PORT ROYAL & WESTERN CAR-OLINA RAILWAY. CROCERY HOUSE. Bucklen's Arnaca Salve. Auderson Jutelligencer. were safe. My mind was now almost at ease, but I examined more care-fully than usual the revolver, which I A RUN ON THE BANK. The Cyclone in the West. BILL NYE TO HEN NYE. The Best Salve in the world for Cuts, A Committee of Merchants Help a Da FORT SCOTT, April 23 .- A special In effect April 15, 1887. Time-1 hour slower than C. & G. R. R Bruises, Sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Tetter, Chapped Hands, Chilblains, always kept under my pillow, to satisfy kota Banker Through a Panic. from Prescott, in this county reports a BLINDFOLD. BROWNLEE & BROWN, myself that it was in a serviceable con-HOW TO MAKE A COUNTRY PAPER terrible cyclone on Thursday evening at I ran across a New York man the other dition. I then went to bed. Corns, and all Skin Eruptions, and posiday who is largely interested in the bank-Going South-Daily, except Sunday. ACTUALLY RED HOT. bout 6.30 o'clock. There were seven-What do we know of the world, as we grow so old "I think it must have been tively cures Piles, or no pay required. 11 00 a m 11 33 a m ing business of Dakota. The conversaand wise? Do the years, that still the heart bests, quicken the drowsy eyes? teen killed at different points throughout just after I had fallen asleep, when I awole with a start, roused by a slight noise near me. Holding my breath, I It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfac-tion, or money refunded. Price 25 cents tion drifted into a discussion of the char-acter of the people out there. "They may be rough in their manners," said, he "and the county, and an incalculable amount 12 03 p m HEAVY, FANCY AND FAMILY GROCERIES, An Editorial on "Mark Antony"-A of damage done to all kinds of property. At twenty we thought we knew it-the world there, at our feet; We thought we hol found its bitter, we knew we had found its sweet. Now at forty and fifty, what do we make of the 12 40 p n per box. For sale by Hill Bros., Ander-Proud Fathers A Question in Arithme-Leave Latimers....... 7 35 a m Leave Hesters........ 7 55 a m listened, and distinctly heard a creaking The town of Prescott is wiped out of 1 13 p m 1 35 p m uncouth in their way, but they stand by FRUITS and CONFECTIONS. 80D, S. C. tic-The Peculiarities of Buncombe existence, not a single building being sound in the room, as if two boards were a man when he is in trouble and they never forget a friend. I had an opportu-Leave Mt. Carmel.... 8 21 a m 2 02 p m 2 20 p m 2 40 p m left standing to mark the site of a once W E offer all kinds of Groceries, Canned Goods, Pickles, Crackers, Preserved Fruits, Hams, Bacon, Lard, Sugar, Green and Roasted Coffees, Best Brands of Teas, Buckwheat Flour, Oat Flakes and Wheat Flakes being slowly parted by means of some in-strument. The noise stopped for a few County Butter-Corn Dodger. Leave Willington.... 8 37 a m Leave Bordeau........ 8 57 a m Arrive McCormick... 9 30 a m prosperous and thriving place. Reports are coming in from all over the county nity," he went on, "to test this trait not PIEDMONT AIR-LINE, ASHEVILLE, N. C. world? minutes, then began again, and went on for several seconds, and stopped as before. many years ago. The bank of the town 315 pm MY DEAR SON-I wish you would please change the address of my paper to this place, where your mother and I are now There in the sand she crouches, the Sphinx with Richmond & Danville R. R., of damage by the terrible storm. It was where I was staying found itself greatly 605pm 700am her gray wings furled. Soul of a man I know not; who knoweth, can Arrive Augusta I had gresped my revolver and lay mo-tionless propared to use it. I did not dare to raise an alarm, because, for aught I a genuine cyclone, but came from the northwest instead of southwest, as is embarrassed one fine day by the failure of COLUMBIA & GREENVILLE DIVISION. All kinds of Candies and Nuts, Arrive Charleston. All kinds of Candes and Nuts, Smoking and Chewing Tobacco, And as good a 5c Segar as you will find anywhere. Brooms, Buckets, Soap, Starch, Blueing, &c. A nice lot of Bran just received. ZO- Everything NEW and FRESH. Call and secure polite attention, and any-thing you wish in the Grocery line at LOWEST POSSIBLE PRICES FOR CASH. staying. I got The Retina all right last week, and see that you are going to enits principal correspondent in the terri-5 55 a m Arrive Savannah. And what can I read of fate, oven of self I have tory. This fact became known late in the afternoon of the day that the news of the CONDENSED SCHEDULE, usual. Hail fell all over the county. Arrive Jacksonville. ...12 00 m knew, at that very moment I might be exposed to some deadly weapon, which would be used against me if I attempted to sum-Going North-Daily, except Sunday. Some stones measured thirteen inches in IN EFFECT DECEMBER 19, 1886. ed so well? large it, so I have sold my hay in order to Heart of a woman Fknow not: how should I hope failure reached the town. A run on the Leave Jacksonville 230 p n prepare for the event. What is your idea for enlarging the paper before the town enlarges? Of course I am no journalist, but I have often thought that if I had been doomed to circumference. 810 pm to know, I that am foiled by a flower, or the stars of the bank the following morning was inevit-able. To meet it there was but $6,000 in Leave Savannah Sr. LOUIS, April 23.-Special dis-patches published this morning show that (Trains run on 75th Meridian time.) mon aid. The knowledge, however, that I was armed and able to defend myself 400 a m Leave Charleston Leave Augusta.....12 15 p m sileht snow; I that have never guessed the mind of the bright 7 50 a u the vaults. The remainder of the assets Southbound. | No. 52 | Northbound. | No. 53 fearful cyclones, tornadoes and hailstorms 10 15 a u BROWNLEE & BROWN, took away the greater part of my fear, even while I listened to that mysterious Leave McCormick... 4 15 p m could not immediately be turned into Southoound.
 No. 52
 Norman Section

