Mr. W. C. Haddon, of Due West, is in Mrs. R. S. Hill and her children are vis-

Mr. Tom Alexander, of West Union, was in the city Monday.

William Gaillard, a colored barber of this city, died Monday night. Miss Sallie Ruddock, of Charleston, i Miss Marie and Lula Power, of Due West, are visiting friends here. Mr. C. F. Jones has gone to the North-ern markets to buy his fall goods.

Mr. John M. Hubbard left the first of the week for a trip to some of the Northern cities.

Miss Lucy E. Brown left Tuesday for Salem, N. C., where she goes to enter College.

School Commissioner Wardlaw is in Columbia attending the School Commissioner's Convention. Colored teachers should attend the Institute which begins next Monday at Greely Institute, in this city.

The examination for the Converse scholarship takes place next Monday at the School Commissioner's office. Mrs. J. R. C. Dunn, of the Level Land section, Abbeville County, died Sab-bath morning after a severe and protracted

The best wishes of the INTELLIGENCER for their success go with those of our citizens who leave Anderson to enter business

Mrs. Geo. A. Wagner, and two daughters, and Mrs. H. F. Bremer and family, of Charleston, are visiting their father, Capt. J. C. Keys. Mr. R. S. Hill, Manager, and Miss Sam-uella Brown, principal of the millinery department of the Alliance Store, are in

New York buying goods. Miss Annie Saddler, of Williamston, who has been visiting triends and relatives in Anderson for the last two weeks, re-turned to her home on Saturday last.

A protracted meeting will begin at Flat Rock Baptist Church Friday night. The pastor, Rev. T. H. Garrett, will be assisted by Rev. J. M. Allen, of Greenville.

Every Trustee in the County should be present at the meeting here on Saleday in September. The School Commissioner desires their presence. It will be benefit

Mrs. Della M. Wilson has returned from Tallulah Falls, and with too much energy for rest, bought for herself some mountain land, where she can spend her summer Mrs. Lou Brownlee, of Due West, who has been visiting her son, Mr. 8. D. Brownlee, one of Anderson's successful and substantial men, returned home Tues-Miss Varina Brown has returned from a three months' visit North, accompanied by her friend, Miss Sheldon, of San Fran-cisco, California, who will spend some time in Anderson.

Messrs. M. Brice Clinkscales and J. Harvey Clinkscales, of Abbeville County, were in the city Monday. These gentlemen are prosperous farmers and make what they need at home.

Steam Laundry, has an important notice in this paper. If you want your linen made as immaculate as the falling snow,

Dr. Friers: pastor of the Presbyterian there woul be no preaching in that there would be no preaching in that there would be no preaching in the beautiful that there would be no preaching in the preaching in th represen. ives of the well known Green-ville Mu.c. House, were in the city on Tuesday, and spent a few minutes in our office. An advertisement of the Greenville Music House may be found in our col-

The news was brought to town Monday that on that morning a negro on Mr. I. P. Clinkscales' place had been accidentally killed by his brother. They were fooling with a pistol and it fired with the above result. Mr. Clinkscales lives in Hall

Rev. T. H. Garrett has just returned from Fork Shoals, in Greenville County, where he has been conducting a religious meeting. There were forty-eight bap-tisms, and much interest was manifested

Greenwood is moving in the matter of having a new County made out of that section of country, with the County seat located at that town. The McCormick people want a Court House in their town, too, and say that Mrs. Cyrus H. McCormick has promised to cive $10,000 towards mick has promised to give $10,000 towards building the Court House and $5,000 towards building the Jail, if the people can get the County seat there.

The last School Commissioner of Union The last School Commissioner of Union County, William McGowan, finding he could spend more money than his salary, has been helping himself to some of the public funds to the amount of several hundred dollars. The Comptroller General discovered the shortage, and has reported McGowan to the Governor and reported the case to the judicial authorities. McGowan has made good the amount stolen.

Three years ago Mr. J. T. Holleman came here from Walhalla to take a position with the Sylvester Bleckley Co., holding the position of assistant book-keeper. While here he has been diligent in business and faithful to trusts confided in him. This week he leaves to take a lucrative position with Messrs. Sharp & Ledbetter, a progressive firm at Townville. Anderson regrets to lose Mr. and Mrs. Holleman, but congratulates Townville on securing so good citizens. May he on securing so good citizens. May he

Mr. F. A. Spellman, who has been with the Sylvester Bleckley Company for five or six years, left the first of this week for Abbeville, where he has secured a good Abbeyille, where he has secured a good position. He will buy cotton and keep the books of Heath & Co., a pushing business house which has recently opened a general business in Abbeville. Mr. Spellman has won the reputation here of being a trust-worthy and capable young man, and our Abbeville friends have done well to see wing his services. His friends give in securing his services. His friends give him up with regret. He had been the Chief of our Fire Department for about a year previous to his departure.

