Here we would mention a phenomenon that was frequent in religious assemblies about this time: It was what the people called the "jerks." Some kind of emo-tional nervousness would seize the people and jerk them about violently, frequently making a poise like the berking of a dog. and jerk them about violanuy, hequenty making a noise like the barking of a dog. Women who had long hair, nicely arranged, when seized by such an influence, the hair would be torn down and completely diswould be torn down and completely dis-heveled. They would be jerked to and fro with such violence that the hair at times would pop like whips. Members of the best families had them. Elder James Hembree was preaching on one occasion at Mountain Creek. A case of the "jerks" occurred in the congregation. The good brother concluded he would try his apos-tolic authority, and at the top of his voice he said, "I command thee to come out of her." But the good sister jerked on "all the same."

Well, Mr. Editor, I will try to collect my mind together again long enough to give you a few scattering dots, although give you a few scattering dots, although our readers need not expect much of us, since we have been reading Rev. E R. Carswell's prophecy concerning the com-ing of the Messiah. We are meditating on how solemn it will be to hear men, women and children crying, and for the rocks and mountains to fall on us and hide us from the face of God. Neverthe-loss the crone are looking well and the less, the crops are looking well and the people are cheerful, and we hope the farmers will not become alarmed and quit, thinking that they will make enough this year to last until the end of time.

The benefits accruing to poor men from carrying life insurance have recently had at least two striking exemplifications in this county in the deaths of Messrs. De-Witt C, Holcomb and S. B. Brownlee. Encl. of these two had only paid an annua premium and settlements were promptly made as soon as the necessary papers were made out. Mr. Holcomb was insured in the Mutual Benefit, of Newark, N. J., which is represented in the Fork by G. N. C. Boleman, and in this city by G. W. Miller. This is one of the strongest and most reliable companies, be-ing in its 46th year of existence and hav-ing 50 millions of assets. It deserves special mention for its prompt settlements, special mention for its prompt settlements, having adjusted Mr. Holcomb's claim