 Lve Walhalla...
 8.20 am
 Lve. Columbia...
 11.00 am

 Southoound.
 9.00 am
 Newberry...
 101 pm

 Anderson...
 10.45 am
 Ninety-Six
 2.20 pm

 Spartanb'rg
 12.00 m
 Greenwid
 2.42 pm

 Abberille...
 10.45 am
 Arr. Greenwille
 5.55 pm
eyed bird, Whom even the dull rocks cheat, and the whirl-wind's awful word? swept over a considerable part of western Leave Bordeau...... 4 49 p m 10 47 a m First Door Below Masonic Hall. even ready cash. issue a paper like The Retina, and then Leave Willington.... 5 09 p m Leave Mt Carmel... 5 25 p m noise. My belief was that two of the and southwestern Missouri, Southeastern 11 07 a m "The president of the bank was at his answer at the bar of judgment for it, I would not get a power press till the town got a good dark blue hook and ladder company and a postoffice. I like your editorial on "Mark Antony" Jan 13, 1887 11 22 a n boards in the floor, or in the wall, were being slowly removed in order to admit Kansas and northern Arkansas on Thurs-Let me loosen the fillet of clay from the shut and wits' end. He didn't know what to do. Morning came and he decided to close the Leave Hesters....... 5 51 p m Leave Latimers....... 6 10 p m 11 48 a n day evening, causing greas loss of life and Abbeville... 10.45 am A. Laurens..... 8.20 am Green viole... 9.25 am Green vood 12.44 pm Newberry... 3.04 pm Arr. Columbia.... 5.15 pm Augusta..... 9.20 pm Arr. Greenville ... 55 pm Laurens'..... 5.55 pm Abbeville... 4.35 pm Anderson... 4.50 pm Seneca...... 6.02 pm Walhalla.... 6.35 pm Atlanta 10.40 pm darkened lid, For life is a blindfold game, and the Voice from 12 08 p m some one into the room. I was ready to five as soon as I heard a stealthy sten by my bedside, as I did not doubt that my estruction of property, as well as maim-GET THE BEST ! He was about to give the necesbank. 12 38 pm hld. view is hid. I face him as best I can, still groping here and sary orders when in walked a committee of the leading merchants of the place. ing a large number of people. 1 12 pm 1 42 pm 2 15 pm there; For the hand that has touched me lightly, the lips first rate. I can imagine how excited the life would be attempted. The room was quite dark; but if my first shot missed, They asked for an explanation of the sit-Arrive Anderson 8 15 p m people of your town were when they saw The Retina Saturday morning and read uation. It was given to them and like-wise an opportunity to look at the books. - Farmer Keith, of Runnels County Connects with train to and from Green-wood, Laurens and Spartanburg. Connections at Augusta with Georgia, The Cheapest and Finest Guano in the Market ! that have said "Declare!" Well, i declare him my friend-the friend of the the flash from the pistol would enable me to take good aim with my second. Sud-Texas, is noted for his big beard. It is No. 53 makes close connection for Atlanta. No. 52 makes close connection for Augusta and Charleston at Columbia. JAS. L. TAYLOR, Gen'l Pass. Agent. D. CARDWEEL, Ass't Pass. Agt., Columbia, S. C SOL. HAAS, Traffic Manager. what your estimate of Mark was. ole sad race; I wish you would incidentally pick up a few others of those old people and weigh A short examination sufficed to show that said to be five feet four inches long and THE undersigned having been appointed agents for the sale of the GENEROSTEE FERTILIZER would call the attention of the Farmers of Anderson County to its merits. It is a home-made Ammoniated Fertilizer, of the highest grade. Its offi-cers are personally known to our people, and their character guarantees the honesty of the manufacture. Nothing but first-class materials are used in it. Many of our leading Farmers have tested it with entire satisfaction. We guarantee it to be as good as last year. and as good as the best commercial manure sold in this market. l'oh! that the game were over, and I might dealy the nature of the sound altered, South Carolina and Central Railroads. At the bank was only temporarily embar-Spartanburg with A & C. Air Line and Asheville & Spartanburg R. R. twenty-one inches wide in its broadest see his face! 'tis much, though I grope in Voice that is hid from view and at last I understood how it was prothem. That is one of the luxuries of run-ining a paper yourself. You can speak right out and walk all over these people. I would like to hear what your honest conrassed. They said to the president, 'You and at last 1 understood how it was pro-duced, and knew that, the window was being slowly opened by some one outside. No ladder was high enough to reach from a boat, and the thorough are, which even open the doors at 10 o'clock as usual and part. It is of a rich chestnut color, and Tickets on sale at Anderson to all points pay the depositors; we'll see you through this thing.' 'But how are you going to do its owner, a prosperous sheep grower, is heard, may be even loved, in a dream at through rates. Baggage checked to des-tination. E. T. CHARLTON, G. P. A. W. W. STARR, Supt., Augusta, Ga. very proud of it. JOHN SAUL'S CATALOGUE it?' said the president. 