Strict low middling.

Spring chickens are in demand at fancy prices.

The Anderson Ice Factory began work this week.

A cottage is advertised for rent. See ad

Lawn tennis is quite a popular game in Anderson now. Every other citizen you meet is brag-ging on his garden.

Messrs. Jones, Seybt & Co's. new adver-tisement speaks for itself. Read it.

Deputy Sheriff Green is quite busy now hunting up the delinquent taxpayers of the County.

Mr. Paul Brown, of Jacksonville, Fla., is visiting the scenes of his old home in this County.

An Anderson merchant says that by another season Anderson will have a cot-

Miss Nannie Pool, accompanied by her little brother, Master Bailey, has been vis-iting Due West. Rev. Dr. J. L. Burroughs, of Augusta, will preach in the Baptist Church next Sunday morning.

Miss Mattie Jones left Anderson last Monday to attend the bedside of a sick aunt in Milton County, Ga.

A large crowd of our citizens will go down to Calhoun Falls to-morrow to at-tend the auction sale of lots.

Mrs. J. B. Davenport, of Augusta, Ga., with her two children, are in the city, vis-iting her sister, Mrs. J. L. Mauldin. Mr. A. Schilleter will furnish refreshments for all who desire something for the inner man at Calhoun Falls Friday.

A small flat key was picked up at the Postoffice a few days ago. The owner can get it by calling at the INTELLIGENCER

An exchange says the corners of a girl's mouth turn up until she is twenty: after that age they begin to turn steadily down-

Rev. A. C. Stepp, of Honea Path, spent last Sunday in Anderson and preached in the Baptist Church both morning and

An exchange says when two girls meet they kiss. When two men meet they don't. This shows plainly who want kiss-ing the most. Suppose we have an electric light placed on the Court House clock, so us fellows who carry Waterbury watches can tell the John K. Hood, Esq., who has been spending the past three weeks at his old home, Due West, returned to Anderson Tuesday afternoon.

Married, on Thursday, April 16, 1891, at the residence of the bride's mother, by Rev. G. M. Rogers, Mr. Harvey Kelly and Miss I. J. Johnson, all of Anderson

The Augusta Chronicle, says: "The poem, "To the River Choptank," by "M. J. C. S." in the Anderson INTELLIGENCER, is sweet and musical, and considerably above the second."

The fishing season has opened, and the editor gives notice that no angler's story of great catches will be believed unless the teller thereof brings and leaves a mess at these headquarters.

A compound of Dithylsulphondime-thylmethane and Trichloracetyldimethyl-phenylpyrazalone is said to be good—or rather, bad—for warts. Most persons

Ice cream and strawberries will be served by the ladies of the Working Society of the Baptist Church in the vacant store room Hotel Chiquola, Friday, 24th, com-mencing at six o'clock.

Teacher: Where do we obtain coal, Freddy? Freddy: From the coal beds, ma'am. Teacher: Right! Now, Jimmy, where do we obtain feathers? Jimmy: From the feather beds, ma'am.

Rev. C. G. Harmon will begin a pro-tracted meeting next Saturday night, at New Hope Church, and will continue dur-ing the week following. It is to be hoped that much good will result from the meet-

Maj. Frank Glenn has been confined to his room ever since his fall reported several weeks ago. He is at the home of his son-in-law, Mr. J. P. Smith, near Equality. The INTELLIGENEER hopes soon to Several negroes were before the Mayor Monday morning under a charge of gambling on Sunday. They plead guilty. Their fines, together with the fines of several other Sunday law-breakers, aggregated seventy-seven dollars.

Our clever mountain neighbor, the Kcowes Courier, has been considerably enlarged and otherwise improved. The Courier has always been one of our most valued exchanges, and we are glad to note this evidence of its prosperity:

A round-trip ticket from Anderson to Calhoun Falls on to-morrow will cost you $1.60. For the accommodation of those who expect to go down, the morning train will not leave here until 8 c'clock, an hour later than its schedule time.

Mr. J. B. Cox, of Hones Path, has secured the agency in Anderson County for the "Alliance disc fender cultivator and cotton hoe combined." It is not a cotton chopper, but a machine that thins the costs ton and takes out the grass, and it costs Abbeville Medium : "There is a shoe manufactory in operation in the town of Anderson. Some of their goods are on sale at this place, and too much can-not be sald in praise of the style and finish of their shoes and the quality of the ma-

Greenville has organized a fire insurance Company, with a capital of $100,000. This is a step in the right direction. There is an immense sum of money paid out in Anderson every year for fire insurance, and a local company here, we believe,

Miss Jennie Clardy died at her home on Factory Hill last Friday night, aged six-teen years. She was first attacked with the measles, followed by pneumonia, which caused her death. The remains were interred in Silver Brook cemetery Mr. D. A. Smith, of the Walhalla Cou rier, spent a few hours in Anderson last Friday on his way home from Columbia, where he had been attending the Grand Lodge of Knights of Honor. The INTEL-LIGENCER was more than pleased to have a call from him.

The weather for the past ten days has been most delightful, and the farmers have made good use of it. Many of the farmers began planting cotton more than a week ago, and it is generally conceded that at least one-third more corn is being planted than usual.

