

Table with 2 columns: Item and Price. Includes items like Cotton, Flour, and various grades of wool.

Anderson Cotton Market. March 11, 1891. Strict low middling... 7 1/2

Corn and flour continue to advance in price. Very little gardening has been done in the city.

According to the almanac Spring will begin next Saturday. A Georgia weather prophet predicts rough weather for April.

An epidemic of measles prevails in several sections of the State. Evangelist Pearson is now conducting a meeting at Henderson, Ky.

The game law in regard to hunting partridges will soon be in force. As Easter approaches the best thing to have laying around the house is a hen.

C. C. Featherston, Esq., of Athens, spent Sunday in the city with his parents. Mr. W. C. Bailey, of this city, has been appointed a Notary Public by the Governor.

There still remains a great deal of cotton in the country, awaiting a rise in the price. Postmaster Russell has added a number of new lock boxes and drawers to the post-office.

The farmers have had an opportunity of doing a little plowing during the past few days. The price of cotton does not vary much, and it seems there is little prospect of its advancing.

Mr. F. T. Hart, an expert tailor from New York, is now working in Mr. J. H. Clark's shop. There has been less plowing this year so far than any year within the knowledge of any living.

Rev. R. H. Smith and wife, who have been spending a few weeks at Greenwood, have returned home. Several of our citizens went to Seneca Tuesday and that night organized a Lodge of Elks.

Mr. Joel C. Key, of Athens, Ga., spent a day or two in the city this week on his way to Charlotte, N. C. We are already ready, anxious and willing to do low job work of any sort. Prices very low. Send us your orders.

Mrs. D. J. Simpson, of Toocoo, Ga., is in the city visiting her parents, and is warmly greeted by her numerous friends. Rev. T. H. Garrett will preach in Fifth Church on Sunday, March 28th (St. John's day), at the usual hour of holding services.

Messrs. J. H. and M. W. Newton, of Athens, spent last Friday in the city. The Intelligencer was glad to have a call from them. Mrs. J. C. Archer and Miss Volanna Means, of Spartanburg, are spending a few days in the city, and are visiting the family of her cousin, Maj. J. N. Vauver.

We are requested to announce that Rev. T. C. Ligon will preach at Roberts Church on the fifth Sunday of this month at the usual hour of holding service. Rock Mills Alliance will hold an important meeting next Saturday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, and it is hoped that each and every member will be present.

The "cannon ball" train is being well patronized. An effort is now being made to have a postal clerk on this train, and we hope it will be successful. Miss Della Lesser, a charming young lady of Gainesville, Ga., is spending a few weeks in the County visiting the family of her cousin, Maj. J. N. Vauver.

Rev. Dr. Lander, of Williamston, preached in the Methodist Church on Sunday morning, and at night the pulpit was occupied by Presiding Elder Wilson. For the accommodation of the mechanics and laborer of the city, the City Council has extended the library office hours until last April, when the books will surely close.

Mr. J. N. Byrum sold in the city Wednesday morning three pigs, not quite six months old, that weighed respectively 207, 205 and 180 pounds. The largest pigs we have ever seen. Mr. C. Wardlaw desires us to state that he will not be in his office on Saturday, as the Teachers' Association met on that day and it is his duty as School Commissioner to attend.

Married, on Wednesday, March 11, at 1 o'clock p. m., by J. H. Hall, Notary Public, at his residence, Mr. Leonard W. Fowler and Miss Rosa Strickland, both of Anderson County. Mr. A. E. Gonzales, representing Columbia, in the State, spent a day or two in the city last week, and succeeded in securing a good list of subscribers to his excellent journal.

The workmen began tearing down the old Mason House last Monday morning. If the walls of this old building could talk, what an interesting history they could relate of Anderson. The Grand Lodge of the Knights of Honor meets in Columbia, Va. 18th, 19th and 20th. The C. & G. E. will sell round trip tickets on the 14th and 15th, good to return until the 18th, at $4.10.

Mr. A. W. Wynne, State Secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association, spent a day in the city last week, and during his stay the Intelligencer was delighted to have a call from him. Rev. A. W. VanHoes, of Gainesville, Ga., preached in the Baptist Church last Sunday evening, and his sermons were highly enjoyed by those whose pleasure it was to hear him.

