Auderson Intelligencer PUBLISHED BVERY THURSDAY. J. F. OLINKSCALES, EDITORS AND C. LANGSTON, PROPRIETO PROPRIETOR THURSDAY, AUG. 21, 1890. TERMS: $1.50. ONEYRAR SIX MONTHE ... 750.

A call for Republican State Convention 1890, has been issued from the rooms of tke Republican State Executive Committee, dated Columbia, S. C., August 15th, 1890, to meet at Columbia, S. C., on Wednesday, the 17th day of September next, at 12 m., to elect an Executive Committee for the State, and to transact such other business as may be deemed advi-sable. It is signed by Ellery M. Brayton, Chairman, and by John 'A. Barre, vention.

Secretary.

The State Democratic Convention, which was held in Columbia on Wednesnent as being outside of, beyond the purose for which the convention was called. day, 13th inst., was perhaps the most Leroy F. Youmans, of the same commitremarkable one ever held in South tee, submitted a separate protest. Carolina, and this week we publish as full It looked for a time as if there would be peace. Major Buist made a conciliaan account of the proceedings as our space will permit. The condition of af-fairs just now is most deplorable. It had been hoped that this Convention would new constitution on the table until the do something to heal the breach in the September Convention. party, and make us once more a united Democracy. But not so. The breach is to 53. The motion to adopt the Constitution was put, but before the vote was taken the Richland, Charleston, Georgewidened, and from now until after the September Convention it will take careful town, Beaufort and Sumter delegates work to prevent a division of the party. withdrew, their departure being-marked by sarcastic applause from the Tillman-Every true Democrat must regret the danger that menaces us, and earnestly The convention at 5 o'clock went into hope that some way may be found out of the nomination of a new State Executive Committee, resulting as follows : the difficulty. The surest way of promot-First Congressional District, H. A. Metze, O. R. Lowman. ing harmony is for both factions to do nothing that is not fair and honorable. Second, D. C. Jordan, G. D. Bellin-A division of the Democracy of South er. Third, W. A. Neal, A. W. Jones. Fourth, J. L. M. Irby, O. W. Buchan-Carolina means the downfall of white supremacy, and we know there is no true Democrat who desires to see that.' The Fifth, W. C. McCreight, Ira B. Jones. Sixth, T. E. Early, M. C. Gallichat. Seventh, E. A. Williams, D. E. Keels. First Judicial District, T. W. Stauland.

INTELLIGENCEE does not want to see any division in the ranks of the Democracy, and will use every effort possible to prevent it. The September Convention is just three weeks off, and during that time finite's will be said and done by both factions, but for the sake of our beloved old State and the perpetustion of a white man's government, let each side act with discretion and in a very conservative manner.

LOOKS LIKE A SPLIT.

Anti-Tillman Delegates Secede and Organ ize Separately. From the Greenville News. COLUMBIA, S. C., Aug. 4.-"The primary for a split" was prophetic. The split ma-terialized early this morning when the antis left the convention in a body. The convention remained in session until 5.26 this morning, despite frequent efforts on the part of the antis to take a recers until to-day.

When the antis withdrew they proceeded to Agricultural Hall and organized with G. L. Buist chairman and E. J. Brennen secretary, Messrs, A. C. Has-kell, J. Barnwell, J. D. Blanding, Walter sine die.

Adopted.

Second, A. M. Youmans.

Sixth, G. W. Gage. Seventh, R. A. Lancaster.

man of the Executive Committee.

The following were introduced :

Eighth, H. B. Buist. Mr. J. L. M. Irby was elected Chair-

Third, L. S. Bigham. Fourth, T. W. Daggett.

Fifth, H. H. Townes.

