CRIMES AND CASUALTIES.

LONDON, March 1.—A dispatch states that the British steamer, Quetta, which sailed from Coolatun, Queensland, February 27th, for London, has been lost at sea.

KANSAS CITY, March 1.—A special to the Times from Lamar, Mo., says: During an entertainment, which was held at Shaw's school, two miles west of here last night, a mob became engaged in a quarrel. Mrs. Henry Short, who was present, witnessed it, and during its progress she fainted and died.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., March 1.—A special from Tallapoosa, Ala., says: An account of a storm which passed over the county. It made a path about one hundred yards wide and destruction marks its entire course.

COLUMBIA, February 28.—Mr. George M. Poor, of Stoneham, Mass., one of the owners of a shoe factory in that State, visited the Department of Agriculture today to say that he was seeking a location for his factory, which the pulp company had determined to remove to the South.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., February 28.—To-night an unknown negro bought some bananas in a fruit store on Hay street. He ate one and threw the peel on the floor.

MERIDIAN, KANSAS, March 2.—"I'm a slick un!" Telegraph Operator Taylor heard these words addressed to him by a stranger last night while he was receiving a message from the State of Texas.

WASHINGTON, D. C., February 28.—To-day the Congress passed a bill through the lead by Charles Kincaid, correspondent of the Louisville Times. Both men are Kentuckians and the trouble was caused by the ex-Congressman pulling the correspondent's nose for publishing certain statements in regard to the shooting occurred just outside of the Capitol near the southeastern entrance to the building.

Mr. George E. Watson, of Banack City, Montana, whose request to the department of agriculture for a specimen of okra fibre was responded to by the sending of a sample prepared by Mr. Hill, of the Edgemoor station.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Feb. 28.—At three minutes before one o'clock this afternoon Richard R. Hayes was hanging in the jail yard in this city. The hanging was attended with the ordinary circumstances, and aside from the fearful atrocity of the crime the hanging would have been in all respects commonplace.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—The largest lobby that has infested the capital in years, with the exception of the world's largest lobby in New York, is here now in the passage of the compound lard bill.

On the other hand the Southern Representatives are fighting the bill with all the force of their numbers, and are less in the minority. Mr. Morgan, of Mississippi, yesterday told the committee that the passage of the bill would cause a loss of $1 per bale to the southern farmer on the cotton crop.

The French newspapers declare that the dance as a social joy is doomed, going out of fashion at the command of the women who lead Parisian society.

LOOKED FOR THE DEVIL AND FOUND A COON. TEXARKANA, ARK., February 24.—A colored family living in Swampoodle last week were disturbed one night by a noise in and around their house and in the lot. The family had about concluded that the devil had taken up his abode in the house.

LOOK OUT FOR A NEW KIND OF FLEA THAT IS NOT OFFICE. Some clever fleas that are not office fleas have been discovered that the fruit of the wild orange that grows there has the aroma of the coffee berry.