It is with pleasure and gratification that we hear that Miss Kate Cornish, known in literary circles as "Kil Courtland," has been offered a position on the editorial staff of the South Carolina edition of "A staff of the South Carolina edition of "A Woman of the Century." This flattering offer comes from a publisher in Buffalo, N. Y. We are sure this publisher has made a good selection in Miss Cornish; and in the preparation of "A Woman of the Century" she will bring to the aid of personal observation and experience the advantages of a broad and finished education. We await with interest the appearance of this work.

Conductor Foster, of the A. & K road, shot a man by the name of Rook at McCormick one day last week. Rook insulted Foster's wife, who was on that train with her husband. Foster brough the presence of his wife and should be was the guilty man. Foster struck Rook over the head with the Conductor then used his was right badly wounded Rook claims that he was not the insulting language. used the insulting language. were arrested at Greenwood a

The beach at Atlantie and some characteristic bits of life and are portrayed in this will issue of Frank Leslie's Weekly. The salso a beautiful picture by Miss Garbavis, of the rocks on the New England coast well worthy of framing. The art of making great guns, the Chicago Exposition, an old house at Guilford, Conn., built in 1839, and amateur photographs make subjects for amateur photographs make subjects for other illustrations. There is also a picture of the late James Russell Lowell. The chief editorial is an interesting article on the "Causes of Russia's Persecution of the

An able divine of this city successfully combated, from his pulpit last Sabbath, the empty theory now finding lodgment in some minds that the millennial period has arrived and that the end of the world is nigh at hand. Some believe that next year will witness this event, others that it will occur about the close of this century, and yet others that 1901 is the time set. Would not all business become paralyzed if the time of the final coming of Christ was known, and would not a famine, with its consequent sufferings and miseries, spread over the land? If the end of all things is at hand in |reality, it has not yet been revealed to any mortal. een revealed to any mortal.

In accordance with the announcement made in these columns, preaching was regularly held in the Episcopal Church at this place from Tuesday, the 18th, through the following Monday. Two services a day were held, and the meetings services a day were held, and the meetings have excited general interest and attracted large audiences. In these services in Grace Church the pastor, the Rev. T. F. Gasden, has had his hands faithfully and ably upheld by the Revs. Edmund N. Joyner, of Columbia, and O. F. Porcher, of Pendleton. These meetings have had the support of Christians of all denominations, and it is hoped that much good has been accomplished.

The teachers of Martin Township are requested to meet at the residence of Col. R. B. A. Robinson, on Saturday, the 29th first, at 2 p. m., for the purpose of getting their school claims signed.

The first bale of new cotton brought to this market this season was raised on the plantation of that splendid farmer, Mr. P. B. Allen, of Starr's Station. Mr. Allen brought it in early Saturday morning and offered it for sale. It was classified and offered it for sale. R. B. A. Robinson, on Saturday, the 29th inst., at 2 p. m., for the purpose of getting their school claims signed.

Married, at the residence of the officiating minister. the Rev. J. H. Stone, of Seneca, Mr. John T. S. Hopkins, of Seneca, and Miss Bettle Dean, daughter of Capt. W. T. Dean, of Deans.

Rev. T. P. Bell, of Richmond, preached in the Baptist Church, at this place, last Sunday. His many friends are always glad to hear him and see him. He is always a welcome visitor to Anderson.

Sunt R. A. Merfield of the Anderson.

B. Allen, of Starr's Station. Mr. Allen brought it in early Saturday morning and officered it for sale. It was classified as strict low middling, and Messrs. Brown Bros. bought it, paying eight cents a pound for it. Mr. Allen is perhaps the largest cotton raiser in the County, and usually brings the first bale of the season to this city, and has sometimes received a fancy price for it, perhaps twice as much as it was worth. It is very evident that Farmer Allen proposes to take a hand in retiring the currency of the country, and will continue to do so. As we understalways a welcome visitor to Anderson.

Sunt R. A. Merfield of the Anderson. ble supply of energy and the determina-tion to make a successful farmer. How well he has succeeded his neighbors know.

John Bagwell, and was married to Susan A. Lee, daughter of Philip Lee, on August 17th, 1851, he having been married just forty years and one day when he died. He had been an exemplary member of the Baptist Church for more than forty years, and was a good Christian, a kind nelghbor, a devoted husband and an affectionate father, and was loved by all who knew him. His grand-father, John Bagwell, served the seven years of the Revolutionary war under Gen. Marion, and others, who commanded the Continental Army in this State, and was in all the principal battles fought in S. C. Matthew Bagwell served four years in the fifty-sixth Georgia Regiment, and was wounded at Baker's Creek, in Mississippi, and surrendered to Gen. Grant on 4th July, 1863. He was about sixty years old, and will be greatly missed by his family and friends.

