

day morning for Charleston with a fine drove of beeves and a number of good.

The recent cold weather must have frozen the ink of some of our County correspondents. Let us hear from you, gen-ficient money to make another crop. Mr. Misses Dessie and Helen Keese returned home Wednesday morning from Salem, McElroy is a model farmer, and if every N. C., where they have been attending farmer in Anderson County would follow College. his example, what a prosperous people we would be!

There has been a division in the membership of the colored Baptist Church of this city, and Church No. 2 has been organized.

"We are requested to announce that the Rev. B. Hays will preach at New Prospect next Saturday and Sunday, at 11 o'clock a. m.

ma; but neither of them was Leap Year," The young colored men of the city are and a cold, hard, determined look spread making preparations to celebrate the 24th over her lovely features an inch and a anniversary of Emancipation on or about half thick. the 24th May next.

We wish to call attention to the very Anderson should have a Society for the liberal offer of Samuel Wilson, Seedsman, prevention of cruelty to animals. We Mechanicsville, Bucks County, Pa., whose know of several places where the Society advertisement appears in this issue. Mr. could do some good work.

It is said that one of Anderson County's most charming young ladies will wed a popular young man from an adjoining County on St. Valentine's Day.

We regret to learn that our venerable tive 100-page catalogue will be sent free to friend, Mr. Thos. L. Reid, who resides all who apply for it. near Sandy Springs, has had something The Augusta Chronicle, of last Thurslike a stroke of paralysis. We hope he day, says : "Chairman Murray, who openwill soon be better. ed the proceedings of the Savannah Val-A little grit of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. ley Convention yesterday morning, is a Thompson, of Garvin Township, died of member of the State Senate of South Carpneumonia on last Tuesday, aged three olina from the County of Anderson. He and a half years. The little one's remains has just retired from the editorial chair of were buried at Lebanon.

and convincing talker."

Married, by J. L. Bryan, Trial Justice, on January 24th, 1888, at the residence of the groom, Mr. J. T. Gentry and Miss Mary Finn, daughter of Mr. Robt. Finn, all of Anderson County.

Mr. Samuel Cunningham left Anderson last week for Anniston, Ala., where he has secured a position with a large hardware house. He carries with him the best wishes of many friends in Anderson.

Married, by J. L. Bryan, Trial Justice. on Sunday, January 29th, 1888, at the residence of Mr. J. T. Gentry, Mr. William H. Gentry and Miss Sallie Finn, daughter of Mr. Robert Finn, all of Anderson County.

Anything that gives employment to mechanics is a valuable addition to a place. Encourage and help build up small industries. Anderson needs more The following bit of advice from an expeople, and the way to get them is to build small factories of various kinds. change is so good that the INTELLIGENCER appropriates it and asks its readers to On Monday Mr. John O'Donnell apstudy it carefully: "There is one thing peared before Trial Justic Wardlaw under that the property holders of every city four indictments for selling whiskey withshould bear in mind. It is, that what is out a license. Two of the cases were disgood for the whole city is money in the missed, and the other two sent up for pockets of the property holders of that trial at the approaching term of Court.

city. Then, contributing to any enterprise that will benefit the city, is enhanc-An entertainment will be given this ing the value of their property. This may evening at Grace Church Rectory, concome in the form of taxation on the propsisting of an address by Rev. A. A. Marerty, or by direct subscription, but the shall, choice music and recitations by young ladies and gentlemen of the city. rule holds the same. So do not fail to seize every opportunity to push your city Begins at 8 o'clock. Admission, 10 cents. to the front, and by all means do not be a

The following is the new hair flirtation, which we give for the benefit of the Anderson boys : Hair hanging over the left mossback." shoulder, I am engaged; over the right shoulder, I am married; and hanging straight down the back; go for me, boys, I'm your oyster.