10th of September.

from among its members a President, one Carolina, have caused to be circulated, through the press of the country, state-ments intended to prejudice the general public as to the relation of the Democrat-ic party to the public debt of the State, and whereas such sinister statements, nized as the clubs from whom delegations growing out of hostile political motives, to the next County Convention shall be are wholly at variance with the purpose of the Democratic party of the State, and vote of any Convention to whom appliif unnoticed would create wrong impres-sions and possibly do harm, and be un-just to the people of South Carolina, be of 5,000 and more, there may be two "Resolved, by the Democratic party in Convention assembled, That the debt of South Carolina, as now recognized, is a public obligation of primary importance, and in the future, as in the past, will continue to have the fostering care of the State government, and should command said Conventions shall declare in accorthe confidence of the investing public." | dance with the provisions of this consti-Messre. Haskell, Redding, Reid and tution. ART. VI. The State Nominating Con-Colcock, the four delegates constituting the minority, objected to this resolution vention for the nomination of Governor, Lientenant Governor and other State the Convention was not the people for officers in 1892 and thereafter, shall be any other purpose than that for which the composed of delegates from each County people voted and delegated them * * * in the numerical proportion to which such County is entitled in both branches Messrs. Smythe, Hazard and Verdier, of the committee on constitution, printed of the General Assembly. Said delegates elsewhere, protested against that docuto be chosen by primary election to be poses specified * * * * would be ments of a technical nature were proposed held on the last Tuesday in August of plain unsurpation of the power of the to the constitution. They were as fair for elected to receive a majority of the votes may be allowed to vote.

to inspection by any member of the party, and the election under this clause shall e held and regulated under the act of the General Assembly of this State approved December 22d, 1888, and any ubsequent acts of the Legislature of this | tion, to take action upon the adoption of State. ART. V.II. The officers of the State

Jonvention shall be a President and Vice President from each Congressional District, two Secretaries and a Treasurer. ART. VIII. The State Executive Committee shall be composed of two mem-bers from each Congressional District, and eight members at large, one of whom shall be from each judicial district, said members to be nominated by the delerates from the congressional and judicial districts respectively, to be elected by the Convention. When elected said Executive Committee shall elect its own officers, shall meet at the call of the chairman or any five members, at such times Executive Committee from South Carolina is to be elected by the State Convention in 1892 and every four years hereafter, and when elected shall be ex-officio a member of the State Execuive Committee. The Executive Committee shall have power, by the vote of a majority of the whole committee, to call "Resolved, That this convention confirm a Convention of the Democratic party of the call made for a State Convention the this State, at such time and place as it may designate, but after calling a Con-vention shall not have power to revoke That those counties which have not yet lready elected delegates to the Nominating Convention called for September 10th, 1890, are hereby ordered to do so under the provisions of the constitution direction of the policy of the party in under the provisions of the constitution heretofore. Resolutions thanking the permanent officers of the Convention, as well as Col. . A. Hoyt, for courtesies in presiding, resolutions or otherwise as the State Convention may from time to time adopt, on motion of Mr. Irby, a resolution we had a shall continue in office for two years was submitted in writing that it is the sense of this Convention that no primary be ordered for State officers this year. electing delegates to National Conven-The Convention at 5:30 a. m. adjourned tion, unless superseded by the action of a State Convention which may meet The confusion was at times fearful. a State Convention which may meet earlier. Said Executive Committee being High and W. J. Verdier were appoint-ed a committee to prepare a statement of their reasons for withdrawing and a con-vention of the advisory committee of the Straightout July conference of 400 were save their lives.

cordance with the decisions of our State House in the city of Columbia on or more Vice Presidents, a Secretary and courts in the analogous case of the pow-Treasurer. The clubs recognized by the ers of a Convention of the people called p. m. All members of the Conference and all others in sympathy with the under an act of the Legislature for a specific purpose. In the celebrated case of McCrady vs. Hunt, decided by the Court of Appeals, whereby invited to attend. Hunt, decided by the Court of Appeals, Judge O'Neale used the following language : "A convention assembling under the constitution is only the people for the purposes for which it assembles, and if All the up country delegations to the they exceed those purposes, their act is yoid unless it is submitted to the people to be affirmed by them. It is true the convention left Columbia yesterday morn-ing. The Greenville and Pickens dele-Legislature cannot limit the Convenations arrived here yesterday afternoon, tion, but if the people elect them for the all jubilant, but looking weary and sleepy from their all night session. The Hon. M. L. Donaldson, one of the purpose of doing a specific act or duty pointed out by the act of the Legislature, be act would define their powers for the delegates from this county, was seen by a people elect in reference to that and News reporter. He said the disorder and people elect in reference to that and excitement in the Greenville County Convention was a mere speck compared nothing else." Judge David Johnson concurred this opinion, and Chancellor Harper, in his opinion uses these words : "Certainly people voted and delegated them * * * To conclude that the people intended to invest the Convention with their author- aldson. "There is no possible excuse for ity for any other purpose than the pur-poses specified * * * * would be ments of a technical nature were proposed each election year, the delegates to be people." the antis as for the Tillmanites. We elected to receive a majority of the votes We stated these views fully and ap would have been perfectly willing to have elected to receive a majority of the votes peaked with all the earnestness in our made no changes or amendments until cast. At which election only white peaked with all the majority, as fellow Democept that negroes who voted for General crats, not to force us into a position had not withdrawn, and we were just ampton in 1876, and have voted the where we would be compelled, in view about to propose to let the constitution Democratic ticket continuously since of the limited authority conferred upon stand when the split came. We were us by our constituents, to refrain from willing to concede that much to avoid a The club rolls of the party shall con-stitute the registry list and shall be open the Convention. Notwithstanding these appeals, usurp ing powers not delegated to them, and in open violation of the law governing the subject, the majority proceeded, under the operation of the previous quesa new constitution for the Democratic party of the State.