'I have but $6,000 here and there are at least $30,000 -Andrew Hedbrooke. victions are in regard to Diogenes. It at night was constantly made of the - One who has suffered says a water, rendered access by this means im-possible. I concluded that in my absence - OF -would be worth almost what I have put in deposits to be met. Half of that sum coquette is a woman without any heart. MY FELLOW TRAVELER. into your paper as a silent partner. Having sold your excel-'Never mind, you open the bank and go ahead,' said the committee,' and we will New, Rare and Beautiful Plants for 1887 TERMS-Cash, payable May 1st, 1887, $23.00 per Ton; November 1st, 1887, $25.00, or 325 pounds Middling Lint Cotton. lent preparation known as G for the past year or more we are pleased to report that it has given entire satisfaction and we do not A PROUD OLD PAPA. some one had entered my room by the who makes a fool of a man that ain't got door, and at the sound of my approach had opened the window and gone outside, You can have no idea, Hanry, how it swells me up with pride and lotty disdain to know that while I am sleeping calmly IS NOW READY. any head. "Do you mind letting me look at your Patronize home enterprise, and at the same time get the best manure. see you through.'. - California last year shipped eas | T OVERS of fine Plants will find a large closing it annediately afterward. But what vampire was this, that for more than an hour had clung to a still barely six Mrd only by the "Well, the bank was opened and in Sa. Call and see us without fail before purchasing. It will cost you nothing to 15,000 tons of grapes. If freights will collection of Beautiful and Rare justify it, double that amount will reach This rich collection is well grown, and J. C. Williams &: Co., under my roof tree, as I heard a man cal I started on hearing these words-first, s Chemical Co. rushed the depositors and out went the I started on hearing these words—Irst, because they were spoken in a coupe that was running between Paris and Tours, where I did not expect to hear an English voice; secondly, because I felt somewhat alarmed to be traveling alone with a man who was thus manifesting his interest in a diamond ring which I had been vain and foolish emorph to huy the day before in look into the merits of this Guano. it once, you are showing up those old frauds like Julius Cæsar and Hamlet and Syracuse, N. Y. money. The pile of greenbacks on the cashier's desk grew smaller and smaller and the crowd of depositors continued to inches wide, or had poised himself at so fearful a height upon this narrow ledge! All these thoughts, and many more, passed through my mind during the few seconds that I lay conscious that I must inflict or suffer instant death. Not to Ohio. Soldby Druggists. Frice, $1.00. BROWN BROS., Agents, offered at very low prices. ORCHIDS-A very large stock of choice Portcullis and Andronicus and Mrs. Potius another year. - The German government has just aid $250,000 for an invention for steer ng balloons. A successful trial of the DORCHIDS-A very large stock of Content East Indians, American, etc. Also, Cata-logues of Roses, Orchids, Seeds, Trees, etc. JOHN SAULS, Washington, D. C. phar and other people who have become For sale by ORR & SLOAN, Anderson, increase with every minute. Still the pay-ing at the teller's window went on. On ANDERSON, S. C. historical. 45-14 S. C. Feb 17, 1887 That was my idea when I sent you away the sidewalk the people who had drawn to that female seminary, or whatever it was, where you went to get educated. I inflict or suffer instant death. Not to their money were met by some of the merchants who had promised to see the nvention was made by the war office. March 3, 1887 speak of the robbery, which I did not doubt was the cause of this man's pres-ence, escape was impossible for him except colish enough to buy the day before in FURNITURE ! FURNITURE ! Paris and was now wearing. A harried glance somewhat reassured me; so I held out my hand to him, and then something wanted you to come out with a whole lot bank through. 'What are you going to of thoughts that showed right on their do with your money?' they would ask. 'I OUR PURPOSE! face that they were expensive. I wanted you to be able to tell down at the store how at the expense of my life, and I believed he would not hesitate to take it. Only a fn the way in which he examined my re-cent purchase told me that I had come across, not a robber, but a diamond mer-chant. He was slightly built and had dark hair and winsters. His features don't know,' came the answer. 'Suppose you leave it with us; you know our house Will be sold Cheaper than Ever at much A, B and C would each have to grind off a circular grindstone four fect few nights before, had I not seen my and know that we are responsible. We will give you our note and so much in-ROYAL FOUND friend with less cause struck down by an To knock the MARROW out of Prices at the "FIRST DASH," and to G. F. TOLLY'S FURNITURE STORE! three and one-half inches in diameter, terest.' To the farmers (for the majority 1 mizzazza with a square hole in the center three and anticipate the customary half to five cents cuts on an of depositors were farmers) the money 'It was very dark, but at that moment, vere well cut and his eyes were blue. I hink he was older than he looked. He through a rift in the dense clouds, the moon shed a flood of light, and for an inone-fourth inches each way, provided A pays one-sixth of the price of the stone, B one-half, and C the balance, with the in their pockets where it drew no interest as probably 50 or 55, but might have article worth three or four dollars! was of little use; they preferred, of course stant and no longer, between myself and the sky, silhouettelike, I saw distinctly the notes and were without difficulty per EXAMINE the following figures, and make up your mind that they cannot be lower-ed by any one for the same clear of Goods. "May I ask what you gave for it?" he nquired after a brief scrutiny. I named the sum. understanding that C shall use 5 per cent. more than his share, provided he will turn the grindstone. I wanted you to be able THERE you can find the most Elegant assortment of all kinds