B. Arnstein will cease to do business in Anderson, and will leave in a few days for Knoxville, Tenn., where he will conduct the dry goods business on a more exten-sive scale. By his leaving, Anderson loses an enterprising merchant. For nine The vacancy in the postoffice at Will-Lowndesville. We buy REMNANTS OF SEED and LINT COTTON in legal hours. JOHN CATLETT. tamston caused by the removal of E. B. Internation caused by the removal of D. D. Donnald has been filled by the appoint ment of A. H. Ford. Mr. Ford received his commission Tuesday. The appoint- internation caused by the appoint- internation ca See us before you do your trading We thank our friends and customers for their liberal patronage during JOHN E. PEOPLES & CO. HEADQUARTERS FOR Oct 27, 1887 you want to make money the year 1888. Good Kentucky Mules and Horses. lots for cash, we are ready to offer the people of Anderson and adjoining Counties COME one, come all to your old trading ground, see the truth wold trading . A CARD and for the past five years has conducted a successful business on his own account. Mr. Arnstein is a thoroughbred dry goods Wishing all-both old and young, rich greater inducements than ever. Bring your friends, who have never traded with Orange Girl! Orange Girl! ground, see the truth, buy a Mule, and get the worth of your money. faction in Williamston. us, and give us a fair showing. We are now in a position to save them money, and MY business calling meaway from home I desire to inform the public that I will only be absent until the first of March, after which time I can be found in my and poor-a happy and prosperous New W^E have given Messrs. BLECKLEY, BROWN & FRETWELL exclu-sive control of our famous brand of TO-BACCO-Orange Girl. No better Mr. A. Davis Fant has resigned his poman, and has always displayed superior him while his feet were in the air, they can show one of the largest Stocks in the up country. Jan 5, 1888 sition at the C. & G. depot, in this city, judgment and fine taste in the selection of would have thought be belonged to a Year, we are, Wishing you all a prosperous New Year, we are and accepted a position on a new road his stock of goods. His establishment and went on his way, rejoicing that no one SOMETHING USEFUL ! arter which time I can be found in my present office daily, and will be pleased to serve my friends and patrons as heretofore. Thanking them for past patronane, and soliciting a continuance of the same, Yours, respectfully, Very respectfully, which is now being built in the middle has always been a popular resort for the saw him. Chew made, and we advise all lovers of a FINE assortment of RUGS, MATS, LAP ROBES, first-class Chew to give them their patronsection of the State. Mr. Lawrence Car- ladies, who knew he could always supply section of the State. Mr. Lawrence on their wants. He knew what to buy, when is pring seed oats, cheap. I spring seed oats, cheap. I was a lawrence of the buy and how to buy, and was always posted in the latest style. He will certain by he an acquisition to the business circle J. W. TROWBRIDGE. age. These goods are the finest we manu-ture. J. L. KING & CO., and FINE BLANKETS, I am, very respectfully, A.C. STRICKLAND. for Christmas Presents, for sale low by C. F. JONES & CO. Greenstoro, N. C. A. B. TOWERS. Dec 22, 1887 Dec 15, 1887 Jan 12, 1888 27 23 Jan 12, 1888 that attention to domestic duties ne goes unrewarded, even in this world. MR. EDITOR : By recent disbandment Last Friday Mr. Jas. D. McElroy sold of the Calophemian Society in December, twelve bales of cotton in the city. Of course, this was only a portion of his the Polyhemian Literary Society was organized at Patrick's Military Institute crop, but by raising his own supplies he was enabled to hold this cotton until it December 13, 1887, with sufficient constitation and by-laws, and is now in motion, suited him to sell it, and now he has sufbidding fair to success.

OFFICERS. President-M. A. Dean, Anderson Co. V. Pres.-J. H. Coker, Darlington Co. Sec. and Treas.-J. D. Lowrance, Co-

Polyhemian Literary Society.

C. F. JONES.

Critic-S. B. Hair, Barnwell Co. "Mamma," said a beautiful maiden in Censor-C. A. Milford, Anderson Co. Chaplain-W. A. Meyer, Barnwell Co. tender tones the other morning at breakfast, "----- is coming around to-morrow The Society has a splendidly furnished night." "Well, what of that?" replied hall, lights and all complete, well adapted mamma, with ill-concealed disappointo comfort and convenience of the Cadets. ment. "He's been coming every Sunday Meetings are held every first and third night for two years." "Very true, mam-Monday in each month. The boys will soon give an entertainment to finish up their hall.

By order of the President. J. D. LOWRANCE, Sec. and Treas.

Denver Items.

So much rainy weather has retarded the sowing of Spring oats, and farmers are Wilson is not only a large grower of flow- getting anxious for some fair weather in which to finish sowing. Wheat and Fall er and vegetable seeds, but makes a specialty of introducing new and good varie- oats are looking very well. Farmers are enlarging their farm operations by clearties of corn, oats, potatoes, &c., besides ing more land and buying more horses dealing in all the best and finest breeds of and mules. With favorable seasons the poultry. His well illustrated and descripontlook is promising for a large crop this year. The school at this place is in a flourishing condition, having more scholars enrolled this year than any previous year, which attests the well-merited appreciation of Miss Carrie Watkins as a teacher. James Porter had the misfortune to lose all his outbuildings, together with farming tools and a buggy, by fire recently. the Anderson INTELLIGENCER to devote The fire either originated from some ashes himself entirely to the practice of law. that were taken from the fire-place, or was

Mr. Murray was summoned suddenly the work of an incendiary. from the floor to preside, and his opening N. J. Huffstetler, an experienced blackspeech was an introduction of solid fact smith from Cleveland County, N. C., has and well-knit argument. He is a ready lately come to assist his brother in the shop at this place.