The History of the Introduction of Means'

H. V. Smith, of the Carolina Telegraph School, at Williamston, was in the city on Saturday last. Mr. Smith had a fine school the last session, and expects to have a better one this. He will have an office in Williamston Female College, and will teach telegraphy to the pupils of that zchool the next session.

Mr. R. S. Hill, Manager, has an advertisement in this paper which calls attention to the fact that he is carrying a large and complete line of shoes, and proposes to fit and please everybody. Read what he says about how to make shoes wear longer, and don't forget his house when you want a pair of shoes.

Reports from various sections of the County indicate that the rains of the last few days have been general. Crops are growing nicely. The cotton is making a great deal of weed, but prospects seem to warrant the conclusion that the yleld will be large. We hear of no rust nor worms, as reported from Mississippi and other sections.

The History of the Introduction of Means' in the Abbeville Press and Eanner from the texcellent writer, Dr. Lathan, in which he recites the history of the introduction of the famous Means grass into the the scellent writer, Dr. Lathan, in the texcellent writer, Dr. Lathan, in the Abbeville Press and Eanner from the tax chollent writer, Dr. Lathan, in the Abbeville Press and Eanner for the introduction of the famous Means grass into that excellent writer, Dr. Lathan, in the tax chellent writer, Dr. Lathan, in the tax chellent writer, Dr. Lathan, in the tax chellent writer, Dr. Lathan, in While passing along the street the other day we heard an old negro arguing thus to a few attentive hearers: "De reason why de nigger ain't no count is ferbecause he pends too much on de white folks fer to make him a livin'. If dey wuz driv out and told to root fer deyselyes er die, dey would make a living jes same lack white folks." Philosophy or sophistry?

Case and is reasing in the metter of had to keep a mule was to cut an armful of Means' grass for it.

We once knew of a gentleman who was so pleased with the wire grass when he first saw it that he concluded to secure a few roots of it and set it out in a box in his garden—thinking it would make an ornamental grass. Ever since then he has had plenty of roots to spare to his neighbors, and realized more than ever that by "the sweat of thy brow" shalt thou have a good garden.

Ry-the-way, a neighbor once told us he knew of one way, and one way only, to successfully get rid of nut grass. When we asked how, he said, "move away from it."

J. Mack King has accepted a position as salesman for the R. A. Lewis Company.

Beattie Gossett, formerly with the R. A. Lewis Company, will in the future be connected with the establishment of Gossett Bros., at Anderson.

B. F. Carpenter is again mingling with friends here, after an extended absence in North Carolina.

The Baptist revival closed Saturday with five accessions to the Church membership, two by letter and three by profession of faith. The rite of baptism will be observed the first Sunday in September. so pleased with the wire grass when he first saw it that he concluded to secure a away from it."

Dr. Lathan promises more informa-Dr. Lathan promises more information on the Means' grass. We will try to reproduce it. The history of the coming of this tyrannical foreigner to this "land of this tyrannical foreigner to this "land Messrs, Jas. W. Poore and John T.

reproduce it. The history of the coming of the was made good the amount stolen.

President John' I. Cleland and Prof. D. M. Frierson, of the Clinton Presbyte-rian College, have been in town a few days and fayored us with a call. The Clinton College is last establishing the reputation of a fine educational institution. Prof. Frierson is a native of Anderson. Fairfield County Sc., cent to some repoints of the Clinton Gazetts.

The Dick Allen, who has been with Mr. B. Hill for a long time, went to Atlanta last week to see the sights of the hastling "Gate City" of the South. Dick thought of going west, but has decided to stay in Anderson. Had Horace Greely known at the said and the grass did well, attaining the enormous height to seed of a producing an abundant crop of advising the, young man go South," instead of a troguing the month of advising the, young man go South," instead of a droguing men to try their for inner in the wild and woolly West.

The Dick all and woolly West.

The history of the coming of the first and sound of the first of the wind the work of the opportunities of the first of the wind and probably in the western portion of fairlied County, S. C., sent to some repair of country bordering on the Baltic sea for some barley seed of a peculiar variety. When the seed was received it was discovered that there were in it some seed of a strange appearance. These seed were planted by Mr. Means in his seat week to see the sights of the hustling date City" of the South. Dick thought in the month of the corporation's business.