The sods water fountains are now being operated, and are doing a lively business. Messrs. Orr & Sloan charged their new fountain for the first time last Monday and every caller during the day was treated to a delicious drink with the compliments of the firm.

The Hampton Reunion and Confederate Memorial exercises take place in Augusta next Monday, and will be a grand occasion. The round trip fare from Anderson to Augusta, via the P. R. & W. C. R. R., is $3.60. Tickets, will be on sale on the 25th, 26th and the morning of the 27th inst., good to return until the 29th.

alamp being accidentary Rubbert of the table to describe the sum of t

The West End Dancing Club will have

Mr. Will. Mattison, formerly of Anderson, but now connected with the P. R. & W. O. R. R., was in the city last Friday. He had been on the sick list for several weeks, and came to his home in this County to recuperate. He returned to his post of duty last Monday. We are requested to announce that Broadway Alliance will meet at Neal's Creek Church next Saturday afternoon, at meeting will be an important one, and all the members are urged to attend. One of Anderson County's most subtantial farmers remarked the other day that our old Court House was a reflection upon the prosperity and progressiveness of the County. He said he would be willing to pay twice the amount of his present taxes to get a new Court House.

the conclusion of the services which will be held at the Church that day. The

The attention of our farmer readers, estisement speaks for itself. Read it.

Dr. Ralpb W. Brown will conduct the meeting of the Y. M. C. A. next Sunday afternoon.

The attention of our larmer readers, especially, is directed to the new advertisement of Cunningham Bros. These gentlemen are selling the Terrell Cultivator, which is recognized as one of the best on the market. They have also a lot of other farm implements, which can be bought very charp.

Spartanburg Herald: "The great success of Mr. Robert Ligon with the Anderson Cotton Mills, is gratifying to his numerous friends in this city. He is the youngest mill man in the State and his stockholders are so well pleased that they propose to increase the capacity of the mill at pose to increase the capacity of the mill at an early date."

Our young friend, J. D. Richardson, of the Caro section, came to the city last Fri-day, and while here one of his mules, which he was driving to his wagon, died suddenly. Mr. Richardson is a hard-working, deserving young man, and just at this time the death of his mule is a

Mr. Clinkscales is one of Anderson County's most progressive and energetic farmers, and a visit to his plantation will convince any one that farming does pay.

A few days ago a negro citizen of Broad-away Township had a cow to die sud-denly. From the manner in which she was stricken down, the negro grew suspi-cious and concluded to investigate the cause of her death. He cut the cow open and, to his surprise, found about a dozen pieces of broken nails and a small tack in her stomach.

Prof. Isham Walker, formerly of Pied-nont, died at his home at Pelzer lest Sunday. The Greenville News says he was a man of considerable mind and force of character, although eccentric in many things. He ran for the Legislature in Greenville County several years ago on the issue of establishing divorce laws in South

Messrs. W. R. Osborne and S. C. Baker, who represented Anderson in the State Y. M. C. A. Convention at Charleston, returned home Tuesday. They report having had a delightful stay in Charleston. The Convention was the largest ever held in the State, and the greatest amount of money ever raised for extending the work week from Baltimore, and is now a thorough M. D., having received his diploma from the College of Physicians and Surgeons, which institution he has been attending for the past two years. The INTELLIGENCER extends its congratulations to Dr. Todd and wishes him all the specific productions.

to Dr. Todd, and wishes him all the success attainable in his new profession. On Tuesday evening, about 9 o'clock a lamp was accidentally turned over in the house of a negro living in Policeman King's yard, on McDuffle street. The lamp was broken and the oil made a con-siderable blaze, igniting some clothing which hung on the wall. The firemen, as usual, turned out promptly, but the fire was extinguished without using their ser-We are glad to be able to inform our music-loving people that a rare treat is in atore for them on the evening of May 1st. A number of ladies and gentlemen, comprising the talent of our city, are practicing for a Concert consisting of choruses, quartettes, trios and solos, making a full and charming program. The proceeds are to be applied to the lights of the Baptist Capt. J. T. Minor, late of Milledgeville, old Col. Jas. McCullough, a well known of C. S. Minor & Co., left last Monday for Orangeburg, S. C., where a store will be opened similar to the one at this place. The form of Orangeburg and Orangeburg and McCullough's store, and securing a lot of store will be opened similar to the one at this place. The firm at Orangeburg will be known as J. T. Minor & Co., while that broke into another store and then went to at this place will remain the same as for merly, C. S. Minor & Co. We commend Mr. Minor to the good people of Orange-burg as a gentleman and first-class busi-for him, and if you need a good book give him your order.

Our little friend, Willis. Andrew, son of Mr. W. C. Andrew, met with a painful, though not serious accident, last Tuesday morning. He was at work in the Shoe Factory, and had the misfortune to get his right hand caught in one of the machines. No hones were broken but the strong the machines. No hones were broken but the strong that the machines was a harness-maker, he had very little faith in his ability to do the work. In this, however, Mr. Benson was mistaken, for Olmstead, alias Thompson, did a good job. The stones to-day show that a fine workman had handled them. While engaged on this work Thompson was identified as Olmstead, and he frankly actively and the strong that the man was a harness-maker, he had very little faith in his ability to do the work. In this, however, Mr. Benson was mistaken, for Olmstead, alias Thompson, did a good job. The stones to-day show that a fine workman had handled them. While chines. No bones were broken, but the knowledged it as true. When he finished flesh on two or three of his fingers was his work for Mr. Benson, Olmstead went badly lacerated. His wounds were given prompt attention, and the physicians say Willie will soon be well again.