We therefore withdrew from the body being unwilling to allow the Democrats whom we represented to be bound by its further action or to be committed to a precedent so dangerous and illegal. J. D. BLANDING,

And others. Conservative action of the New Executive Committee.

From the Columbiu Register.

The Executive Committee organized by the Tiilman convention held a meeting yesterday morning, and authorized Chairmen Irby to instruct the County and places as he or they may appoint. chairman in those Counties which have The member of the National Democratic not already elected delegates to the Sepchairman in those Counties which have tember Convention to do so under the regulations of the constitution heretofore of force. They also suspended the oper-ation of the provisions of their new constitution as to these elections.

Tillman Eavored the Compromise.

circumstances causing my attendance at that time were these: Col. D. Wyatt Aiken was to make a speech at Hunter's Springs in reply to Mr. Russell, and was to make a speech at a pic nic at Deep Creek Grange Hall on the next day. Col. Aiken was to speed the night at wy father's and I had a brief interview with Col. B. R. Tillman before he left for home at six o'clock this morning, and he did not Grange Hall on the next day. Col. Alken was to spend the night at my father's, and I was sent down to Hunter's Springs after him. I arrived after the close of the de-bate, and did not hear any of the speeches, except the one Col. Alken made to those present after the discussion had closed. I was not aware, until this report had start-ed that there was a Greenbeck Club organ. seem at all disturbed by the turn things

the all night session he said : No, sir; I was in my bed at the hotel. but when they told me about the wrangle on the constitution I did go up there and try to get them to let the matter go over tion stronger than ever, and in the new elections will be certain to cary the Fair field, Georgetown and Beaufort delegates. It is all right, and they can't beat me to

ANNUAL STATEMENT Pendleton Female Academy. THE Fall Term of the Pendleton Female Academy will begin Sort 1st 1990 Of the Treasurer of the City of An-Academy will begin Sept. 1st, 1890, under the charge of Miss S. N. Calhoun. The musical department will be presided over by Miss Mary W. Pearson. The suc-cess of these young ladies in their several departments during the last year is a guar-anty to all who may wish to educate their daughters that they can find up before

W. D. JOHNSON, President.

What the Up-Country Delegates Say.

From the Greenville News.

to the events of the Columbia convention.

The convention adjourned as the sun rose yesterday morning. "What caused the splits?" asked the reporter. "One of the most trivial matters in the world," answered Mr. Donald-

Mr. Donaldson said that Col. Haskell led the bolters from the convention. He said that he spoke to several of the most prominent members of the Charleston delegation, telling them that they were doing a "bad thing. They said that they knew it and regretted it, but were forced

MR. EDITOR: It has been reported in some parts of the County that at one time I was

Secretary of a Greenback Club, and "Dem-ocrat," in last week's INTELLIGENCER, repeats the same charge. This report upon me is so baseless and so utterly without foundation that I would pass it by, treat-ing it as a campaign slander, and take no notice of it whatever, were it not that I am satisfied it was intended more as a cut and slur upon the farmers of the County than upon me individually. The policy

