Mr. W. Ira Drennan died at his residence in this city last Monday night, at 10-o'clock, aged about 35 years. Mr. Drennan had been in feeble health for a long time, but was able to attend to business until about a month ago, when he took his bed. After being confined to his bed for about two weeks, he recovered sufficiently to go to his place of business, but a few days ago he was again stricken down, and gradually grew worse until death relieved him of his sufferings. Mr. Drennan has been engaged in the saloon business for a number of years, and was a quiet, unobtrusive citizen. He leaves a wife and two children, besides a host of relatives to mourn his death. His re-mains were interred in the Presbyterian on conducting the funeral services.

Quite a number of our young people spent a most pleasant evening at the resi dence of Mrs. C. D. Bewley on Wednesday wening of last week. The occasion was evening of last week. The occasion was termed a "Fortune sociable." The beau-tiful yard was illuminated with Chinese lanterns, and in the back yard was a small tent in which was found the "Forsmall tent in vincin was not the time-Teller," impersonated by Miss Nellie Bewley. She was assisted by Messrs. Ben Daniels and Sam Trowbridge, who played an accompaniment on their guitars while the charming "Fortune-Teller" would warble a sweet song, (composed aspecially for the occasion by her sister, Miss Luta Bewley) and tell the fortunes of the gay young couples. About 11 o'clock refreshments were served, and shortly after 12 m, the merry participants retired, feeling that they had never spent a more delightful evening. Mrs. Bewley and her three charming daughters were very attentive to their guests, who will

The Reunion of the soldiers of the Anderson County Survivors' Association at Keys' Spring on last Saturday was quite ant affair. A large crowd atter and all seemed to enjoy the occasion. Gen. Sam'l McGowan, on account of sickness, could not attend, which was of course a disappointment to the old soldiers and to the people generally, for he is quite a favorite in Anderson County. His son, W. C. McGowan, Esq., who is a candidate for Solicitor, was on hand, and ntertained the audience with a speech on "The Old and New South." R. A. Child, Esq., of Pickens, who is also a candidate for the same office, made one of his most happy efforts in a speech on the Confed-erate Soldier. After the speaking came the dinner, which was a bountiful one. Scattered in groups all over the beautiful grounds could be seen the crowd, and en-joyment seemed to be the order of the day. Of course, the candidates had a good time, and shook many a hand. The day for its pleasant incidents will long be re-

Another happy home of Anderson has been made sad by the Angel of Death. Last Sunday morning at 2 o'clock Miss Annie Webb, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. The Sunday School class of which the deceased was a member, composed of the deceased was a member, composed of about twenty little girls, escorted the re-mains to the church, and before the funeral Services began sang several appropriate Sunday School hymns. She was a faith-ful Sunday School scholar, and her classmates will long cherish her memory.

Death is peculiarly sad under all circum stances, but when it stalks into a happy home and strikes down a member of the home and strikes down a memoer of the household suddenly and without a moment's warning, it is doubly sad. This has occurred in Anderson. Last Friday, between 12 and 1 o'clock p. m., Miss Eva Archer, youngest daughter of the late Wm. M. Archer, died suddenly at her wm. M. Fellowship Debating Club

MR. EDITOR: It was my good fortune to attend the public debate given by the Fellowship Debating Club, of Dark Corner Township, last Saturday. The sub-lect of debate was: "Should the females be equally educated with the males."

It was very interesting to see the ability with which this subject was handled. Some of the speakers had not been blessed with an education, but they all had a liberal portion of "mother wit." As I listened to these speeches, and noticed the capital ideas advanced, and arguments made, though not always in accord with the rules of grammar and rhetoric, I could ten by Gray: "Full many a gem of purest ray serene, The dark unfathomed caves of ocean bear Full many a flower is born to blush unseen And waste its sweetness in the desert air.' After the debate was over the judges decided in favor of the affirmative. An elegant dinner was spread and eu-joyed by all, after which speeches were made by Capt. Jas. T. Barnes, Dr. Speer and C. Wardlaw, Esq. There was a large attendance, the house being filled to its ntmost capacity. It was a most enjoyable occasion, and one long to be remembered

The Fellowship Debating Club is doing a good work, and should be encouraged.

Is Consumption Incurable Read the following: Mr. C. H. Morris, Newark, Ark., says: "Was down with Abscess of Lungs, and friends and physi-cians pronounced-me an Incurable Con-sumptive. Began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, am now on my third bottle, and able to oversee the work on my farm. It is the finest medi-cine ever made." Jesse Middlewart, Decatur, Ohio, says:

"Had it not been for Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption I would have died of Lung Troubles. Was given up by doctors. Am now in best of health." Try it. Samples bottles free at Hill Bros. Drug

I had been troubled all Winter with cold and pain in the chest and got no relief from remedies reccommended by Druggists and Physicians. At the same time I was advertising Dr. Bosanko's Cough and Lung Syrup. I had little faith but thought to try it as a last resort, now I believe even more than they tell me of its curative qual-
