Several weeks ago a dog, supposed to be mad, bit a calf in this city. No attention was paid to it until a few days ago when the calf developed symptoms of hydrophobia. It would foam at the mouth and bellow most pitifully, and would attempt to fight any person who would approach it. It lived several days in this condition and last Monday afternoon died. The calf belonged to Mr. Thos. H. Palmer, of this city, who says he has never seen a dumb brute afflicted like it.

Here is a short sermon. It covers many points of conduct, duty and religion. It followed, many defects will be removed, many sins avowed, much peace secured, much goodness done: "The best thing to much goodness done: "The best thing to give to your enemy is forgiveness; to an opponent, tolerance; to a friend, your heart; to a child, good example; to your father, deference; to your mother conduct that will make her proud of you; to your-self, respect; to all men, charity."

School Commissioner Wardlaw deserves much praise for the successful manage-ment of the great body of teachers in our ment of the great body of teachers in our midst last week. It was no easy task to get homes for the pedagogues and to look after their comfort, pleasure, etc., but he was equal to the emergency. Mr. Wardlaw left nothing undone that would tend to enhance the interest of the meeting, and many of the teachers congratulated Anderson County upon having such an energetic, efficient and thoughtful School Commissioner.

Last Saturday we had a pleasant call from Mr. W. L. Chamblee, of Forsyth County, Ga., who, with his wife, is now visiting his old home and the scenes of his boyhood days in this section, and his visit is a source of much pleasure to his relatives and old friends. Mr. Chamblee moved from this County to Georgia about thirty-five years ago, and it has been fif-teen years since he last visited his relatives here. He is a son of James Cham-blee, deceased, and his grandfather settled the place now known as "Rose Hill," and owned a good portion of the land on which Anderson is located.

By the time the hearty congratulations of many friends could be received, dinner many friends could be received, dinner was announced. It was truly a royal wedding feast, and most thoroughly was it enjoyed. That bright, glad day on the Keowee will long be remembered by all who participated in its joys." Mr. Harper is one of our best citizens, and has won for his bride a most excellent lady, whose maiden name was Miss Steele, a daughter of the late Capt. Wm. Steele, of Anderson County. We extend congratulations to the happy pair.

The State Teachers' Association. The State Teachers' Association, which convened here last week, was in every sense a grand success. It was the largest educational assemblage ever convened in the State, and the most interesting and enthusiastic meeting of the State Teachers'

Association ever held. The first meeting was held on Wednesday evening, at which George E. Prince, Esq., made the address of welcome, which was responded to by Superintendent D. B. Johnson, of Columbia. The attendance of the state of th was placed at from 300 to 400. Of course there were a great many more than that number present at each meeting, but they were not all teachers or members of the

The most prominent educators of the State were in attendance. Among them were Dr. J. H. Carlisle, of Wofford College, Rev. B. F. Wilson, of Converse College, Rev. Charles Manly, D. D., of Furman University, Dr. Grier, of Erskine, Maj. James Cummings, of the Citadel, Superintendent D. B. Johnson, of Columbia, Misses Wynne, of Charleston, and Bonham, of Columbia, Mrs. Clara B. Rowell, of Piedmont, Wm. S. Morrison, of Greenville, President H. A. Strode, of Clemson, Superintendent Archer, of Charleston, and ville, President H. A. Strode, of Clemson, Superintendent Archer, of Charleston, and a host of others from all parts of the State.

The program was well arranged, and those upon it did their parts very well, indeed. Gen. McCrady's address was intensely interesting, and demonstrated that South Carolina had not received justice from historians, and that in this State the people have always held the idea that "Education is power," and acting on that idea have fostered the cause. We wish we had space to give his speech in full. In fact, we would be delighted to see all the addresses and papers delivered and read before the Association printed and circulated among the people, and very

J. B. Duffie, Sumter.

Resolutions were unanimously adopted by a rising vote tendering the thanks of the Association to School Commissioner Wardlaw for his untiring zeal, energy and kindness, to whom the success of the meeting was largely due, to our citizens for their liberal hospitality, to the young ladies who added so much to the pleasure of the Association by their sweet music, and to the railroad authorities and press for the courtesies extended.

State ys. A. J. Smith and Charley Smith, charged with assault and batters of a high and aggravated nature:

W. H. G. Eirod, sworn says: He lives in Anderson County near Piercetown; A. J. Smith came to him one bad tried to break into his house a night or two before and vanied him to go with him; I went with him and we met Sion Richardson and made inquiry about a boy, describing him, and Mr. Richardson informed us that the boy was a little ways ahead of us; he overtook some one and took him out of sight; no one called the name of the boy in my presence; when we first started out to hunt for the boy Mr. Smith said the boy's name was John Maynee; when we git in sight of the boy and have not be howed and took him out of sight; no one called the name of the boy him have a been been done to have been been done to have been been done to have been and took him out of sight; no one called the name of the boy Mr. Smith said the boy's name was John Maynee; when we git in sight of the boy in the properties of the boy in the prop

rond he did not seem to be nut; I do not know that the boy was the recipient of those licks; I did not hear the boy say that he prefered the whipping before going to law; when they came back the lash of the whip look frazzled for about an inch; saw nothing else wrong with the whip, and did not notice condition of whip before they went off; I heard the boy was sick, and I went to hunt for him, but could not find him, or hear of him.

