

Some of the boys are violating the game law.

A number of farmers have begun to plant cotton.

Mr. J. W. Keys, of Wallaha, was in the city last Saturday.

A purchaser for a good milk cow may be found at this office.

Good middling cotton was quoted on Wednesday at 22 to 23 cents.

Rev. W. H. King will occupy Dr. Manly's pulpit at Belton next Sunday morning.

Miss Sallie McCarter, of Townville, is this day visiting her friend Miss Leslie Moore.

Col. J. A. Hoyt is mentioned as a candidate for State Senator from Greenville County.

Mr. Fitzgerald, the photographer, expects to leave for home next Saturday or Sunday.

An important notice appears in another column to the members of Hiram Lodge, A. O. U. M.

The reports of the small grain crop are very encouraging from every section of the County.

Governor Richardson has accepted an invitation to attend the Farmers' Tournament in June.

Miss Eda Williams, a fascinating young lady from Greenville, Tenn., is visiting relatives in the city.

Mr. Samuel Daniels, of this city, has gone to Wallaha, where he has opened a cigar-maker's shop.

Buller Boggs, of the Pickens Seminary, was appointed upon the Presbytery as a delegate from this Church.

Miss Minnie Anderson, a popular young lady of Hopewell Township, has been spending a few days in the city.

Our young friend, W. W. Butler, who is a student of the Day West College, spent Saturday and Sunday in the city.

The hour for holding the Sunday afternoon prayer meetings of the Y. M. C. A. has been changed from 4 until 6 o'clock.

Among the delegates to the Presbytery were Mr. John C. Peoples, of Newberry, who is the welcome visitor to Anderson.

Mr. E. P. Bruce, of Townville, has gone to Atlanta, where he will spend two or three months attending the Southern Business College.

John Williams, colored, was committed to jail last Sunday by Trial Justice Quastboom charged with breaking into J. W. Edwards's house.

Mr. J. F. Auld, accompanied by his son, Wilson, of Elberton, Ga., has been spending a few days in the city visiting his niece, Mrs. J. E. Brazzale.

The Terranovians gladly welcome to the city the "concordant" who make his place in our columns this week. We hope to hear from him often.

When you see three or four men on the street engaged in an animated conversation you can put it down that there is a candidate or a prospective one in the crowd.

A certain young lady recently presented her lover with an elaborately constructed paper-wiper, and was astonished the following Sunday to see him come into Church wearing it as a cravat.

George Duck and Hugh Saxon, both colored, are in jail under sentence from Trial Justice Acker for refusing to pay their Poll Tax. The former for 20 days and the latter for 15 days.

Rev. D. B. Johnson, D. D., will deliver an address to the ladies of the Presbyterian Institute in the chapel to-morrow (Friday) evening, at 7 o'clock. The public generally is invited to attend.

Mr. George H. Edwards, who travels for the Walker, Evans & Co., of Charleston, has been spending a few days in the city. He is a most excellent young man, and makes friends wherever he goes.

The Young America Corned Band gave an open air concert on the Court House Square Saturday afternoon, and the music was highly enjoyed. The City Council should erect a stand on the Square for the use of the band.

Messrs. John E. Brazzale and O. Wardlaw, left the city this morning to join John L. Jolly, Capt. Stribbling, of Seneca, and some others at Cherry's Ferry, for a big rabbit hunt. They will run about 17 league dogs.

Mrs. Margaret Simpson, of Pendleton, is in the city on a visit to her sister, Mrs. S. A. Briggs. Both these ladies are color-conscious, and while they are a little feeble in body, they still retain the mental vigor of their younger days.

There will be a reception at the Sewing Machine Factory of Mr. C. A. Reed, on the 15th, 20th and 21st inst. The most artistic fancy work will be executed on the celebrated New Home Machine. The ladies of the city and county are cordially invited to attend.

The Young America Corned Band leaves for Charleston next Monday, and will return home Saturday following. The band will stop over in Orangeburg Friday night and play for an entertainment to the benefit of the members of the Baptist Church.