The popular variety of the control of the first of the western portion of the first was discovered that there were in it some seed of a strange appearance. These seed were planted by Mr. Means in his breatiful Southland he would have said, Mr. Means thought he had because the work of the opportunities offered a young man in this beautiful Southland he would have said, Mr. Means thought he had found a troguing the portion of advising the young man go South," instead of seed. Mr. Mean year's growth was carefully sayed and at ask the weather bureau for a cessation of the proper time sown. These germi-nated and produced an abundant crop. In about three years the grass took pos session of the garden, rooting out every-thing else. To get rid of it Mr. Means had it dug up and carried out and thrown on a hill side hoping that he was rid of his pet. But to his astonishment and bitter regrot every root left in the garden sent up a stalk, and those thrown on the hill side grew, and the seed was washed by the rains down into the bottoms, and in a few years the whole plantation and all the plantations in the neighborhood were polluted with the grass. The name Means was given to the grass in honor or otherwise, of him who accidentally "Means's grass was introduced into the western portion of York County by Jas. A. Black. I do not know how it got into Abbeville County. From Abbeville County it was taken to Alabama by a gentleman by the name of Johnson, where it is called Johnson's grass."

Recently there was erected in this city a two story house, containing six or seven rooms, and common rumor said the house was built for the use of a number of wocome here from other places.

The investigations of the police at various times in the past month or two have verified this rumor beyond question.

When the character of the place became notoriously known, the City Council adopted an ordinance making it a misdemeanor to keep such a house or to be found on the premises.

on the premises.

On last Thursday Emma Clark, keeper of the house, was tried in the Mayor's Court for keeping a house of the character forbidden by the ordinance. She was represented by E. B. Murray, Esq., and the city by Geo. E. Prince, Esq.

After a legal fight as to the constitutionality of the ordinance, the defendant was found guilty and sentenced to pay a fine of $10 or go to iail. $10 or go to jail. An appeal was entered from the Mayor's decision as to the constitutionality of the ordinance, but the Council sustained the decision at a hearing on Monday evening. An appeal will be made to the higher A new ordinance, which is printed in this issue, has supplanted the old one, and it is hoped this one will meet the needs of

In their efforts to abate this nuisance In their efforts to abate this nuisance and preserve the morality of the city, in so far as they can, the Council deserve the hearty support of every citizen of this place. So rank an evil will receive the unqualified condemnation of every right thinking man and woman in Anderson, and the Council will have won well-merited approbation if they will persevere to success in their determination to suppress effectively this dangerous and destructive establishment.

On next Monday will begin a series of changes in the location of the places of bus-iness of a number of firms in this city. So many changes have never before taken place here in so short a time.

On that day Mr. R. S. Hill will move the Alliance business into his new store on the west side of South Main Street. This store will be No. 3 from the corner of the Square, the first being occupied by Messrs. Orr & Sloan and the second by the Enterprise Furniture Company. This new store is an elegant one, and is like lo many changes have never before taken new store is an elegant one, and is like the city of Washington in that it will be remarkable for its magnificent distances. Mr. Hill proposes to do more business than ever when he gets settled in his new quarters.

Mr. A. G. Means, who keeps one of the best stocks of gents' furnishing goods in the up-country, will move down a few doors from his present stand and occupy the room in the Masonic Temple formerly used as the hardware and grocery room of the Alliance Store. At this new place pared than ever to sell their customers what they want. Lesser & Co. have been telling the read-

Lesser & Co. have been telling the readers of the INTELLIGENCER, through the advertising columns, for some time that "on the first day of September we will move into the large and spacious store room now occupied by R. S. Hill on Broadway." This room is also in the Masonic Temple. Lesser & Co. have been selling goods cheap to make moving easy, but will keep up their usual big stock in their new place of business.

Messrs. E. W. Brown & Sons will move up from their present store-rooms and take possession of the room vacated by Mr. Means. This is a firm of young men that drive their business steadily forward, and while they will have only one room at their new place, they will have an upstairs, which will enable them to do the same volume of business as formerly. Everybody knows that this firm handles only first-class goods, and that you can Everybody knows that this firm handles only first-class goods, and that you can get whatever you want from them, whether in the dry goods or grocery line.

Mr. W. A. Chapman will transfer his stock of goods to one of the rooms vacated by E. W. Brown & Sons. His friends will find him there, ready to serve them, and the property of the contraction of the contraction of the contraction.

and, if you will notice, his advertisement says, "Don't forget the bargains at Chapman's." Keep that in mind.

Mr. W. F. Barr will hereafter be found in the lower room vacated by E. W. Brown & Sons, and his customers will find him just as well prepared to let them have what they want in his new store as he was while on Granite Row.