W. H. G. ELROD.

Thomas Webb, being sworn, says: That the defendant, Mr. Smith, came to my house and I asked him if he had caught his boy; it was somewhere between the middle and last of last week; and Mr. Smith said that he had caught him; I asked him If he had sent him to Jail, and he replied "no;" he said he had whipped him, giving him between 30 and 35 licks; he told me that he had split the hide on the boy for ten inches: he claimed that the boy was the same that had tried to break into his house.

the boy was the same that had tried to break into his house.

Cross-examined: Says Mr. Smith was good to this boy; told me that he had got him a position with Mr. Warren Martin; he said the boy choss to take the whipping instead of going to Jail; that they had found on his person a coat and vest that he had stolen from Charley Smith, and Mr. Smith thought it would be better than sending him to the Ponitentiary; Mr. Smith seemed, from what I could gather, to have whipped the boy in kindness rather than send him to prison.

Thomas Webe.

C. H. Holcombe, being sworn, says: On Monday morning I went to Mr. John Smith's and went around the store house and saw blood in the foot prints upon the ground in the end of the rows of cultivated land; he said he heard a boy was beat nearly to death.

Cross-examined: Says he did not know whose tracks they were, as there were several about there; the land is a mulatto clay; I do not know what tho field was planted in; do not know whother the growth around the house was larger or smaller than that in the field; cannot tell human blood from a hog's blood; says there had not been any rain to his recollection, up to the time he went there; Mr. Murphy said it was blood.

Re-direct: When the blood drops struck the ground they seemed to separate.

I certify that the foregoing is a true copy of the testimony in the case.

EDITORS INTELLIGENCER: The annual re-union of the Confederate Survivors, Company "F," 24th S. C. Volunteers, was held on the 22nd inst., at Carswell Institute, in this County. A large gathering of friends and invited guests from Anderson, Abbeville and adjoining Counties greeted the survivors of this gallant old Company on the occasion. The arrangements for the accommodation of visitors rated, and seats for the audience comfortably arranged under the oak foliage which beautifies the Institute park. The Young America Cornet Band, of Anderson, furnished the music. Mr. John B. Leverett presided, and opened the meeting with an introductory address appropriate to the occasion. After prayer by the Rev. Thomas Zeigler, Sergeant Jas. W. Sherard called the roll of this Company.

Gen. R. R. Hemphill, of Abbeville, followed in happiest strains, descanting on the late war, but devoted his attention chiefly to the issues of the day, earnestly advocating the Alliance cause generally, and the Sub-treasury in particular.

Mr. James M. Sullivan, of Anderson, was introduced as the last speaker, and as one of the younger generation. His speech touched incidentally upon the events of the war, dwelling mostly upon the present condition of the South—its grievances and future—condemning the present financial system of the Government, and warmly appealing for union within the Democratic ranks. After the speaking came a pic nic din-ner. All present were cordially invited to partake of one of the most bounteous partake of one of the most bountedus feasts we ever saw spread. MESSES EDITORS: From lack of time or something another, perhaps laziness, we have failed to have the privilege of holding a claim over a part of your valuable paper. But if this does not find the thirsty waste basket T guess we will turn up soon.
Shouldn't we be proud? Refreshing rains and a little sunshine occasionally. have caused the crops to stretch consider have caused the crops to stretch considerably. The rain came none to soon for some of the crops we have seen.

Mr. D. J. Craig gets the prize for having the finest corn in this section. Mr. Craig is a thrifty young farmer, as you well know. He gets there when all others are left.

'Squire Hutchinson has just arrived home from his threshing expedition. He reports grain very good, but small.

Watermelons are plentiful in this section, especially under the eaves of the

The peach crop is turing right side up we believe.

Prof. Hamlin's school opened Monday morning, 20th inst. We have not heard the number of pupils going, but we know the efficient teacher is doing a good work.

Miss Bettie Smith resumed her position in the about work of Moltonk Academy. in the school room at Melton's Academy last Monday morning. A large number of pupils have been going, and more expected.

The health of this community is very good at present, but we fear that some-body is going to be sick if they take a few more "baits" of melons, such as we saw more "baits" of melons, such as we saw some one take not long since.

