PATRICK'S MILITARY INSTITUTE.

First Annual Commencement-Speeches by the Cadets-Sermon by Rev. Wm. Cuthbert, and an Address by Rev. Elliott Capers, etc.

The first annual commencement exercises of Patrick's Military Institute began last Friday evening and closed on Tuesday, and throughout the occasion. These commencement seasons are always looked forward to with much pleasure, as they bring together many friends and former associates. The past week has been a gala one in Anderson, and everybody was absorbed in the Tournament, but notwithstanding this fact, the Institute Commencement was not forgotten, and at an early hour last Friday evening many persons could be seen wending their way to the Institute buildings. The clouds were gathering, and just before the time for exercises to begin the rain came down in torrents, but this did not keep the people away. When we reached the building we found the spacious chapel comfortably filled with an intelligent audience.

The chapel presented a very pretty scene. The Cadets, with the assistance of their lady friends, had tastefully decorated the walls and the floor with garlands and beautiful flowers. On the platform were eight stages of guns, which were almost covered with wreaths. The Young America Cornet Band was present, and at intervals during the evening rendered some of its excellent music. After an appropriate prayer by Rev. T. P. Giddens, the exercises were delivered by the following cadets, in the order named, on the subjects quoted:

"Voyage of Life"—Theobald Stone. "Boys' Rights"—J. C. Allen. "Epilogue"—Julius Watson.

"Pursuits in Life"—A Dialogue—Thos. Maxwell, Wm. McCullin, J. W. Weaver, P. C. Carter, Samuel Payne and Walter Nairn.

"The Village Preacher"—C. G. Sayre. "Small Beginnings"—Durant Clark. "Fifty Years Ago"—David Clark.

"Shape of the Earth"—A Dialogue, Wm. C. Roper, R. E. Lee and J. N. Masters.

"America"—H. S. Dowling. "America"—L. L. Boykin.

"The Pacific Railway"—A. C. Shearer. "Alexander and the Robber"—W. A. McCall and G. W. Whitlock.

"Strike, as said the anvil to the hammer"—James Kennedy.

"Men and Women"—R. B. Gray. "Birth of Marimon"—R. B. McCullin. "The Way to John Smith's"—A Dialogue—Theodore Stone and C. Malone.

"Horatius at the Bridge"—George Baker. "Earnestness"—Lawrence Parker.

"The Bazaar"—James M. H. Bell. "Barth Mearns of Dundee"—Paul Ayer.

"The Pharaohs"—D. Gray, T. O. Sanders and D. M. Watson.

"The Fight of the Paso del Mar"—J. A. Sullivan.

"Independence Bell"—R. E. Belcher. "Earnestness"—W. S. Sullivan.

"The Battle of the Clouds"—J. H. Bell. "The Pharaohs"—H. S. Dowling.

"The Will"—A Dialogue—J. L. Talbert, J. D. Brown, R. E. Burris and Fred. Sadler.

"Commerce"—J. H. Coker. "The Christian, the Maiden and the Lion"—W. G. Watson.

"The Boy and the Girl"—S. B. Hair. "All quiet along the Potomac"—J. D. Lowrance.

"True Nobility"—B. W. Drummond. "Robin Roughhead"—A Dialogue—Charles Stone, Benj. S. Patrick, and others.

Each one of the Cadets acquitted himself well, and received numerous beautiful bouquets from the ladies. On Sunday morning, at 11 o'clock, the Commencement Sermon was preached in the Baptist Church by Rev. Lucius Cuthbert, of Aiken, S. C. His text was: "And the Angel of the Lord appeared unto him, and said unto him, the Lord is with thee, thou mighty man of valor." Judges 6: 12. Gideon, of whom the text speaks, was a man of the same name as the one of the largest and most successful Institutes ever held in the State, and none of our teachers can afford to miss it. In the selection of the Faculty, great care has been taken to secure the best and most practical lecturers. Railroad rates have been reduced to four cents per mile for ten days, to July 10th, inclusive, to all persons going to depot agents. Board can be had at 50 cents per day in private families. Our School Commissioner is very much interested in the Institute, and will give any information in reference to it.

The Greenville Enterprise and Mountain Lumber, of last week, says: "J. G. Clinkscales, the present School Commissioner of Anderson County, has published a card in the Intelligence stating that he will not be at the coming election, and that he has determined to go to the State to be one of the largest and most successful Institutes ever held in the State, and none of our teachers can afford to miss it. Our School Commissioner is very much interested in the Institute, and will give any information in reference to it.

The Greenville Enterprise and Mountain Lumber, of last week, says: "J. G. Clinkscales, the present School Commissioner of Anderson County, has published a card in the Intelligence stating that he will not be at the coming election, and that he has determined to go to the State to be one of the largest and most successful Institutes ever held in the State, and none of our teachers can afford to miss it. In the selection of the Faculty, great care has been taken to secure the best and most practical lecturers. Railroad rates have been reduced to four cents per mile for ten days, to July 10th, inclusive, to all persons going to depot agents. Board can be had at 50 cents per day in private families. Our School Commissioner is very much interested in the Institute, and will give any information in reference to it.
