MURDEROUS LYNCHING. There has never been a lynching in South Carolina more fraught with crime and lawlessness than the lynching of Will Leapheart in Lexington last Sunday morning. Every man who took part in it has the stain of murder on his soul, and has assisted in placing one of the blackest spots on the good name of our State that could possibly have been placed there. Will Leapheart was under sentence of death, for a crime against a this place. young lady, in jall safely caged, and only waiting the time set for his execution, when he was murdered. No one should be so foul as to desire the punishment of an innocent citizen, and, as long as there debate between Col. Youmans and Capt. Tilman took place, and which resulted in the secession of the Tillman men from the meating. Governor Richardson granted the respite in order to give time for the clearing away of the doubt raised by the affidavits submitted. The Tillman meeting at Ridgeway, S. C, was a lively one. Capt. Tillman has branded the Legislators of South Carolins as "Perjured." This is a very serious charge, and will, of course, make him friends (?) He is to be here next Saturday. It is not yet known who will meet him here, but he will probably have opposition. If such be the case we trust our citizens will give both sides a respect-

The Democratic party has sustained another loss in the death of U. S. Senator James B. Beck, of Kentucky, which took place last Saturday afternoon in the Baltimore and Potomac Railroad Station at Washington. He had just arrived on the train, and while passing through the waiting room fell down dead. Senator Beck was one of our ablest statesmen He was thoroughly posted on all the leading issues of the day, and was a power in the Democratic ranks. By his death a vacancy is made in the delegation from Kentucky. We can think of no better man to fill that vacancy than the Hon. Henry Watterson. He is able, and principles. Ex-Speaker Carlisle is also suggested. He is a good man and would fill well the vacancy. A recent editorial in the Atlanta Constitution has a world of truth in it. In speaking of the marvelous growth of the city it is said that it was due to the generous outlay, the indomitable enterprise of the citizens and general unanimity with which they go down into their pockets when money is needed to improve and beautify the city. It truly says that "the model citizen is the man of public spirit-the man who works and gives. He is the builder of our cities, and the cause of our prosperity. He will be remembered by a grateful people, when his neighbor who lived for self alone is forgotten." And it makes the following pertinent suggestion: "With every improvement, whether for utility or beauty, the city has taken a leap forward, adding new railroads, more territory for her trade, flourishing suburbs, prosperous industries, an influx of population, more capital, and an upward jump in the value of our property. Every dollar spent in pushing the city forward, quickly returns with a hundred per cent. interest. THE TILLMAN CAMPAIGN.

in Interesting Joint Debate at Ridgeway. RIDGEWAY, May 3.—The opening meeting of the Tillman campaign was held here to day. Last night it was the common talk that there would be a gathering of from 1,500 to 2,000 people. As a fact, however, only about 300 appeared at the meeting to-day. Subsequent proceedings showed that of the 300 about 100 were opposed to the Tillman political

Three speeches were made, the first by Capt. Tillman, the second by Col. You-mans, of Barnwell, and the third by Major Woodward, of Winusboro. Capt. Tillman made the strongest speech he has ever delivered, and his wo hundred men stuck to him without reserve the whole day. The third hun-

It came about this way : Col. Youmans was speaking. He charged Tillman with inconsistency in his position now and have justice meted out to them. Each some years ago when he declared he was man should be ashamed of his bloody not a candidate; was working solely for the people. Col Youmans also made a great deal of fun of Tillman's picture of the cat watching the rat, and in general showed that the Tillman party had got what they wanted from the Legislature, Hatch fund, land scrip and all. Col. Youmans said that if Tillman were nomnated he, Youmans, would support him in the fight and asked Tillman if he who had fallen to the floor and was

Tillman then went on to read the section requiring a reapportionment on the basis of population and stating that the Legislature had not done its duty. Youmans: "The Legislature passed an Act requiring such an enumeration to be made and I defy Capt. Tillman to say that such provision was not made."

Tillman : "I know the census was not taken. What was the use of passing an Act without giving the money for the work?"

Youmans: "Oh! that is not the question. You charge the legislators with being perjurers. You don't deny that they passed such an Act?"

Tillman: "Produce the Act." Youmans: "Oh, no; you made the indictment; you must sustain it or admit consciencious, and clings to the right that the accusation is false." At this point in the proceedings the meeting was wild with excitement. It was beyond the control of any human agency. Tillman got up pale and excited. He evidently lesired to talk but there was no chance. Eventually Col. Woodward gotup on the bend of the table and shouted: "Three cheers for straightout Democracy!" This started pandemonium again, and besides it was raining torrents. When partial silence was restored Col. Youmans got back on the stand and said:

"Gentlemen, Capt. Tillman has indicted the State as a perjurer and the legis-lators as perjurers. This is a big indictment, and I ask him to prove it." [Great Youmans: "Well, I have forgotten that in a campaign you called me a renegade and a traitor. It was you who charged me first with being a perjurer and you can't prove the indictment." Tillman then turned his back on the speaker and left the depot, being follow-ed out by about the 200 friends.

