W. Shields, one of the LITTLEWOODS' types, organized a Union Sunday School in Yarenes Township, about four miles south of the city, several months ago, and since then it has prospered very successfully. The school is in a most flourishing condition, and is doing a good work. Mr. Shields is the Superintendent, and last Sunday afternoon, as an appreciation of his services, the School presented him with a beautiful water-set.

Some boys shooting at pigeons with a sling-shot, in the rear of the Auditor's office, a few days ago, missed their mark and sent a rock crashing through one of the windows, which contained a number of glass on the floor and the Auditor himself. There is a city ordinance against using sling-shots on the streets, and it will doubtless be enforced if the boys do not leave their sling-shots at home or keep them in their pockets when they are on the streets.

Mc McCormick Advance: "It is rumored that Mr. Rova's interest in the Savannah Valley Railroad will give him control of the Road, and should such be the case, it will certainly be a boom for McCormick." We think that is such a man as Mr. Rova! at the head of the Savannah Valley—speaks volumes! and in all probability, in a few years, our pet Road would extend from the mountains to the seaboard. While we have all good will and feelings for Mr. Alexander, and believe him to be an excellent Railroad man, yet we might expect a great deal at the hands of Mr. Rova if he is to control the Savannah Valley Railroad."

The citizens of Anderson who attended the lecture by Gen. De Kemper last Monday evening were greatly pleased by the concise, scholarly and erudite manner in which the speaker handled the subject of earthquakes, giving the salient points in the history of the more noted shocks of the world, and the theory of the causes which produce them. Gen. Kemper is a clear and vigorous writer, and shows the scholar as well as the thoughtful and discriminating student in his address. We trust that the General will favor the public with other lectures, as they will undoubtedly prove both interesting and instructive.

Of all the magazines with which we are acquainted, there are none more interesting and instructive than the Century. A volume of over 100 pages per month, it is filled with the most choice and varied reading. Its continued history of Abraham Lincoln is continued from month to month, and the February number has also a history of invasion of Pennsylvania, and an account of the balling of Jefferson Davis. In addition to this there is a timely article on the relative strength of nations, and several continued stories, these, with articles on Astronomy, mid-winter resort, poetry, biography, and numerous handsome engravings, make a volume of rare interest. Those of our readers who are unacquainted with the excellence of the Century are deprived of a real literary pleasure.

The Experimental Stations. Governor Richardson advertises that in accordance with the provisions of an Act entitled "An Act to establish the South Carolina Experiment Stations," one in the Piedmont region of the State and one in the lower tier of Counties, the Board of Agriculture gives notice that it will receive during the next sixty days from counties, communities or persons bids or proposals to donate lands and buildings or money for the purpose of establishing said experimental farms and stations. All bids to receive consideration must be sent to L. A. Ransom, Secretary Board of Agriculture, Columbia, S. C., on or before the 11th day of April next. We would like to see this station located in Anderson County, and would, therefore, suggest that our Farmers' Convention take action to ascertain what bids can be made from Anderson County. The bids must be in good and legal form, and we wish to succeed there must be no delay in arranging to make the offer. We will be glad for our friends who may feel an interest in the subject to discuss the matter and use our columns in any way calculated to further the object desired.

The Whiskey Trials. Last week was a gala week in the Mayor's Court in Anderson. Warrants were taken out by the Chief of Police against Messrs. F. M. Butler and Ernest Fant; John O'Donnell, James O'Donnell and Reuben Young; W. Ira Drennan and Harry McCormick, for retailing spirituous liquors without a license. The trials began on last Wednesday morning, and continued until the 11th inst. F. M. Butler and Ernest Fant being the first case heard. Messrs. E. B. Murray and H. G. Seaward appeared for the prosecution, and Messrs. Prince & Vandiver and S. M. Pickens for the defendants. The defendants pleaded not guilty, and demanded a jury. Mayor Tolly stated under the Charter he did not think they were entitled to a jury, but that it would be agreeable to him, but he refused to pass upon the facts, and as the defendants wanted a jury he would grant it to them. The following jury was empaneled to try the case, with Mr. J. J. Baker as foreman, and Messrs. A. P. Hubbard, G. N. Broyles, James Sandler, W. B. Beacham and J. Boyce Baird as other members of the jury. A large number of witnesses were sworn, and who testified to the retailing of spirituous liquors from Butler or his clerk, but the majority of them either testified that they were given to them, or that they had simply taken them, without knowing whether they were charged or not. One witness testified to paying money, and another to leaving money on the table. The prosecution also showed that Mr. Butler had partitioned off his room so that nothing could be seen from the street, and that within this partition was a closet in which he kept liquors, and in which the drinking was generally done. The defense offered no testimony, and after argument and a clear charge from his Honor the Mayor, the jury promptly rendered a verdict of guilty. A motion for new trial and in arrest of judgment was argued before the Judge and overruled, after which Mr. Butler and Mr. Fant were each sentenced to pay a fine of one hundred dollars, or be imprisoned for thirty days. They have appealed to the full Court, and the case set for a hearing on next Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock.