Greenback meeting, except once, and the ed, that there was a Greenback Club organ-ized at that time, and if I am correctly in-formed as to the date, it occurred before I became of age. I have been a member of Flat Rock Items.

derson for the Year 1889--1890. DR. To amount on hand Aug. 16, 1889..$ 820 55 S. V. R. R. Bond Tax collected 5,232 19 General Tax collected 2.907 18 Water Tax collected ... 1,727 13 Street Tax collected 606 00 Collected on Tax Executions..... 280 00 Fines collected 1.232 50 . 5.478 75 Liquor Licenses collected. Other Licenses collected ... 952 35

NOTICE is hereby given that applica-tion will be made to the Clerk of Court of Anderson County on Thursday, Miscellaneous receipts 318 00 18th day of September, 1890, for a Charter for Snow Hill Colored Baptist Church. Collected on sanitary account ... 52 95 Borrowed money 1,700 00 R. H. HARRISON, Jr., and others, Aug 21, 1890 7 ...$21,327 19 Total receipts ATTENTION, DOCIORS! CR. By paid Police Salaries8 2.477 62 THE ANDERSON COUNTY MEDI-

Mayor's Salary 200 00 L CAL SOCIETY will meet at Ander-son on Wednesday, September 3d, 1890, at Clerk's Salary 290 00 11 o'clock a.m. W. H. NARDIN, President. RALPH W. RROWN, Sec. and Treas. Pay Roll for Street Hands 2,644 85 Street Department..... 1,037 48 1,446 80 Fire Department..... July 17, 1890 50 For Lighting Streets...... 441 05 Mule Feed 337 41 Office Rent, balance 88-89 50 00 MILITARY INSTITUTE Office Rent for 89-90..... 100 00 Printing and Advertising 213 25 NEXT Session opens September 17. For rates of Tuition, &c., apply to COL. JOHN B. PATRICK, Prisoners and Calaboose... 77 50 Sanitary account 43 14 Cemetery account 7.00 Aug 14, 1890 Past Indebtedness..... 312 72 Permanent Improvement 1,000 00 Miscellaneous accounts... 692 50

Due West Female College NEXT Session begins October 6th. Full NEXT Session begins October 6th. Full corps of thorough and wide-awake Teachers have been engaged. Rooms pleas-ant and comiortable. Boarding department well kept. Send for catalogue at once, and see the advantages. Rates low. MRS. L. M. BONNER, Principal. H. E. BONNER, A. M., Vice Principal, Due West, S. C. Luly 31, 1890 4 8 daughters that they can find no better school for that purpose in the State. J. B. SITTON, Chm'n. Trustees. Aug 21, 1890 7 4

Application for Charter.

PATRICK

ANDERSON, S. C.

ASSETS.

Cash

Two Notes ... 309 00 One Lot purchased 1,000 00$3,930 62 Total ...

Amount of cash on hand for different departments : For Water Works $1,727 13 For S. V. R. R, Bonds 202 19

For General Purposes. 911 30 Total......$2,930 62 I. J. E. Breazeale, City Clerk and Treas-

of the opponents of the farmers, from the beginning to the ending of this campaign, has been to circulate any report to injure, and do anything to cast discredit on the men whom the farmers have chosen to represent and lead them, and the article referred to is in keeping with that applicy. arer, do hereby certify that the above statereferred to is in keeping with that policy, and is published in the last paper, but one, ment is true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief, as shown by my books. J. E. BREAZEALE, before the primary, thereby preventing a reply. Now, I will say that I never was a member of a Greenback Club in my life, therefore could not have been the secretary of one. More than that, I never attended a City Clerk and Treasurer. August 12, 1890-759-1

Borrowed Money and Int. 1,711 65 Rent of Wagon Yard 37 60 Money refunded ... 45 00 S. V. R. R. Bonds..... 4,940 00 Balance on hand Aug, 12, 1890 2,621 62 $21,327 19

July 31, 1890 GREENVILLE .$2,621 62

FEMALE COLLEGE. GREENVILLE, S. C.

The Session of 1890-91 begins Wednesday, September 24.