Occasionally a bale of cotton makes its appearance in the city. A number of farmers are still holding their cotton with the expectation that it will advance to ten cents per pound, and if it were to advance to that price business would revive considerably for a few days.

List of letters remaining in the Post-office for the week ending March 28, 1888: Mrs. Lizzie Clark, Miss Eliza Clark, Miss Rebecca, Hicks, Miss Liser McGowan, Lucy Brooks, J. T. Martin & Co., G. J. Meredith, Taylor, Tribble, Dock Vandiver, Z. E. Taylor, Wilcox, Wood.

Blackley, Brown & Fretwell's new advertisement should have the attention of every one of our readers. This firm has had in store a very large stock of goods, and are offering some very bargains to the trading public. See what they say, and don't fail to give them an early call.

Rev. Charles Manly, D. D., of Greenville, will preach at Andersonville next Sunday, 15th inst., at 11 o'clock, and will also present the claims of Furman University. A cordial invitation is extended to the people of the surrounding country to attend and hear this distinguished divine.

The Second Quarterly Conference for the present year, for Piedmont Circuit, will be held at Shiloh Church next Saturday and Sunday, April 14th and 15th.

The R. & D. Railroad has notified Chief Driver that all uniformed firemen will be transported over its lines to the Firemen's Tournament in June at the rate of 2 cents per mile for the round trip. The P. & W. O. R. R. has not yet been heard from, but it will probably give the same rate.

Note the change in Means & McGee's advertisement. These gentlemen have the largest and prettiest stock of clothing, hats, shoes and gents' furnishing goods they have ever shown in Anderson, and if any of our readers need anything in their line they should not fail to inspect their stock.

"Your Court House is an eye-sore to your beautiful city," said a stranger on our streets the other day. We agree with him. Our suggestion is to have the Court House re-painted in white, with the approval of everybody, and we hope our County Commissioners will have it done.

The successful towns have been made by property owners pulling together. Public improvements is an investment that pays. Don't waste your time over neighborhood quarrels and hold back your aid for good objects through spite, but work for some good and you will find yourself benefited.

Col. J. G. Clinckales was called to Williamston last Saturday to attend the bedside of his sister, Mrs. Rogers, who is seriously ill, and was, therefore, prevented from attending the meeting of the O. S. O. Reading Club at the Cross Roads School House last Saturday night. He will be at some future time address the Club.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Keys, who reside near this city, celebrated the fifty-second anniversary of their marriage last Saturday, and they were the recipients of many congratulations from their host of friends.

The Intelligencer extends its congratulations to the venerable couple, and wishes them many years of health and happiness to come.

W. A. Chapman has a new advertisement in this issue, to which we invite your attention. Mr. Chapman's stock of Spring and Summer goods is now complete, and a beautiful stock in its line. He is determined to sell these goods, and our advice is for you to go and inspect them at once. He keeps nothing trashy, and satisfaction is guaranteed to every purchaser.

Mr. William Hale, one of Anderson County's oldest citizens, died last Tuesday night after an illness of about twelve months, from neuritis. He was about 75 or 80 years of age. He was a respectable citizen, and for many years a member of the Methodist Church. His funeral will take place to-day (Thursday) at 10 o'clock. Rev. Dr. Barnes officiating. He leaves a wife and two children.

The Gainesville (Ga.) correspondent of the Atlanta Constitution, under date of the 6th inst., says: "The many friends of Rev. A. A. Marshall were glad to see him in their midst again. Mrs. Marshall, who is in poor health, accompanied him. They were on their way to Milledgeville, Ga., whether Mrs. Marshall hopes to make a permanent stay at the rest among friends. Mr. Marshall preached a touching and tender sermon in the Baptist Church last night, from the subject of Jacob's wrestling at the brook. On his return to his field in Anderson, S. C., he will stop over again and give the people another sermon."