Outside on the platform he called his friends together and sent for the Reporter of the Sunday News. Capt Tillman was about to speak when Mr. Meares, the chairman of the Ridgeway Alliance, got up on the box and said that the meeting was called in the interest of Tillman and that "it was bound to him."

CHARLOTTE, N. C., May 2.—When the Charlotte bound train, on the Air Line road, slowed up at Cowpens yesterday, a young white boy, who had been stealing a ride on the forward end of the postal car, leaped off. He tripped and fell, his head striking on one of the steel rails of the side track. He tumbled over with his feet towards the passenger train, and the whole top of his head was crush-ed in. The unfortunate boy, whose name has not yet been learned, was carried to the depot and a physician summoned, but his case was hopeless. He lingered for several hours, when death came to his relief. He boarded the train at Clifton, in company with another boy. The two got on the forward end of the mail car and rode to Cowpens. As the train was slacking up there, both boys leaped off. One struck on his feet and ran off, but the result of the other boy's eap is already stated. MEMPHIS, April 30 .- A thief named Ackerman was arrested on Monday night on the charge of wife beating. LEXINGTON DEPOT, S. C., May 5. Willie Leapheart, convicted of criminally assaulting Miss Rosa Cannon, was lynched here this morning. The lynching party numbered about one hundred. Some were from the country and some from town. Its members made no effort to conceal their identity and openly acknowledge and discuss the matter on the streets. The bogus detective, Foster, was in the cell with Leapheart when the mob entered. He was shot in the arm and had a narrow escape from death. By desper-ate fighting he freed himself from Leapheart's grasp and got in another cell. The and poured volley after volley in the cell with little effect, Leapheart keeping in a corner at the entrance. Three lamps were brought and he shivered them to pieces with a stick. Five men successively attempted to enter the cell and were cracked over their heads. After several hundred shots had been fired a bullet struck Leapheart in the head, hurling him to the floor. He was then dragged out and sixteen balls from a Winchester were fired into him. The intention was to hang him in Graham's yard, but the mob had to kill him to get him out of the cell. The lynching was caused by a rumor to the effect that Graham and Deputy United States Marshal Miller had obtained a further respite and had given the papers to Sheriff Drafts yesterday and that Leapheart was to be transferred to Columbia. Graham and Miller left here for Columbia this afternoon on foot to ask protection of the Governor. The matter is very coolly discussed here. The situation is marked by a total absence of excitement. The lynchers seem perfectly willing to take the consequences of their act.

In the meetings of the Farmers' Convention and County Alliance on last Friday, the quiet determination of the Farmers was very evident, to go into the campaign this summer and see that only men who will carry out their wishes, as expressed in the State and National platforms, will be elected to the State and National Legislatures.

The called meeting of the County Alliance, which was held on Friday, 2nd inst., was very largely attended. The delegates present seemed to take a deep interest in the proceedings. The meeting was called to consider the St. Louis platform, which was unanimously adopted. The Alliance also ratified a Constitution forming an organization in this Congressional district, composed of delegates from each county, to protect the interests of the farmers in the coming Congressional campaign. We think it was the right move, as we can accomplish nothing without unity of action.

Col. W. E. Walters, County Crop Statistician. Sub-Alliances that have not done so, should appoint a statistician immediately, and apply to Col. Walters for blanks, as the reports should have been made 1st May. The object is to provide ourselves with better information concerning growing crops than is elsewhere attainable, and we can do it if every sub-Alliance will respond. The information is to be used inside of the Alliance only, to prevent the speculators from getting an advantage over us, as their reports are purely guess work. As we understand it here will be three reports made: 1st May, nereage; 1st August, condition; 1st November, result. Look after it, brethren, and make it as accurate as possible.

The time has been in South Carolina when public men went before the people and with fair argument, force of character and sound reasoning, created a healthy public sentiment. If I mistake not the sign of the times, that time is now at hand again.

In how many of the influential daily papers of the State can we get all sides of a question presented to the public. The World and the Groenville News are the only ones I know.

The other day Col. Lawrence W. You-

Youmans had to send it to the World in order to get the facts of the case before the people. That same great paper which wanted Dan Chamberlain for Governor in '76, and which thought our own Butler and Gary were little better than "Bushwhackers, is now passing as an educator of public opinion in South Carolina. God

Tillman, the champion of the people, and bold opponent of all cliques and rings, are more bitter and dishonorable than those which in '76 it showered upon Butler and Gary. It also treats lightly and laughingly a grave breach of discipline, and a vulgar demonstration of college students toward a respectable Convention of gentlemen, who had assembled in Columbia to exercise the constitutional rights of freemen and Carolinians. It was all right, and really nothing in the estimation of the News and Courier, for students of the South Carolina University to act like roughs and blackguards toward men who wonderful in the history of the evange. had passed it with practical unanimity, ist's work.