of Furniture from the cheapest to the finest, in the whole up-country. suaded to part with their money. As soon as they had received the money the the form of a man. He held a poniard in from the cheapest to the finest, in the whole up-country. ed by any one for the same class of Goods : A perfectly sound and sweet low grade Flour for $3.50 to $4.50 per Barrel. A choice family Flour from $4.50 to $5.00 per Barrel. Fancy to Extra Fancy Tennessee Flours $5.25 to $5.75 per Barrel. Full Roller Patent Flour $6.00 to $6.50 per Barrel. New Orleans Molasses 20c to 40c per gallon. Sugar, Coffee, Rice, Tobacco, and all other Staple Grocerics Λ LITTLE CHEAP-han any ore. ed by any one for the same class of Goods : his hand and was preparing to step into the room. It may have been due to imagination, but I believed that I also merchants would deposit it in the bank. to talk with foreigners in their native The same money was paid over the counter three times or oftener in the Sold Cheaper than anywhere in the State or out of It. "You were done," he replied; "you oht not to have paid more than half in proce. The stone is faulty, but has tongue the darkest night that ever blew. I desired that you might become a man saw the same diabolical face which I had course of the day, and when the bank Full and complete Room Suits from $16.00 to $350.00. Elegant Plush Parlor Suits at $45.00. Lounges from $5.00 to $13.00. observed in the man who had attacked who could walk up to an Italian as he closed at 3 o'clock in the afternoon it had plays his organ voluntary beneath your casement and tell him in his own indical you have been taken in. Well, I don't friend. Without further' reflec-and almost instinctively, I my tion, fired. in its vaults as much money as it had started with in the morning, and with $6,000 it had paid over $20,000 of de-posits. The promptness with which it met the demands of the depositors stayed KING ER than any one suppose there is one person out of a thou-sand who will discover that it is not nearly so good as it looks." alarm clock language what you think of fired. Following the report of the shot came a convulsive sob, and from the breath of cool air that suddenly passed Dry Goods, Shoes, Boots, Hats and Clothing, Washstands from $1.25 to $12.00. him. So it pleases me to know that you are Wardrobes from $9.50 to $50.00. Bedsteads (hard wood) from $2.25 to $30.00. Chairs from 45c to $2.00; Rocking Chair from $1.25 to $10.00, And EVERYTHING ELSE IN PROPORTION. "That was certainly some consolation. "You are in the trade?" I hazarded. "I was," replied my fallow traveler; "but I met with an saventure that upset me for a time, and was the cause of my wing up business. I had acquired a upstence for a bachelor with inexpen-AT BOTTOM-OUT PRICES. printing a paper now, so you can show off to advantage what I have invested in you. over my face, I knew that nothing interthe panic and the next morning there was not the slightest indication of a run. This We mean what we say, and if you have the CASH we will give you the bargains, and save you the time and expense "looking around" on the small five cents cuts. vened now between me and the night breeze that was blowing through the open window. I sprang from bed, and, groping my way, I found; as I expected, that the intruder had disappeared. Put-ting my hand out of the window, I could feel that there was neither rope nor ladder there. I then closed the window and is an absolutely true story," said my in-formant in conclusion, "for I was myself the president of that bank. Now can BUNCOMBE COUNTY BUTTER. POWDER I will duplicate New York, Baltimore, Charleston or Augusta prices. After a while I want to write a little article for your paper, not so much for the J. J. BAKER & CO, No. 2 and 3 Benson House. Everybody invited to come and see my Goods and be convinced. purpose of saying anything, but in order you match that by anything in the east?" March 3, 1887 13 P. S.-Persons indebted to me must pay up immediately and save trouble. to show the contrast between the polished -Cor. New York Tribune. Can't indulge any longer. b tastes, but still it was against the Absolutely Pure. work of a well educated, smart young OUR STOCK OF FAMILY GROCERIES there. I then closed the window and secured it. When I had struck a light I who is entirely unfitted for everything exn for me to leave off trading and lead G. F. TOLLY, Depot Street. A Paper Hunt in Washington. nactive life. Indeed, but for certain rous scraples that have taken posses-Washington society has a ridiculous This powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in competition with the multilude of iow test, short weight alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cams ROYAL BAKING POWDER Co., 106 Wall St., New York. 42-1y Oct 14, 1886 of me, I think I would begin dealing in to-morrow. If you would care to the event to which I refer, and which saw on the sleeve of my night shirt a cept paternal purposes. We are having a good time here in the damp, red stain, and knew that when I had put my hand outside there was blood south, enjoying the climate and making experiments with the butter which is proupon the sill; but whether it had been spilt by my shot or otherwise, of course I duced here. Butter made in the fastcould not tell. Sleep was out of the ques-tion now, so I dressed and remained where I was till it was time for me to go in the nesses of the hills in Buncombe county is mostly of a pale pearl gray, with a pin stripe in it of ultramarine. This does not look hadly, and it sets off a hoecake first morning. I said nothing of what had oc-