Miss Eugenia Russell, one of Newber-Mr. W. P. Stevenson has presented us with some very fine turnips, of the "Yelry's most charming young ladies, is visitlow Globe" and "Golden Ball" varieties. ing the family of her brother, Capt. R. H. Mr. Stevenson tried banking his turnips Russell

Well, Mr. Editor, in regard to your rethis winter, and was quite successful, as quest in your "salutatory" that the Inhe now has plenty of turnips in good condition. His plan, briefly stated, is about TELLIGENCER correspondents continue to as follows: With a turning-plow he run write for the paper, I would say that it a deep furrow ou each side of his rows of is with pleasure that I shall try to keep turnips, which exposed them. Then cov- ycu informed of anything about here ering the turnips with pine straw, he used which I think will be of any interest to his plow in turning the dirt back upon your readers. Please accept my congratulations, and allow me to wish you great them, following along with a hoe, which completed the banking. Mr. Stevenson's plan is simple, and is worth trying. success as an Editor. JAY.

Flat Rock Items.

The farmers have done very little plowing up to this time. Mr. William McGregor is now confined to his room, and has been for some time. Mr. J. R. Armstrong, one of our oldest citizens, has been quite sick during the past week, but we are glad to know he is better. The Union Meeting which convened with Mt. Creek Church last Saturday and Sunday was largely attended. Mr. J. B.

Watson was elected moderator and C. O. Burriss clerk. S. P. Tate, Esq., is now erecting a new dwelling house in front of the one he now occupies, which adds much to the appearkicker against anything necessary to the ance as well as to the convenience. Dr. Haynie and family, of Bowersville, improvement of your city. Do not be a Ga., is in this community visiting rela-tives. His stay has been longer than he expected, owing to his little daughter get Having sold his stock of goods, Mr. M.

R. C. WEBB. 1888!

C. F. JONES & CO.

HAVE A

ROUSING STOCK!

700 BARRELS OF CHOICE FLOUR,

EVERY Barrel sound or money refunded. We show the Flour and brand, there will be no mistake. Don't buy until you see us.

CAR LOADS BACON, LARD, SUGAR, COFFEE,

SALT, MOLASSES, Etc.

We bought these Goods before the recent advance, and we are confident we can do better for you than many who have paid the late high prices.

Boots and Shoes.

We have recently added some very desirable Goods to our already large stock. Our Ladies' Fine Shoes, made by Zeigler and E. P. Dodge & Co., are both elegant and cheap. In Men's Goods we have everything desirable. Our Douglas $2.50 and $3.00 Shoes beat the world. We have Fine Hand Made Shoes for $3.50 and $4.50, every pair warranted.

10.000 YARDS CHECK AND SHIRTINGS,

At Factory Prices.

DRESS GOODS AND TRIMMINGS.

Our Stock is unusually large, which we are selling out very cheap. We have the handsomest stock Black Goods to be found in Anderson.

JERSEYS AND WRAPS.

We have an elegant Stock of Jerseys'che per than ever MEN'S AND BOYS' HATS.

JUST RECEIVED, a new stock pretty new styles. If you want a Hat we can please you in goods and prices.

JEANS AND CASSIMERES

Of every description and prices

TOBACCO, TOBACCO.

All grades, very cheap, in boxes and caddies.

withstanding this unusual guarantee. Jan 26, 1888 By taking off the long wing and putting on a short one, it makes the best Subsoil known to agriculturists for Spring plow-IS a philosopher, and possibly knows all about raising chickens and children in the ing. We have 24,000 pounds of Steel old style, ante-bellum way, but as to running a Drug Store or practicing medicine Plows, and will guarantee prices as low he hasn't been raised himself yet. as any house in the State. Bill Arp can write and Bill Arp can speak,

29

BILL ARP

And Bill Arp can talk all day,

laugh,

you,

more fun at them.

Because he wasn't raised that way.

Because he was raised that way.

Do come quick, Doctor, I pray,

Because you were raised that way.

So the philanthropic Doctor gathers up

old sinner, and for awhile nothing is too good to be said about him and his hum-

bugs until some other stump-speaker pokes

HILL BROTHERS,

29

Druggists.

Let him get off what stale joke he may,

$25.00 to $75.00.