The case against Messrs. John O'Donnell, James O'Donnell and Reuben Young, and the case against Mr. Dennis O'Donnell were tried by the same jury, and the verdicts were rendered in favor of the prosecution. The case against Messrs. Drennan and McGrath were continued until Friday of this week. There is a determination on the part of the Board of Agriculture to enforce the prohibition law, and it will be found dangerous and expensive to the violators of the law. The prohibitionists do not desire to injure any individual, but they intend to enforce the law, and if prosecutions in the City Court do not prove efficient, they will carry them to the Circuit Court where more exemplary penalties can and will be inflicted.

Brusly Creek Items. The Quarterly Meeting at Shiloh on last Saturday and Sunday was a very interesting occasion. Saturday being an inclement day, there was a small turnout, though Mr. Dickson, the Presiding Elder, preached as if the house was full. Sunday, however, was a beautiful day, and the house was crowded to excess. Mr. Dickson preached a most excellent sermon, making a deep impression upon all his hearers. With the exception of a few babies and a few ill-mannered wasps, there was little confusion. Mr. Dickson met many old friends, and made many new ones. Mr. Ligon, the pastor of the Piedmont Church, was also in his place. He seemed to be well pleased with his new field of labor, and the people like him very much.

The farmers have done but little farm-work yet, but they are getting things ready for ploughing, and some few have begun. "Hard times" is the cry on every hand, but notwithstanding this, several new buildings are going up. Mr. John Ricks has moved into his new house, and is comfortably fixed. Mr. William Huff is building a good, large house, which will improve his place very much. Mr. Henry Cely, who went to Texas last Fall, is not satisfied with that country.

Mr. Miles Hogan has put up a corn mill near Piedmont. We are told that it has been successful in its operation, and we are pleased to be glad to see it. We think it would be a good plan for the County Commissioners to let them work on the roads, and let them work off the wire edge of the new road law has put on them.

Our schools are on a boom now. We have very good teachers in our Township at present. We have but two trustees, but our Commissioner will no doubt see after that in due time. E. P. Pierce's Items. Much of the gloom and despondency which has prevailed throughout our country since the late war, has been caused by the shortness of last year's crop, and the general "hard times" has passed away. The cold, bleak snow clouds, which have been stretched, like a great huge blanket, over our country so long, have been drawn aside, and the beautiful golden rays of the sun have been permitted to fall once more upon our earth. We have had a few fine days of spring-like weather, which seems to have warmed up the whole earth and revived the whole animal creation to life and activity again.

The farmers of this section, inspired with new hopes, have gone to work with renewed energy. They stir early and late. The plows have all been started. Breaking stubble land and sowing Spring oats is the general order of the day, while a few of the more thoughtful farmers are preparing large quantities of compost to take the place of so much commercial fertilizer. If every farmer in this country would make their own fertilizers and then raise their own supplies, it would not be long until the cry of "hard times" would cease to be heard.

Married, on December 29th, by John Harper, Notary Public, at his residence, Mr. Andrew Burgess and Miss Lizzie Bratcher, all of Anderson County. The groom is sixteen years old and the bride only twelve. Such premature marriages are not very likely to turn out well. We think some steps should be taken to prevent such children from being allowed to marry. It is better to allow their children to get grown up soon, and then a minister or an officer who would marry mere children should receive a full share of public censure.

Mr. Jephtha Watkins walked out into his front piazza the other night, and, the night being very dark, accidentally stepped off the edge of the floor, and fell to the ground, a severe injury to his ankle, bearing him full, was taken into his assistance. He was taken into the house insensible of everything that was going on, and remained so for some time; but he has now sufficiently recovered to be up and out again, though he still carries his arm in a swaging. PREZEE.

Big offer for the next week! A fine Oil Picture given away with every Ten Dollar Cash purchase. In addition we guarantee our prices to be the very lowest. Large Stock Sugar, Coffee, Flour, Bacon, Corn, Molasses and supplies of every description. We are bound to sell at the lowest prices for cash. C. F. Jones & Co. If you want anything of the most line all on H. G. Johnson & Co.