I expressed my desire to hear his about but had I conjectured what he was about to tell me, I would have begged him to curred, and heard nothing of it; nor from that day till this has any intelligence con-nected with the event ever reached me. If the man had a poniard in his death The reader, however, need have no similar computction about perusing the nar-rative, as it was the man's wistful eyes grasp, and, as is likely, was weighted with other heavy weapons, on striking the water he would sink like lead. I could the line at this butter. nd pathetic expression, .and more still, many hundred years. It is known to have caused the loss of many a life. I have no loubt that on account of this jewel I was actually followed from India, and though,

I only saw him in the dark, both from his size and features I believe the plunderer to have been a native or half caste. I am also of the belief that ere I can get rid of this diamond, there is still misfortune in

I had now to leave in order to change carriages, and I was not sorry to bid my fellow traveler farewell, as he had made

About a year later I was in Paris, and one morning read in a newspaper an ac-count of the sale of the famous jewels of a Russian princess. Several paragraphs farther on, I read that the body of a murdered man, who was unknown, had been found on one of the principal boulevards. A short description followed, which at once suggested to me my fellow traveler of a year before, on the Orleans railway. I hastened to the morgue and found my fears realized; for there lay the diamond merchant, who had been fatally stabbed between the shoulders. From the information that I was able to give,

it was concluded that he would be known was claimed by friends. I afterward brought to Paris in order to dispose of, touched.-Crawford Scott in Belgravia.

He Wielded a Red Hot Pen.

Said a commercial traveler: "My busi-and advanced with it cocked. It happened store for me.'

me feel eerie.

rate. This butter is not eaten by the people who manifacture its 7 They are poor sometimes, and have to eat most any-thing that will sustain life, but they draw buy a load of wood, and I took tea with a the other horsemen, during which time he fad. It is called "a paper hunt," and the latest recruits to the dudish pastime of chasing a lot of torn scraps around the country are Secretary Whitney and Secre-FRESH GOODS Arriving by EVERY TRAIN tary Fairchild. Secretary Whitney rides because members of the foreign legations and other aristocratic beings set the ex-ample. Secretary Fairchild rides because he is getting fat, like the president, and desires to reduce his flesh. A paper hunt the line at this butter. I went out into the brush last week to Gregor, who got half an hour's start of succeeded in getting out of sight. When the time for starting arrived the whole party, including a number of ladies, rushed into a gallop for the place where Gregor had disappeared. In trying to leap a fence Secretary Whitney was rolled over in a field, and other members of the party, after this mishap, adopted taken down by servants. When the road got rather rough the excitement of the chase decreased materially, and there was

Welcome to the Tramps.

that any more. He invites them to come a locomotive snort with laughter."-Chi-

Family Resemblances.

any difficulty in recognizing his slaves

ple.

whose differences of form and feature are as apparent as those of any class of peo-agihle

the precaution of having the fence rails occasion on which I saw him that have caused his tale to haunt has effected me so greatly. I will tall it to you. There is nothing else to be done, and it will help to pass the time." I expressed my dasire to hear his story; old his peace.