Willie will soon be well again.

To Augusta to work on the first cotton factory erected in that city, and he was never heard of again. Such is the history of the man who inscribed his name upon the

The District Council, composed of the Lecturers of the Counties and sub-Alli-ances of the 3rd Congressional District, will be held in Anderson on 13th and 14th of May. Hon. Ben. Terrel, Lecturer of the County papers in the District are requested to extend this notice.

Miss Nannie Moorehead, youngest daughter of Mr. John M. Moorehead, of Hopewell Township, died last Monday morning. Miss Moorehead was about 22 years of age, and had been sick for several months. Her death, therefore, was not unexpected by her friends and relatives. On Tuesday her remains were interred in the Concord Churchyard, of which Church she was a member. The loved ones left to mourn her death have loved ones left to mourn her death have many sympathizers in their bereavement.

There came near being a serious fire at the home of Mr. James Elliott, in the the home of Mr. James Elliott, in the southwestern portion of the city, last Monday afternoon. The alarm was sounded and the firemen responded promptly, but their services were not needed, as the fire was soon extinguished. Mr. Elliott's little son attempted to kindle a fire in the grate with kerosene oil, and in a twinkling the oil can was ablaze. The little fellow screamed, and fortunately his mother. low screamed, and fortunately his mother got to him in time to save him from a hor-rible death. His hand and a portion of his face was painfully burned.

About 9 o'clock Saturday night an alarm of fire aroused the city, and for a few seconds there was some trouble in locating the direction from whence the alarm came. Finally the information reached the firemen that the Shoe Factory was afire, and in that direction everybody soon as Capt. Hill, who was at his store when the alarm was sounded, reached home he found that his residence had had a narrow escape. The fire was caused by a lamp being accidentally knocked from an organ, on which a young lady was performing. The lamp broke to pieces and the cil soon caused a considerable blaze, which was smothered by throwing saveral.

Little Red Riding Hood......Miss Nannie Bigby Little Bo-Peep......Miss Retta Breazeale Nic Dramatic Club," We believe they mean business, as they have purchased a splendid set of opera curtains. It has brought forth roars of laughter and appearance of the cil soon caused a considerable blaze, which was smothered by throwing saveral.

The young ladies and gentlemen perspectative and name that brought forth roars of laughter and appearance of the cil soon caused a considerable blaze, which was smothered by throwing saveral.

a "Calico German" at the residence of Gen. Humphreys on to-morrow (Friday) evening. We are indebted to the invitation Committee, which consists of W. M. Webb, P. B. Divver and R. S. McCully, Talcott, the retiring Superintendent, it is said, has paid very little attention to the track, and it is in a very bad condition. The business of the Road is increasing every year, and for the comfort and safety of those who travel over it, we think the old worn out iron rails should be replaced by new ones. We would suggest that the towns along the Road take some action in reference to the matter, and urge Superintendent Dodson to improve the idition of the road-bed

Mrs. V. C. Burdine, wife of Mr. James Burdine, died at her home in Brushy Creek Township last Monday night. She bad been an invalid for more than two years, and at times was a great sufferer. Death, therefore, was a relief to her, and she has gone to her long home to enjoy the rewards of a well spent life. Mrs. Burdine, in early life joined the Baptist Church, and was a most excellent Chris-tian woman. She was highly esteemed by a wide circle of friends and relatives, and her death is deeply regretted. On Tues-day afternoon her remains were laid to rest in the Pisgah Churchyard, Rev. D. W. Hiott conducting the funeral services, in the presence of a large congregation.

The friends of Mr. Frank W. Pickel, of Williamston, will be pleased to hear that he has been elected to the Professorship of Natural Sciences in the Florida State Agricultural and Mechanical College. Prof. Pickel is a graduate of Furman University, and also of the University of University, and also of the University of South Carolina, and was for several sessions in charge of the Department of Physiology, Hygiene and Bacteriology in the latter institution, and Bacteriologist to the South Carolina Agricultural Experiment Station. He is now a student of Biology and Geology in the Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, and will not enter upon the duties of his Professorship until the opening of the College next fall. until the opening of the College next fall. It always gives the INTELLIGENCER pleasuse to hear of the success of an Anderson great misfortune to min.

Mr. T. L. Clinkscales, Jr., of the Craytonville section, sold the remnant of his cotton crop—thirty-five bales—to the Messrs. Geer Bros. at Belton last week.

Mr. Clinkscales is one of Anderson Country. Clinkscales is one of Anderson Country. Clinkscales is one of Anderson Country. The country is a two-story mark of the town. It is a two-story mark of the town. It is a two-story mark of the town. building and used to stand upon the Square, near the old Centennial building, A meeting of the stockholders of our new banking institution, the Anderson Bank, was held last Friday and the following Directors were elected: J. N. Brown, G. F. Tolly, J. A. Brock, J. J. Fretwell, B. F. Mauldin, W. D. Brown, J. M. Sullivan, J. W. Norris and S. Bleckley. The stockholders have done well in the selection of officers.