CORPS of Instructors 15. Registered last Session 229. The College leads in Music and Art. In Music Prof. WADE R. BROWN, a full graduate of the N. E. Conservatory of Music, is the Director of Music

Music. The record for health among the boarders is unrivalled. Send for new Catalogue. A. S. TOWNES, President. 6 4

Aug 14, 1890

W. BROWN & SONS

HURRAH!

GO North August 20 to buy the largest stock of Boots and Shoes ever in Arderson. I will visit all the leading Factories for the best goods for the least money. I have cut my profit on all Shocs so close I will sell only for the Spot Cash. You need not ask for credit, for I am positive I will lend you 50c before I would break my rule and credit you for 25c.

Look Out for my "Tillman" and "Mary Jane" Shoes, Two special brands for the Fall trade.

Don't be taken in by Shoes at Cost until you take a look at mine, and you will be apt to take a pair of mine home with you.

Mr. R. L. CHESHIRE is now w .h me, and will be glad to see all his friends.

Conveyance for Anderson County, in Book PP, page 315. Purchaser to pay for pa-

LAND MORTGAGE CO.,

THE AMERICAN FREEHOLD

BEFORE DECIDING WHERE

- TO -

EDUCATE YOUR DAUGHTERS.

promise on a a new Executive Commit-

Denver, S. C. Why, I will go the September Conven Farmers are quite busy pulling fodder. Mr. J. B. Herron wears a broad smile. Well, it is a girl. The primary election takes place next

From The Augusta Chronicle.

had taken. When I asked him if he had attended till the September convention, and com-ee. There was no cause in the world for the withdrawal of those delegations, but they wanted an excuse to split. What will be the result?

Straightout July conference of 400 were sion all day and are preparing a call for the reassembling of the conference about ten days hence. If the new execative committee, which is declared to be illegally elected, demands the funds from the Hoyt Committee John C. Haskell, as thy member for South Carolina of the National Committee will sue out a writ of injunction to restrain the treasurer from paying over said funds. It is understood the committee of "Straightouts" are to night preparing for a State Convention to meet here shortly to take steps to nominate candidates in opposition to Tillman. It is further sta-ted that if the executive Committee elected by the Convention last night should demand of the old committee its appartenances an injunction restraining the treasurer from delivering same will be Speaker's stand, were yelling out their motions and protests in a chorus, which sued out in the courts.

mingled in one general diapason of noise The account printed in the Greenville News of yesterday of the proceedings of the Democratic State Convention closed and confusion. at 12,05 a.m., at which hour the report of committee on credentials on the Fairfield contested delegat ins was under conside-ration. These reports were three. The majority report favored the seating of the Tillman candidates from Fairfield. One minority report favored the Tillman delegates. Another declared neither delegation legally elected. The committee unanimously reported ngainst the protest against the Berkeley delegation (Tillman) filed by Mr. Weber, of Cha-leston and its report was adopted without division. Dr. Pope moved the adoption of the the former conference. majority report. Colonel Haskell moved to amend that, will be given to the press to morrow. by moving that the delegation with Mr. Douglass's name at the head be seated. W. D. Evans, of Marlboro, moved to amend the smendment by the adoption of the report that recommends the seating of neither delegation, and ordering a re-organization of the party in Fairfield County. R. M. Smith, of Spartanburg, moved to indefinitely postpone the amendment offered by the gentleman from Marlboro. Convention :

Motion was put and carried. The President: "The question comes up

Colonel Haskell then stated at length | tary, and a Treasurer; and shall have the history of the Fairfield case, as given them in a letter written by the Chairman of Fairfield County, Mr. H. A. Gaillard. A Committee on Registration, an Execu-Dr. Pope spoke in reply, and during his speech was interrupted by Senator Woodward, of Fairfield, who declared one of his statements to be "a false and one of his statements to be "a false and shall be frequent after the opening of the palpable lie."

lowed, the friends of the two men crowd-ing about them, the ladies in the galle- ART. III. The president shall have ing about them, the ladies in the galle-ries making frightened attempts to escape and everybody shouting at once. The News and Courier says a hundred hands were in hip pockets. The chairman apwere in hip pockets. The chairman appealed for order in respect to the women present and John C. Haskell mounted a chair and shouted that Dr. Pope was an chair and shouted that Dr. Pope was an in the control of a County Executive Com-mittee, which shall consist of one mem-mittee, which shall consist of one mem-

ment it was a mistake as he would not tell ber from each Club, to be nominated by a falsehood. When order was restored Dr. Pope | County Convention, and such other mem-concluded his speech and was replied to bers as the Convention may add, but by Col. A. C. Haskell and A. C. Doug- those powers to the said Executive Comlass. Ira B. Jones spoke for the minority report.