"If ever anyone," he began, "had a or my father was of Jewish exind my mother was French; I born and educated in New York, and th I have traded in London I inherited from my father a int of capital to start with, and ourse was a great matter. I was so that, although the process was I gradually acquired a moderate e. The first big haul I made was inds were first discovered at Twent out, purchased largely, aral good strokes of business "After that I went to India, where as a er I entered into the most extensive s I had ever made in my life. turned to Europe bringing the ith me. At Suez I fell in with Greek jewel merchant, with whom I ted. He too had been in the t, and was now going to Venice, buy pearls that were being sold I agreed to accompany him, ight I might be able to do some as myself, and, as I was on my way it was not much out of my We arrived in Venice together where my friend went to stay with a re lation, and I to a hotel. Next evening alled on him, and he agreed to return the me to the hotel and have supper th me. I had somewhere else to ind it was arranged that on my return he id join me and accompany me back ola in which I was seated ed the rendezvous, I saw my a standing close to the water, at the d of p-narrow passage which led from e house where he was staying. It was , but as we approached, I could see a mld raise my voice in warning, my tend was struck down. Then his assailover the motionless body to rifle it. The two gondoliers, who ad also witness urged the boat forward with the d, and in a few seconds we upon the scene. As I sprang from in looked up and hesitate whether to attack me eing the two men coming to aid me h him, and disappeared. My friend was not d, as I had feared, but had been dly stabbed between the shoulders robber had evidently considhis watch, chain and purse ness calls me a good deal to Colorado and New Mexico, and I have many acquaintobjects too trivial for plunder nd had not had time to reach a leathe taining some very valuable pearls and other gems, which was secured in an de pocket, and had clearly been the ofive of the crime "I had only intended to remain a few dys, and the night before my departure I hotel for a little, locking the doo om as usual. The diamonds were her case at the bottom of a strong was full of clothes and other of little value. I thought the safer there than anywhere else, ie, not even my friend, knew of that my friend had just sent his revolver nce. I was absent not more out to be repaired, and he was without a our and a half, and on my reweapon. He tried to palaver with the desperado and talk him out of his passion it to my room with the intentio to bed.' No sooner had I un in order to gain time. But the more he door than a strange and indetalked the flercer the caller became. Susdread took possession of me. I say pecting that the editor was unarmed, he ng and heard nothing, but I detected took fiendish delight in holding his victim covered with his revolver and telling him right and peculiar odor of some species co. or it may have been opium. that he had only sixty minutes to live. ot smoke, and the conviction instant But my friend's brain was working at a upon me that during my ah lively rate all this time, and while he some one had entered my room talked he held his pen in the flame of the d, for aught I knew, might still be gas jet over his desk. Without the desperado suspecting what he was up to, he succeeded in getting the My sense of smell is keen, but the ld barely be perceived, an I believed from the clothes or pen red hot-it took only a few secondsth of the intruder. There was an and then he made a jump for his assail-ant so suddenly and with such catlike quickness that before the ruffian, taken aiter in the hotel, and as he ha e in the passage outside. I calle n into the room. Then with his assist a I began to search the room. W er the bed, opened the cupurd, and examined a curtained recess nat served as a wardrobe; but could see othing to justify my suspicions. There ras no chimney, as the room was warmed strokes to the minute. Imagine the wounds that big, sharp, red hot pen must have made, held securely in a strong celby a small stove. Had there been a ter e or balcony outside my window, I luloid holder, driven by the arm of a man nld at once have concluded that an enfighting for life. Think of the sufferings trance had been effected by that means: the desperado must have endured in the but with diamonds of such great value in not, however, forget my terrible experigentleman who lives in an open face cotence. I became nervous and subject to odd fancies, and took to reading books tage on the other side of the mountains. I then discovered that these people do not eat their own butter. I did not hotice any that treated of the history, virtues and baneful effects of gems. butter, but they had gravy as a substitute for it. Corry dodger in and of itself will not melt in the mouth, so I looked around "Soon afterward I resolved to retire from business. By far the most important of my purchases in the east had been a very valuable diamond of great weight. for a means of lubricating my own. At that time the warm hearted and hospita-

It is not easy to find purchasers for stones ble host made the following remark: "Stranger, you musn't be squeamish. of this size, as there are naturally few Just waller yer dorger in the dope. That's who have the means and are willing to who have the means and are winning to part with the equivalent in money. This stone is still unsold, and lies in the care of my bankers in London. When I have disposed of it, that will be my last tran-saction of this nature. It is a famous diamond, and has an authentic history of the way we do." I then proceeded to waller.—Bill Nye in Chicago News.