Square, near the old contact ago, which was torn down a few years ago, which was moved to its present site. In rebuilding it, the workmen made a big mistake, putting the second story on the foundation and then erecting the first story on top. As a consequence the ceiling of the instance of the instance of the upper story. The mistake was not discovered until the building had been completed.

At a meeting of the City Council, held on the evening of 21st inst., it was voted to number the buildings of the city of Au-derson according to the New York sys-tem, dividing the city into four sections, Main, Depot and Whitner Streets being the dividing streets. All streets running East and West to number from Main Street and those running North and South to number from Depot and Whitner Streets, a space of twenty feet being al-loted to each number. All streets will start from No. 1 from the above points and continue the length of street East, West, North or South, as the case may be, odd numbers being placed on East and South sides of streets, even numbers on the West and North. Mr. A. E. French, of Indianapolis, who has just completed the numbering of Spartanburg, will call upon the citizens and each property owner and give them a chance to select the style ored man living in Rock Mills Township, had the misfortune to lose a valuable mule last week from collc.

The Convention was the largest ever held in the State, and the greatest amount of money ever raised for extending the work through the State was subscribed.

The Westminster Banner, of last week, says: "Mr. Charles Sullivan, of the Sullivan of the Sullivan of the State was subscribed.

The Westminster Banner, of last week, says: "Mr. Charles Sullivan, of the Sullivan, of the Sullivan of the Sul

> ing inscription upon it: "Olmstead— 1845." The inscription had been made before the brick had been burned in the kiln, and naturally excited the curiosity of every one who looked at it. Very few of our citizens could remember that far back, and no one was able to tell anything of the inscription. Last Tuesday morn ing, meeting up with our venerable townsman, Mr. J. F. Wilson, who is now the oldest resident citizen of Anderson, and who assisted in erecting the Benson House, we asked him if he remembered the name "Olmstead." Mr. Wilson has a most remarkable memory, and from the information he gave us, Olmstead seems to have been a notorious character. Olmstead came to Anderson from Georgia about 1836, and was a stonemason by frade. He was a sharp, witty fellow, a fine workman, and had a good education. After working around here for several months he married a Miss Moore. Sometime afterward he went over into Greenville County to dress some mill-stones for Georgia. He had not been there long be-fore he attempted to burglarize another store, but was captured, tried and sentenced to the Penitentiary for five years. In the prison he learned the trade of a harness-maker, and, serving his time out, Rev. G. M. Rogers, Colporteur for the saluda Association, called to see us a few assumed name of Thompson and secured days ago, and showed us a number of handsome Bibles and other interesting books which he is selling, and his prices menced, and as a lot of granite was needhandsome Bibles and other interesting books which he is selling, and his prices are very low. He is now travelling and expects to visit every section within the bounds of the Saluda Association before that body meets this Summer. Look out for him, and if you need a good book give him your order.
>
> Thompson, offered his services. Mr. Benson was seeking a stone-mason when Olmstead, alias Thompson, offered his services. Mr. Benson was a harness-maker, he had very little for the high prices and other portions of the building, Mr. Benson was seeking a stone-mason when Olmstead, alias the building the Benson House had commenced, and as a lot of granite was needed of or the hearthstones and other portions of the building, Mr. Benson was seeking a stone-mason when Olmstead, alias the building the Benson House had commenced, and as a lot of granite was needed of or the hearthstones and other portions of the building, Mr. Benson was seeking a stone-mason when Olmstead, alias the building the Benson House had commenced, and as a lot of granite was needed of or the hearthstones and other portions of the building, Mr. Benson was seeking a stone-mason when Olmstead, alias the building the Benson House had commenced, and as a lot of granite was needed of or the hearthstones and other portions of the building, Mr. Benson was seeking a stone-mason when Olmstead, alias the building the Benson House had commenced, and as a lot of granite was needed of or the building, Mr. Benson was seeking a stone-mason when Olmstead, alias the building the Benson House had commenced, and as a lot of granite was needed of or the building, Mr. Benson was seeking a stone-mason when Olmstead, alias the building the Benson House had commenced.

A Pleasant Evening at Belton. In company with our young friend, Walter Geer, we went down to Belton last Friday and had the pleasure of attending of May. Hon. Sen. Terrel, Lecturer of the National Alliance, and President Stokes, of the State Alliance, will attend and address the Council. Other speakers are also expected. The meeting will doubtless be an interesting one. The other County papers in the District are requested to extend this notice.

Walter Geer, we went down to Belton last Friday and had the pleasure of attending an interesting entertainment given that evening by the Belton Music and Dramatic Club, under the management of Miss Lizzie Cornish, in Stringer's Hall. The evening program opened with a charming little operetts, "The Swiss Cot-

The cast was very good, each character being sustained in a most creditable man-After listening to some charming plane

The Giantess...... Two-Headed Girl..