The Hartwell Sun, of last week, says: "On Thursday last week Mr. Will Gary and the negroes who work at the river plantations of Mr. Wm. J. Harper, saw a top-buggy floating down the swollen Savannah. The next day Messrs. Archie and Lindsey Parks saw a dark colored horse with harness on floating down the river. It is supposed that the horse and buggy, which were not being hitched, were thrown from the boat at some ferry on the Seneca or Tugaloo Rivers, and the buggy being lighter than the horse naturally proceeded. We have heard of no disaster of the kind from any of the ferries in hearing distance."

Mrs. Eliza J. King, relict of the late Thos. King, died at her home in Hopewell Township on Wednesday, 4th inst., in the 68th year of her age. Mrs. King had been in feeble health for several months, but she bore her suffering with Christian resignation, and when the summons of death came she was fully prepared to meet it. She was a most excellent lady, and was highly esteemed by all who knew her. For a number of years she was a faithful member of Dorchester Baptist Church. Her remains were buried on last Thursday at New's Creek Church, Rev. W. H. King conducting the funeral services. She leaves behind her two sons and three daughters.

That new hat that dons the Junior editor's cranium was presented to him by Mr. Foster Fant, the clothier and hatter, whose place of business is on Whitner street. He was invited into Mr. Fant's establishment and asked to take his choice, but there were so many pretty hats that it was difficult for him to do so. He did like the girls do when they go to buy a hat—keeping trying on and looking into the glass—and finally made a selection. Mr. Fant has a large stock of hats, and he can please the most fastidious in price, quality and style. He keeps almost everything in the line of gents' wearing apparel, and will give satisfaction to every purchaser.

Col. J. H. Rice and Dr. Mayo will visit Anderson Thursday, and deliver lectures in the Court House. They are starting at 8 o'clock. Everybody is invited to attend. These are gentlemen of ability, and will say something worth hearing. Col. Rice is State Superintendent of Education, and is well known in Anderson; Dr. Mayo is a gentleman of scholarly attainments, and is devoting himself to the cause of education. He has just delivered a series of lectures to the Winthrop Training School of Columbia, in which he discussed various subjects pertaining to the work of education. Every teacher and every friend of education should hear him. The lectures will be free.

Another one of Anderson County's venerable citizens has been "called for labor unto rest." Last Friday evening, about 8 o'clock, after an illness of five weeks, Col. Wm. S. Shaw died at his home at Hill Top, near Belton. He was just the good old age of eighty-one years. His remains were interred at Mountain Creek Church on last Sunday, the funeral services being conducted by Rev. H. M. Allen, in the presence of a large concourse of friends and relatives. Col. Shaw was perhaps as widely known in Anderson County as any man that has ever resided within her borders. He was born in Wake County, N. C., but when about 20 years old removed to Anderson County, where he has since resided. He was by profession a school teacher, and pursued this profession the greater portion of his life. He was a man of more than ordinary intellect, and in his day and age was recognized as a very successful teacher. Many of the best citizens of our County to-day received their intellectual training from him, and all of them will read this announcement of his death with sorrow. Prior to the war Col. Shaw took an active part in the public affairs of the County, and was a prominent political leader. He was a man of high character, and his death is a great loss to the community.

Excursion via Atlantic Coast Line, through Greenville, Wallaha & Greenville Railroad points via this Line. Tickets on sale April 16th and 17th, good to return on 23rd inclusive. Round trip from Anderson $7.70; from Belton $5.40; from Wallaha $7.70; from Pendleton, 7.90; from Honea Pt., $7.25. Trains run clear to Greenville, where they connect with the Columbia and Greenville Railroad going and returning. Agent for ticket via Atlantic Coast Line.

Floral Salt, Charleston, S. C. Excursion via Atlantic Coast Line, through Greenville, Wallaha & Greenville Railroad points via this Line. Tickets on sale April 16th and 17th, good to return on 23rd inclusive. Round trip from Anderson $7.70; from Belton $5.40; from Wallaha $7.70; from Pendleton, 7.90; from Honea Pt., $7.25. Trains run clear to Greenville, where they connect with the Columbia and Greenville Railroad going and returning. Agent for ticket via Atlantic Coast Line.