Messrs. Cunningham Bros. have rented the new store, which will be No. 4, on the

the new store, which will be No. 4, on the west side of South Main Street. These gentlemen have needed more room for gentlemen have needed more room for sometime, as their trade requires them to keep on hand a heavy stock of goods. They keep a complete stock of hardware, and in their new quarters they will be able to do this with less crowding.

Mr. O. B. VanWyck will move into the room now occupied by Mr. A. B. Towers. Mr. VanWyck says a "man has to get a hustle on him to make money these days," and all observers can see that he is accordingly "hustling," and will doubtless "get there." Mr. VanWyck proposes to start in his new store with a "bran new stock" of goods.

goods.

At his new place of business Mr.
Towers will continue to dispose of his stock of goods preparatory to entering into other lines of business. He has not yet determined where he will go.

Mr. C. S. Minor will be found at the same old stand, but as his present room is no longer laying enough to accommodate. no longer large enough to accommodate him, he will also occupy the new room being built next door to him towards the quare.

Quite a number of new firms will go into business here this fall. So far we have been able to learn of the following:

Mr. Walter W. White will occupy storeroom No. 16, North Main Street, where he will be ready to serve the trade with a good stock of staple and fancy groceries.

Messrs. A. Evins Brown and E. G. Fant have rented the store-room No. 5 on west. have rented the store-room No. 5 on west side of South Main Street and will keep on hand a stock of novelties.

Messrs. Gossett Bros. will keep a stock of shoes in store-room No. 2 on the Chiquola block.

Mr. D. A. Ledbetter, formerly of the Mr. D. A. Ledoetter, formerly of the firm of Sharpe & Ledbetter, of Townville, has bought an interest in the wholesale and retail grocery business of Mr. R. S. Ligon, and the style of this firm igon & Ledbetter. These gentlemen be depended on to give you anything you matter in their line.

Misses Lillian Murrah and Corrie Poore,

Sam Barmore, colored, was arrested here Saturday for complicity in a recent burglary in Columbia, where he will be taken for trial. Barmore was a resident of this vicinity until his incarceration in the Penitentiary for larceny two or three years

I pen you a few items from the banner neighborhood of the banner County of South Carolina.

Mr. T. S. Glenn, of this place, and Messrs. Simpson and W. D. Glenn, of Liberty, recently returned from Glenn Springs. The latter says he paid ten dollars a pound for his gain. Don't consider yourself out anything, dear Will, for your best girl thinks you are worth more than that "hog-'round." The gentlemen seem to be improved in health. On yesterday, in Slabtown Presbyterian Church, a very large audience listened to an impressive sermon from Rev. Dr. Mc-Bryde, formerly of this State, but lately from Texas. The Doctor is an earnest zealous advocate of his Master's cause, and made a lasting impression upon those who were so fortunate as to hear him. The Church at this place has secured his servi-ces for the fourth and the fifth Sunday of every month.

The School conducted in the new Academy has an enrollment of sixty pupils.

May He who loved the little children so much direct the teacher in his work of A Little Girl's Experience In A Light-appearance about the commencement of the next campaign; others think they are too dead for that. "County Fathers, come back to us and see the condition of the use of two and a half bottles, was comyour roads, for they contain everything to make up a disaster. A physician, and we have but one, has worn his buygy cushion threadbare slipping from one side to the other; but that is his fault, for he ought to have a partner. He is forced to order a compound spring buggy to save things, for he has no one to do his patching. This is his fault, too. He is quoted as saying that he has to pack his cathartic pills in lint to keep the rough roads from shaking the sugar off. The Doctor never makes a statemont unless something reminds him that he ought to do so. Slabbown bridge has ten or twelve feet of its floor covered three or four inches deep in mud which never gets dry. In some parts of the country this sort of thing will rot plank. This bridge was erected with the people's money at a cost of twelve to fifteen hundred dollars, and the servants, the paid servants, of the county ought to enforce the law. Besides, there is a sleeper gone; but we suppose it has gone off with the other "County Sleepers." If things don't turn about it will be back electioneering at the next campaign, and the ticket it will support has not been before the public up to this writing. to have a partner. He is forced to order a

Bishop's Branch Items. Rev. L. T. Weldon will begin a series meetings at Corinth Baptist Church, on Sunday, 30th inst., which will continue about a week. Mr. Whitt White has been very sick Mr. Whitt White has been very sick, but we are glad to say is convalescing.

We hear that Mr. Robert Gillespie, from near Pickens Court House, has purchased the old home place of his father, Mr. A. W. Gillespie and will move into the community. We extend you a cordial welcome, friend Robert.

We can boast of as good a community as there is in the County or State. Our educational facilities are good, Churches and Sunday Schools are convenient, and our people are moral, peaceful, sober and upright. We don't know of a drunkard in the neighborhood, and but a few who make it a practice to use profane language.

in the neighborhood, and but a few who make it a practice to use profane language. We have some as good farmers as there are in the country, and so we feel like saying three cheers for "Possum Corner."