The minority report was adopted, 138 to 70. Six of the Abbeville delegation and Stanland, of Berkeley and McSwee-ney, of Hampton, Tillman delegates, vo-ted with the minority.

called for three cheers for the Fairfield Democracy, and their hands were shaken cordially by their fellow anti-Tillman-

The following nominations for Vice May of each election year, at which time State, making many important changes Presidents were made and carried : Dr. the County Committee shall be called in that instrument. W. J. Stokes, First Congressional Dis-trict; O. C. Jordan, Second District; Dr. sooner removed or suspended by the

the discussion on the appointment of the shall have the power to fill the vacancy committee on credentials "the floor of the except that in the case of the office of convention presented a scene of confound-ed confusion of which no words of descrip-a convention, they shall do so, but if not tion can convey the slightest conception to the mind of the reader.

they may fill the vacancy. ART. IX. When the State Convention "The entire force of the minority were assembles it shall be called to order by on their feet nearly all the time, each in- the chairman of the State Executive dividual member adding his own voice to that of the clear resonant tones of J. C. be nominated and elected by the Con-Haskell, who was leading the discussion and whose voice could be heard above the din and clamor around him. Occasion-to the election of permanent officers and ally the loud voices of A. T. Smythe and | to the transaction of business. G. L. Buist would sound out while Weber

When the business had been concluded it shall adjourn sine die, but this shall violently flourishing his walking cane in not prevent a recess from being taken if deemed necessary. the direction of the chair, and Gonzales, and Tupper and Adger Smythe and a score others grouped together under the

AET. X. There shall be a primary election in each Congressional District in this State on the last Tuesday in August, 1892, and every two years thereafter to nominate candidates for Congress, but this shall not prevent a primary or "But all this was as gentle music to the convention Leing in each Congressional noise made by the big crowd on the other side, which, led by the stentorian tones District for 1890 or before 1892, as each district may provide to be conducted and managed, as heretofore provided in the election for delegates to the State Conof Dr. Pope, ably assisted by J. L Irby, with the voices of the two hundred and seventy performers fresh from their vention, the vote to be received, tabulatraining on the hustings. All were ted and announced by the State Execushouting, hurrahing and stamping at the tive Committee to the chairman of whom same time with just enough of cessation the result of this vote shall be transmitto permit the voice of the speakers and the chairman to be occasionally heard." COLUMBIA, S. C., 11 p. m. - Ex-Chan-and on the last Tuesday in August, 1892, and each fourth year thereafter the eleccellor Johnson, chairman of the anti-Tillman conference held here July 10th, tion for Solicitor of the different Circuits issues a call for another meeting to be August 26th, under the instructions of shall be by primary subject to the same rules and regulations, and to be announc-ed in the same way as set forth for Congressmen. At the elections of both The address of the seceding delegates Congressmen and Solicitors only those persons shall be allowed to vote who

Seceding Delegates.

THE NEW CONSTITUTION.

The following is the new constitution ions of this Constitution shall not apply for the Democratic party of South Caro-lina reported to and adopted by the State in the Third District which is soon to occur in which a primary is now in progress.

ABTICLE I. There shall be one or more Democratic Clubs organized in each election precinct, each of which Clubs shall have a distinct title, "The Democratic Club," and shall elect a on the amendment offered by the gentle-man from Richland." thers.

