Resolutions by the Bar of Anderson.

The following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted by the Bar of Anderson at a meeting held at 9 o'clock on the 23rd day of June inst. Upon the convening of the Court they were presented to the Court by Mr. B. F. Whitner, and after speeches made by Messrs. B. F. Whitner, J. S. Murray, J. C. Featherston, G. E. Prince, J. L. Trumble and S. M. Pickens of this Bar, commenting on the good qualities of the two deceased brothers, the Court, after some touching remarks, ordered that the preamble and resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the Court, and that the Court stand adjourned until the following day as a token of the respect entertained for the memory of the deceased.

Within the past few weeks death has removed from amongst us two of our fellow-members of the Bar—John C. Whitfield, Esq., and M. Baxter Clinkscales, Esq. The one scarcely past the prime of life, the other in the fullness of his manhood; both from sudden attacks of illness, and otherwise in the enjoyment of vigorous health.

Mr. Whitfield was born and reared in our town, and at the time of his death was one of its oldest residents. He was a man of strong moral character, and of many sterling qualities, which to us many of us have known and admired. He was a correct and straight-forward in business conduct, and his liberal and benevolent relations to the poor, and genial and pleasant in his intercourse with his friends, were well known to all.

Mr. Clinkscales, descended from one of the oldest and most respectable families in the County, had just come to the Bar, and died before he had reaped any of its honors or emoluments. His courteous bearing, modest demeanor and devotedness to the members of his profession, while his high character had secured for him the respect of the entire community.

Regarding it as proper to bear testimony to the worth of our deceased friends and professional associates, and to pay some tribute, however slight, to their memories, be it therefore

Resolved, that in the death of John C. Whitfield and M. Baxter Clinkscales the Bar of Anderson has lost two of its honored members, and a society of large two-fold benefit to the community.

Resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be reported to the Court of Common Pleas at the next meeting of the Court, and that the same be read at that meeting, and that the Court stand adjourned until the following day as a token of the respect entertained for the memory of the deceased.

Resolved, that copies be sent to the families of the deceased, in testimony of our sympathy in their bereavement, and be furnished to the local newspapers, with a request to publish.

Resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be reported to the Court of Common Pleas at the next meeting of the Court, and that the same be read at that meeting, and that the Court stand adjourned until the following day as a token of the respect entertained for the memory of the deceased.

Resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be reported to the Court of Common Pleas at the next meeting of the Court, and that the same be read at that meeting, and that the Court stand adjourned until the following day as a token of the respect entertained for the memory of the deceased.

Resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be reported to the Court of Common Pleas at the next meeting of the Court, and that the same be read at that meeting, and that the Court stand adjourned until the following day as a token of the respect entertained for the memory of the deceased.

Resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be reported to the Court of Common Pleas at the next meeting of the Court, and that the same be read at that meeting, and that the Court stand adjourned until the following day as a token of the respect entertained for the memory of the deceased.

Resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be reported to the Court of Common Pleas at the next meeting of the Court, and that the same be read at that meeting, and that the Court stand adjourned until the following day as a token of the respect entertained for the memory of the deceased.

The country at large.

We claim as much loyalty to the Democratic party as the citizens of any town in the State, and we will not waver in our opposition to any man or party who is at all inimical to the contrary notwithstanding. We must face this issue squarely, and not introduce far-fetched strained arguments. The elevation and purification of society demand that we support it. These are our views; if others chafe at them, let them stand on their own feet. We have no very strong opinions, but doubt the accuracy of their own.

Improvements are still in progress at this place. A cotton platform has been built capable of holding several hundred bales. A public well has been dug and abandoned. Water has been found and abandoned. Water has been found and abandoned.

Mr. L. W. Willis, a distinguished professional musician teacher, has a fine collection of instruments, and is teaching music in the Sunday School work at this place. The school is well attended, and is a credit to the community.