Your humble correspondent had the pleasure of attending the County Sunday School convention (Inter denominational,) at Sandy Springs, 21st inst., and had a splendid time. We had good speeches, and we like to have said a better dinner, but we won't, as we want to give the speakers justice as well as our host, though we will say that we had good speeches, a good dinner, a good rain, and a good time generally. We feel in reference to our visit to Sandy Springs like the old Constable, who wasent the wisest man in

Who's name we havn't yet written, But as he wants it mentioned very bad, We'll call him Mr. Whitten. Of course we're not guessing what we say

In regard to the gentleman's wishes, For at a working the other day, He expressed them by the bushel. He said of all the great things he'd done, He never yet had seen, His name in the New York Sun, Or any other paper been.

When he thus expressed himself He began to enlist our sympathy, And we did look to the right and left, To see of what things he was worthy. At last we did decide,

That he's one of our best farmers,
For he always runs his rows quite wide,
And keeps cleaned out his fence corners If he'll just stay in the run,

And always try to persevere, He may not get his name in the N. Y. Sun, But he will in the Anderson Intelli-

Chronicles of the Kingdom Crops in the Kingdom were never betcently, the last one falling last night.

This will be sufficient for the present crop.
Fodder pulling is now in order, and if the weather is fair this week a great deal of fodder will be saved.

The health of the community is only tolerable. There is a good deal of com-plaint of colds, catarrh, &c.

There is considerable improvement go-ing on. A nice new house has been put upon the same spot where one occupied by Frank Harper, colored, was burned some six weeks ago. T. T. Wakefield has made a considerable addition to his dwelling. L. H. Welborn has completed his fine new house. It is indeed a thing of beauty. W. H. Hunnicut has given his house a new cover, changing it from a high roof to a square cone.

A rumor has been in circulation that Dr. Duckworth was going to leave the Kingdom and locate at Pendleton. The news caused a good deal of feeling and regret among his numerous friends and patrons. I interviewed the Doctor in re-ons. I interviewed the Doctor in regard to the rumor, and he authorizes me to say that it is all a mistake, and that he will remain with us. This will give a ray of sunshine in every household in the Kingdom.

Mr. A. T. Pressley, we are glad to learn, will not leave us, but remain in the will not leave us, but remain in the Kingdom next year.

There is a great deal of visiting going on in our section. Mrs. Mat. Hutchinson has been visiting her many old friends in this section. She left for her home in Elberton, Ga, on Friday last.

Mr. Editor, please notify the police that if they see a thief passing through town with an old flour barrel filled with manure to stop the thief and save the ma-

Misses Lillian Murrah and Corrie Poore, of Anderson, spent a day or two with Belton friends last week.

Mrs. R. E. Walker and little son, of Jesup, Ga., are visiting the former's sister, Mrs. J. T. Smith.

Misses Jessie and Kate Sharpe, of North Carolina, are visiting the family of Maj. I. C. Williams.

J. Mack King has accepted a position as salesman for the R. A. Lewis Company.

Beattle Gossett, formerly with the R. A. Lewis Company, will in the future be connected with the establishment of Gossett Bros., at Anderson.

B. F. Carpenter is again mingling with friends here, after an extended absence in North Carolina.

Misses Lillian Murrah and Corrie Poore, of Anderson, of Anderson, of Mith an old flour barrel filled with manure to stop the thief and save the manure—it is nine. I bought it from George Taylor, who had collected it by cleaning off Dock Watson's shop-yard, and before I could get it removed some one stole it. I will pay as a reward three quarts of gubers for the apprehension of the thief, with proof sufficient to convict.

We are sorry to give up "Boss," who is preparing to move to Anderson. He leaves a good opening for some enterprising merchant. This is one of the best country stands in Anderson County, and we hope some good man will take hold of the situation.

Luther took his best yal to Six-and-Twenty yesterday. Don't know who she Luther took his best gal to Six-and-Twenty yesterday. Don't know who she was, but she was pretty enough to have a pretty name. Just keep on continuing, Luther, that is the way I got my start, and I would not mind to start again. I proposed to start with an old gal not long since, but she said she thought I was experanuated. I did not know what that meant, and as soon as I got home I flew to Webster for information and consolation.

Having advised with some of the brethen, I have been led to think it best to postpone the meeting of the Sunday School Union of the 30th that, to the fifth Sunday in November next. W. B. HAWKINS, President.

