

LOCAL NEWS.

There is not much sickness in the city at present. The effects of frost can be seen on the potato vines. The County Treasurer reports collections very good so far. The South Carolina Legislature meets on the 22nd inst. Anderson was visited by a light fall of sleet last Sunday. Christmas goods are being displayed by some of our merchants. A good many farmers are holding their cotton for a higher price. The rains of the past week have put the roads in a bad condition. Good quilting cotton was quoted on Wednesday at 9 1/2 cents. Business in the city was not so brisk last week, owing to the rains. Maj. A. R. Broyles, of Seneca, has been spending a few days in the city. Dr. S. M. Holland, of Georgia, has been spending a few days in the city. Next Monday is Saturday. The Master has a large amount of land to sell. Mr. J. E. Barton left the city Tuesday afternoon on a trip to Athens, Ga. The city butchers are now supplying their customers with pork sausage. A large party left the city Monday morning to spend the week in Charleston. The Postmasters' Convention meets in the city to-morrow (Friday) night. Mr. S. A. Hutchison, of Elberton, Ga., gave us a pop call one day last week. Another one of Anderson's young men will in a few days enter the matrimonial state. Several of Anderson's citizens are thinking of investing in Decatur, Ala., property. The State Fair begins next Tuesday. It promises to be a big success, and will no doubt attract a large crowd. Miss Ada Allison, of Broad, N. C., has come to Anderson to spend the winter with her sister, Mrs. W. J. Wilson. A circus is heading for South Carolina, and it will hardly visit Anderson, as $400 a day for license is more than it can stand. Rev. A. A. Marshall will preach in the Baptist Church at Belton next Wednesday night, 9th inst., at early candle light. Capt. T. C. Poore and wife, of Belton, have moved back to Darlington, S. C., where the former is engaged in business. Dr. M. L. Sharpe is representing the Presbyterian Church of this city in Synod, which met last night at Darlington. The Executors of the estate of the late J. R. Todd, of Due West, offer several valuable tracts of land for sale in this issue. Hill & Adams have a fine lot of seed oats for sale. Also have just received a large lot of acid phosphate. See advertisement. Mr. Baylis Smith died suddenly at his home in Brushy Creek Township on Tuesday, 25th ult., of colic. He was about 77 years of age. Mr. J. G. Bowen, of this County, has gone to Columbia, where he will be engaged in business for the next two or three months. The chestnut, apple and cabbage crops in the mountains must have been enormous, judging from the quantities brought to this city. Married, on Sunday, October 30th, 1887, by J. G. Douthett, Notary Public, Mr. T. C. West and Miss Emily Jenkins, all of Pendleton Township. The Cadets of the Patrick Military Institute will have a dress parade on the Court House Square to-morrow (Friday) afternoon, at 4 o'clock. Mr. G. W. Lomax, of the Honora Path Menagerie, spent last Friday night in the city, and paid his respects to the INTELLIGENCER'S Saturday morning. The Centerville Township Singing Association will meet at New Prospect Church on next Saturday and Sunday. The public is invited to attend. The County Commissioners will hold their annual meeting next Tuesday. If the County owes anything be sure to hand your account in before that day. The stockholders of the P. R. & W. C. R. R. convened in Convention at Augusta, Ga., on Wednesday. A number of the stockholders in this County are present. The preliminary work in this section is the heaviest for years. The good housewives will no doubt put up a lot of preserves next year. It is a good, healthy drink. Married, on Thursday, October 27th, 1887, at the residence of the bride's mother, by Rev. W. A. Hodges, Mr. H. M. Morrow and Miss Florence A. Tate, all of this County. Attention is directed to the advertisement of John E. Peoples, who is offering a fine lot of horses and mules for sale. If you need either, pay him a call, see his stock and get his prices. Married, on Sunday, October 30th, 1887, at the residence of the bride's father, by Rev. D. Weston Hott, Mr. J. Frank Tolbert and Miss Dora, youngest daughter of Capt. Robert A. Gray, all of Williamson. The little boys of the city are greatly excited over collecting cigarette package pictures. The boy who can gather the most pictures gets the fact with a feeling of triumph that makes his competitors uneasy. There were 4,707 boxes of cotton received in Anderson during October, which makes a total of 8,347 bales for the season. The October receipts would have been larger had it not been for the rain of last week. Messrs. J. C. Keys, W. G. Watson and G. W. Anderson have been appointed to represent Anderson County in the Old Farmers' Convention, which is to be held on the Fair Grounds in Columbia next Wednesday. Corn-shuckings have begun, but like most everything else they have lost many of their old fashioned peculiarities and are no longer the corn-shuckings of forty years ago, when the neighborhood, and all the negroes would gather and sing the good negro songs. The Nashville American, in referring to the famous Candler sermon, pays our young friend, Jas. D. Campbell, formerly of this County, who reported the sermon, a very high compliment by saying that he is the most critically accurate shorthand reporter in the South. Hon. B. F. Crayton has returned from the Georgia State Fair, which took place at Macon last week. He carried with him a number of his fine cattle, nearly all of which were awarded premiums. He says the Fair, despite the rain, was a success, and that he had the pleasure of meeting and shaking hands with Hon. Jefferson Davis, who attended the Fair as a guest of the city of Macon.

