Ashby, of Deans Brothers, doing business at the corner of Main and Coffin streets, was struck with paralysis. Mr. Deans had been in his usual health, and had been in the store attending to his right side, when suddenly he became paralyzed and his speech arrested. A carriage was called and he was carried to his home on Washington Street, where he remains in a critical state, although his condition was not favorable Tuesday morning. Mr. Deans is a native of Anderson County, and is well known in the vicinity of Williamston, where he has spent the greater part of his life.

The Anderson Ice Factory is now in operation and turning out pure distilled ice every day. Orders from neighboring towns will receive prompt attention. Try the factory one time and you will be pleased with the ice. The City Council has elected Mr. Joseph R. Pant to fill the vacancy on the police commission. Mr. Pant is a native of Florida, was chief of the force, and made a most excellent officer. The Council has also elected a second police officer, and will give satisfaction to every purchaser. Mr. Means is determined not to be undersold, and he will give his pleasure in so doing. He has a large stock of goods, and he has his prices before making his purchases elsewhere. His courteous salesmen will take pleasure in showing their goods and quoting prices. Read his new advertisement carefully. Last Sunday afternoon about 5 o'clock George Waldrop was drowned in Mr. J. C. Keys' fish pond, two miles west of the city. A young man named McCully was in a boat enjoying a row over the pond, when the boat, which was an old one, was overturned, and the contents of the moment it upset. Both men went under the water, and when McCully was rescued, he was found to have a hold of it and managed to get on top of it. Waldrop arose, but sank again immediately, and neither of them could swim. Near happened to be a negro man, who went to McCully's rescue, and with a rope pulled him to the shore. Corner Vance was soon brought to the shore, but the extensive wound he had received had the remains carried to the home of the deceased near Monday morning the inquest was held and the verdict of the jury was that Waldrop came to his death by accidental drowning through carelessness. Waldrop was about 23 years of age, and leaves a wife to mourn his death. His remains were interred at New Prospect Church Monday afternoon. The City of Anderson. Under the above caption, Editor Wallace, of the Newberry Observer, thus speaks of Anderson: "Anderson is a lovely place; favored by nature and blessed with a progressive citizenry. The stores and residences and public buildings are beautiful, refined, and business prosperity. For some years past Anderson has gone forward with rapid strides. The County has had two or three dry years and short crops. The growth of business has been very rapid, and the population has increased. Already she has received over 20,000 bales of cotton since the late of September. The cotton crop is five or six hundred over the previous year. Anderson is just completing a 10,000 spindle cotton mill and has the need of a mill to run it. A joint stock company has completed a contract with Roddy & Whitner for water works and electric lights, and the work has begun. The most notable thing at Anderson is the new building at the 'Club House.' It is a splendid structure, handsomely furnished and is conducted in elegant style, with all modern improvements. It cost about $50,000, and is owned by a joint stock company composed of citizens of Anderson. We are indebted to Mr. Langston, of the Intelligencer, for courtesies shown us while in his charming city Friday last. "The Magic Wand of Progress." Anderson is not only considered to be full abreast in the march of progress by us, but others see our development in the same light that is viewed by our own citizens. Capt. E. P. McKissick, the travelling representative of the New and Old Times, in an article in the April 14th issue of the Intelligencer, says: "Anderson is the South where capital can find the best and surest return." Capt. McKissick further says: "It matters not how often a traveller may visit this progressive city, nor how often he may glance at the old mill and Greenville Railroad, in passing from car to car when the train is in motion, but between Anderson and Greenville, there are new indications of growth and prosperity are found, and it has become an adage here that the 'magic wand' of progress is at work in this place and this County." The New and Old Times editorially speaks of Anderson as having "a very bright and inspiring future." It also mentions some of the leading enterprises of the city, and concludes by saying: "Add to these enterprises a brand and new modern hotel, improved railroad facilities, and a growing trade, and it is apparent that the people of Anderson are full of business and are working in a business way to develop the resources around them, and to make of the old and pleasant town an attractive and prosperous city. A fine climate and natural advantages are very well in their way, but a little factory smoke improves a climate wonderfully, and a few artificial advantages, with a fair working capital and under intelligent management, will bring natural advantages out of sight in every race. Anderson is to be congratulated on having learned and applied this lesson so well."