an adjournment of those who were unable to follow, to a convenient spot where liquid refreshments were obtained. Failing to catch the hare they were after the A Medical Man's Advice. crowd ambled gently back to the Russian

Under all circumstances, and in all legation, where they awaited the return states of health, we are affected favorof Mr. Gregor, who, after riding about six ably by personal contact. Two persons miles in the country and finding he was should rarely ever sleep together. The not followed, returned home in disgust .-resalt is now well understood to be de-Chicago Herald. vitalizing to one or the other. Vampire natures fatten; their victims weaken. This is quite as true of husbands and "Talking about toboggan Flides," said a wives as of others. It is peculiarly true Baltimore and Ohio train boy, "a friend of mine down in Maryland has the neatest of children. The exceptions do exist where there is a mutual benefit, but the scheme I ever saw. He is a station agen exceptions are rare. The excretions durand his station is on the mountain side. It ing sleep are one thing, the absorptions must be about a thousand feet down to another. the valley by a rapid slope. Some of the I recently was called to attend a young boys in the neighborhood fixed up a toboggirl whose symptoms were lassitude, and, gan and beat down a path along the as she said, she felt worse after sleeping, mountain side just back of the station. It was a terrific slide, but the work of and dreaded going to bed. Yet she slept well. I found that her bed mate was climbing up again was so great that the a woman of 40 of a peculiarly vampirish boys soon abandoned the course. The sta-tion agent, however, turned it to good actemperament. The proper course in this case was a total separation of the victim from the devourer. If the case has been count. He has been bothered all winter by tramps sneaking into the waiting room long protracted, and the evil seriously and sleeping on the benches and making affecting health, send the patient into the things disagreeable. He used to fight country to associate with trees and flowwith the bums almost every day to keep ers.-M. Maurice, M. D., in Globe-Demothem out of the station, but he doesn't do crat.

One of Those Mysteries.

in and get warm and make themselves at home. He fairly coaxes them. After There was an old fellow turning a hand they go to sleep he picks them up one by one and lifts them out the back window organ on Grand River avenue yesterday to the large jewel dealers, and as the re-sult of inquiries in a short time the body when a man and his wife stopped for a and drops them upon the slide. If you moment to hear the music and read the could see a procession of these tramps gosign hanging on his neck. The sign read: ing down that slide, traveling on their trousers, their shoulders or their heads, learned that he had been the victim of a "I have suffered with rheumatism until I deeply laid robbery, as a very valuable have no use of my hands or arms. Please diamond, which it was discovered he hadand at the rate of two or three miles a help me." "Poor man-give him something!" exminute, you'd think life had not been lived in vain. It's funny enough to make was missing, but his purse, which conclaimed the wife. tained a considerable sum of money, and his other valuables had been left un-

"Sure he's a" right?" "Why, of c. ! Doesn't the sign say he has lost the i of his hands and arms?" cago Herald "Train Talk." The husband dropped a dime into the box, and the pair went on, but they had New York police say that Chinamen look so much alike that when a murder not proceeded over half a block when the wife halted with a sudden jerk and exis committed in Chinatown it is impo claimed: to find out the murderer unless the Chi-

"Why-why, how could he turn the crank if he had lost the use of his arms?" namen help in the quest. Curiously ances and friends out there. One of my friends is a little fellow named McDerenough people in China make the same mott, editor of a mining camp paper. He is not much bigger than a pint of cider, "I dunno," softly replied the man, and complaint of Europeans and Americans, then, while the woman gritted her teeth that they look so much alike that it is imbut he has tremendous nerve. He is as and clenched her fingers he leaned up possible to distinguish them. People who have not been accustomed to seeing against a tree box and laughed a hawl quick as lightning with his gun, and is not afraid of the best man that walks. He haw! haw! until he was tired .- Detroit negroes think that all black people look alike, but in days of slavery no one had was telling me of one experience he had a Free Press few months ago. A big, tough fellow walked into his sanctum one evening and "The tree of death" is what The Buffalo Express calls the telegraph pole. announced that he had come to do up the editor. He had a six shooter in his hand

ple. In strange species we see the re-semblances, in the familiar we discern the May Fortescue Between Acts. Some of our high society got odd in-struction and amusement from May. differences. Members of the same family do not imagine they look alike, while to Fortescue, the English actress and senstrangers the resemblance is very striking. timental plaintiff, just before her de-parture for home. She is a beauty, be it To the shepherd every sheep of his flock is as distinctly individual as the dog that understood, and her cleanly law suit drives them, while to an unaccus against Lord Garmoyle has forced her eye all sheep are as much alike as the shot into fashionable consideration. She may have failed, as they assert, in her profes-sional tour of America, but her positively last appearance before an audience was a triumph. Bernhardt is playing here. Herald. She freakishly insists upon making the intermissions between acts half an hour The Barber Business in Germany.