The annual Convention of the Episcopal Church and the Woman's Auxiliary Association will be held in Greenville on May 13th. The railroad fare from Anderson will be $2.20 for the round trip. Our young friend, Prof. J. Furman Evans, Principal of the Townville Academy, spent Saturday and Sunday in the city. We were glad to meet him and hear that his school is in a fine condition.

Rev. T. P. Bell, of Richmond, Va., will preach in the Baptist Church next Sunday morning, and that evening will conduct a memorial service to be held by the congregation in honor of the late Dr. Furman. Should a young man be careless of his shoes, let us say that he will be as neglected as the horse that is not shod. A shoe very tight he will be attentive, but very sticky toward her. Bear this in mind, girls.

The South Carolina Synod will meet at Zion Church, in this County on Friday before the second Sabbath of April, at 8:30 p. m. Delegates coming on train will meet at Spring Springs, on the Blue Ridge road. Orangeburg Times and Democrat: "Presiding Elder J. W. Dickson is doing a good work in this District. He is an earnest servant of God and before his four years is up he will have endeared himself to all our people."

If any of our young men wish to enter Clemson College next year, they should send their names in at once to President Strode. The roll will soon be full, and each application will be considered in the order of their entrance on the register. The public schools of Anderson District will be closed on Friday, 21st inst. The Trustees request that the teachers present their claims promptly, as no claims will be approved until all reports are sent in, which must not be later than April 2d.

With a view of making a change in their business, Messrs. E. W. Brown & Sons are now offering their stock of goods at cost. Their new advertisement will appear next week. We advise our readers to give them a call at once and see the bargain. Don't raise the price your real estate every time a new buyer comes to look at it, if you want to sell. Fix a reasonable price on your property and stick to the figure. Many a male has been missed and many a valuable citizen or new citizen, because of the unreasonable figures at which property has been held. Let this not be said of Anderson.

Miss Lucy Whaley, of Newberry, who has been teaching school in the Fork for several months past, has returned to her home in Newberry, S. C. Her school having closed until Summer, she has returned home to spend the vacation.

The meeting of the Y. M. C. A. in the Opera House next Sunday afternoon will be conducted by Mr. Rufus Park. Subject, "Seeking the things which last." John 6: 27; 1st Kings 13, 11. A cordial invitation is extended to all young men of the city to attend the meeting.

The Inter-denominational State Sunday School Convention will be held in Greenville on the 14th and 15th inst. The C. & G. E. will sell round trip tickets to delegates on March 20th and 21st, good until April 4th. Anderson County should be largely represented at this Convention.

Dr. Ralph W. Brown, who has been a resident of Arkansas for several months, has been invited to Anderson on the 26th inst. of attending his father's funeral, has decided not to return West, and will locate here permanently. He is glad to welcome our young friend back to his native home.

Our young friend, W. W. Robinson, of the Level Land section, was in the city last Saturday and is now spending a few days and a set of harness. Friend Robinson would make a model husband, and the next report we hear from him will, without doubt, be that he has secured a "better half" to ride with him in his new buggy.

In another column we publish a letter in reference to the prompt and liberal treatment of the New York Life Insurance Company toward its policy holders. There is no better or safer insurance than that offered by this company. It has away over a hundred millions of dollars at its back. Mr. C. Wardlaw is its local agent.

On account of the washouts on the C. & G. E. the first through train from Columbia to Anderson, under the new schedule, did not reach here until last Thursday, and was delayed on the way. There will be three Conductors on this train—Captains Gibson, Hughes and Plank—and they will make two trips each week here.

The last week of Lent, called Passion Week, begins next Sunday, 22nd inst. Services will be held in Grace (Episcopal) Church through the week, as follows: Monday, 4 p. m.; Tuesday, 8 p. m.; Wednesday, 4 p. m.; Thursday, 8 p. m.; Good Friday, at 11 in the morning. All are invited to attend the services.

Ex-County Treasurer Watkins, having made a most satisfactory settlement and turned his books over to his successor, Dr. Payne, has returned to his farm, and is making preparations to plant a big crop. Mr. Watkins made a most efficient and successful officer, and he will be missed by those who have known him.

Mr. A. Lesser, of the firm of Lesser & Co., has returned from the market, and in this paper he tells our readers something about the big stock of goods purchased and the low prices at which they are being sold. Every purchaser of goods to the amount of three dollars will be given a nice present. Be sure to read the advertisement, and you will get an idea of what they have in store for you.