ART. II. The meetings of the Clubs shall be frequent after the opening of the canvass, and some member of the Club or County Executive Committee to appoint A scene of tzemendous confusion fol- invited speaker deliver an address at County officers.

the respective Clubs and elected by the low Democrats the reasons which com-pelled our withdrawsl from that body. The Convention assembled under the mittee does not carry with them the call of the State Executive Committee power to pass upon the election of mem-"for the sole and exclusive purpose of bers to the County Convention or their qualification to sit as members, for this power belongs to the members of the State Nominating Convention to be held

Convention through the appointment on the 10th of September or thereafter, should be elected by a primary election and action of a committee on credentials, The Fairfield-Bratton delegation then whose report shall be acted upon as the to be held on a certain day throughout gations. withdrew after John G. Mobley had members of the Convention may deem the State and for no other purpose whatproper, The Executive Committee, when elected, shall appoint its cwn officers and fill all vacancies which may arise instead of transacting the business for when the Convention is not in session. which it had been summoned, proceeded Mr. Talbert was elected permanent Chairman. The term of office of the Executive Com-int take action looking to the adoption of a new constitution for the party in this

W. J. Stokes, First Congressional Dis-trict; O. C. Jordan, Second District; Jr. Samuel Pope, Third District; J. L. M. Irby, Fourth District; James Norton, Sixth Fifth District; J. Bames Norton, Sixth District; J. K. M. Societ removed of delegates Fifth District; J. M. Societ removed of delegate

standing. From the Augusta Chronicle

Mr. Bean, of Edgefield, who was one of the prominent young leaders on the Tillman side, earnestly commended the speech of Major Buist and favored meet-ing half way. [Applause.] In a moment all was excitement. The aisles were thronged, and everybody was conferring, It was evident that the Tillmanites were ready to elect a new Executive Committee and let the constitution go over to the September Convention, and it seemed as if the convention, was going to end in a love feast. Chairman Talbert settled back in his chair and gave the leaven time to work. The leaders were in conference, and for fifteen minutes everything was in a buzz of excitement and suspense. When business was again resumed several motions were made showing the disposition of the Tillmanites to let the constitutional question go over till Sep-tember. Mr. Townes moved the conven-tion take a recess until September 10. Mr. Stackhouse moved to lay the question before the house on the table and elect a new Executive Committee. Upon these motions President Talbert properly ruled that the previous question having been ordered, the argument con-cluded under the call, and the yea and nay vote having been taken on the mi-nority report which was rejected, he was obliged to complete the vote on the majority report under the call for the pre-vious question before any other motion could be put, but that the report could be voted down by the convention, and then any other action might be taken that was desired. At this point Mr. J. are herein allowed to vote for delegates L. M. Irby, leader, with Dr. Sampson Pope, of the Tillmanites, said to the to the State Convention. The provis-

"Never mind, go ahead with your previous question ; we tried to compromise with them and they refuse, so we'll just go ahead now and take the whole hog or none. (Another sensation and great ap-AET. XI. Before the election in 1892 and each election year thereafter, the plause among Tillmanites.) State Democratic Executive Committee Senator Smythe, of Charleston, denied shall issue a call to all candidates for that that the anties had declined a prop-State officers to address the people of the osition of compromise. different Counties of the State, fixing the. dates for the meetings and also inviting the candidates for Congress and for Solic-Mr. Irby-You can deny it for yourself, but your side refused it. I asked if we elected a new Executive Committee itor in their respective districts and circuits to be present and to address the

and let the constitution go over until September, if they'd agree to that, and a people and at such meetings only allow-ing such candidates to speak and none dozen voices all over the delegation said "no." Maybe Mr. Smythe was not among ART. XII. It shall be the duty of each them, but his side declined the compro-[Applause.]" mise, meetings in their respective Counties to be addressed by the candidates for the General Assembly and for the different linger was in a chair addressing the president and moving a reconsideration of the call for the previous question so that the objectionable vote could be fiicial Explanation of the Action of the avoided, and there is no doubt that a few minutes more would have straight-ened things out when Col. J. C. Haskell advanced into the aisle and declared that To the Democracy of South Carolina : We the undersigned delegates from the Counties of Sumter, Beaufort, Richas the Convention was about to proceed to vote upon a question which they had no right to consider, and, as the Richand, Charleston and Georgetown to the Convention of the Democratic party which assembled in Columbia on August land delegation could not take part in 13th, 1890, hereby announce to our felany such vote, they respectfully withdrew from the Convention and declined to act further with a body which persisted in acting upon matters not contemplated in the call for the Convention and the instructions of delegations. Chairman Buist made the same announcement for the Charleston delegation, and these were followed by the

'COLUMBIA, S. C., August 15th, 1890.