The ladies of the Baptist Church will give an entertainment, consisting of a dinner and other refreshments, at Mr. Bell's store room next Wednesday, beginning at 1 o'clock and continuing through the evening, for the benefit of the Baptist Organ Fund. McCormick News: "We had the exquisite pleasure of meeting last week Miss Iva Cook, a beautiful and accomplished young lady of Cook's Station. She was on her way from the Atlanta Exposition, and expressed herself as being well pleased with her trip." Mary Louise, the sweet little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Brewster, of this city, died Tuesday morning, after an illness of two weeks from pneumonia, aged about three years. The little one's remains were interred temporarily in the Presbyterian cemetery on Wednesday afternoon. The poles to be used in extending the telegraph line from the Savannah Valley depot to the Square have arrived, and will shortly be placed in position. The office, we learn, will be in the room now occupied by J. W. Trowbridge, over Blackley, Brown & Fretwell's store, on Granite Row. A party, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Bell, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Meredith, Messrs. J. M. Geer and John T. Martin, and Misses Emma Clinkscapes, Ella McGee and Lella Poore, left Belton Monday morning to spend the week in Charleston. We understand that parties also went from Williamson and Honora Path. We regret that the inclement weather prevented us from being present at the festival given in the new school building at Williamson last Friday night. We learn that the entertainment was a grand success, the net proceeds amounting to $125.00. The school building has just been completed, and is an ornament to the village. Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Andrew have the sympathy of many friends in the death of their sweet little daughter, Elinor, which occurred in this city last Friday night, of congestion of the lungs. Her remains were interred in Silver Brook Cemetery on Saturday, after appropriate funeral services conducted by Rev. W. S. Wightman. The Abbeville Advertiser, of last week, has this to say about one of Anderson's young ladies: "Miss Nettie Miller, after a pleasant two weeks stay with her cousin, Miss Corrie McClung, returned last Thursday to her home in Anderson. This is Miss Nettie's second visit to Abbeville, but we hope will not be her last, as everybody is charmed with her. One of our young men was so disappointed at not going to tell her good-byes, that he has shaved all of his moustache out since then." The police have had reason to believe there was a good deal of gambling going on among some of the negroes of the city, and on Saturday night they raided Julius Green's house, on "Nickel Row," where they found four negro men. No evidence of gambling was found, however. When the police entered the house, Bob Jackson, one of the negroes, pointed a revolver at them, but Policeman Fann pulled his pistol and Jackson dropped the gun at once. He was arrested and locked up. List of letters remaining in the Post-office for the week ending October 28th: Julia Anderson, J. P. Anderson, Mrs. Jane A. Carson, V. Commaries, A. F. Cromer, Frank Coleman, M. J. Evans, Margaret Glyard, J. P. Gordon, H. H. Hampton, Luis Hunter, Miss Tina Howell, Tempsey Johnston, Larrows Thomas, Mrs. Jenkins, Mrs. M. W. H. Mulliken, C. Morris, R. W. Parker, Mrs. Anna Bobbort, Miss Marie Rhodes, Miss Luvena Smith, Leroy Stevenson, Washington Taylor. President Cleveland has issued the annual proclamation appointing Thursday, November 24th, a Thanksgiving Day. Let us all observe it in a good and true spirit, for our country has much to be thankful for. We hope our business men generally will suspend business for that day, and at the same time we would suggest that the pastors of the churches have a conference and arrange for a union service, to be held in one of our churches, where all of our people may go and devote an hour in thanksgiving and prayer to the Giver of all good. The following recipe for keeping lamp chimneys from cracking is taken from the Diamond, a Leipzig Journal devoted to the glass industry: Place your chimneys, tumblers or vessels which you desire to keep from cracking, in a pot filled with cold water and a little cooking salt, and immerse the mixture to boil well over a fire, and then cool slowly. Glass treated in this way is said not to crack, even if exposed to very sudden changes of temperature. Chimneys are said to become very durable by this process, which may also be extended to crockery, stoneware, porcelain, etc. The process is simple and unobtrusive, and the slower the process, especially the cooling