....Miss Idylle Poore Victim—
Mr. Tribble and Miss L, Rice
Miss Stella Mitchell
Miss Maggie Grubbs
Messrs Cox and Acker
Miss Mannie Latimer
Miss Mannie Latimer
Miss Mannie Latimer
Miss Mande Sutherland
Miss Maude Sutherland
Mr. Grubbs
Miss Maude Sutherland
Mr. Grubbs
Mr. Jack Poor, of Abbeville, With Part Scholar Children. We welcome her to Surplus

For further information address or apply The Maniac Miss are Sames Twins Maniac Miss and Acker Stames Twins Maniac Latimer Blue Beard Mr. Grubbs The Dwarf Miss Manie Latimer Blue Beard Mr. Grubbs The Vocalist Miss Maude Sutherland Jack Sprawand Wife—

Mr. Kirkpatrick and Miss Clinkscales Mr. Stringer Mr. Kirkpatrick and Miss Clinkscales Mr. Stringer Mr. Kirkpatrick and Miss Clinkscales Mr. Stringer Mr. Stri

Last Saturday morning, about So'clock, Ed. Anderson, a colored man working on the material train of the Port Royal & Western Carolina Railroad, was shot by

Mr. D. K. Cooley about one mile below Lowndesville. Late in the afternoon the negro died from the effects of the wound, Mr. Cooley is a prominent merchant of Lowndesville, and the affray is deeply reretted by his friends. The Lowndesville correspondent of the News and Courier, under date of the 19th inst., gives the following particulars of the Trial Justice Harden empanelled a jury Trial Justice Harden empanetical a jury last night about 9 o'clock and held an inquest over the body of Ed Anderson. Only two witnesses were examined, Dr. B. A. Henry, and Mr. R. W. Colyer.

The former testified that the deceased came to his death from a gun shot wound in his forehead. The letter testified that in his forehead. The latter testified that he was with Mr. D. K. Cooley, and went with him, at Mr. Cooley's request, to get the deceased. That he did not see Mr. Cooley shoot him, but saw the negro im-mediately after he was shot. As other witnesses had to be examined who were on the service train of the Port Royal and Western Carolina Road, the inquest was continued until Monday, when it will be resumed.

It seems that Ed Anderson was under contract to work for Mr. Berry B. Allen, a partner of Mr. Cooley's, and they had determined to get him and make him fulfil his contract. The negro was employed on the service train, and arrangements were made with the conductor to stop the train and allow Mesers Cooley and Colyanto. and allow Messrs. Cooley and Colyer to get the negro. Cooley saw the negro standing on the steps and called to him to come there, the steps and called to him to come there, the negro replying he would go as soon as he got his coat. Entering the coach to get his coat he ran to the other end, and Mr. Cooley seeing him, pursued him in time to stop him from getting out, so the negro turned and ran back out the car door from where he first started, and as be did as Mr. Cooley who was standing a he did so Mr. Cooley, who was standing a few yards distant, fired his pistol, the ball entering the negro's forehead.

The negro was taken to Mr. Berry B. Allen's and received medical attention. At one time it was thought he was out of danger but the wound proved fatal, and the negro died about 4 o'clock.

Sheriff W. D. Mann was here this morning to arrest Mr. Cooley, but could not find him. The killing is the absorbing topic here and the occurrence is very much regretted. It is the opinion of some that Mr. Cooley will not return and stand his trial, as his whereabouts are unknown, and his friends decline to give or express an opinion on the subject.

Rev. J. A. Clifton, of Greenville, has accepted an invitation to deliver the anniversary address before she Pierlan and Palladian Literary Societies on June 5th.

Rev. L. M. Rice preached at the Baptist Church on last Saturday and Sunday, and Rev. P. B. Connors preached Sunday night. Rev. E. W. Mason preached at the Methodist Church on Sunday, fiternoon.

We hed a heavy rathest Wednesday expressed the fear that it might be the Lord's will to keep her on earth for sev-eral days instead of taking her to himself. She raised twelve children, seven boys and While engaged in tearing down a portion of the old Benson House, Mr. M. B. Jackson, one of the workmen, found a brick in one of the walls with the following inscription upon it: "Olmstead—son, who are living in Texas. Notwithstanding the busy season, a large content of the standing the busy season, a large content of the standing the busy season, a large content of the standing t standing the busy season, a large con-course of friends assembled at her funeral, thus attesting the high esteem in which she

Mrs. C. E. Horton, of William:too, has been spending some time with her daughter, Mrs. Charley Simpson.
Mrs. Sallie McMahan, widow of the late James McMahan, was buried at Good Hope the first Saturday in April. Several grown up children are left to mourn their loss, but they sorrow not as those who have no hope. "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord." Mrs. Sue Sherard has recently comoleted a quilt that contains 8,064 pieces. Miss Essie Cook left Monday for Pine ville, N. C., where she goes to attend a wedding of one of her friends. She will be gone several weeks.

This section was visited by a very light hail storm last Friday night—no damage Mr. Willie Cunningham and children of Lowndesville, spent last Saturday night The farmers are making good use of the time they have had to work, but are still about one month behind. A Sunday school has been organized at A Sunday school has been organized at Poplar Spring school house, and will meet every Sunday afternoon.