"The conference held in the city of Against this action we made such arin the County to vote. A Compromise was Lost by a Misunder-Mrs. Annie Vermillion is now quite ill, and has been for some time. Cotton is now opening and will soon be ready for the pickers. The Presbyterians at Deans are making

Friday. It is the duty of every Democrat

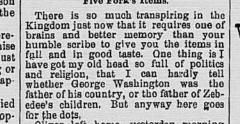

Rev. D. I. Spearman, of Piercetown, was in this community last Saturday and Sunday

Mrs. George Brown, of Elberton Coun-Mrs. George Brown, of Elberton Coun-ty, Ga., is now in this community visit-ing her father, Rev. B. Hays. Miss Mack Ragsdale from the Barker's Creek section, is visiting her friends and relations in this community. She is at present the guest of William McCown. Rev. W. M. Pinson, of Greenville, is assisting Rev. B. Hays in a protracted meeting at Mt. Creek Church. Mr. George Bell, of Due West, is now in this community visiting Mr. Warren Par-nell.

nøll. A series of meetings of more than a week's duration, at this place, closed last Sunday, 17th inst, Rev. T. H. Garrett, the pastor, was assisted by Rev. W. M. Pinson, of Greenville. They preached day and night with such power that Church members were made to stop, think and ask, "am I a Christian ?" The back-slider was made to repent and come back to the Church and confess his faults. Many young people were often at the anxious seat asking an interest in the prayers of the Church. We had a good meeting and the Church much revived with an addition of twenty to their num-ber. At the close of the services Bro. Pinson was the recipient of a valuable purse presented to him by the Church and > onor of our Master. FLAT.

Five Fork's Items.

for the dots. Oliver left home yesterday morning bound for a negro Association near Bel-ton. He took a wagon load of live, ebony

Mr. B. Richardson and family have re-

Mr. B. Richardson and family have re-turned from their mountain tour. Boss & Co. returned the same day. Miss Georgie Davis, one of Brushy Creek's beauties, has returned home, after a week's sojourn in the Kingdom. She was the guest of her uncle, J. P. Gam-brell. Since her departure Walter's ap-titic incidentiate dealine.

petite is going into a decline. Miss Alice Mullikin, one of Waco's most accomplished and attractive young ladies, is visiting her aunt, Miss Emily Jones. They visited the "Mansion" this morning. They visited the "Mansion" this morning. Come again, ladies, my parlor is always open for the reception of wingless angels, especially when they bring pound cake. I learn this morning that Sam Robin-son, a negro, left home yesterday morn-ing for work some where in the woods. He did not return at the proper hour, but mut in an appearance this morning in put in an appearance this Adamic costume-too much holiness or laziness, or perhaps a mixture of the two. I am sorry to learn that little Mittie, daughter of B. S. Watson, is quite sick with scarlet fover. The schools of Mr. Johnson and Mrs. The schools of Mr. Johnson and Mrs. Darracot are both full to overflowing, We are all anxiously awaiting the ap-proaching primary election. All eager to vote for our favorite hand-squeezers. It is sad to reflect that some good, worthy men will "strike the ceiling," before another week rolls around, but such is life. As for myself I shall have a twofold purpose in voting viz: First to assist in Sumter, Beaufort and Georgetown dele-gations. Call For an Anti-Tillman Conference. COLUMBIA, S. C., August 14.-Ex-Chancellor W. D. Johnson, of Marion, president of the anti-Tillman convention, which was held in this city July 10th and 11th, to night issues the following call: "Conventure S. C. August 14.-Ex-Chancellor W. D. Johnson, of Marion, president of the anti-Tillman convention, which was held in this city July 10th and 11th, to night issues the following call: "Conventure S. C. August 14.-Ex-Chancellor W. D. Johnson, of Marion, president of the anti-Tillman convention, which was held in this city July 10th and 11th, to night issues the following call: "Conventure S. C. August 15th, 1890. Sumter, Beaufort and Georgetown dele-

lawyers fees, Protect us.

From hostile raids, and squalling babes, and culled out the small lots, and marked them at prices that are ridiculoully low. While our buyers are in the Northern markets they will take pleasure in filling any special order one may send.

Very respectfully yours,

