The Chairman then declared the Convention ready for business.
On motion, Messrs. J. W. Bowden and J. P. Smith were elected temporary Secretaries.

On motion, Messrs. W. A. Neal, J. D. McElroy and W. T. Dean were appointed a committee on credentials.
The roll of Clubs was called and the names of the delegates enrolled. There were no contesting delegations, and every Club in the County was represented by its full quota of delegates, there being 243 delegates present.

On motion of W. A. Neal, the recommendations of the County Executive Committee were taken up and acted upon separately. The second recommendation caused a little debate, several delegates expressing themselves as opposed to it, but all of the recommendations were adopted, and the resolution of the Executive Comtee was received as information.

Dr. M. C. Parker stated that this Conven-

As a looker-on we could see that the true South Carolina spirit pervaded the crowd. There were Nullification of '32, Segession of '60, and intimidation of the negro of '76. Though, intimidation of the negro of 76. Though, in some respects this is a French Revolution, and some of the leaders are as unscrupulous as Robespierre. Let us hope it will finally work out good for all.

We had a hard rain last Wednesday, the oth. It lasted only a few minutes, but it fell fast while it was at it. It was accompanied by a strong wind, uprooting a goodly number of trees. The rain was much needed. Our crops in this section look as fine as we could expect. They surpass the average. Those of us who are in the district where the rain fell, are not suffering for rain, although we would like to have