Two young men who keep Bachelor's Hall think their house is the rendezyous of ghosts. They say that a ghost—if there be such a thing—has been molesting them so much that they think it would be prudent that they think it would be prudent that they think it would be prudent to the state of t dent to leave the County. One made its appearance the other night and they decided to kill it. One of the boys seized the pistol and went out to kill the annoyer.

When the ghost made a noise the boy shot, not toward it, but toward the house. The ghost is yet alive.

It is now fashionable in the Corner with some of the young ladies to visit their sweetheart, but, perhaps, they think this is leap year. Our School Commissioner, Mr. C. Wardlaw, has at last made his appearance in the Corner. He is visiting all the schools in this Township, and we hope he will be so well pleased with the schools that he will visit them again.

Rev. Calvin Pressly and wife have returned to their habitation after a stay of several days in Due West. Jack frost has killed all the peaches, but the other fruit trees are now in full bloom.

Carswell Institute Items. Since the unusual amount of rainfall in this community, the "long-faced farmers" again show up a familiar expression. We never remember seeing as much plowing done by a horse as is being done in this section at present. While the farmers are considerably behind with their work, for the time of the year, they are up with the season, judging by the growth of the for-

Our section was visited by a considerable hail storm the 10th inst., but did no serious damage.

The Literary Society at this place has also had too much water; but having digested it, we again hope for a boom in the near future. We all feel the need of being more developed in literary work throughout the country. How truthfully it has been said: "What riches lie hidden serious damage. in the vulgar tongue of our poorest and most ignorant, what flowers of paradise lie under our feet, undistinguished and den on." The choir that was organized a year ago has made considerable progress in the ru-diments of music, as well as in singing. Mr. Fleet Banister (a singing master) is our leader, and has given his work gratis for which we return our thanks. We meet every two weeks, and if you don't believe we have good singing, why slip around the corner sometime and listen. Mrs. Jack Poor, of Abbeville, with part undiscerned from having been daily trod-

celled in the country. Give us another one if it suits your convenience, before "Captain Green" comes in power, and I will turn my old breeches wrong side out the original letters or envelopes. Send for price lists and circulars explaining what is wanted. Best references furnished if desired. W. F. LAMBERT, or find a quarter for you.
Our peaches are nearly all killed, Shall we wish for any apples? yes; for "where there is life there is hope." The new postoffice at Mr. Anderson's is now at work, so "John" can mail letters to his girl, who has recently left this community, closer home. The name of the clice is "Alice." Purty Boy.

Obituaries. Died, at Piedmont, S. C., April 14th, 1891, Benford Orena Stephens, daughter of E. B. and Carrie Stephens, aged fourteen rears lacking five days. Though young, Jrena had made a profession of saving faith in Christ, and had united herself with the Methodist Church. She herself with the Methodist Church. She told her pastor and members of her family only a short while before her death she was trusting in Jesus, and was not afraid of death. What a comfort to her bereaved family, she being "dead yet speaketh." She died of that fell disease, consumption. Although everything possible was done for her by kind feineds in sible was done for her by kind friends, in a few short months the disease did its

The writer would like to speak of a fee the writer would like to speak of a lea-ture of the funeral which was specially impressive. After the usual service at the Church, conducted by her pastor, Rev. S. Zimmerman, and the concluding service of the ritual at the grave, and when the mound was finished which marked her last resting place, the pupils of the school of which she was a member, each wearing crepe and carrying a bouquet of flowers, approached and literally covered the grave with their tokens of love and re-spect. I have seen funerals conducted by most of the Societies of our country, but to my mind none were half so impressive May the bereaved family have the com-forting influence of the Holy Spirit. In this, their sad bereavement, they have the sympathy of many friends.

This community was made sad upon receiving the news that Mrs. Rebecca Durham, an old and highly esteemed lady, had passed away at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Hillery Doyle, near Cold Water, Ga., March 27th, after an illness of ten days of pneumonia, at the advanced age of 79 years. Mrs. Durham resided near Andersonville with her son for several years, and upon his moving to Alabama she spent the remainder of her life with her daughter, as above stated. She has many friends in this section who sympathize with her many relatives in their bereavement.

Advocace please copy. Advocace please copy.

A FRIEND. Sunday School Institute. Sunday School Institute.

The next meeting of the Pledmont Baptist Sunday School Institute will be held with the Flat Rock Baptist Church, in Pickens County, commencing on Friday before the first Sunday in May, at 10 a. m. Query: "Is the Institute of any benefit to the Sunday Schools?" We hope all the Schools will be represented.

J. JAMESON, Clerk.

Para-sit-i-clde is guaranteed to cure Itch in 30 minutes or money refunded. Sold by Hill Bros., Anderson, S. C.

Pertinent Questions. We had a heavy rain ast Wednesday night and another Thursday afternoon, but two miles out of town they had none, and the ground is becoming dry and hard.

Several farmers near Honea Path have finished planting cotton, and in some field have nearly a stand.

Mr. J. C. Milford is rejoicing because it is a boy.

W. F. Cox. W. F. Bigby and Mr. T. O.

Have you seen, have you priced Sullivan Hardware Co's. new and tremendous stock of Hardware and Implements, especially their Hoes, Steel Plows, Patent Sweeps, Plow Stocks, Cultivators, Harrows, Cotton Planters, etc.? Surely you are not going it blind, and getting left by failing to post yourself in this simple way. They know the wants of the trade, and we want themselves to satisfy their customs. is a boy.