Mr. A. G. Means has used his usual good judgment in buying his Spring and summer stock of clothing and goods. His stock is well selected, and his prices are now a great reason with the male sex. In his establishment you will find only the best styles and fashionable goods of the season, and he can fit any size man, youth or boy. He has a large stock of clothing, and he has his prices before making his purchases elsewhere. His courteous salesmen will take pleasure in showing their goods and quoting prices. Mr. Howard Thomas, of Dalton, Ga., died at his home at Dalton on the 14th inst. He was a resident of this neighborhood for a number of years, and his friends will be sorry to learn of his death. Cotton planting is progressing very well. We will about wind up this week, if the weather is good. We had a considerable amount of rain last week, some very heavy rain, and accompanied with a good deal of wind. The stand of corn, from what we can learn, is not good. A great deal of corn has been planted, and it is now in the ground. The farmer presents a lively appearance now. Vegetation has advanced wonderfully for the last few days. The song of the whippoorwill and the croaking of the frog remind us that Spring is here; that we are marching on, and that ere we realize, '1890 will be in the past. The fruit is not all killed yet. We will have some peaches, if no disaster befalls them. The prospect for a good apple crop is flattering; also cherries, blackberries, etc. Your Flat Rock correspondent mentions Mr. Chamberlain as being the proudest walking man he has ever seen. Mr. Chamberlain has a new neighbor that can walk or ride either with him, in the person of Mr. W. H. Shaw, who has seven, and all girls. Nature generally favors the best of the best. BURKE. Farmers' Convention. A meeting of the Farmers' Convention will be held in the Court House on May, the 2nd prox., at 10 o'clock a. m. Matters of importance will be considered, and it is hoped Farmers on every section of the County will be present. D. K. Norris, County President. Hickory Bluffs, S. C., April 25, 1890. Mass Meeting. All farmers, laborers and others who are in sympathy with the efforts now being made to better the financial condition of the masses, are invited to meet in the Court House at Anderson Friday, 2nd day of May, at 10 o'clock a. m. The object of the meeting is to discuss the condition of the masses, and to see what can be done to better their condition. We hope that every farmer will attend. W. A. NEAL, Secy. W. A. NEAL, Secy. A Scrap of Paper Saves Her Life. It was just an ordinary scrap of wrapping paper, but it saved her life. She was in the last stages of consumption, told by physicians that she was incurable and would live but a short time. A friend of hers, who had a scrap of paper, gave it to her. She wrapped it up and took it home. She found it was a scrap of paper from a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery. She took it and was cured. She is now strong, healthy, rosy, plump, weighing 140 pounds. For fuller particulars send stamp to W. R. Cole, Druggist, Fort Smith, Ark. Trial bottles of this wonderful discovery free at Hill Bros. Make particular note of Prices, come and see the Goods, compare us with all the others. This is just exactly what we want you to do. We will have the crowd, because we have the Bargains. Come where YOU CAN GET THE MOST FOR YOUR MONEY. New Dress Goods. WE might give you fifty reasons why you should buy your Dress Goods at JONES, SEYBT & CO'S. We'll only give one, however, and that is because they have the biggest stock ever seen in our house at one time before. No matter what sort you want it is there, and for prices we don't have to tell you they are by far the lowest in Anderson. Who else sells those beautiful New Figured India Mulls, 30 inches wide, at 16c, that are really worth 25c? We say, who else sells the newest double width, all wool filling Henriettes at 24c, all the Spring colors? Regular retail price is 90c, and dozens of other fabrics just as cheap. Large arrivals of New Black Goods will be placed on sale this week. We are acknowledged the leaders in this line of Goods. Be sure and see our large assortment before buying. WHITE GOODS. In all the newest things in the market. See our Hemstitched Lawns at only 35c. See our beautiful Tuck Flouncings at unheard of low prices. Embroidered Flouncings at all prices. Look at the lovely Brocade Effects. They are simply beautiful, and at only 35c per yard. We would like to speak of all the different kinds, but space won't allow us, so come and look at our stock. We can give you WHITE Lawns and Check Mulls at from 5 to 40c. BLACK LACE NET. Have you seen the Russian Net? If not, come and look at it--we can give it to you in a Silk at $1.00 per yard in the yard and in the Lace Net, which is one of the newest things out in Black Lace. We have that, too, at the lowest prices in Anderson. Examine the stock and be convinced. DRESS TRIMMINGS. We have all the new VanDyke Prints by the yard and in Sets, which we bought cheap and which we are selling cheap. Don't buy any of your Dress Trimmings until you see ours, as we can give you anything you want, either in Silks or whatever you may decide on. In this department we show the handsomest Line of Lace Curtains at 2 1/2 yards long at 28c per pair; 3 yards long at only $1.75 per pair; 3 yards long at only $1.50 to $2.50 per pair; 3 1/2 yards long at only $1.00, $2.00, $2.50 and $3.00 per pair; 3 1/2 yards, the handsomest Net Laces--at only $4.00, $4.50 and $5.00 per pair. Children's at any price. See our line of Gents' and Ladies' Lawn Tennis Shoes--have them at all prices. Our Shoe stock is complete in every detail. MILLINERY. As to this line of Goods, why, of course, we can give you the largest, and decidedly the best selected stock in the city, and we might say in the State, as our MISS PERCYAL, lives in the North, and in the market for months, will tell you there are only two, and they are the best of the kind. We have that, too, at the lowest prices in Anderson. Examine the stock and be convinced. DRESS MAKING. Our many lady friends have insisted that we go into the Mantua Making business, and we have at last decided to do so, and with MRS. C. C. CUMMINGS at the head of it, with a full force of competent ladies to assist her, we are confident you will be well pleased with the style in which they make up a Dress, and especially with the fit. Try them once and be convinced. JONES, SEYBT & CO. OUR FIRST GUN FOR 1890!! EXTRAORDINARY, UNEQUALLED, UNHEARD OF. INAUGURATED FOR THE SPRING SEASON. Our Stock is much Larger, better Selected, and more complete in every Department than ever Before. OUR FACILITIES for selling Goods Cheaper are more favorable than heretofore, and we are in better position to give our customers the full benefit of our many advantages in buying goods. We have secured the services of a RESIDENT BUYER in New York--one who is well posted on values, and who will be constantly on the look-out for Bargains, so as to be able to quote lower figures than any other house. It is not by favor, but by merit, that we expect to gain your patronage, fully realizing that in these days of severe competition-- Low Prices and Fair Dealings Are the only means by which the Merchant of today can succeed.