Mrs. Clara Jeukins, wife of Mr. Green Jenkins, departed this life Friday, Appust 21st, at her home in Centerville Tow Anderson County. She was a suff nearly two months with lung trouble bore her affliction with Christian forti There was not a complaint made, died as easy as one going to slee time of her death she was years old, and had for twe been a faithful and consist the Bastist Church. the Baptist Church.

Obltuary.

and nine children, the youngest, an infant of five months, and a host of relatives and friends to mourn her loss, though not like those who have no hope.

The funeral services were conducted at St. Paul Church, of which she was a member, by the pastor, Rev. E. V. Gassaway, assisted by Rev. C. R. Brown, of the M. E. Church. Many friends were present to show their last tribute of respect to the remains of the deceased sister. She was interred in the city cemetery.

carrying light into the darkness of the mind.

The Democrats of this Township are anxious to learn the whereabouts of their servants, the County Commissioners. It is thought by some that they will put in an appearance about the commencement of the control of the Gov. Lighthouse at Sand Beach, Mich., and are blessed with a daughter, four years old. Last April she was taken down with Meesles, followed with a dreadful Cough and turning into a Fever. Documents of the commencement of th the use of two and a half bottles, was completely cured. They say Dr. King's New Discovery is worth its weight in gold, yet you may get a trial bottle free at Hill Bros. Drugstore.

ca'nt sleep, can't think, can't do anything to your satisfaction, and you wonder what ails you. You should heed the warning, you are taking the first step into Nervous Prostration. You need a Nerve Tonic and in Electric Bitters you will find the exact remedy for restoring your nervous system tolits normal, healthy condition. Surprising results follow the use of this great Nerve Tonic and Alterative. Your appetite re-turns, good digestion is restored, and the Liver and Kidneys resume healthy action. Try a bottle. Price 50c. at Hill Bros.

Sullivan Hardware Co. have on hand three Second Hand Engines, Six to Eight three Second Hand Engines, Six to Eight Horse Power, fully guaranteed in firstclass condition, which they are offering at a sacrifice. Now is the time to secure a bargain, as it is hardly possible for these Engines to remain unsold long at the prices at which they are offered.
Furthermore, they have a dozen complete Saw Mills, suitable for 4 to 25 Horse power, which they are anxious to sell, and on which they offer Special Inducements.

First-class Livery Stable to rent. Apply to A. L. Welch, Anderson, S. C. 7-4 If you want a cotton gin which will bring you custom and make a fine sample, buy the Hall Self-Feeding Cotton Gin, which is superior to all others. Cotton ginned on it will bring from one-eighth to one-fourth of a cent mcre than on any other. Cane Mills and Evaporators cheaper than you can buy from the Manufacturer. A specialty in smoke stacks. We are well fixed for making any length you may want at low figures. any length you may want at low figures.
Fruit Jars cheap. We are regular crockery and glass dealers and can save you money. Call and get our prices. Yours, very truly, PEOPLES & BURRISS.

When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria When she had Children, she gave them Castoria

SCHOOL For Young Ladies, Girls, And Small Boys.

MISS MAGGIE EVANS, Principal-MISS LUCILLE NARDIN, Assistant n Literary Department.
MISS VIRGINIA EVANS, Instructor n Piano, Organ and Harmony. Careful instruction in all English branch es. Latin, French and German taught without extra charge. First Term begins Tuesday, September 1, 1891. Good board can be secured in private families. For further particulars apply to WOFFORD COLLEGE. Spartanburg, S. C. JAS. H. CARLISLE, LL.D., President.

Founded 1851. WOFFORD COLLEGE offers to stu-Work of the four college classes two parallel courses of study, each leading to the degree of Bachelor of Arts, in one of which Modern Languages are substituted which modern Languages are substituted for Greek.

EXPENSES—Board, tuition, matriculation, washing, lights, fuel, books and stationery, the necessary College expenses for the year, can be met with One Hundred and Fifty Dollars. The advantages offered by Wightman and Alumni Halls, enable stretches to meet their college expenses. students to meet their college expenses with this very small amount. The next session begins the 1st day of October, 1891, J. A. GAMEWELL, Secretary of Faculty.

WOFFORD COLLEGE FITTING SCHOOL, SPARTANBURG, S. C. The Fourth Session begins October 1st, 1891. Boys prepared for College. Expenses may be covered by $150 a year. Supervision careful and constant.

A. G. REMBERT, A. M.,

Head Master.

Aug 20, 1891 7 2*

BELTON HIGH SCHOOL. BELTON, S. C.

MALE AND FEMALE. HE next session of this School will

The next session of this school will commence Tuesday, September 1st, 1891, and continue for nine scholastic months, there being a short vacation during Christmas holidays.