Messrs. J. D. and M. W. Hendricks, of Blount County, Ala., are here visiting relatives. They report health and crops of that part of the country very good.

Mr. Wm. Harper, one of our most popular old, men went to Pickens County a few days ago, and subtracted from the number of widows there one of their most amiable women. He beats most of our young men "all-hollow."

The Sunday School at this place has been, for the last two or three Sundays, very small, owing to the meeting at Trinity that was conducted by Rev. Mr. Cowan. Several more of our people confessed their sins and then professed sanctification. Lebanon is growing better, we think.

A large number of the members of Lebanon went to Hopewell last Sunday, 26th inst., to hear the dedication sermon, which was rendered by the efficient Rev. D. W.

Mr. Lem. Welborn is having a neat dwelling house erected. He says it is nearing completion.

The lakes in Three and Twenty bottoms are becoming a weekly resort for fishermen from all over the County. The boys went seining one evening last week and netted several hundred fish. Among the lot were some very fine ones. The funny part about it was, your humble servant and correspondent was one of those lucky boys.

Turnip patches are being prepared by some of our farmers. Some are going to try the prize seeds this season.

We notice in some parts of this section where hall has damaged the corn crop considerably, but we are happy to say that so far it has not reached us.

Ill treatment towards poor dumb brutes is being practiced in different parts of this section, we notice. Let this be the last of all such animals from such treatment Everybody is talking of going to Fort Hill to witness the laying of the corner stone of the College building. One of the witnesses, I hope, will be your humble correspondent, SINE DIE.

The ninth annual meeting of the Gist Rifles (Company D, Hampton Legion,) Survivors' Association will be held at williamston, S. C., on Friday, 7th August prox., at 11 o'clock, a. m. Business of importance will be before the meeting, and it is expected that all members will

Frank Leslie's Illustrated Newspaper for the week ending August 1st has special attractions for summer readers. One of its striking pictures is entitled "Back at the Old Farm for the Summer;" another depicts "City Folks at a Country Church." This number has a page of character sketches in Washington, drawn by Hamilton; it also illustrates the visit of the Emperor William to London, and has interesting articles on the Weather Bureau and the big trees of California. The leading editorial contribution is from the pen of Miss Mary Proctor, daughter of the late Richard A. Proctor, the eminent astrono-Richard A. Proctor, the eminent astronomer, and has as its subject, "The End of the World."

La Grippe Again. During the epidemic of La Grippe last season Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, proved to be the best remedy. Reports from the many who used it confirm this statement. They were not only quickly relieved, but the disease left no bad after results. We ask you to give this remedy a trial and we guarantee that you will be satisfied with results, or the purchase price will be refunded. It has no equal in La Grippe, or any Throat, Chest or Lung Troubles. Trial any Throat, Chest or Lung Troubles. Trial bottles free at Hill Bros. Drug Store. Large bottles, 50c. and $100.

Wm. Simmons, Postmaster of Idaville, Ind., writes: "Electric Bitters has done more for me than all other medicines combined, for that bad feeling arising from Kidney and Liver trouble." John Leslie, former and stockman of same place. farmer and stockman of same place, says:
"Find Electric Bitters to be the best Kidney and Liver medicine, make me feel like a new man." J. W. Gardner, hardware merchant, same town, says: Electric Bitters is just the thing for a man who is all run down and don't care whather he lives or dies; he found new strength, good appetite, and felt just like he had a new lease on life. Only 50c. a bottle at Hill. Bros. Drugstore.

"I was troubled with Catarrh for over two years. I tried various remedies, and was treated by a number of physicians, but received no benefit until I began to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. A few bottles of this medicine cured me,"—Jesse M. Boggs, Holman's Mills, N. C.

The Sullivan Hardware Co. are doing a rushing business in machinery this season, especially on Smith Cotton Gins, Eric City Iron Works] Engines, De Loach Saw Mills and Thomas Suction Elevators. Within the last two weeks their sales amounted to over $10,000 and are receiving orders every day. The Thomas Suction Elevator, which was patented only shout one year ago, seems to be taking the about one year ago, seems to be taking the lead in this section, and several of them will be put up in Anderson county this fall. If they improve the sample of cotton as much as the manufacturers claim it will prove a great blassing to the formers. as much as the manufacturers chaim to winder prove a great blessing to the farmers, especially at the present price of cotton. As the Sullivan Hardware Co. get their machinery in car load lots they are in a position to soll at less prices than others who sell on a commission. All they ask is a trial.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills are recommended by the best physicians, because they are free from calomel and other injurious drugs, being composed of purely vegeta-ble ingredients. While thorough in their action, they stimulate and strengthen the bowels and secretory organs.

A. L. Welch says he will sell you all the Soft Coal you want for less money than any man on earth.