portion of it, the more effective will be the work. The Cadets of the Patrick Military Institute have been formed into two Companies, and the following officers are the officers of the respective Companies: Company A—Captain J. H. Coaker, of Society Hill; 1st Lieutenant and adjutant of the battalion, S. B. Hair, of Barrowville; 2d Lieutenant, W. E. Geer, of Anderson County; 1st Sergeant, M. A. Geer, of Anderson County; 2d Sergeant, J. O. Mattison, of Donalds; 3rd Sergeant and color-bearer, T. W. Gary, of Newberry; Company B—Captain, J. L. Downard, of Columbia; 1st Lieutenant, M. O. Ligon, of Anderson; 2d Lieutenant, Edward Cox, of Belton; 1st Sergeant, Percy Sharpe, of Anderson; 2d Sergeant, J. W. East, of Anderson; 3d Sergeant, Sergeant and quarter master, W. C. Baintine, of Honora Path. For some time past it has been very apparent that some one was dealing out whisky on the city, and it has occasioned considerable comment among all law-abiding citizens, who were disposed to censure the municipal authorities for not enforcing the law against those who were engaged in the traffic. In the meantime, however, the authorities were quietly ferreting out the matter, and last week twenty-one cases were docketed in the Mayor's Court against various parties, white and black, charged with selling whisky. On Tuesday morning the trials began. Mason Keaton, colored, who is in the employ of Mr. John O'Donnell, and against whom there were two indictments, was the first one to be tried, which resulted in a conviction in both cases, the evidence against him being very plain and related. He was fined $100 in each case. Prince & Vandiver represented the accused, and Brown & Tribble the prosecutors. The counsel for the accused attempted to have the case tried by a jury instead of by the Mayor, arguing that the city's charter allowed that privilege. Mayor Todd overruled the point, and on this ground an appeal in both cases was taken. On Wednesday morning the cases against Reuben Young and Peter Williams, both colored, were taken up, and are being heard as we go to press. The trials will consume several days. Latest State News: A Card. We cordially invite every lady and gentleman to call and see our immense stock of Fall and Winter Goods. Our store is full from top to bottom. We can show you our goods, and you will see better schools to Anderson. Our motto is the lowest prices for everything. Respectfully, C. F. Jones & Co.

Bureau Items. That news items have no immediate connection. That since they were married they both look perfectly calm and serene. That the eggs and butter are being saved for another brooding flock. That Col. John G. Clinkscapes does not know anything about what our people have done to our school house, else he would say something about it in the Teachers' Column. That he would be surprised to see what decided improvements have been made within the better walls of the building since his intellectual cranium last entered the door. That one hundred and seven dollars spent for the improvement of the building by a committee of such business men as Col. L. E. Campbell, B. B. Breazale and W. A. Geer, is money well spent, and eight feet added to the length of the building, a rostrum, of the entire width of the house, eight feet deep, the entire house furnished with good and comfortable seats, seven feet long, made by Mr. Beacham, of the city of Anderson, at a cost of $125 apiece, with an aisle four feet through the centre, together with several other improvements, it is needless to say that everything indicates intelligence, and points to a higher standard of education. That hereafter when there is growing heard in the Teachers' Column about the uncomforable condition of school houses in Anderson County, that it is not in Burke. That the community is greatly indebted to Col. L. E. Campbell, the Sunday School's beloved and able Superintendent, for the untiring zeal and deep interest which he has for the last two years manifested in both the literary and religious prosperity of the youth of our community. That the Sunday School is doing a work superior to many of the churches. That the response, which Mrs. W. A. Geer made at the presentation of the premium Bible by the Superintendent, was appropriate and touching. That during the two last years something over three hundred dollars have been paid out by this community in making preparations for the education of the children, but this amount was partly raised by friends outside the community, to whom we all feel under many obligations. All parties owing me must settle by 1st November next, and save trouble. J. B. P. Jones & Co. Boots and shoes. Don't buy your Boots and shoes until you see our stock.