A little school boy was recently asked to parse the sentence, "Mary, milk the cow." He did so accurately until he came to the last word, when he said, "Cow is a pronoun, feminine gender, third person singular, and stands for Mary." "Stand for Mary?" asked the teacher. "Yes, sir," responded the urchin with a grin, "for if the cow didn't stand for Mary, how could Mary milk the cow?"

Adelle Frost Graham was greeted by a large and highly appreciative audience at the Opera House last Friday evening, and every one present seemed to be more than pleased with the excellent drama, "Togonias." Miss Frost and Mr. Ligon certainly stars in the profession, and they are sustained by a strong troupe. On Saturday night "Virginia" was rendered, and again the audience was highly entertained.

An exchange says it will pay you for the trouble it costs to file your papers. No volume in your library will afford more pleasure, more profit, more lasting benefit. It contains dates of local events which you cannot get elsewhere; marriages, obituary notices, etc. In short your paper is a history of the world in which your friends live, and occasionally reminds you of a friend or two behind on subscription.

Mr. John D. Young, a young man who has been living with his brother-in-law, Mr. M. P. Tribble, has been adjudged insane and sent to the Asylum. He is a young man of a very quiet disposition, and his mind was all right until a few days ago, when he attempted to kill Col. Tribble. Mr. Young, a few years ago, received a kick on his head from a horse, and the physicians think this has diseased his brain.

The Pendleton Canning Factory offers the following premiums for tomatoes: For best one $20; second best $10; for best half acre $10; second best $5. The premiums will be awarded by a committee appointed by the President of the factory who shall measure the plants of competitors and estimate the actual cash value of the different plants as shown by the books of the manager. For other information apply to the manager.

Attention is directed to the card, in another column, of Mr. A. R. Anthony, who is now in Anderson representing the State-School and Loan Association of Columbus, Ga. This Association is one of the oldest and strongest in the South. According to the statement of Mr. Anthony, 30 cents are saved each day and deposited with his Association will in seven years return you $1,000 cash, and profit over of over 27 cents for the time that the whole amount has been deposited.

The Spartanburg Spartan contains these words of consolation to the farmers: "There is no use for farmers to get dissatisfied about the late start they are getting. They have to the 15th of May to prepare land and plant. One horse and a good hand can prepare the land, and the other hand will take him only thirty days to prepare thirty acres. The planting can be done in ten days. Out of the next seven or eight days there will probably be forty good work days."

Every day the fact is more fully verified that cotton seed hulls is the coming food for cattle. Statement after statement from the hull (after the oil and meal are taken therefrom) is far superior as a food to the green seed. Reason: The hull is not so bulky but is fact that will be substantiated by all who have tested it or know from observation. It is said that you can fatten a beef on these hulls at the small cost of four cents per day, and for making butter and milk there is no food superior.

The building mill is an assured fact. More than $100,000 has been subscribed to the building of a new mill, and the shares are still coming in. The shares are only $25 each, payable in installments of $5 a week. A charter has been secured, a capital of $300,000 has been applied for, and the company will be organized in the near future. Dr. J. W. Strickland, Wm. Langglin, P. H. McCall, W. B. Osborne, J. Foster Brown, J. J. Fretwell, H. W. Neal, J. R. Tribble, R. S. Ligon and J. R. Vandiver are the incorporators.

Mr. B. Earle Seaborn died at the home of his nephew, Mr. R. Duff Sloan, in Piedmont, S. C., Monday morning, after an illness of several months with consumption, aged about 56 years. Mr. Seaborn was a son of Maj. Seaborn, deceased, and was born and reared in this County. He was a resident of Boston for several years past, and came to Anderson in the fall of 1887, when he was engaged for the benefit of his health. His remains were carried to Piedmont for funeral services on Wednesday, and his death has brought sorrow to a host of friends in the upper section of the County. His wife is well known. A wife is left to cherish his memory.