long. The people resent this trifling, and The barber business in Germany is far Manager Abbey is seriously annoyed, bedifferent from what it is in the American cause it hurts the business. Fortescue has country. There every one does not go to been under his direction, too. She told the barber shop when he wants to be shaved. The best barbers have of course him that she wished to see the great Frenchwoman act.

off his guard by the supposition that the "I'll give you a box," he said, "if you editor was unarmed, could fire a shot the will wear good clothes, look your prettiest, little man had thrown one arm around the and sit at the front, so that the audience big fellow's neck and was jabbing his red will have something to divert them during to house and attend to the wants of cerhot pen into his face at the rate of 200 the long waits."

tain customers. This class of customers "It's a bargain," replied Fortescue; "I have their own cups and razors and are will agree to entertain the people 'twixt waited on at such times as best suits their She did, with a vengeance. She acts." convenience. They are the aristocrats, and would no more think of going in and wore white fluffly, and carried an im-mense fan of the same color. That made taking a chair in a barber shop and waither conspicuous, for it is not the custom their turn than they would of blacking their own shoes. These men generally fow brief seconds before his agony con-quered his courage and caused him to throw the revolver to the floor as a token the opera. She seated herself at the front the opera. She seated herself at the front the opera. She seated herself at the front the opera.

Try our Kaffer Corn, the great Southern forage plant. 50 pounds Watermelon Seed from Augusta-Rattlesnake, Skaley Bark and 5,000 pounds Country Hams,

20,000 pounds Wheat Bran,

20,000 pounds Rice Flour,

5,000 pounds Magnolia Hams,

4,000 pounds Harvey's Best Lard,

50 bushels German Millet Seed.

IS COMPLETE!

Kolks Gem. All of which we will Sell Low for CaSh.

FRESH CELERY every day.

March 31, 1887

B. F. CRAYTON & SONS. March 10, 1887

COME AND SEE!

I am now Receiving my Spring and Summer Goods.

In Dry Goods—I have Virginia Cassimeres, which are the best goods I ever han-died; Jeans, Cashmaret, Calico, Worsted Goods, Bleached and Brown Shirtings and Sheetings; a few pair Blankets to sell at cost for Cash. Boots and Shoes—Bay State Boots and Shoes. for Men, Women and Children. Hats—A beautiful line of Men's Hats, in Wool, Felt, Straw and Maccanaw. Wall Paper—A large and beautiful line of Wall Paper at low prices—over 700 rolls on hand.

Hardware-A good assortment of Hardware. Grocerics and Provisions-Bacon, Flour, Corn, Bran, Salt, Molasses and Fancy Groceries. FINE TEA a specialty. CARPETS, CROCKERY and GLASSWARE, CARPETS, CROCKERY and GLASSWARE, WOODENWARE, GARDEN SEED, YELLOW YAM and PEABODY POTATOES, for eating or planting, BUGGY RIMS, HUBS, SPOKES and Shafts, And many other things not necessary to mention.

I beg my friends and customers to give me a call and price my Goods. I think I have a reputation for selling honest Goods at as low prices as the same quality can be sold for in the city. Come and price my Goods—no charge for showing.

DR.KILMER'S

accordingly ! HAVING just visited the Northern markets and purchased the FRESHEST and most BEAUTIFUL STOCK ever brought to the City, WE DEFY COMPETITION !

WE HAVE ANCHORED OUR

NEW LOT OF LADIES' GOODS

With the Lowest Prices, and expect to sell them

And are prepared to sell cheaper than the cheapest. Our Goods are lately imported, and consist of the newest styles and greatest variety. We guarantee satisfaction, and only ask an inspection of our WHITE GOODS, FRENCH MULLS, SUM-MER SILKS in the latest shades, stylish MILLINERY and NOTIONS. All orders receive careful attention.

MISS LIZZIE WILLIAMS. March 24, 1887 37 JOHN E. PEOPLES & CO.

Are offering their immense Stock of that are run in the same mold. The Chi-nesse are not more similar to each other than Americans; it is that the police are not accustomed to them.—Newburyport Hore¹⁴

CHEAPER THAN EVER.

They will sell Stoves on time to good parties for good a regular custom at the shops, but they also have three or four employes whose paper. They will sell their second-hand Stoves much lower than business it is to attend to the outside trade; that is they go around from house

They buy remnants of Seed and Lint Cotton, Rags, Raw Hides, Otter and Mink Skins.

Call and see their Stock of

Feb 17, 1887

Lamps,

THE EARTHQUAKE

HAS SHOOK DOWN PRICES on everything, and of course has affected my Stock of-

Harness, Bridles, Collars, Saddles, Whips, Etc.

My stock is larger than it has ever been, and I must dispose of it. I use the Advantages of Electricity. In Boston, it is stated, the arrests made for serious offenses committed on the

Q

