God speed the day when our whole country shall be filled with them.

The pic nic at Maret's Spring on Saturday was a pleasant occasion, and was highly enjoyed by several hundred people. The young people, the old folks and the little ones came hither bent upon making the occasion an enjoyable one; and in this their anticipations were fully realized. In the forenoon beautiful Sunbetter. Also, Mr. Thomas Bewlan has been unable to attend to the duties of his farm for some time. We do not apprehend anything serious in any of the above cases. Something happened last Sabbath after-noon at Eureka that has never occurred since our Sunday School was organized— there was no Sunday School exercises. The Superintendent himself was absent. This is the first time he has failed in three years. What was the matter? Well, just at the time for all to begin to dress and start it began to rain, and continued to rain until it was too late. So it was not for the want of interest or punctuality on his part, but was owing to a providential arrangement for which we all feel thankful to the Giver of all good. Everybody feels cheerful this morning. Our growing crops present an unusual luxuriance at this time. Of course everybody knows that there is more fertilizing power in rain than in anything else speeches, after which the crowd dispersed, and with seeming reluctance, turned their faces homeward.