The Greenville News, of the 15th inst., pays the following tribute to one of our fellow-citizens: "Capt. J. B. Patrick, superintendent and leader of the Patriotic Military Institute at Anderson, was in the city yesterday. Of the many brave educators in South Carolina, Captain Patrick is the peer of any. He is a high Christian gentleman, makes him pre-eminently qualified to guide an institution that has been a source of pride and honor to the State. The young man who begins a course in the Patriotic Military Institute can go out to the world with the feeling assured that he is as fully equipped for the struggle as any one. Not a few young men who have had an education at this institution have distinguished themselves in the service of their country. Mr. Patrick is in good condition."

Well, it is generally conceded that Eljah, (in the prophet) had a perfect fair, good, and Oliver with a box of matches and a pack of fire-crackers, can mount a cart behind "Tobias" and "let there be light." G. W. Miller visited the "Kingdom" yesterday. I am sorry to say, however, he did not call at the Mandarins. He was a good, hearty laugh, if nothing more. Messrs. Deas & Burgess are smiling thirteenthly with their mill. Mr. Smith's lawyer, is thoroughly acquainted with and master of his trade. Mr. Wm. A. Fredericks, with his art gallery, is still in the Kingdom. Three of our beauties visited his gallery yesterday. B. B. W. has cleared locality. Now occupies the shop formerly occupied by James Mott. Dock is at home when he is in a fair way to his health. He is in the first rate running order, and is as good as his word. He is perfectly at home in the school room, and are giving universal satisfaction. B. B. W. has cleared locality. Now occupies the school at Lebanon is in good condition.

Anderson is to have another Bank, to be known as the Anderson Loan and Exchange Bank, and to be organized in the near future. The shares are $50 each. The following gentlemen, as incorporators, have petitioned to the Secretary of State for a charter: J. J. Fretwell, R. P. Clinkcales, J. N. Vandiver, F. T. Whitte, R. S. Ligon, A. C. Strickland, W. D. Brown, S. Y. Breeley, J. W. Robinson, W. A. Clinkcales and J. M. Sullivan. A good portion of the capital stock has already been secured, and it is proposed to organize and begin business as soon as possible. A committee on subscription, consisting of Messrs. W. D. Brown, R. S. Ligon, P. Snelgrove and R. P. Clinkcales, has been appointed by the incorporators. Subscriptions are invited to each stockholder. The books will close May 1st.

It is not surprising that Frank Leslie's Illustrated Newspaper has used, and still has, as a model for its illustrations, one of the most profitable newspaper enterprises in New York City. It is full of pictures of current events, always beautifully printed, and without the slightest coarseness. This week's contents include a page of character-sketches in Washington, "Hunting Down a Horse Picture," "Going to a Children's Fancy-Dress Party," by Miss G. A. Davis, as well as a host of others. Besides the pictures there are articles on Fashion, on Life Insurance, on Fraud, on "Hips," poetry, stories, and pieces of other reading-matter. Buy it for Sunday. Price, ten cents.

Mrs. A. A. Frierson, the beloved wife of Rev. D. E. Frierson, D. D., died at her home in this city last Tuesday morning, at 4 o'clock. She had been very ill for several years, though was confined to her bed only about two weeks preceding her death. Her mind was perfectly clear almost to the last moment, and she passed away fully realizing that she was entering into that better success which is awarded to those who have lived for God.

Mrs. Frierson was born and reared in Darlington County, and was about 55 years of age. She came to Anderson with her husband and family about twenty years ago, and by her gentle, loving disposition, she has secured a large circle of friends, every one of whom will long cherish her memory, and who deeply regret her death. In her last moments she was attended with the Presbyterian Church, and was ever a most faithful and zealous member. As a wife, mother and friend she has left behind memories behind her. The sorrowing husband and sons and daughters have been greatly comforted by the bereavement. On Wednesday morning the remains were interred in the Presbyterian Church, in the presence of a large congregation of friends and acquaintances.

Honors Path Items. Here we are the 18th of March and nothing much done in the way of farming yet. Dr. J. L. McCurry, who has been practicing in this community several years, will move to Hartwell, Ga., in a few days. We regret the Doctor leaving us.

Mr. J. M. Rice, formerly of Franklin County, Ga., on Wednesday, March 11th, in his 52nd year, and was buried in the cemetery at Newberry, S. C., on Monday, the 11th inst. The mail failed to reach this place, and he died in the city. A gentleman informed me that on Monday, the 11th inst., Tupaloo River was up eight feet, and still rising at the rate of one foot in thirty minutes by the way. I don't think the watch keeps railroad time.