Work on the side track and depot this place has commenced, and will be rapidly pushed to completion. There have been several interesting and intervening in regular village style. Plats of the same will soon be on an exhibition, and all persons desiring to purchase a lot for store-room or residence in a healthy, prosperous section of our County, would do well to examine the same and the advantages offered by our section as a place of trade. This place is centrally located on a high grade of the railroad, and is well adapted to the growth of all crops, especially cotton, of which large areas are planted by some of our farmers.

Messrs. Jones and Allen are large planters, and by industry and good management have been quite successful in their line. They keep a complete record of their operations during the year, and are thereby enabled to tell the exact amount of crops produced by every cropper in their employ. They worked last year nine mules and made 113 bales of cotton, averaging over 500 lbs to the bale. In addition to this, they made 21 bales of toll cotton by their gin, making 134 bales in the aggregate, for which they received $5,800.88. These gentlemen have 300 acres under cultivation, and also run a gin, thrasher and saw mill. Mr. Allen gives his whole attention to the farm, superintending the planting, cultivation and harvesting of the crops, and Mr. Jones has charge of all the machinery, and is one of the men who can make it pay.

Several other gentlemen in this section have been fully as successful as Messrs. Jones and Allen, though not farming on so large a scale. Among them may be mentioned Messrs. B. E. and Drayton Gentry, who commenced farming after the war as renters, and now they own a splendid farm and have it well stocked, and are out of debt. Messrs. J. L. Heron and D. G. Rampey, also own model farms. Andrew Robinson, col., who lives on rented land and runs a one horse farm, paid 1,000 pounds as rent last year, and has three bales unsold. He says he has never had a crop so good as he has this year, and has no need to sell his cotton. Andy sticks to his work soon and late, and is seldom seen at public gatherings. He sets a good example for the balance of his race, which they would do well to follow.

The early gardeners in this section have commenced preparing the ground for the coming season. Every farmer should sow and plant largely of all kinds of vegetables, and make half the support for himself and family, during the summer months, in the garden. OMBEGA.

Eureka Items. Where is Eureka? It is situated in Broadway Township at Geer's Shops. Where is the school? It is in familiar language, the name of a school house. It is now about one year old. Last year there was a fine school under the efficient management of C. H. Gassaway, who endeared himself alike both to patrons and pupils. The school this year is under the management of Miss Zella Campbell, who is proving herself a faithful and competent teacher.

The people, the good people, of Eureka community were not satisfied with the mere literary training of their young people, and they, therefore, have a large and interesting Sunday-School that meets every Sunday afternoon. This is the largest Sunday School in the Township, and the whole community is interested in it, and contributes its presence, influence and money for the prosperity of this school. It is pleasantly and efficiently superintended by Col. L. E. Campbell. The second Sunday in Feb. is the anniversary day of the school. Col. John G. Clinckscale has been invited to address the school on that day at 3.30. The Col. has the promise of a large and an attentive audience.

The young men of the immediate community are high-toned and gentlemanly in bearing. Two very suspicious characters passed through this community a few days ago on their way from the City of Anderson. The question was, where did they get their liquor?

Testimonial to the Memory of the late Wm. S. Ligon. At a meeting of the Board of Elders and Deacons of the Presbyterian Church in Anderson held January 18, 1887, the following resolutions in testimony of the worth of the late Wm. S. Ligon were unanimously adopted: 1st. Resolved, The death of W. S. Ligon, in the very prime of his manhood and usefulness, has thrown an unusual gloom over the whole community of Anderson, whether as an active and public-spirited citizen, or as the honorable and successful pastor of the congregation, one in whom all trusted, and on whom, as he grew stronger and stronger, we all began to lean.

2d. The Board of Deacons feel no less sorely afflicted by the departure of a fellow officer of great efficiency, of judicious counsel, of administrative ability, careful and conscientious in his duties, and of kind and fraternal intercourse with us as a colleague in office.

3d. The Ruling Elders, some of them growing hoary with age, deeply deplore the loss of a young man who promised to be a pillar in the Church of the Lord when the time should come, and who would have shed his official mantle upon more active men.

4th. The Sunday School mourns the loss of an active and faithful teacher, a ready counselor, a genial, cheerful and winning man, and one who had received the confidence and love of his scholars.

5th. In devout submission to Almighty God, we sorrowfully and gratefully acknowledge the loss of a man who, with his wife, in his life, has been a blessing to us, and who has, in his life, been a blessing to us, and who has, in his life, been a blessing to us.