Go to Hill Bros. and buy a bottle of B. B. B. - Botanic Blood Balm, the great blood purifier.

ings with his fellow-men, and was always ready and willing to aid in anything that would tend to the betterment of his fellow-men or increase the public welfare.

He was a man of many admirable traits of character, and had a warm friendship to all who were true and faithful. Col. Shaw married Miss Sallie Massey, who, with three sons and four daughters, survive him. They have the sympathy of many friends in their bereavement.

The announcement of the coming of Rev. Sam Jones will be received with delight by our whole people. A committee from the Methodist Church have arranged with the famous Georgian to deliver one of his lectures in this city on the night of the 21st inst. It is not known what his subject will be, but we feel safe in saying that it will be an original one, and it will be worth coming miles to hear. Mr. Jones has agreed to come to Anderson and deliver the lecture for the benefit of the Methodist Church, which, as is well known, has just been completed, but which is not yet all paid for. It is proposed to devote the proceeds of the lecture to paying off the debt, so that the church can be dedicated at once. The admission price has been placed at 75 cents. Tickets will be placed on sale this morning at Hill Top, where arrangements are being made for the lecture. The great Georgian will be greeted by a large audience, and those who expect to attend the lecture should secure their seats in advance at once.

The South Carolina Presbytery held its 24th session in this city Friday, Saturday, Sunday and Monday. Rev. J. Lovrie Wilson, D. D., of Abbeville, was elected Moderator, Rev. S. L. Morris, of Trenton, Clerk, and Elder S. P. Denny, Assistant Clerk.

Rev. A. P. Nicholson, of this city, the retiring Moderator, presided the opening session Friday night. It was an able effort, and enjoyed by all who heard it. On Saturday Elder T. F. Anderson, of Williamston, read to the Presbytery an extract from the will of his deceased wife, by which she bequeathed $300.00 as a permanent investment, the interest of which was to be equally divided between the cause of education, foreign missions and home missions.

Mr. S. G. Sterling, of this County, a member of Midway Church, was introduced to the Presbytery as an applicant for the ministry. He passed his examination, and was taken under the care of the young man of character and energy, and will no doubt do good work in the Master's vineyard.

A request was made to the Presbytery asking for the organization of a church at Flat Rock. This was received and referred to a Committee, which reported favorably. This report was read and approved, and another Committee appointed on the request, with instructions to visit the place, and report at the next session of the Presbytery.

Last Sunday the Baptist pulpit was filled by Rev. J. O. Lindsey, D. D., of Due West, the Methodist congregation heard Rev. T. B. Craig, and Rev. J. Lovrie Wilson, D. D., preached from the Lord's Supper, after the sermon, to the congregation at the Presbytery Church. In the afternoon a Sunday School Mass Meeting was held in the Presbyterian Church, to which all were invited. At this meeting very interesting addresses were made by J. E. Boggs, Esq., of Pickens, Rev. W. H. Wallace, of Elberton, Georgia, and Rev. E. P. Mickel, of Kentucky. Rev. J. R. Riley, D. D., preached to a large congregation in the Presbyterian Church Sunday night.

This has been a very harmonious and working session of the Presbytery. The business of the session was the resolution in reference to Dr. Woodrow.

The Rev. J. O. Lindsey, D. D., of Due West, and Capt. S. P. Denny, of Wallaha, were elected delegates to the next General Assembly which meets in Baltimore on the 17th of May.

The sermon was introduced by Rev. J. S. Cooby, after considerable debate, pro and con, and was adopted by a vote of 38 to 13.

The Presbytery of South Carolina, feeling a deep interest in the Columbia Seminary, because it had its birth in the midst of us.

Because it has received liberally of our patronage and of our means for its support.

Because it is naturally the fountain to which we desire in the future, as in the past, to send our candidates for the perfecting of their theological education, would therefore respectfully entreat the honorable Board of Directors touching the conduct of the Faculty in the following points, which seem to us demand serious consideration and prompt action.