Delays are Dangerous. The benefits accruing to poor men from carrying life insurance have recently had at least one modification in this State. In this county in the deaths of Messrs. DeWitt C. Holcomb and S. B. Brownlee. Each of these two had only purchased a premium and settlement were promptly made as soon as the necessary papers were made out. Brownlee and Holcomb were both insured with the Mutual Benefit of Newark, N. J., which is represented in the City by G. N. Coleman, and in this city by G. W. Miller. This is one of the strongest and most reliable companies being in its 46th year of existence and having 500 millions of assets. It deserves special mention for its prompt settlements, having adjusted Mr. Holcomb's claim within ten days from the time proof was made.

"Delays are Dangerous."—Every one should promptly attend to this important matter and thereby protect their wives and children, in case of death, from the dreadful inconvenience of poverty. Look out for the agents of the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company, and take a policy without delay. G. W. MILLER, G. N. COLEMAN, Agents.

A Tribute. Lucy Eskew, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Eskew, died February 17, 1891, aged six years. Many of our friends who saw her when she was only a few days old, will be glad to hear that she died peacefully, and in her short life, she had endeavored to do many good things. Dear, darling, winsome little creature. Having been delicate all her life, and at times a great sufferer, she loved to be gently, always thinking of other's pleasure. We sympathize with her bereaved parents, and hope she will be reunited to her father and mother in heaven, where her darling will be waiting and watching for her. God doeth all things for the best. J. L. W.

Union Meetings. The Union Meeting of the Second District of the Baptist Association will convene with the Belton Church Friday before the 8th Sunday in March, 1891. The following is the programme of exercises: Introductory sermon by Rev. R. W. Burgess. Missionary sermon by Rev. D. W. Hiett. Questions for discussion: 1st. What did Christ mean when He said, "But seek ye first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added unto you?" To be opened by Rev. M. M. McCarty. 2nd. What is our duty to the proposed Baptist Orphanage? Opened by J. B. Wainwright. 3rd. How can we best increase our Missionary operations. Opened by L. E. Campbell.

The Union of the Piedmont Association will meet with the Belton Baptist Church on Friday before the 5th Lord's day in March. Introductory sermon by Rev. D. J. Spearman or Rev. L. B. Ackerman. Missionary sermon on Sunday by Rev. C. Seaborn or Rev. E. A. Durban.

It is family worship essential to Church prosperity, and if so to what extent? Opened by W. F. Long. 2nd. Does the church membership of to-day realize his personal responsibility in supporting the Gospel at home and abroad? Opened by Rev. J. B. Wainwright. 3rd. Address by Rev. L. B. Ackerman. 4th. Speech by T. R. Allgood. L. B. ACKERMAN, Secretary pro tem.

The Union of the Third District, Saluda Association, will meet with the Lebanon Church on Saturday before the 5th Sabbath in March, at 10 o'clock. Introductory sermon by Rev. H. M. Allen. "The evils of infant baptism," to be discussed by C. Wardlaw, Revs. H. M. Allen and L. M. Ayer. Missionary Sermon on Sunday by Rev. R. H. Smith. C. O. BURNIS, Clerk.

AN OPEN LETTER. THE MEMBERS NATIONAL BANK OF SUMNER, SUMNER, S. C., March 6, 1891. Messrs. Church, Leno, and Co., New York Life Insurance Company, Charleston, N. C.: I am in receipt, through you, of the Company's check for $3,671.32 in full payment of policy ($3,000) and accumulations in the name of my late brother, Capt. Geo. D. Aiken, who died in the Indian battle of Wounded Knee Creek, South Dakota.

His policy only allowed him to engage in Military service in time of peace, yet he was killed in actual battle with the Indians. In waiving the technicalities of the case, and paying the policy without question, you have shown a liberality and perfect fairness, but with great liberality and material aid to their well known reputation for square and upright dealing with its members. Thanking you for your trouble in the matter, I am very truly yours, (Signed) R. M. WALLACE, Administrator.

The above letter shows how the New York Life treats its policy holders. No quibbling or compromising—but every dollar is paid to the satisfaction of the insured and cheerfulness as the premiums are accepted. It sells genuine insurance that insures. CHURCH & LANE, General Agents.