W. F. Cox, W. F. Bigby and Mr. T. O.

Kirkpatrick were in town last week.

Mr. and Miss Lever, who came up from Columbia with Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Shirley, returned home last Monday.

Mrs Chandler and her little son, who have been spending several weeks with Mrs. Elrod, have returned to their home in Michigan.

in Michigan.

A large party of our young people attended the characes in Belton last Friday night.

Mrs, Elizabeth Kay died at her home near this place on last Saturday night, and was buried from the Broadmouth Church on Monday afternoon, Rev. R. W.

The benefits accruing to poor men from carrying life insurance have recently had at least two striking exemplifications in this county in the deaths of Messrs. De-Witt C. Holcomb and S. B. Brownlee. premium and settlements were promptly made as soon as the necessary papers were made out. Brownlee and Holcomb were both insured in the Mutual Benefit, of Newark, N. J., which is represented in the Fork by G. N. C. Boleman, and in this city by G. W. Miller. This is one of the strongest and most reliable companies, being in its 46th year of existence and have

"Delays are Dangerous."—Every one should promptly attend to this important matter and thereby protect their wives and children, in case of death, from the dreadchildren, in case of death, from the dreatful inconvenience of poverty. Look out for the Agents of the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company, and take a policy without delay. G. W. MILLER,
G. N. C. BOLEMAN,
Agents.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria, When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria, When she had Children, she gave them Castoria, NOTICE!

BEFORE assuring your life, or investing your money, examine the Twenty Year Tontine Policies of the

EQUITABLE Life Assurance Society

OF THE UNITED STATES.

Policies maturing in 1801 realize cash returns to the owners of amounts varying from 120 to 176 per cent. of the money paid in, besides the advantage of the Assurance during the whole period of twenty years. The following is one of the many actual cases maturing this year:

Endowment Policy No. 64,925.

Issued in 1871, at age 27. Amount, $5,000. Premium, $239.90. Total Premiums Paid, $4,798 RESULTS At end of Tontine Period in 1891:

Cash Surrender Value, $8,449.45. (Equal to $176.10 for each $100 paid in premiums, which is equivalent to a return of all premiums pald, with interest at 71 per cent per annum.) Or in lieu of Cash, Paid-up Life Policy for $19,470 (Equal to $405.80 for each $100 paid in premiums.) A Life Annuity of $633.55.

One fact is worth a thousand theories. There is no Assurance extant in any Company which compares with this. The Equitable is the strongest company in the world, and transacts the largest business. JANUARY 1, 1891. ...$119,243,744 95,503,297 Liabilities 1 per cent..

For further information address or apply B. FRANK MAULDIN. Agent, Anderson, S. C.

WANTED!

OLD U. S. and CONFEDERATE POSTAGE STAMPS, Used from 1842 to 1865. Many are very rare, and command high prices when on the original letters or envelopes. Send for Alexandria, Va.

the pretty things,

HIS fact is known to all that Means' $7.50 Suits are the best value for the money ever offered in the City, and that he carries the finest line of Spring and Summer Clothing in Upper Carolina, and take NDER consideration that we sell the latest styles and the best fits that are made by first-class houses, therefore can give you the best goods for the least money. Now

OR a Spring Hat, in Straws and Felts, we are HEADQUARTERS. Our Montana Soft Hat is a thing of beauty, and we will show you all the novelties in young men's Straw Yacht Hats, which are all the go this Spring

OR MEANS is bound to keep nobby goods, and sell them cheap, and please every one that wants a Spring Suit, a Straw Hat, a Patent Leather Pair Shoes, Cheaper than Ever.

MEANS

THE CLOTHIER AND HATTER.

strongest and most reliable companies, being in its 46th year of existence and having 50 millions of assets. It deserves special mention for its prompt settlements, having adjusted Mr. Holcomb's claim within ten days from the time proof was made.

"Delays are Dangerous,"—Every one cheefed are middle assets."

C*F*JONES:CO

ARE READY WITH A MAGNIFICENT STOCK

Those who love Style and Beauty, as they throng our Store daily, exclaim with one accord: "Your Goods are by far the most beautiful and stylish we have seen anywhere !"

SUCH LOVELY DRESS GOODS.

Be sure to see our beautiful French Plaids, Plain and Striped Suitings, Magnificent Robes, Silks, in Chinas, Pongees. Armures, Failles, Whip Cords, Surahs Etc. Black Grenadines, in our own exclusive designs, with a view to cater to the exquisite taste of the Ladies of Anderson County. This stock embraces everything from 10c. to $2.00 per yard. We wish every Lady in Anderson County would do us the favor to call and see what we have. Our Jewel Trimmings to match are superb. Such a stock of Black Goods we have never seen in Anderson. It would take our entire space to mention this line alone, MISS SMITH, of Baltimore, is with us again to serve you the styles in making

WASH COODS SPECIAL.