1st. It has been alleged through the public prints that the Faculty has, in effect, rescinded in whole or in part the published permit that students of the Seminary should be free to attend the lectures of the Professors of the South Carolina College. Touching this point, this Presbytery would ask the Board to decide whether this is not a violation of a pledge on the part of the Faculty, and an unfair advantage to students that had been attracted to the Seminary.

2nd. It is alleged, and believed to be true, that this prohibitory act of the Faculty, although the Faculty has, in effect, rescinded in whole or in part the published permit that students of the Seminary should be free to attend the lectures of the Professors of the South Carolina College. Touching this point, this Presbytery would ask the Board to decide whether this is not a violation of a pledge on the part of the Faculty, and an unfair advantage to students that had been attracted to the Seminary.

3rd. Will not this prohibitory policy of the Faculty restrict students in the Seminary from hearing lectures on scientific subjects by a Professor of acknowledged competency, be justly regarded as stopping their free research after truth, and such an unwarrantable fettering of christian liberty, that many who would naturally prefer to pursue their studies at Columbia Seminary will go elsewhere, rather than wear such shackles?

This Presbytery of South Carolina would respectfully ask the serious consideration of the Board to the points herein presented, and to involve their approval or disapproval of the conduct of the Faculty, that we, as a part of the deeply interested congregation of the Columbia Seminary, may know what its future policy will be.

The South Carolina Presbytery is composed of the following named Counties: Abbeville, Anderson, Edgefield, Newberry, Oconee, Pickens, and Union. There were about sixty delegates in attendance.

Rev. Mr. Forgie preached in the Presbyterian Church Monday night, after which the Presbytery adjourned. The next session of the Presbytery will meet at Mt. Carmel, on Friday before the fifth Sabbath in September.

Floral Salt, Charleston, S. C. Excursion via Atlantic Coast Line, through Greenville, Wallaha & Greenville Railroad points via this Line. Tickets on sale April 16th and 17th, good to return on 23rd inclusive. Round trip from Anderson $7.70; from Belton $5.40; from Wallaha $7.70; from Pendleton, 7.90; from Honea Pt., $7.25. Trains run clear to Greenville, where they connect with the Columbia and Greenville Railroad going and returning. Agent for ticket via Atlantic Coast Line.

Go to Hill Bros. and buy a bottle of B. B. B. - Botanic Blood Balm, the great blood purifier.

Forth Items.

The fruit is not all killed in this section. Farmers are making good use of all farming weather. Some are planting cotton. There are a few cases of whooping-cough in the vicinity.

Mr. J. J. Major's house is now under-going the painter's brush, which will be a great improvement to the place. Mr. J. C. Horton has purchased wire to enclose most of his bottom land for pasture, and will engage in the cattle business generally.

Mr. E. C. Chambliss has several fields of the finest wheat we have seen. Rev. W. H. King will address the Neal's Creek Sunday School the 22nd inst., at 4 o'clock p. m.

Mr. J. E. Elgin's small grain crop looks quite promising. Mr. Elgin is a model young farmer, as a walk over his farm will prove.

Lowndesville Items.

Owing to the incessant rains, the farmers are all dependent. Last Monday the old Council was re-elected. Intendant—D. L. Barnes. Wardens—A. A. Adams, of Augusta.

Mr. J. C. Horton has purchased wire to enclose most of his bottom land for pasture, and will engage in the cattle business generally.

Mr. E. C. Chambliss has several fields of the finest wheat we have seen. Rev. W. H. King will address the Neal's Creek Sunday School the 22nd inst., at 4 o'clock p. m.

Mr. J. E. Elgin's small grain crop looks quite promising. Mr. Elgin is a model young farmer, as a walk over his farm will prove.

Lowndesville Items.

Owing to the incessant rains, the farmers are all dependent. Last Monday the old Council was re-elected. Intendant—D. L. Barnes. Wardens—A. A. Adams, of Augusta.

Mr. J. C. Horton has purchased wire to enclose most of his bottom land for pasture, and will engage in the cattle business generally.