Our Grocery Department But he can't care the colic nor the lumbago, Is as full and cheap as usual. In pro-It is all very funny, and it makes the crowd visions we had thought Bacon too high, And the small boy howls like a dying calf, and did not stock up as heavily as is usual with us at this season, and contra-But when anybody's sick away they go, ry to our expectations the market seems Dad's fell in a fit, nobody can help him but still tending upwards. Of course no one outside of the big meat speculators know the future, and they will carry the his humbug nostrums, goes and cures the market whichever way suits their pockets best. On Flour we thought we saw a safe investment, and we crowded our large Warehouse at prices from 25c to 75c less than the same grades can be bought today. We were also fortunate in securing three Cars of the prettiest LAMPS or LAMP GOODS, come! If White Corn ever brought to this Town, line, come! An anxious welcome awaits before the last rise. One of them has arrived, and opened in new sacks, nice and bright. Will have in a day or so another Car of those beautiful

SPRING JATS

Spring. We keep the old fashioned big Sacks of Liverpool Salt, which is said to save meat so much better than the other Salt-and then we keep the small Sacks of fine Salt, too. In fact, we try to keep everything the people need, and some few tricks they don't nee!, but will buy. A large stock of good old mellow SMOKING and CHEWING TOBACCO at very low prices.

Jan 26, 1888 That gave such general satisfaction last

W. L. DOUGLAS $3 SHOE. GENTLEMEN.

FERTILIZERS. The only fine calf $3 Seamless Shoe in the The only inte call 55 beamless Shoe in the world made without tacks or nalls. As stylish and durable as those costing $5 or $5, and having no tacks or nalls to wear the stocking or hurt the feet, makes them as comfortable and well-fitting as a hand sewed shoe. Buy the best. None genu-ine unless stamped on bottom "W. L. Dougias $3 Remember, we have a fresh stock of W. L. DOUGLAS $4 SHOE, the original and Guano, Acid and Kainit-our old reliaand sewed welt $4 shoe which equals cus ade shoes costing from $6 to $9. ble brauds that are going to sell at less W. L. DOUGLAS $2.50 SHOE is unexcelled for heavy wear. W. L. DOUGLAS $2 SHOE is worn by all Boys, and is the best school shoe in the world. All the above goods are made in Congress, But-ton and Lace, and if not sold by your dealer, write W. L. DOUGLAS, Brockton, Mass. prices than last year, except on Kainit. We will ship to our customers as low down the C. & G. R. R. as Hones Path. C. F. JONES & CO., Agents. Anderson, S. C. and as far down the S. V. R. R. as far as Jan 26, 1888

Nickel and Silver Watches $2.50 to $15.00. A wonderful Variety of Novelties suitable for Christmas-Presents The best Quadruple Plated Silverware. Many new and beautiful pieces. Be sure to visit our Store before making your Christmas purchases. 10 Now's a good time to try one of our Never-Go-Back Rings. They go. Dec 8, 1887 LET US REMIND YOU - THAT ANOTHER -CHRISTMAS DRAWS NEAR! AND while it brings us many joys, it generally forestalls them with innumerable perplexities. When one gives a Present the natural desire is to have it appreciated, not only as a token of regard, but also for its beauty and utility as well, and so the generous and judicious gift-maker finds himself or herself in a sea of troubled doubts over other people's tastes and preferences, and has a realizing sense that there is more depth to a loving heart than there is to the purses of ordinary mortals. People are Saving Money and Securing the Best By purchasing from our seasonable line and choice selection for the Holiday season, sisting of most-APPROPRIATE CIFTS.

We keep Patent Medicines, lots of them, At prices nobody cares to meet. At prices nobody cares to meet. This Card is an invitation for you to call and see our Goods, regarding which too much favorable comment can scarcely be made. It is our purpose, however, to say only enough to make sure of a visit from every reader between now and Christ-mas, as we believe that our large line of Elegant Goods will appeal to the taste and admiration of every visitor better than any words that we might speak in praise of and unpatented, and patent applied for. We keep, in fact, everything in our line So if you want PATENT MEDICINES. come! If you want any GARDEN or FIELD SEEDS, come! If you want you want anything in the MEDICINE Suitable Gifts for Big, Little, Great and Small.

Don't Buy your Presents haphazard at the first Store you come across, but look about you, and make sure that you are getting the value of your Thunking you for your kind atention, we wish you all a Merry Christmas, and cordially invite you to come and see us soon.

> WILHITE & WILHITE 6 GRANITE ROW.

The Season for House Furnishing and Replenishing is now at hand !

JOHN E. PEOPLES & CO.

Are now prepared with an entire NewiStock to offer a perfect Jubilee for Housekeepers and lovers of "Santa Claus !"

KITCHEN WARE in Tin, Wood and Iron, including all kinds of Kitchen Cooking Utensils.

CROCKERY WARE in Dinner and Breakfast, and TEAWARE by the Set or ngle piece.

GLASS WARE, in all shapes, colors and quality.

KEROSENE STOVES and LAMPS, from the cheapest grade to the most rtistic Table and Hanging Lamps made. Hanging Lamps a specialty. SILVER PLATED WARE-finest grades of "Rogers" make.

A large lot of WAGONS, and the best assortment of-

CHRISTMAS COODS

Have arrived, and will be sold lower than the lowest. We invite everybody to come and get prices before buying.