One Case Indigo Blue Calicoes at 5c, worth 7c. One Case Shirting Prints at 5c, worth 7c. One Case Solid Chambrays and Fancy Ginghams at 73c. Match them elsewhere for less than 10c if you can. Look at our levely Challies, French Ginghams, Persian Mulls, in fancy and solid colors, exquisite designs and new colors. This stock is endless, embracing a very large variety of new novelties in figured wash goods.

WHITE GOODS SUPERB

Black Flouncing, White with Black Polka Dots, White with Red and Blue Embroidery on the Skirt. We have already ordered a second supply. They are too pretty, the Ladies all say. We have everything the heart could wish for in White Goods, from a good Nainsook at 5c to the most beautiful imported Plaids and

MILLINERY OUR PRIDE.

With an experienced Lady in each of the great cities of Baltimore and New York to assist our Mr. Webb, we are prepared to show our Lady friends such a variety of beautiful styles that the most fastidious can be pleased. Our Baltimore styles were gotten up by Miss Vertue, of Baltimore, a lady of exquisite taste and large experience, who has charge of this department. Our New York styles were trimmed by a French Modiste, who imports direct from Paris, and makes a specialty of Pattern Hats, and her styles can be found only at our Store. Hats, Ribbon Flowers, Plumes in endless profusion. Lovely Hats at 25c. This stock has been praised by all for beauty and cheapness. Look at our lovely Hats before you buy. We want you all to see our Pattern Hats—they are perfectly lovely.

SHOES, SHOES.

Good Home Made Shoes, Douglas Shoes better than ever, E. P. Dodge Shoes for Ladies—pretty, nice fitting and reliable in every particular. Fausts and Little would be an ornament to Astor's or Vanderbilt's table.
Giants Shoes for Children, and other reliable Shoes at the closest prices.

And here we would say, come and price our Goods,

Japan and China Mattings, All qualities and prices, bought cheap. Our prices are low.

CLOTHING OUR HOBBY. This part of our insidess has so increased as to induce us to lay in a mammoth made, our fits are grand. If you want to be well dressed, get a Suit of our Tailor Made Goods. A good Boy's Suit for $1.25. A good Wool Man's Suit for $5.00. Young Men, Old Men, Boys and Children, come and see the finest stock of Clothing in Anderson, at prices that will give us the lead in the Clothing business. Comesee for yourselves. BEAUTIFUL NOBBY STRAW HATS FOR ALL.

We invite all to come. Our money, energy and talent has not been spared in securing this tremendous stock—beautiful, fresh, clean new goods, such as will do you good to buy—no trash or old goods. Awaiting the pleasure of showing you all

C. F. JONES & CO.

We are yours, respectfully,

DRESS GOODS

DRESS GOODS,

DRESS GOODS. DRESS GOODS,

> DRESS GOODS, DRESS GOODS,

DRESS GOODS,

DRESS GOODS,

- AND

DRESS TRIMMINGS DRESS TRIMMINGS,:

DRESS TRIMMINGS,

DRESS TRIMMINGS,

DRESS TRIMMINGS, DRESS TRIMMINGS,

Read Every Word!

TO EVERY PURCHASER!

Lesser & Co.

THE PARALYZERS OF PRICES.

WHILE our Mr. A. Lesser was in the Eastern market last week ready cash was quoted at 200 per cent, and it was without difficulty that he purchased Goods at such figures that we can afford to sell them at prices that our windy competitor would be glad to buy them for. We could easily fill this whole Newspaper enumerating the snaps he picked up, but believing "brevity to be the soul of wit," we shall mention just a few prices in each department that will open your eyes, and forever establish the fact that LESSER'S is the Champion of Anderson for LOW PRICES. We accept all challenges, and will forfeit One Hundred Dollars to any charitable institution if it can be proved that our prices, quality considered, are not 25 per cent lower than the lowest in Anderson.

Bought Out of Season. 1000 yards White Goods in Stripesnice and sheer—price 3c. 2000 yards Beautiful Check Nainsook our price 5c. 1500 yards Check Nainsook-regular price 10c-our price 7c.

No Flies on These. 10,000 yards Debege for Dresses—bought way down. Spot Cash tells the tale. Your choice of these at only 5c.

How is This? Three Spools of good Thread, containing 1500 yards, made in France. Our price 5c.

We purchased all of a wholesale house Drummer's samples and you can take your choice for 5c.

Bleaching. Our new brand, "Majinty," equal to any one yard wide, contains no starch, a perfect beauty. Our price only 8c.

good bargains.

Ladies' Wool Dress Goods

Handkerchiefs.

By the million; we can show you some

OUR GRAND SPECIAL GIFT.

To every one who purchases Goods to the amount of THREE DOLLARS we. will present-free of charge-SIX FINE CUT GLASS TUMBLERS, which And here we would say, come and price our Goods, and if you think we are charging more than elsewhere, why then don't buy. We offer this inducement in order to bring trade over on Brick Range. The

OUS SHOE STOCK IS COMPLETE, And this Season we are making

Men's HATS in Fur and Straw are very attractive, and we have bargains Remember our Grand Special Gift. Also bear in mind to comes cost is considerable, and the loss falls on our shoulders.

LESSER & CO.

Boys' and Youths' Clothing a Specialty.

ice our Goods, and if you think they are too high don't buy. Remember the place—on Brick Range, next door to Peoples & Burriss.