Mr. J. G. Cunningham has a fine Brahma hen that laid three eggs last Tuesday. He had two hens—an old one and a young one—confined in a certain place on his premises. Early in the morning he visited the nest, and took out all of the eggs except one. Late in the afternoon he again visited the nest, and, to his astonishment, found five eggs in it. One of the fresh eggs was a small one, showing that it had eggs was a small one, showing that it had been laid by the young hen, but the other three were all the same size. When Mr. Cunningham came over to town and told of the remarkable occurrence, his friends were of the opinion that he was trying to play an April-fool, but he vouches for the truth of the story, and says his main reason fordeing so is that there was no other hen in the place, and that none could have gotten in there.

Last Monday was "All-Fool's-Day," and as usual many jokes were played on the unsuspecting. Several young men were going all over the business part of the city looking for various persons whom they and been told were anxious to see them. At an early hour the report was started that President Harrison had been assassithat President Harrison had been assassinated, and many expressions of regret could be heard from those who believed the report. But the best joke of the day happened Monday night at a certain boarding-house in the city. At this house there is a certain young man boarding who is very afraid of fire, and when an alarm is given he gets very much excited. Several of his companions, who room next door to him having seen his actions when the free of his companions, who room next door to him, having seen his actions when the fire alarm is sounded, determined to perpetrate a joke on. him. Accordingly they posted the aforesaid young man's roommate, who agreed to assist in carrying cut the joke. In the meantime the young man the posted that something was going to suspected that something was going to happen, but kept it to himself. The young men all retired to bed about their usual hour, and when it was thought that usual hour, and when it was thought that most of the boarders were asleep, two certain young men arose from their bed, and, saturating a paper with kerosene oil, went out into the hall, just opposite the aforesaid young man's room, where they lighted the paper. They at once threw open their friend's door and began crying "fire! fire!" The young man arose imnediately from his bed, and in his usual excited way inquired where the fire was excited way, inquired where the fire was.
Upon being told that it was in an adjoining from he grabbed a bucket of water and started for the door, but instead of rushing out of the room, he dashed the contents of the bucket all over his two friends who had attempted to play the joke on him, and, as he did so, burst into a big laugh. His friends, realizing that they had got the worst of the April-fool quietly retired to their rooms, where they lost no time in exchanging their wet "Mother Hubbards" for the statement of th for dryer ones. Now when you mention April-fool to Judge Cox and Jim Dugan, they utter rather a dry laugh, but Ab. Or for a cheaper Dress we offer a large lot of 6-4 Fancy Beige Mixtures at 20c. A full line of colors in Henriettas at 25c. The celebrated Lorraine Henriettas, (every fibre wool,) in all the latest shades, at 50c. A drive in Silk Mohairs, staple and evening shades, at 20c. Or, if it is a Wash Dress you require, then we will show you an unusually fine line to select from, consisting in part of French, Pers a and American Sateens at 10, 121, 15, 20, 25 and 30 cents. Zepher Clothes (high novelties) at 25c. Scotch Fancus (new and pretty) at 20c. Novelty Plaids (very attractive) at 121c. Ginghams (standard qualities) at 8 tc. Thistle Lawns 12 yards to the dollar. Figured Challies (big value) at 8 1-3. WHITE GOODS—words fail us—examine them.

DRESS TRIMMINGS.—The styles and patterns for this season are almost endless. We have endeavored to secure the most desirable, and the display on our counters is evidence that we have succeeded. Our assortment of Lace and Embroidery is immense. Black all Silk Flouncings at $1.25 to $1.75. A special drive in Colored Embroideries

CLOTHING .- Owing to our success in this department last season, we have more than doubled our Stock, and offer you most attractive patterns and values, as low as they can be bought MILLINERY.—Over six hundred shapes to select from, with all the latest and choicest Novelties in Ribbons, Flowers, Feathers, Ornaments, etc., etc. We again have Miss IDA PERCIVAL in this department. Her popularity as an artist needs no comment at our hands, but when it is known that for the last two months she has been making a special study of the imported Parisian Pattern Hats, we need expect some marvels of beauty from this department. MRS. CUMMINGS is with us, and takes great pleasure in showing the many attractive and desirable Dress Materials, explaining the beauties and values of the different Trimmings; and don't forget that she still CUTS and FITS in the Store. So you can get your Dress, Hats, Shoes, and everything you need in the same building, and Mrs. C. can give you the best fit you ever had.

buys from reliable growers, and has fresh Seed We have already made our second order this season, and are in the market to stay and see it out.

We handle Landreth's Seed exclusively, get the best prices and discounts, and can compete with anybody—even Landreth himself. This is big taik, but we mean business, and if you don't believe it try us and him, and we save you the freight. We invite men who peddle Seed through the country to hring their quotations to us, and we guarantee to duplicate any prices they may have from any reliable house anywhere, and we save them the freight. This proposition applies also to merchants throughout the County. We handle none but freth Seed, with the date printed on each package, and we mean business. We buy as cheep as anybody, we are satisfied with as little profit as anybody, and will sell as cheep as anybody. So don't fall to see or communicate with us, and we think we can save you money. Our place is McCully's Corner.