When a pupil's name has been enrolled, he will be considered as entered for the session, and there will be no deduction for the session, and there will be no deduction for the session. absence, except in case of sickness pro-tracted for a week or more, or by special arrangement with the Principal. In case of sickness there will be a deduction for absence in excess of one week.

Pupils may enter the School at any time, but we much prefer their enrollment at the beginning of the session. BATES OF TUITION PER MONTH. Primary Department..... ntermediate Department .. J. T. SMITH, Principal. MRS. J. T. SMITH, Assistant.

BUSTED!

July 23, 1891

CLEMSON COLLEGE.

OT much—she is all right, and so is that BEAUTIFUL FARM adjoining it, next to Pendleton, now for Rent or Sale by Tribble & Quattlebaum. Contains 170. acres, more or less—one-half in cultiva-tion. Also, 120 acres nearer Pendleton. Both near enough to send your boys to Clemson and your girls to Pendleton. Terms reasonable. Apply to TRIBBLE & QUATTLEBAUM, Real Estate Agents, Anderson, S. C. July 23, 1891 3 3m

HICH SCHOOL. NEXT Session begins Monday, August 31st, 1891. Separate boarding houses

EXPENSES PER FOUR WEEKS.

HONEA PATH

TUITION, Primary...... Intermediate.. ..... 2 00 Pupils will be charged tuition from time of matriculation to close of session, except by special agreement. For further partic-ulars apply for catalogue to J. B. WATKINS, Principal.

Big Closing Out

Sale This

Week

Of

Clothing, Shoes,

Hats

And Gents'

Furnishing

Goods

FOR CASH.

A. C. MEANS. JR.

MR. EDITOR:

WILL you allow us to say to the Ladies of the City and Country that we do not consider it burdensome to wait upon or show them Goods before or after closing time, in carriages and buggies, in front f Store or inside upon our counters. We have polite and accommodating Clerks, who will take pleasure in waiting on the Ladies, and do everything in their power to please and accommodate the trade. We want the Ladies to feel that nothing is trouble to us when we can accommodate a custo-

We keep our Store stocked with nice, pretty, reliable Gools to sell to the Ladies, and always feel complimented when they do us the honor to call on us and give us the opportunity to display

We are putting the knile to prices in our various Departments to close out seasonable Goods. We can offer Bargains that will insure sales if you will give us a call.

Just received, some Panice WASH GOODS just out. Shontong Pangees, Battister Princesa, Pine Apple Tissues and quite a line of other brands. Extending a cordial invitation to all,

C. F. JONES & CO.

1 2 2 2 2 1 1 Bit 1

GREAT DRIVES.

JONES, SEYDT

WILL OFFER DURING THE SUMMER MONTHS

Great Drives in Dress Goods,

Great Drives in Dress Trimmings,

Great Drives in White Check Muslins, Great Drives in Colored Lawns, Great Drives in Millinery.

Great Drives in Mull Caps.

Great Drives in Fancy Ginghams. Great Drives in Parasols.

Great Drives in Lace Curtains.

Great Drives in Summer Cassimeres, Great Drives in Gents' Hats.

Great Drives in Shoes, Great Drives in Slippers,

Great Drives in Mattings. Great Drives in Carpets.

GREAT BARGAIN

And in fact you can get a

In every Department at

JONES, SEYBT & CO

MOVING PRICES!

SELLING OUT TO REDUCE STOCK!

READ OUR BARGAINS!

N THE FIRST DAY OF SEPTEMBER we will move into the large and spacious Store Room now occupied by R. S. Hill on Broadway. We have too many Goods on hand for this season of the year, and in order to save the expense of #### moving them we have decided to make-PRICES EXTRAORDINARILY LOW!

One lot of Shirting Prints......52c One lot of Navy Blue Wool Bunting, former price 20c...... 8c One lot of good Cottonades, former price 18c......10c One lot of White Flouncing, 45 inches wide, former price 50c......38c One lot of Ladies' Fast Black Hose, former price 15c..... One lot of Purse Silk Black Mitts, former price 50c.....

We have too many Men's Straw Hats, and in order to reduce we have made one price on all-your choice for 35c.

Shoes and Slippers for All, At prices that defy competition.

GENTS' SHIRTS, CRAVATS AND FURNISHINGS, All at prices that will compel the most fastidious to buy.

Lovely Laces, Belts, Dress Fabrics, Fans, Perfumes, Parasols, Embroidery.

Remember the place-BRICK RANGE.

Remember, we are selling out in order to move.

LESSER & CO

HATS! HATS!

We have a large stock of Gents' fine and medium PANTS that we will offer fully 50 per cent lower than can be purchased elsewhere.

Ladies, don't forget our-

Combs. Brushes.

Ladies calling in Carriages in front of our Store will receive prompt an