Mr. E. C. Chambliss has several fields of the finest wheat we have seen. Rev. W. H. King will address the Neal's Creek Sunday School the 22nd inst., at 4 o'clock p. m.

Mr. J. E. Elgin's small grain crop looks quite promising. Mr. Elgin is a model young farmer, as a walk over his farm will prove.

Lowndesville Items.

Owing to the incessant rains, the farmers are all dependent. Last Monday the old Council was re-elected. Intendant—D. L. Barnes. Wardens—A. A. Adams, of Augusta.

Mr. J. C. Horton has purchased wire to enclose most of his bottom land for pasture, and will engage in the cattle business generally.

Mr. E. C. Chambliss has several fields of the finest wheat we have seen. Rev. W. H. King will address the Neal's Creek Sunday School the 22nd inst., at 4 o'clock p. m.

Mr. J. E. Elgin's small grain crop looks quite promising. Mr. Elgin is a model young farmer, as a walk over his farm will prove.

Lowndesville Items.

Owing to the incessant rains, the farmers are all dependent. Last Monday the old Council was re-elected. Intendant—D. L. Barnes. Wardens—A. A. Adams, of Augusta.

Mr. J. C. Horton has purchased wire to enclose most of his bottom land for pasture, and will engage in the cattle business generally.

Mr. E. C. Chambliss has several fields of the finest wheat we have seen. Rev. W. H. King will address the Neal's Creek Sunday School the 22nd inst., at 4 o'clock p. m.

Mr. J. E. Elgin's small grain crop looks quite promising. Mr. Elgin is a model young farmer, as a walk over his farm will prove.

Lowndesville Items.

Owing to the incessant rains, the farmers are all dependent. Last Monday the old Council was re-elected. Intendant—D. L. Barnes. Wardens—A. A. Adams, of Augusta.

Mr. J. C. Horton has purchased wire to enclose most of his bottom land for pasture, and will engage in the cattle business generally.

Mr. E. C. Chambliss has several fields of the finest wheat we have seen. Rev. W. H. King will address the Neal's Creek Sunday School the 22nd inst., at 4 o'clock p. m.

Mr. J. E. Elgin's small grain crop looks quite promising. Mr. Elgin is a model young farmer, as a walk over his farm will prove.

Lowndesville Items.

Owing to the incessant rains, the farmers are all dependent. Last Monday the old Council was re-elected. Intendant—D. L. Barnes. Wardens—A. A. Adams, of Augusta.

Mr. J. C. Horton has purchased wire to enclose most of his bottom land for pasture, and will engage in the cattle business generally.

Mr. E. C. Chambliss has several fields of the finest wheat we have seen. Rev. W. H. King will address the Neal's Creek Sunday School the 22nd inst., at 4 o'clock p. m.

Mr. J. E. Elgin's small grain crop looks quite promising. Mr. Elgin is a model young farmer, as a walk over his farm will prove.

Lowndesville Items.

Owing to the incessant rains, the farmers are all dependent. Last Monday the old Council was re-elected. Intendant—D. L. Barnes. Wardens—A. A. Adams, of Augusta.

Mr. J. C. Horton has purchased wire to enclose most of his bottom land for pasture, and will engage in the cattle business generally.

Mr. E. C. Chambliss has several fields of the finest wheat we have seen. Rev. W. H. King will address the Neal's Creek Sunday School the 22nd inst., at 4 o'clock p. m.

Neal's Creek Items.

We have heard the first whippoorwill song. Farmers are making good use of all farming weather. Some are planting cotton. There are a few cases of whooping-cough in the vicinity.

Mr. J. J. Major's house is now under-going the painter's brush, which will be a great improvement to the place. Mr. J. C. Horton has purchased wire to enclose most of his bottom land for pasture, and will engage in the cattle business generally.

Mr. E. C. Chambliss has several fields of the finest wheat we have seen. Rev. W. H. King will address the Neal's Creek Sunday School the 22nd inst., at 4 o'clock p. m.