Remember Chapman is selling goods cheap, so come and see him when you want goods cheap. Chapman's Laces and Embroideries are the lowest prices in the lowest prices. Look at them and see.

Notice to the Borrowers in the Anderson Local Building and Loan Association. All those who prefer continuing their loans on the installment plan, and who find it inconvenient to pay back the balance still due on their loans, can secure the necessary funds from the Inter-State Building and Loan Association of Columbus, Ga. The Inter-State is one of the oldest, strongest, best and most economically managed as is evidenced by its having the smallest expense fund of any National Association in the United States; and this item of the expense fund is one that should receive particular attention, as the smaller the expense the greater the profit. The quicker and more certain the maturity of the stock, assuring to the investor a larger cash return, the more money is available to the borrower a lower rate of interest and quicker release from his debt. The Inter-State, an investment of $1000, will secure the borrower a loan of $1000 on which at least six payments have been made—has an assured monthly income of over $50.00, and knowing positively what it can do, will guarantee to lend Anderson members $4000 with sixty days from application for a Board of 300 shares, and $3000 in sixty days for a Board of 600 shares, all subsequent applications to be placed in their regular order and granted as soon as received, and applications for loans can be made at once upon organization of the local association. Having the money we do not make you wait. All interested will benefit themselves, the local Association and the community by calling upon the Special Agent of the Inter-State, Mr. A. R. Anthony, at the Chicago.

EGGS FOR SALE.—White Bramah, Blue Plymouth Rocks, Games, Banded Plymouth Rock. MAX. CRAYTON, 37-2. Look at Chapman's Black Goods, beautiful and cheap. Can save you at least $2.00 on a 1000 Black Dress. Flynn is unquestionably in the lead. He is selling more goods now than all the other stores put together. His prices are ridiculously low. The great sale and rush at Flynn's continuing unabated. He must be almost giving goods away to hear some people talk. A Trumpet Sound for Goods made at Home. There is one thing sure, no Cotton Planter ever made can compare with the "Brooks" made at home. Brooks Planter are stronger and better made than any imitations on the market—well ironed, no castings, best seasons, hand while cast. Then the "West" Guano Distributor is the best. It will distribute many other goods, but won't do the work. The popular "Elliott" Cotton Planter—improved, well made and perfected, and now offered by us. This is Anderson County's favorite. Again we want to say that we hold the inside track on Farmers' equipments generally. Blacksmiths' Tools of all kinds, Steel Plows, Hoes, Wood Stocks, and bigges, all made and carried by any retail house in this State.

SULLIVAN HARDWARE CO. Mrs. Theo. Lindsay has been quite sick for the past week or so. We hope she will be well soon. The farmers have gone to work, and are able to do up again. We hope to see him in the city soon. Rev. M. Percell, pastor of Beaverton Baptist Church, preached an excellent sermon last Sunday. The notice of this place met last Saturday.

WINTER GOODS MUST GO, AND—

Jones, Seybt & Co. INTENDS TO MAKE THEM HUM

IF LOW PRICES WILL DO IT, In order to make room for their IMMENSE STOCK OF SPRING GOODS

Which will be arriving soon, as we will leave in a short time for the Northern markets, where we expect to buy the largest Spring Stock we have ever handled. We find on taking stock that we have—

TOO MANY SHOES, And in order to reduce our stock in this department we have—

MADE LIBERAL REDUCTIONS! Give us a trial when in need of—

DRY GOODS, MILLINERY, CARPETS, or SHOES.

A Gift TO EVERY PURCHASER!

Lesser & Co. THE PARALYZERS OF PRICES.

WHILE our Mr. A. Lesser was in the Eastern market last week ready cash was quoted at 200 per cent, and it was without difficulty that he purchased Goods at such figures that we can afford to sell them at prices that our windy competitor would be glad to buy them for.

We could easily fill this whole newspaper enumerating the snags he picked up, but believing "brevity to be the soul of wit," we shall mention just a few prices in each department that will open your eyes, and forever establish the fact that LESSER'S is the Champion of Anderson for LOW PRICES. We accept all challenges, and will forfeit One Hundred Dollars to any charitable institution if it can be proved that our prices, quality considered, are not 25 per cent lower than the lowest in Anderson.

Ladies' Wool Dress Goods. By the million; we can show you some good bargains. Bleaching. Our new brand, "Majesty"