Mr. J. E. Elgin's small grain crop looks quite promising. Mr. Elgin is a model young farmer, as a walk over his farm will prove.

Lowndesville Items.

Owing to the incessant rains, the farmers are all dependent. Last Monday the old Council was re-elected. Intendant—D. L. Barnes. Wardens—A. A. Adams, of Augusta.

Mr. J. C. Horton has purchased wire to enclose most of his bottom land for pasture, and will engage in the cattle business generally.

Mr. E. C. Chambliss has several fields of the finest wheat we have seen. Rev. W. H. King will address the Neal's Creek Sunday School the 22nd inst., at 4 o'clock p. m.

Mr. J. E. Elgin's small grain crop looks quite promising. Mr. Elgin is a model young farmer, as a walk over his farm will prove.

Lowndesville Items.

Owing to the incessant rains, the farmers are all dependent. Last Monday the old Council was re-elected. Intendant—D. L. Barnes. Wardens—A. A. Adams, of Augusta.

Mr. J. C. Horton has purchased wire to enclose most of his bottom land for pasture, and will engage in the cattle business generally.

Mr. E. C. Chambliss has several fields of the finest wheat we have seen. Rev. W. H. King will address the Neal's Creek Sunday School the 22nd inst., at 4 o'clock p. m.

Mr. J. E. Elgin's small grain crop looks quite promising. Mr. Elgin is a model young farmer, as a walk over his farm will prove.

Lowndesville Items.

Owing to the incessant rains, the farmers are all dependent. Last Monday the old Council was re-elected. Intendant—D. L. Barnes. Wardens—A. A. Adams, of Augusta.

Mr. J. C. Horton has purchased wire to enclose most of his bottom land for pasture, and will engage in the cattle business generally.

Mr. E. C. Chambliss has several fields of the finest wheat we have seen. Rev. W. H. King will address the Neal's Creek Sunday School the 22nd inst., at 4 o'clock p. m.

Mr. J. E. Elgin's small grain crop looks quite promising. Mr. Elgin is a model young farmer, as a walk over his farm will prove.

Lowndesville Items.

Owing to the incessant rains, the farmers are all dependent. Last Monday the old Council was re-elected. Intendant—D. L. Barnes. Wardens—A. A. Adams, of Augusta.

Mr. J. C. Horton has purchased wire to enclose most of his bottom land for pasture, and will engage in the cattle business generally.

Mr. E. C. Chambliss has several fields of the finest wheat we have seen. Rev. W. H. King will address the Neal's Creek Sunday School the 22nd inst., at 4 o'clock p. m.

Mr. J. E. Elgin's small grain crop looks quite promising. Mr. Elgin is a model young farmer, as a walk over his farm will prove.

Lowndesville Items.

Owing to the incessant rains, the farmers are all dependent. Last Monday the old Council was re-elected. Intendant—D. L. Barnes. Wardens—A. A. Adams, of Augusta.

Mr. J. C. Horton has purchased wire to enclose most of his bottom land for pasture, and will engage in the cattle business generally.

Mr. E. C. Chambliss has several fields of the finest wheat we have seen. Rev. W. H. King will address the Neal's Creek Sunday School the 22nd inst., at 4 o'clock p. m.

Mr. J. E. Elgin's small grain crop looks quite promising. Mr. Elgin is a model young farmer, as a walk over his farm will prove.

Lowndesville Items.

Owing to the incessant rains, the farmers are all dependent. Last Monday the old Council was re-elected. Intendant—D. L. Barnes. Wardens—A. A. Adams, of Augusta.

Mr. J. C. Horton has purchased wire to enclose most of his bottom land for pasture, and will engage in the cattle business generally.

Mr. E. C. Chambliss has several fields of the finest wheat we have seen. Rev. W. H. King will address the Neal's Creek Sunday School the 22nd inst., at 4 o'clock p. m.

Mr. J. E. Elgin's small grain crop looks quite promising. Mr. Elgin is a model young farmer, as a walk over his farm will prove.

Lowndesville Items.